IT is hereby notified for general information that His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government, under Article 23 (3) of the Ceylon (State Council Elections) Order in Council, 1931, has been pleased to order an election to be held and to appoint November 15, 1946, as the date, and the Kachcheri at Puttalam as the place, for the nomination of candidates for the election of a member of the State Council for the Electoral District of Chilaw in the place of Mr. George Claude Stanley Corea, who has resigned his seat in the State Council.

By His Excellency's command,

Legal Secretary's Office, J. H. B. NIBLILL,
Colombo, October 14, 1946. Legal Secretary.

1/7/19 (FSO)

CUSTOMS NOTIFICATION (GENERAL) No. 46/4.

The Customs Ordinance.

REGULATIONS made by the Officer Administering the Government by virtue of the powers vested in the Governor by section 101 of the Customs Ordinance (Chapter 185).

By His Excellency's command,
C. E. JONES,
Acting Financial Secretary.

Colombo, October 15, 1946.

Regulations.

Trading in Galle Harbour.

1. In these Regulations—

“Collector” means the Collector of Customs, the Assistant Collector of Customs, Additional Assistant Collector of Customs or the Sub-collector of Customs of the Port of Galle.

“harbour” means the water area of the Customs premises in Calle.

“licensee” means a person to whom a licence is issued under regulation 2; and

“service marked goods” means goods marked with any recognised markings such as W<sup>A</sup> D<sup>A</sup> or NAAFI denoting that such goods are meant for use by members of His Majesty's Forces.

2. (1) No person shall, for the purpose of trade, bring or cause the bringing of any article into the harbour except on a licence issued in that behalf by the Collector.

(2) The issue of any licence under this regulation shall be at the discretion of the Collector.

3. Every applicant for a licence under regulation 2 shall send to the collector—

(1) a written application stating the nature of the articles in which the applicant intends to trade in the harbour; and

(2) two unmounted photographs of the applicant and an application form supplied by the Collector and duly perfected by the applicant. The photographs shall be about three inches in length and two inches in breadth.

4. Every person whose application for a licence under regulation 2 is allowed by the Collector shall, before the issue of the licence—

(1) deposit as security with the Collector—

(a) a sum of four hundred rupees, where the articles which the licensee is authorised to bring into the harbour for the purpose of trade include silk or jewellery; or

(b) in every other case, a sum of one hundred rupees; and

(2) sign a bond, in such form as may be provided by the Collector, declaring the sum so deposited liable to forfeiture at the discretion of the Collector—

(a) if such person commits a breach of any of the conditions to which the licence is subject; or

(b) if such person or any of his authorised assistants commits a breach of any rule or regulation made under the Customs Ordinance, or any rule relating to the Port of Galle and made under the Masters Attendant Ordinance.

5. Every licence issued under regulation 2 shall—

(1) where the licensee is authorised to bring silk or jewellery into the harbour for the purpose of trade, contain a statement of such authorisation;

(2) expire on the thirty-first day of December in the year in which such licence is issued; and

(3) be subject to the following conditions:—

(a) the licensee shall not, for the purpose of trade, enter the harbour before 6 A.M. or remain therein after 6.30 P.M. on any day;

(b) shall not enter or leave the harbour otherwise than through Jetty No. 1;

(c) the licensee shall keep and maintain a day-book in which a detailed list of all the articles which he intends to bring or to cause to be brought into the harbour on any day for the purpose of trade shall be entered prior to such articles being brought;

(d) the licensee shall not be engaged in barter in the harbour or trade in any service marked goods or any price-controlled or rationed article, and shall not purchase or otherwise acquire any junk or stores from ships;

(e) the licensee shall not on any day, for the purpose of trade, bring or cause the bringing of any of the following articles into the harbour—

(i.) any article which is not specified in the list of articles entered for that day in the licensee's day-book;

(ii.) any synthetic or imitation stone;

(iii.) any culture pearl;

(iv.) any article the export of which from Ceylon is prohibited by any written law;

(f) where by any written law the export of any article from Ceylon is restricted or any export duty is imposed on any article, the licensee shall not, for the purpose of trade, bring or cause the bringing of any such article (other than fresh coconuts) into the harbour, unless he obtains the written permission of the Collector and gives such guarantees as the Collector may require for the payment of all export duties leviable on such article and for the compliance with all legal requirements relating to the export of such article from Ceylon;

(g) the licensee shall not, for the purpose of trade, bring or cause the bringing of any silk or jewellery into the harbour, unless he is authorised in that behalf by the Collector;

(h) the licensee shall not, for the purpose of trading in the harbour, use or cause the use of any boat other than a bumboat which is licensed for such purpose under the provisions of the Masters Attendant Ordinance;

(i) the licensee shall not approach or stay within 15 fathoms of any vessel in the harbour if he is ordered not to do so by an officer or quartermaster of that vessel;

(j) the licensee shall not on any day bring or cause the bringing of any article into the harbour for the purpose of trade, or bring or cause the bringing of any article ashore from any ship in the harbour, or remove or cause the removal of any article from the Customs premises, unless, in the case of trading on board any ship in the harbour, the Customs officer at the shore end of Jetty No. 1—

(i.) examines that article;

(ii.) inspects the licensee's day-book for the purpose of ascertaining whether that article is specified in the list of articles entered for that day in such book; and

(iii.) initials and dates such book and records therein the time of such inspection, and permits that article to be so brought or removed;

(k) the licensee shall not, for the purpose of trade, go or cause any person to go on board any ship in the harbour, unless the licensee is authorised in that behalf by a permit issued by the Collector;

(l) the licensee shall not, for the purpose of trading in the harbour, employ therein—

