The land applied for is already under lease to the Controlling Viharadhipati for a term of 99 years from July 1, 1933. According to the conditions of the present lease, however, the erection of permanent structures or buildings is prohibited and the land must be used as a "safety belt" between the temple and the near by quarry. The applicant proposes to construct a Dagoba and Dharmasalawa. This is the only land available for extending the temple.
