THE EMERGENCY POWERS (DEFENCE) ACTS,
1939 AND 1940.

DEFENCE regulation made by the Governor by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Emergency Powers (Defence) Acts, 1939 and 1940, of the Imperial Parliament, as adapted, modified and extended to Ceylon by the Emergency Powers (Colonial Defence) Order in Council, 1939, and the Emergency Powers (Colonial Defence) (Amendment) Order in Council, 1940.

By His Excellency's command,

J. A. MULHALL,

Acting Secretary to the Governor.

Colombo, 24 October, 1945.

Regulation.

The Defence (Control of Textiles) Regulations, 1945, published in Gazette Extraordinary No. 9,388 of March 28, 1945, are hereby amended as follows:—

(1) in regulation 32, by the addition, at the end of that regulation, of the following new paragraph:—

“(3) Every dealer referred to in paragraph (1) or (2) of this regulation shall, within the time in which he is required to surrender his textile licence, surrender to the Controller the coupons and coupon equivalent documents acquired by that dealer by the sale or supply of rationed textiles, and shall, if directed by order of the Controller to do so, produce to the Controller for inspection any such book, register, record, or document kept by that dealer under these regulations as may be specified in that order.”;

and

(2) by the insertion, immediately after regulation 54, of the following new regulation:—

“Consequences of suspension or cancellation of a textile licence.

54A. Every dealer whose textile licence is suspended or cancelled under these regulations shall, forthwith after the date on which the suspension or cancellation of that licence takes effect, surrender to the Controller that licence and the coupons and coupon equivalent documents acquired by that dealer by the sale or supply of rationed textiles, and shall, if directed by order of the Controller to do so, forthwith produce to the Controller for inspection any such book, register, record, or document kept by that dealer under these regulations as may be specified in that order.”