(i.) any assistant who is not authorised by a permit issued by the Collector under regulation 7; or

(ii.) more than one assistant, where the licensee does not go on board any ship in the harbour for the purpose of trade; or

(iii.) more than two assistants, where the licensee goes on board any ship in the harbour for the purpose of trade;

(m) the licensee shall have in his possession the licence and the day-book when he is engaged in trade in the harbour, and shall produce the licence and the day-book for inspection whenever demanded by a Customs or Police Officer;

(n) the licensee shall display prominently on his left breast a rectangular brass badge, four inches in length and two inches in breadth, with the inscription HARBOUR TRADER No. . . . . (setting forth his licence number) in bold type on it;

(o) the Collector may cancel or suspend the licence when the licensee—

(i.) commits a breach—

(a) of any condition to which the licence is subject, or

(b) of any rule or regulation made under the Customs Ordinance; or

(c) of any rule relating to the port of Galle and made under the Masters Attendant Ordinance; or

(ii.) is convicted in a court of law in respect of the Customs Ordinance or of the Penal Code.

6. Except at the written request of the Master, or the accredited agents of the owners of any ship in the harbour, the Collector shall not issue a permit to any licensee authorising him to go, alone or with any of his assistants, on board such ship for the purpose of trade.

7. (1) No person shall act in the harbour as an assistant to any licensee trading therein except on a permit issued in that behalf by the Collector.

(2) No permit shall be issued to any person under paragraph 1 except—

- (a) on the written application of the licensee who desires to employ that person; and
- (b) on the production of two unmounted photographs of that person and an application form supplied by the Collector and duly perfected by the licensee. The photographs shall be about three inches in length and two inches in breadth.

8. Every permit issued under regulation 7 shall—

(1) expire on the thirty-first day of December in the year in which such permit is issued; and

(2) be subject to the following conditions—

- (a) the holder of the permit shall not, for the purpose of trade, enter the harbour before 6 A.M. or remain therein after 6.30 P.M. on any day;
- (b) the holder of the permit shall not trade in the harbour independently of the licensee at whose instance the permit was issued;
- (c) the holder of the permit shall have the permit in his possession when engaged in trade in the harbour, and shall produce the permit for inspection whenever demanded by a Customs or Police Officer;
- (d) the holder of the permit shall display prominently on his left breast a rectangular brass badge, four inches in length and three inches in breadth, with the inscription ASSISTANT HARBOUR TRADER No. . . . . (setting forth the licence number of the trader to whom he is assistant) in bold type on it;
- (e) the Collector may cancel or suspend the permit when the holder of the permit—

(i.) commits a breach—

- (a) of any condition to which the permit is subject; or
- (b) of any rule or regulation made under the Customs Ordinance; or
- (c) of any rule relating to the port of Galle and made under the Masters Attendant Ordinance; or

(ii.) is convicted in a court of law in respect of the Customs Ordinance or of the Penal Code.

9. The regulations relating to licences to trade in the Harbour of Galle published in Gazette No. 8,857 of February 2, 1942, are hereby rescinded.

THE SAVINGS CERTIFICATES ORDINANCE, No. 7 OF 1946.

REGULATIONS made by the Executive Committee of Communications and Works under section 21 of the Savings Certificates Ordinance, No. 7 of 1946.

J. L. KOTELAWALA,
Minister for Communications and Works.

Colombo, 14th October, 1946.

Regulations.

1. (1) Savings Certificates may be issued at—
(a) any Post Office appointed by the Postmaster-General to be for the time being an office of the Post Office Savings Bank; or
(b) the office of any Government Agent, Assistant Government Agent, Assistant Government Agent (Emergency), or Divisional Revenue Officer; or
(c) any bank specially or generally authorised by the Postmaster-General to issue such Certificates; or
(d) any other place specially appointed for the purpose by the Postmaster-General.

(2) Every Savings Certificate issued at any place specified in clause (b), clause (c) or clause (d) of paragraph (1), shall bear, in the space provided therein for the purpose, the name of a Post Office appointed by the Postmaster-

General to be for the time being an office of the Post Office Savings Bank, and such Post Office shall be deemed for all purposes to be the Post Office at which the issue of such Certificate has been registered.

(3) No Savings Certificate shall be issued at any place other than a place specified in paragraph (1).

2. (1) Savings Certificates may be issued on behalf of the Postmaster-General—

- (a) by any Postmaster; or
- (b) by any other officer or class of officers of the Postal Department specially or generally authorised by the Postmaster-General to issue such Certificates; or
- (c) by any Government Agent, Assistant Government Agent, Assistant Government Agent (Emergency), or by the Office Assistant to any Government Agent, Assistant Government Agent or Assistant Government Agent (Emergency); or
- (d) by any Divisional Revenue Officer; or
- (e) by any bank specially or generally authorised by the Postmaster-General to issue such Certificates.

(2) Every officer who, and the Manager of every Bank which, is authorised by or under this regulation to issue Savings Certificates shall be an issuing officer for the purposes of these regulations.

3. (1) Every application for a Savings Certificate (other than a two-rupee savings certificate) shall be in such one of the forms provided for the purpose by the Postmaster-General as may be appropriate to the case of the applicant.

(2) Every application for the issue of a Savings Certificate in the name of a recognised association or an approved savings group shall be made to the Postmaster-General, Colombo, in such form as may from time to time be provided for the purpose by the Postmaster-General. Every such application shall be signed—

- (a) in the case of a co-operative society, by the President and the Secretary of that society;
- (b) in the case of a central co-operative bank by one member of the Board of Directors and by the Secretary or the manager of that bank;
- (c) in the case of any other recognised association, by at least two of the trustees of that association or, where there are no trustees, by the treasurer of that association; and
- (d) in the case of an approved savings group, by the Secretary or Treasurer of that savings group.

