TRADE DISPUTE—PUSPA UYANA BUS COMPANY, LTD.,
ANGODA.

THE All Ceylon Motor Transport Workers' Union, Colombo, presented a petition to me under section 6 (1) of the Essential Services (Avoidance of Strikes and Lockouts) Order, 1942, in connection with a Trade Dispute that had arisen between the said Union and Messrs. Puspa Uyana Bus Co., Ltd., Angoda. The petition was referred by me to the District Judge, Colombo, in terms of section 6 (2) of the said Order for adjudication.

The following Order dated October 12, 1946, made by the District Judge, Colombo, is published for general information in terms of section 8 (4) of the above-mentioned Order —

"This inquiry is the result of a petition presented by the All Ceylon Motor Transport Workers' Union, 52, Skanners road South, Maradana, to the Commissioner of Labour. The respondents to that petition are the Puspa Uyana Bus Co., Ltd., Angoda. The Commissioner of Labour has referred this matter to the District Judge as a Trade Dispute.

"Scanning the petition, it would appear that one U. T. John Singho who was employed as a driver in the respondent bus company was dismissed from the said service without reasonable cause; there are no other allegations of a specific or detailed character in the petition. Dr. N. M. Perera, who represents the petitioner submits that the matter may be considered as one for settlement; that the employee in question U. T. John Singho, was unemployed, and he would be satisfied if reasonable compensation is paid. Counsel for respondents, on an intimation by court, submits that respondents are prepared to pay two months' salary to the petitioner out of which he, submits one month's salary has already been paid in lieu of notice. I believe this gesture will meet the ends of justice in this case, and I direct that the petitioner be paid in all two months' salary including the one month's salary in lieu of notice. I make no order as to costs. Hence the award is that U. T. John Singho be paid two months' salary, viz., Rs. 170."

A. E. CHRISTOFFELSZ,

Colombo, October 22, 1946. Commissioner of Labour.

TRADE DISPUTE—MESSRS. NAROTTAM & PEREIRA, LTD.,
COLOMBO.

THE Colombo Harbour Workers' Union presented a petition to me under section 6 (1) of the Essential Services (Avoidance of Strikes and Lockouts) Order, 1942, with regard to a Trade Dispute that had arisen between the said Union and Messrs. Narottam & Pereira, Ltd., Colombo. The petition was referred to a Special Tribunal appointed by His Excellency the Governor under the proviso to section 5 of the said Order for adjudication.

The following findings and award dated October 12, 1946, made by the Special Tribunal are published for general information in terms of section 8 (4) of the above-mentioned Order :—

"The above Union has presented a petition demanding the reinstatement in employment by the respondent—company of four daily-paid workmen whose services were terminated on June 30, 1946, after due notice. There is also a demand that these 4 men be paid their wages from the date of their discontinuance till they are reinstated.

"The notice terminating the services of these men (P1)* dated May 28, 1946, was based on the ground of the decreased volume of work which the respondent—company was handling at the time.

"That this was so in fact appears from a letter to the Commissioner of Labour from the Acting Chairman of the Colombo Port Commission dated June 28, 1946, showing that the tonnage of export handled by the respondent in April, 1946, was about a third of the export tonnage in February last. The respondent company was therefore justified in reducing the number of labourers employed by them in their export trade. The chief complaint of the Union is that the four men sent away were more senior hands as regards the date of their employment than some of the men whose services were retained. It is true that in most employments where it becomes necessary to retrench staff, it is the practice to send away the latest recruits.

"As regards these four men, I find it proved that they and particularly Uduman, Thavasamani Nadar and Paliah Nadar were trouble makers who refused to carry out lawful orders, as regards their duties which were approved by the competent Port authorities. Not only did they do so themselves but they incited the other workmen to slow down and carry out the duties which they and other workmen employed in the Harbour to carry out similar duties were accustomed to do for a long time, with the approval of the Port authority. Several complaints regarding the slackness and disobedience of these workmen were made by their supervisors as would appear from the documents R1, R2, R3, R4, R5, R6, R8 and R9* embodying complaints against these men during a period of about 4 months prior to their being given notice. The document R10* shows that after they were given notice Uduman and Paliah Nadar behaved towards another workman in a manner which justified the employer in refusing to employ these men. Even apart from the necessity for reduction in the number of workmen the conduct of these workmen justifies their dismissal and I make award that they be not reinstated. No question of payment of any further wages arises. They will however be paid any wages due to them for any employment prior to their dismissal.*"

Colombo, October 22, 1946. Commissioner of Labour.

TRADE DISPUTE—MESSRS. LESLIE E. FERNANDO & Co.,
PELIYAGODA.

THE Colombo Harbour Workers' Union, Colombo, presented a petition to me under section 6 (1) of the Essential Services (Avoidance of Strikes and Lockouts) Order, 1942, with regard to a Trade Dispute that had arisen between the said Union and Messrs. Leslie E. Fernando & Co., Peliyagoda. The petition was referred by me to the District Judge, Colombo, under section 6 (2) of the said Order for adjudication.

The following Order dated October 8, 1946, made by the District Judge, Colombo, is published for general information in terms of section 8 (4) of the above-mentioned Order :—

"This matter arises out of a petition presented to the Commissioner of Labour by a person who calls himself Joint Secretary of the Colombo Harbour Workers' Union, praying that certain persons who were employed under the respondent be reinstated without prejudice to their pay or service and for such other relief as the inquiring Tribunal may be pleased to grant. When this matter was taken up for inquiry on July 24 Mr. Jayawardene, who appeared for the respondent, mentioned that the respondent discovered in about April, 1946, that the work that he would be getting from the Admiralty would be less, and they gave a month's notice to 5 employees that their services would be terminated on the 15th. Mr. Jayawardene again pressed on me to take the evidence that he was prepared to lead today to show that the respondent had closed down their boat yard completely, so that the matter of reinstatement is now quite out of question. In support of Mr. Jayawardene's statement that the respondent has closed down he called a witness from the Admiralty, an Inspector of shipwrights, whose evidence was recorded now. There can be no doubt that the respondent has closed down the business altogether and the question of reinstatement cannot be considered now.

"Mr. Nadarajah, who appears for the petitioner, wishes the Court to consider the question of granting some other relief by way of compensation to the petitioners. No prayer for compensation has been specifically made in the petition, but Mr. Nadarajah argues that the Court can give this compensation under the general term 'such other relief' as the inquiring Tribunal may be pleased to grant'. I am not prepared to consider the question of granting compensation to the petitioners without the matter having been specifically pleaded in the petition. I do not think that such a wide question as compensation for petitioners can be said to be included in the general term 'such other relief'. I have no alternative but to dismiss the petition of the petitioners, and I do so accordingly.

There will be no costs of this inquiry."

A. E. CHRISTOFFELSZ,

Colombo, October 22, 1946. Commissioner of Labour.
