

THE CEYLON GOVERNMENT GAZETTE

EXTRAORDINARY

No. 9,374 — SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1945.

Published by Authority.

PART I.—GENERAL.

(Separate paging is given to each Part in order that it may be filed separately.)

GOVERNMENT NOTIFICATIONS.

L. D.—CF. 46/43.

THE DEFENCE (MISCELLANEOUS) REGULATIONS.

ORDER made by the Governor by virtue of the powers vested in him by regulation 43B (6) of the Defence (Miscellaneous) Regulations.

By His Excellency's command,

H. A. C. DOBBS,
Acting Secretary to the Governor.

Colombo, 22nd February, 1945.

Order.

The Essential Work (Maintenance of Production) Order, 1943, published in Gazette No. 9,248 of March 18, 1944, as amended by any subsequent Order, is hereby further amended in the Schedule thereto, by the addition, immediately after item 4, of the following new items, each of the entries comprised therein being inserted in the appropriate column of the Schedule:—

- | | | | |
|------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| " 5. February 27, 1945 | (a) The manufacture and supply of coconut oil, other edible oils or cattle cake, intended for use in His Majesty's Service | All workers of the following classes:—
Pressmen
Attendants of rollers, expellers, disintegrators, pumps and other machines used in the process of oil milling
Filtermen
Motor-room attendants and mill-fitters
Boiler firemen
General workers employed in stripping mats, or in handling poonac or sediment
Oilers | The Controller of Labour and each Deputy and Assistant Controller of Labour, and Mr. B. V. Ratnayake, Inspector of Labour, Mr. S. Velauthapillai, Inspector of Labour, Mr. I. Fernando, Inspector of Labour, and Mr. N. T. Ramanathan, Inspector of Labour |
| | (b) The milling of wheat, or other cereals, intended for use in His Majesty's Service | All workers of the following classes:—
Mill attendants and machine cleaners
General workers employed in packing, weighing and handling various products of the mill | |
| | (c) The manufacture and repair of different types of steel drums necessary for the storage of oil intended for use in His Majesty's Service | All workers of the following classes:—
Operators working machines used for the manufacture of steel drums, and various parts of such drums
Solderers, electric and oxygen welders
General workers transporting sheets, drums and parts of such sheets or drums | |

- | | | | |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| (d) The storage and shipment of oil intended for use in His Majesty's Service | All workers of the following classes :—
Workers engaged in the filling, packing, marking and handling of drums and in the shipment of bulk oil
Workers engaged in the handling, weighing and pumping of purchased oil
Workers engaged in the cleaning of empty drums | | |
| (e) Manufacture of soaps, disinfectants or refined oils, intended for use in His Majesty's Service | All workers of the following classes :—
Soap boilermen, soap makers and assistants
Workers engaged in handling, cutting, stamping and packing soap and box-makers
Machine and plant attendants
General workers handling materials used in the manufacture of soap, refined oils and disinfectants
General workers engaged in the cleaning and maintenance of plants | | |
| (f) The transport of oils, soaps or disinfectants, intended for use in His Majesty's Service, and the care of vehicles employed in such transport | All workers of the following classes :—
Drivers of steam and petrol driven vehicles
Boiler firemen.
Cleaners and general workers | | |
| (g) The repair of machinery, plant or buildings, used for any essential work specified in the preceding paragraphs of this item | All workers of the following classes :—
Fitters
Machine tool operators
Assistants of fitters and machine operators and general workers
Blacksmiths
Tinkers
Welders
Carpenters
Storekeepers | | |
| 6. February 27, 1945 | The manufacture of coconut poonac, intended to be supplied to dealers authorised by the Controller or Deputy Controller of Animal Foods, for distribution to the public | All workers of the following classes :—
Pressmen
Attendants of rollers, expellers, disintegrators, pumps and other machines used in the process of oil milling
Filtermen
Motor-room attendants and mill-fitters
Boiler firemen
General workers employed in stripping mats, or in handling poonac or sediment
Oilers | The Controller of Labour and each Deputy and Assistant Controller of Labour, and Mr. B. V. Ratnayake, Inspector of Labour, Mr. S. Velauthapillai, Inspector of Labour, Mr. I. Fernando, Inspector of Labour, and Mr. N. T. Ramanathan, Inspector of Labour |
| 7. February 27, 1945 | The milling of wheat, or other cereals, intended to be supplied to the Civil Defence Commissioner's Department, for distribution to the public | All workers of the following classes :—
Mill attendants and machine cleaners
General workers employed in packing, weighing and handling various products of the mill | The Controller of Labour and each Deputy and Assistant Controller of Labour, and Mr. B. V. Ratnayake, Inspector of Labour, Mr. S. Velauthapillai, Inspector of Labour, Mr. I. Fernando, Inspector of Labour, and Mr. N. T. Ramanathan, Inspector of Labour " |