(3) Every application for the issue of a Savings Certificate in the name of a minor shall be signed—

- (a) in the case of a minor under seven years of age, by the parent, guardian, curator or trustee of such minor on his behalf; and
- (b) in the case of a minor not under seven years of age, by such minor or by the parent, guardian, curator or trustee of such minor on his behalf.

(4) No formal or written application shall be necessary for the issue of a two-rupee Savings Certificate.

4. (1) The purchase price of the Savings Certificate or each of the Savings Certificates (other than a two-rupee Savings Certificate) for which application is made shall be paid by the applicant at the time of the application. The purchase price of a two-rupee Savings Certificate shall be paid by the intending purchaser at the time he makes a request for such certificate.

(2) Where the purchase price is paid by cheque, the Savings Certificate shall not be delivered to the applicant until the amount of such cheque has been realised. In each such case, a provisional receipt for the purchase price shall be given by the issuing officer to the applicant, and shall be returned by him at the time of the delivery of the Savings Certificate.

Issuing Officers.

Application for Savings Certificates.

Payment for Savings Certificates.

(3) For the purpose of purchasing a five-rupee Savings Certificate out of occasional small savings, blank cards obtainable free of charge at any Post Office may be used. When unused stamps of the denominations indicated in such card and having a total value equivalent to the purchase price of a five-rupee Savings Certificate have been affixed to any such card, such card will be accepted at any Post Office as payment for the Savings Certificate.

Stamps perforated with initials or marks or in any way defaced shall not be accepted.

(4) If no Savings Certificates are available for sale, the issuing officer shall refund to the applicant the purchase price paid by him.

Gift vouchers.

5. (1) Any person who desires to make a gift to any other person, to whom a Savings Certificate may lawfully be issued under the Ordinance may—

(a) on payment of an amount equal to the purchase price of a Savings Certificate of any denomination for the time being approved by the Postmaster-General for the purposes of this regulation, obtain at any post office a gift voucher for that amount; and

(b) after inserting the name of such other person in the space provided in the gift voucher for that purpose, deliver such voucher to him.

(2) The person whose name is so inserted in a gift voucher shall be deemed for the purposes of this Regulation to be the holder of that voucher.

(3) The holder of a gift voucher shall, when he makes application for one or more Savings Certificates, be entitled to surrender the voucher in lieu of making a payment in cash of the amount specified in the voucher; and the issuing officer to whom the voucher is so surrendered shall accept the voucher as equivalent to such payment for the purposes of regulation 4 (1).

Issue of Savings Certificates.

6. (1) Save as otherwise provided in regulation 20 (3) no Savings Certificate shall be issued to an individual except in the name of that individual.

(2) No Savings Certificate shall be issued to an individual resident in Ceylon unless he signs a declaration to the effect that he is resident in Ceylon on the date of the issue of the certificate: Provided that where such individual is a minor, such declaration may be signed by his parent, guardian, curator or trustee.

(3) In any case where an application for a Savings Certificate in the name of a minor is signed on his behalf by his parent, guardian, curator or trustee, the Savings Certificate shall not be issued unless the parent, guardian, curator or trustee signs a declaration to the effect that he is the parent, guardian, curator or trustee, as the case may be, of the minor.

(4) No Savings Certificate shall be issued to a minor resident outside Ceylon unless the parent, guardian, curator or trustee of the minor signs a declaration to the effect that such parent, guardian, curator or trustee is resident in Ceylon on the date of the issue of the certificate.

(5) No Savings Certificate shall be issued to any person who is not a minor and who is resident outside Ceylon except on the application of the duly appointed attorney in Ceylon of that person, and except upon proof to the satisfaction of the issuing officer that that person's absence from Ceylon is only temporary.

(6) A declaration made by any person to the effect that he is resident in Ceylon or that he is the parent, guardian, curator or trustee of a minor, shall be prima facie proof of that fact; but an issuing officer may, for any reason which appears to him to be sufficient, require any person to furnish proof of any fact stated by that person in any declaration made under this regulation.

(7) The preceding provisions of this regulation as to the signing of a declaration shall not apply—

(a) in the case of a person applying for a Savings Certificate of the denominational value of Rs. 2, or

(b) in the case of a person who, having purchased a twelve-year Savings Certificate, applies for one or more such Certificates on any subsequent occasion.

Limit of Holdings.

7. (1) The aggregate of the denominational value of all Savings Certificates held at any time by an individual, shall not exceed ten thousand rupees in the case of Savings Certificates other than twelve-year Savings Certificates or six thousand rupees in the case of twelve-year Savings Certificates.

(2) The aggregate of the denominational value of all Savings Certificates held at any time by a recognised association, or an approved savings group, shall not exceed twenty thousand rupees in the case of Savings Certificates other than twelve-year Savings Certificates, or twelve thousand rupees in the case of twelve-year Savings Certificates.

Entering of name of purchaser in Certificate.

8. (1) An issuing officer shall, before he issues a Savings Certificate, to any person or body of persons other than an approved savings group, enter thereon the name of the purchaser of that Certificate:

Provided that the preceding provisions of this paragraph shall not apply in any case where a two-rupee Savings Certificate is issued for the purpose of being assigned in accordance with the provisions of regulation 20.

(2) In every Savings Certificate issued to an approved savings group, the space provided therein for the insertion of the name of the purchaser of that Certificate shall be left blank by the issuing officer at the time of such issue.

(3) Where any Savings Certificate issued to an approved savings group is acquired by a member of that group, the Secretary or Treasurer of that group shall forthwith send that Certificate to the Postmaster-General in order that the name of that member may be entered on that Certificate in the space provided therein for the insertion of the name of the purchaser.

