TEXTILE CONTROL NOTICE NO. 293.

Wholesale Sale of Textiles which are exempted from Price Control.

THE attention of all dealers, in particular of importers, is drawn to the fact that though a particular textile is exempted from the price control regulations, such textile will continue to be subject to the other provisions of the Textile Control Regulations. For example, inter-wholesale transactions would be irregular and would constitute a breach of the regulations. An importer wholesaler can only sell to a retailer and the retailer in turn can only sell to consumers.

My attention has been drawn to the fact that some importers of the classes of textiles which are exempt from price control put through inter-wholesale transactions with the result that the price to the consumer is inflated out of all proportion to the cost price. Dealers are hereby warned against this practice. Disciplinary action will be taken in respect of any such cases detected in the future.

M. F. DE S. JAYARATNE,
Colombo, March 19, 1947. Controller of Textiles.

TEXTILE CONTROL NOTICE NO. 294.

Silk Sarees.

WITH reference to paragraph 4 of Textiles Control Notice No. 163 and Textiles Control Notice No. 185—Silk sarees are hereby exempted from price control. They may in the future be exposed for sale without the price mark.

So far as existing stocks are concerned, the price label attached to existing stocks of sarees should be removed.

2. Silk piece goods will continue to be subject to price control and price marking as at present.

M. F. DE S. JAYARATNE,
Colombo, March 19, 1947. Controller of Textiles.

TEXTILE CONTROL NOTICE NO. 295.

Cotton Fents from U. S. A.

THE trade is hereby informed that cotton fents from U. S. A. are now not chargeable to the cotton piece goods quota allowed to Ceylon, by the U. S. A. and may therefore be imported from that country under general licence. The Controller of Imports will issue licences freely to import these goods to licensed textile dealers holding my authority to import. Licences will be issued against firm orders only.

M. F. DE S. JAYARATNE,
Colombo, March 22, 1947. Controller of Textiles.