(4) Every Savings Certificate sent to the Postmaster-General under paragraph (3) must be accompanied by an application containing the necessary particulars in such form as may from time to time be provided for the purpose by the Postmaster-General.

(5) On receipt of the Savings Certificate and the application aforesaid, the Postmaster-General shall cause the name of the member who acquired that Certificate to be entered therein by an officer authorised by him in that behalf, and shall thereupon return that Certificate to the Secretary or Treasurer of the approved Savings group.

Case in which substitute and new Certificates may be issued.

9. (1) A substitute Certificate may be issued, in accordance with the regulations hereinafter set out in any case where a Savings Certificate is lost, stolen or destroyed.

(2) A new Savings Certificate may be issued, in accordance with the regulations hereinafter set out in any of the following cases:—

(a) where the purchaser of a Savings Certificate desires to gift his rights thereunder;

(b) where a Savings Certificate is damaged or defaced;

(c) where the purchaser of a Savings Certificate dies.

Issue of substitute Certificates where Certificates are lost, stolen or destroyed.

10. (1) Where the Postmaster-General is satisfied that a Savings Certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, he may issue to the purchaser of that Savings Certificate a Certificate (hereinafter called a "substitute Certificate") to the effect that the Savings Certificate mentioned therein has been lost, stolen or destroyed, as the case may be.

(2) A substitute Certificate shall be issued to and in the name of the purchaser of the Savings Certificate to which that substitute Certificate relates, and where a substitute Certificate is issued, the Savings Certificate to which that substitute Certificate relates shall be deemed to be cancelled.

(3) Where a substitute Certificate has been issued to and in the name of an approved savings group, and the rights under the Savings Certificate to which that substitute Certificate relates are acquired by a member of that group, the Secretary or Treasurer of that group shall forthwith send that substitute Certificate, together with an application containing the necessary particulars, to the Postmaster-General in order that the name of that member may be endorsed on that substitute Certificate.

Every such application shall be in such form as may from time to time be provided for the purpose by the Postmaster-General.

(4) On receipt of such substitute Certificate and application, the Postmaster-General shall cause the name of that member to be endorsed on that Certificate by an officer authorised by him in that behalf, and shall thereupon return that substitute Certificate to the Secretary or Treasurer of that approved savings group.

(5) On production of a substitute Certificate on any date the person named therein shall be entitled to receive the surrender value on that date of the Savings Certificate to which that substitute Certificate relates.

Issue of new Certificate where purchaser of Certificate desires to gift his rights thereunder.

11. (1) Where the Postmaster-General is satisfied on the application of the purchaser of a Savings Certificate—

- (a) that such purchaser is desirous of gifting his right, title and interest in or under that Certificate to any person (hereinafter called the "donee");
- (b) that such gift is a bona fide gift and is not a transfer for consideration in money or money's worth; and
- (c) that the donee is a person to whom a Savings Certificate may lawfully be issued under this Ordinance, the Postmaster-General may, on payment of a fee at the rate specified in paragraph (2) and on delivery to him of the Savings Certificate to which the application relates, issue to and in the name of the donee a new Savings Certificate of the same denomination and of the same surrender value.

(2) The fee payable by the purchaser of a Savings Certificate who is desirous of gifting his right, title and interest under that Certificate to any person shall be one rupee for each unit of one hundred rupees comprised in the denominational value or the aggregate denominational value of the certificate or certificates to be gifted, and such fee shall be payable in stamps.

Issue of new certificates where Certificates are damaged or defaced.

12. The purchaser of a Savings Certificate which is damaged or defaced shall be entitled, on delivery of the Certificate, to obtain from the Postmaster-General a new Savings Certificate of the same denomination and of the same surrender value.

Such new Certificate shall, subject to the provisions of regulation 8, be issued to and in the name of the purchaser of the Savings Certificate which is damaged or defaced as the case may be.

Issue of new Certificates or payment of surrender value on death of purchaser.

13. (1) Subject as hereinafter provided, the Postmaster-General may, on the death of the purchaser of a Savings Certificate and on delivery to him of that Certificate, in his discretion, either—

- (a) issue a new certificate to and in the name of an heir or legatee of the deceased purchaser if the executor of the last will of the deceased purchaser or the administrator of his estate applies, in the form provided for the purpose, for the issue of the new Certificate to that heir or legatee; or
- (b) pay to such executor or administrator, as the case may be, a sum equivalent to the surrender value of the Savings Certificate of the deceased purchaser at the time of the delivery thereof.

Provided that in any case where the Postmaster-General is satisfied that the purchaser of a Savings Certificate has died intestate and that no letters of administration are by any law for the time being in force required to be taken out for the due administration of the estate of the deceased purchaser, the Postmaster-General may on delivery to him of the Savings Certificate, in his discretion, either—

- (a) issue a new Savings Certificate to any person proved to his satisfaction to be an heir-at-law of the deceased purchaser; or

- (b) pay to any such heir-at-law a sum equivalent to the surrender value of the Savings Certificate of the deceased purchaser at the time of the delivery thereof.

(2) Where the heir-at-law of the purchaser of a Savings Certificate who has died intestate and for the administration of whose estate no letters of administration are by any law for the time being in force required to be taken out, desires to have a new Savings Certificate issued to him or to be paid the surrender value of the Savings Certificate of the deceased purchaser, such heir-at-law shall send to the Postmaster-General, together with the Savings Certificate issued to the deceased purchaser—

- (a) if the aggregate surrender value of the Savings Certificate or Certificates issued to the deceased purchaser exceeds twenty rupees, an application in such form as may from time to time be provided for the purpose by the Postmaster-General; and
- (b) if the aggregate surrender value of the Savings Certificate or Certificates issued to the deceased purchaser does not exceed twenty rupees, a letter, certifying the death of the purchaser and disclosing the legal heirs of the deceased purchaser, and signed in English by, any one of the following persons, that is to say, a Justice of the Peace, Manager of a Bank, Clergyman or Minister of the Christian Religion, Qualified Medical Officer, Superintendent of an estate of not less than 200 acres in extent, Divisional Revenue Officer, Notary Public, Government officer or pensioner drawing not less than Rs. 1,500 per annum, Vidane Arachchi, Korala, Udaiyar, Registrar of Births, Marriages and Deaths, Head Teacher of a Government English or Vernacular School, person appointed to be an Inquirer under Chapter XII. of the Criminal Procedure Code, Kathi appointed under the Muslim Marriage and Divorce Registration Ordinance, or an Inspector or a Sub-Inspector of Co-operative Societies.

Discovery of loss, theft or destruction of Certificate after death of purchaser.

14. (1) Where the loss, theft or destruction of any Savings Certificate takes place or is discovered after the death of the purchaser thereof, and the estate of such deceased is required by law to be administered, the executor of the last will of the deceased or the administrator of the estate shall apply to the Postmaster-General in such form as may be provided for the purpose—

- (a) for the issue of a new Certificate to, and in the name of an heir or legatee; or
- (b) for the payment to such executor or administrator, as the case may be, of a sum equivalent to the surrender value of the Savings Certificate of the deceased purchaser at the time the payment is made.

(2) Where the loss, theft or destruction of any Savings Certificate takes place or is discovered after the death of the purchaser thereof, and no letters of administration are by any law for the time being in force required to be taken out for the due administration of the estate of the deceased purchaser, the heir-at-law of such deceased purchaser may apply to the Postmaster-General in such form as may be provided for the purpose—

- (a) for the issue of a new Certificate to such heir-at-law; or
- (b) for the payment to such heir-at-law of a sum equivalent to the surrender value of the Savings Certificate of the deceased purchaser at the time the payment is made.

(3) On receipt of any application under paragraph (1) or paragraph (2), the Postmaster-General may, if satisfied that the Savings Certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, issue a new Certificate to the person proved to his satisfaction to be the heir-at-law or legatee or pay to such heir-at-law or to the duly appointed executor or administrator, as the case may be, a sum equivalent to the surrender value of the Saving Certificate of the deceased purchaser at the time the payment is made. Upon the issue of a new Certificate under this regulation, the original certificate which was lost, stolen or destroyed shall be deemed to be cancelled.

Application for substitute and new Certificates.

15. No substitute Certificate under regulation 10 and no new Certificate under regulation 12 or regulation 14 shall be issued by the Postmaster-General, unless the purchaser, heir-at-law, executor or administrator, as the case may be, makes application therefor in such form as may, from time to time, be provided for the purpose by the Postmaster-General, and pays in stamps a fee of 25 cents.

Person named in new Certificate deemed to be the purchaser thereof.

16. The person to whom and in whose name a new Savings Certificate is issued under regulation 11, regulation 12, regulation 13 or regulation 14 shall, for all the purposes of the Ordinance and these regulations be deemed to be the purchaser of that Savings Certificate.

Surrender Value of new Certificate.

17. Where a new Savings Certificate is issued under regulation 11, regulation 12, regulation 13 or regulation 14, the surrender value of the new Savings Certificate so issued shall be determined at any time as though such new Certificate had been issued on the date on which the original Savings Certificate was issued to the purchaser thereof.

Cancellation of old Certificate on issue of new Certificate.

18. The Postmaster-General shall, after the issue of a new Savings Certificate under regulation 11, regulation 12 or regulation 13, cancel any Savings Certificate delivered to him for the purposes of such issue.

Cancellation of Certificates issued in error.

19. (1) Where the Postmaster-General is satisfied that any Savings Certificate has been issued in error, or for an incorrect amount, or to the wrong person, or to a person not entitled thereto, he may, by written notice, addressed to the purchaser of that Certificate or, if he is dead, to his executor or administrator or to any of his heirs-at-law, require the person noticed to deliver the Certificate to the Postmaster-General at a time and place specified in such notice and may, on such delivery, cancel the Certificate on payment to the person delivering it of a sum equivalent to the purchase price, if any, paid at the time of the issue of such Certificate; and such payment shall be and shall operate for all purposes as a complete discharge of the obligations of the Government and of the Postmaster-General in respect of that Savings Certificate and of any moneys payable on the surrender thereof:

Provided, however, that the Postmaster-General may in his discretion pay the surrender value and not the purchase price of any Savings Certificate delivered as hereinbefore provided, if he is satisfied that such Certificate was not issued in consequence of any fraud or wilful misrepresentation on the part of the purchaser.

(2) If any person called upon to deliver a Savings Certificate by the Postmaster-General under paragraph (1) refuses or fails to deliver the Certificate at the time and place specified by the Postmaster-General or within such further period as may be allowed by the Postmaster-General on an application made in that behalf, the Postmaster-General may, by written notice addressed to that person, declare the Certificate to be cancelled and the purchase price paid therefor shall be forfeited to the Crown:

Provided, however, that if within three months of the date of such notice of cancellation any person who has made default in delivering a Savings Certificate within the time fixed for such delivery by the Postmaster-General proves to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that his default was due to any reasonable cause or to any cause over which he had no control, the Postmaster-General may act under paragraph (1) as though no default had been made in the delivery of the Certificate.

Two-rupee Certificates.

20. (1) Two-rupee Savings Certificates shall be assignable by the purchaser thereof in accordance with the following provisions of this regulation.

(2) Every purchaser of a two-rupee Savings Certificate shall at the time of making such purchase, inform the issuing officer whether he is purchasing the Certificate for himself or for assignment to any other person.

(3) In every two-rupee Savings Certificate issued to any person for assignment to any other person, the space provided therein for the insertion of the name of the purchaser or that Certificate shall be left blank by the issuing officer at the time of such issue; and where any such Certificate is assigned by the purchaser to any person, the purchaser shall cause the name of that person to be entered on that Certificate and on its counterfoil and shall thereupon return that counterfoil, signed by that person, to the Postmaster of the office of issue specified in that counterfoil.

(4) The person to whom any Savings Certificate is assigned in accordance with the provisions of this regulation shall, from the time of such assignment, be deemed for all purposes to be the purchaser of that Certificate.

Offices at which Certificates may be surrendered.

21. (1) No Savings Certificate issued to an individual shall be surrendered at any Post Office other than the Post Office at which the issue of such Certificate has been registered:

Provided that where previous application to transfer the registration of such Savings Certificate to any other Post Office has been made to the Postmaster of the Post Office at which the issue of such Certificate was originally registered, and such application has been allowed, such Savings Certificate may be surrendered at the Post Office to which the registration has been transferred.

(2) No Savings Certificate issued to a recognised association or an approved savings group shall be surrendered at any place other than the office of the Postmaster-General, Colombo.

(3) In this regulation "Savings Certificate" does not include a twelve-year Savings Certificate.

Surrender of two-rupee Certificates.

22. (1) No two-rupee Savings Certificate shall, except in the event of the death of the purchaser thereof, be surrendered before the expiry of a period of twelve months from the date on which it is issued.

(2) The surrender value of a two-rupee Savings Certificate shall not be paid to the purchaser thereof unless he is identified by any one of the persons mentioned in regulation 13 (2) (b) or unless he proves to the satisfaction of the Postmaster of the office at which payment of the surrender value is claimed that he is the purchaser of that certificate.

Surrender of twelve-year Certificates.

23. (1) No twelve-year Savings Certificate shall, except in the event of the death of the purchaser thereof, be surrendered before the expiry of a period of twelve months from the date on which it is issued.

(2) No twelve-year Savings Certificate shall be surrendered at any place other than the office of the Postmaster-General, Colombo: Provided that where previous application has been made to the Postmaster-General for the payment of the surrender value of a twelve-year Savings Certificate at any Post Office specified in the application, and such application has been allowed, such Savings Certificate may be surrendered at that Post Office.

Surrender of Certificates issued to approved savings groups before they are purchased by members.

24. A Savings Certificate issued to an approved savings group and not acquired by a member of that group in accordance with the scheme adopted by the group for the acquisition of Savings Certificates by its members, may be surrendered by the Secretary or Treasurer of that group. The surrender value of such Certificates shall not be paid to such Secretary or Treasurer unless he has duly signed and perfected the form of receipt on such Certificate.

Notice of Surrender.

25. (1) Every purchaser of a Savings Certificate who is desirous of obtaining payment of the surrender value thereof at any Post Office other than the General Post Office, Colombo, shall give to the Postmaster of that Post Office, on such form as may be provided for the purpose by the Postmaster-General, at least ten days' notice of the date on which such payment is required.

(2) The surrender value of a Savings Certificate shall not be paid to the purchaser unless he has given the notice referred to in paragraph (1) and has duly signed and perfected the form of receipt on such Certificate.

(3) The preceding provisions of this regulation as to the giving of notice shall not apply in the case of two-rupee Savings Certificate.

Identity of purchaser in case of Savings Certificate surrendered at an office other than the office of registration.

26. Notwithstanding anything in regulation 21, where any Savings Certificate is surrendered at any Post Office other than the Post Office at which the issue of such Certificate was originally registered, or to which the registration of such Certificate has been subsequently transferred, the following provisions, in addition to the provisions of regulation 25, shall have effect :—

(1) where the denominational value of the Savings Certificate surrendered does not exceed Rs. 100, or in any case where two or more Certificates are surrendered, and the denominational value of any of them does not exceed Rs. 100 and the aggregate surrender value of all the Certificates does not exceed Rs. 250, the surrender value shall be paid, if the purchaser is identified by a member of the Post Office of the class of Postmaster and Signaller or by a person who is resident in the locality in which the Post office is situated and who is known to any such member of the Post Office, but not otherwise.

(2) Where the denominational value of the Savings Certificate surrendered does not exceed Rs. 1000, or in any case where two or more Certificates are surrendered, and the denominational value of any of them does not exceed Rs. 1000, and the aggregate surrender value of all the Certificates exceeds Rs. 250, but does not exceed Rs. 2,500, the surrender value shall be paid if the purchaser is identified in the manner required by paragraph (1) and if the person so identifying him is accepted by the Postmaster as a surety and signs an indemnity bond for the amount of the surrender value, but not otherwise.

The preceding provisions of this regulation shall not apply in the case of a two-rupee Savings Certificate.

Surrender of minors' Certificates.

27. (1) Where a Savings Certificate has been issued to an individual who is a minor under seven years of age; such minor shall not be entitled to receive the surrender value of such Certificate until he attains the age of seven years :

Provided that in any case where satisfactory proof is adduced that the money is necessary for the maintenance, education or benefit of the minor, the Postmaster-General may authorise payment of the surrender value to be made to the parent, guardian, curator or trustee of such minor.

(2) Where a minor has attained the age of seven years, payment of the surrender value of any Savings Certificate issued to such minor may be made to him in the same manner as if he were of full age.

Cases of insanity.

28. Where it is shown to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that any purchaser of a Savings Certificate is of unsound mind, the Postmaster-General may authorise payment of the surrender value of such Savings Certificate to be made to the manager of the estate of such purchaser, or, where no such manager has been appointed, to any person who produces satisfactory proof of the fact that such person is having charge of and maintaining such purchaser, and the receipt of such person shall be a valid discharge to the Postmaster-General for the amount of the payment.

Change of office-bearers of recognised association, &c.

29. Every change of office-bearers of any recognised association or approved savings group to which any Savings Certificate has been issued shall be forthwith notified to the Postmaster-General, Colombo, by the Secretary or Treasurer of that association or group.

Disputes.

30. (1) If any dispute arises between the Postmaster-General and the purchaser of any Savings Certificate or any person claiming to be entitled to any Savings Certificate, the matter in dispute shall be referred by the Postmaster-General in writing to the Attorney-General.

(2) On any such reference being made, the Attorney-General may proceed, on a date to be named by him, to hear the parties and their witnesses, if any, and the award or determination of the Attorney-General on any reference under this regulation shall be binding on the parties and shall be final and conclusive.

Interpretation. 31. In these regulations—

“ five-rupee Savings Certificate ” means a Savings Certificate of the denominational value of five rupees ;

“ two-rupee Savings Certificate ” means a Savings Certificate of the denominational value of two rupees, where the issue of such Savings Certificates is authorised under the Savings Certificates Ordinance, No. 7 of 1946.

“ twelve-year Savings Certificate ” means a Savings Certificate the maximum surrender value of which is reached at the end of twelve years from the date of issue.

Short title, and date of operation.

32. These regulations may be cited as the Savings Certificates Regulations, 1946, and shall come into force on the date on which section 23 of the Savings Certificates Ordinance, No. 7 of 1946, is brought into operation.

2.0 P.M. to 4.30 P.M.—(a) Demonstration to one half of the Learners.

(b) Exercises to the other half of Learners.

Saturday mornings will ordinarily be devoted to seminars and training in Court procedure.

(16) Each candidate while in training must maintain three sets of note books, one for lectures, one for exercises and one for field demonstrations and they must be submitted for inspection as required.

(17) Monthly tests will be held during the course of training. Results of these tests will be taken into consideration at the final examination.

(18) Health Unit Hostels.—During the period of training the candidates will be provided with free lodging in a fully equipped hostel.

(19) Liability to Summary rejections.—Any selected candidate who does not satisfy the Director of Medical and Sanitary Services in his attendance, studies, general suitability or behaviour, is liable to summary rejection at any time during the period of training. Any candidate so rejected will not have his fee refunded and will not be eligible for selection to a subsequent training class. No candidate voluntarily leaving the class will have his fee refunded.

(20) Qualifying Examination.—At the end of the course of training there will be held a qualifying examination by the Local Board of Examiners of the Royal Sanitary Institute, which will be theoretical, oral and practical.

(21) Appointments.—Candidates who satisfy the Examiners of the Royal Sanitary Institutes will be eligible for appointment as Sanitary Assistants in the Department of Medical and Sanitary Services. Appointments to the Department are made subject to such other conditions as the Department may impose, as vacancies occur and will be generally in the order of merit in the qualifying examination. No promise of employment is held out to learners.

(22) Termination of Appointment.—The appointment of a Sanitary Assistant will be terminable in accordance with the Public Service Regulations or on one month's notice by the Director of Medical and Sanitary Services.

(24) Certificate of the Royal Sanitary Institute.—Sanitary Assistants who satisfactorily complete a period of one year in service in the Department of Medical and Sanitary Services, will be awarded the Certificate of the Royal Sanitary Institute, London.

(25) Candidates who have been unsuccessful in previous qualifying examinations will not be admitted for training or re-examination except at the request of the Local Board of Examiners of the Royal Sanitary Institute and with the approval of the Director of Medical and Sanitary Services.

Probationary Lady Supervisor of Telephones.

Post and Telecommunication Department.

APPLICATIONS are invited from unmarried females for the post of Probationary Lady Supervisor of Telephones in the Post and Telecommunication Department.

2. Candidates must when forwarding their applications furnish proof that they are Ceylonese, i.e.—

- A British subject born in Ceylon, one of whose parents was born in Ceylon; or
- a British subject who is a descendant of a person falling within category (a); or
- a British subject deemed by the Governor with the advice of the Board of Ministers, in view of special circumstances to be a Ceylonese.

3. Applications should be made in the applicant's own handwriting and should be made in the form set out below. They should reach the Postmaster-General before 4 P.M. on October 31, 1946.

4. Applicants should not be less than 25 years or more than 35 years on November 1, 1946.

5. Every applicant must furnish satisfactory proof that she is a graduate of a University in the British Empire.

6. Every applicant should furnish satisfactory proof that she is of good moral character. The selected candidate will be required to pass a strict medical examination.

7. Candidates will be interviewed by a Selection Board.

8. The selected candidate will be required to proceed to the U. K. for a course of training in the British Post Office for about six months.

While she is away from the Island on training the Probationer will be paid at the rate of £350 per annum. NOTIFICATIONS UNDER "THE PATENTS ORDINANCE, 1906."

THE following specification has been accepted:—

No. 3,331 of August 1, 1945. (Date applied for under Section 48 of the Ordinance, April 25, 1945.)

Erich Gustav Huzenlaub & Francis Heron Rogers.

"Improvements in vacuum drying cylinders particularly for grain".

Abstract.—The apparatus consists of a steam jacketted cylinder rotatable on hollow trunnions at either end, one of which is for steam admission (with a concentric tube for extraction of condensate) and the other for evacuation of moisture by vacuum. Between the end plates of the cylinder are nests of steam tubes arranged so as to leave cruciform space between the nests. Located in this space are four extraction ducts connected to a common header. The perforated extraction ducts are covered with wire mesh screens of larger diameter. These screens are made in sections and can be cleaned by sliding one section upon another.

There are 9 claims and 2 sheets of drawings.

GOVERNMENT NOTIFICATIONS

L. D.—B. 80/44.

THE WAGES BOARDS ORDINANCE.

Notification.

IN accordance with the provisions of section 26A, inserted in the Wages Boards Ordinance, No. 27 of 1941, by Ordinance No. 40 of 1943, the Wages Board for the Motor Transport Trade hereby notifies its intention to make, by virtue of the powers vested in it by sections 20, 24, 25 and 26, the decisions set out in the following Schedule.

Objections to the proposed decisions will be received by the Chairman of the Board until 12 noon on 9th November, 1946. Every such objection must be made in writing and must contain a statement of the grounds upon which such objection is taken.

Colombo, 14th October, 1946.

A. E. CHRISTOFFELSZ,
Chairman of the Motor Transport Trade Wages Board.

Schedule.

Part I.

Direction under Section 20 (2) (b).

The special allowance shall be computed and published once a month by the Commissioner of Labour.

The special allowance for each month or for a normal working day in any month, as the case may be, shall be computed on the cost of living index number for the month immediately preceding that month in respect of which such allowance is to be computed.

Definition of a normal working day (Section 24).

The number of hours constituting a normal working day (inclusive of one hour for a meal) shall be 9.

Part II. (Sections 20 and 26).

1. Wages for the Motor Transport Trade shall be paid on a monthly basis to permanent workers and on a daily basis to temporary workers.
2. The minimum rate of wages for time work shall consist of a basic rate and a special allowance as set out below.
3. Where a permanent worker has worked for 26 days or more in any month he shall be paid the minimum monthly rate specified in this Part.
4. Where a permanent worker has commenced employment in the course of a month, he shall be paid as wages an amount which bears to the minimum monthly rate the proportion which the period of employment bears to 26 days in the month.
5. Where by reason of any unauthorised absence a permanent worker has not worked for the 26 days specified in paragraph 3 above, he shall be paid as wages for that month an amount which bears to the minimum monthly rate the proportion which the difference between 26 and the number of days of unauthorised absence bears to 26.
6. Absence from work on holidays, on days on which the employer fails to provide work, and on days for which leave with full pay is allowed to a permanent worker, shall not be deemed to be unauthorised absence.
7. For the purposes of computing the wages of a worker paid on a monthly basis, a holiday referred to in Part IV. shall be deemed to be a day on which the worker has worked.

Part III.

Overtime Rate.

In respect of each hour of work in excess of the normal working day the minimum overtime rate shall be one and a half times the minimum hourly rate, ascertained by dividing the minimum daily rate by 8 in the case of workers paid on a daily basis, and by dividing the minimum monthly rate by 240 in the case of workers paid on a monthly basis.

Part IV.

Annual Holidays (Section 25).

1. If a worker has been in continuous employment and has worked under the same employer for more than 248 days in any year, he shall be allowed in the next succeeding year a holiday or holidays calculated at the rate of one holiday for each unit of 4 days by which the number of days on which the worker has worked exceeds 248: Provided, however, that it shall not be obligatory on an employer to allow any such holiday in respect of any period of work in excess of 288 days.

In this paragraph "days on which a worker has worked" includes—

- every holiday allowed by the employer to the worker under section 25;
- every day of absence on any grounds approved by the employer;
- every day of absence due to any injury to the worker caused by an accident arising out of and in the course of his employment;
- every day of absence due to anthrax or any occupational disease specified in Schedule III. of the Workmen's Compensation Ordinance (Chapter 117);
- every day on which the employer fails to provide work for the worker;
- every day of absence due to a strike or lockout that is not illegal, in case such days do not in the aggregate exceed 30 days a year; and
- every holiday or day of absence from work to which a worker is entitled by or under the provisions of any written law other than the Wages Boards Ordinance.

2. (1) If a worker is entitled in any year to 6 holidays he shall be allowed, and he shall take, those 6 holidays on consecutive days.

(2) If a worker is entitled in any year to more than 6 holidays he shall be allowed, and he shall take, 6 holidays on consecutive days.

3. Subject to the provisions of paragraphs 2 and 6, a worker shall be allowed his holiday or holidays on a day or days to be mutually agreed upon between him and his employer.

4. (1) The remuneration of a worker paid on a monthly basis in respect of a holiday taken in any month shall be included in, and paid out of, his wages for that month, such wages being computed in accordance with the provisions of Part II.

(2) The remuneration of a worker paid on a daily basis in respect of a holiday shall be not less than his wages for a day.

5. The remuneration due to a worker paid on a daily basis in respect of his holiday or holidays shall be paid to him before such holiday or holidays but not earlier than 7 days before such holiday or holidays.

6. Where a worker intends to leave his employment of his own accord or is to be discontinued or dismissed from employment, such worker shall be entitled to take and shall take, during the period immediately preceding such leaving, discontinuance or dismissal—

(a) every holiday that he was entitled to in respect of the previous year which he has not already taken; and

(b) in case the worker has during the current year complied with the provisions relating to employment and work set out in paragraph 1, every holiday that he would have otherwise been entitled to in the next succeeding year; and he shall be remunerated for such holidays in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 4:

Provided, however, that the total number of holidays that such a worker might take in any year shall not exceed 21.

7. In these paragraphs, "year" means a continuous period of 12 months.

8. The foregoing decisions shall not apply in respect of employment at any time more than 12 months prior to the date on which the decisions come into force.
