12. The Fourth Schedule to the principal Ordinance is hereby amended, in Part A thereof, by the substitution, in item III, for all the words from " seating accommodation " to " per seat ", of the words " maximum number of passengers which the omnibus is to be licensed to carry, at the rate of Rs. 10 per passenger ".

Amendment of Fourth Schedule to the principal Ordinance.

Objects and Reasons.

Under the Motor Car Ordinance (Chapter 156), which was repealed by the Motor Car Ordinance, No. 45 of 1938, a person who let a motor car under a hire-purchase agreement was entitled to have himself registered as the absolute owner of the car. In order to discourage people from entering into such agreements, similar provision was intentionally omitted from the Motor Car Ordinance, No. 45 of 1938. In view, however, of the recommendations made by the Mortgage Commission in their Third Interim Report (Sessional Paper VIII of 1945), it is now proposed to amend the Ordinance so as to enable the name of a person who lets a motor car under a hire-purchase agreement to be entered in the register of motor cars as the absolute owner of the car. (Clauses 2, 3, 4, 5 and 11).

2. As a number of Town Councils will be constituted in the year 1947, the Motor Car Ordinance is to be amended so as to enable such Councils to function as licensing authorities within their administrative areas, and also to authorise the appropriation to the funds of such Councils of all moneys paid as duties on licences for motor cars. (Clauses 6 and 10).

3. The duty payable on a new licence or a provisional licence for a lorry issued in any year on application made under section 58B of the Motor Car Ordinance is to be changed, and in future, that duty is to be the duty payable under section 32 (1) of the Ordinance on a yearly licence, reduced, in any case where such licence is to come into force at any time on or after the first day of March in that year, by one-twelfth part for each complete calendar month of the period commencing on the first day of February in that year and ending on the last day of the month preceding the month in which the licence is to come into force. (Clause 7).

4. Under the Defence (Motor Vehicles Authorised Load) Regulations, certain types of omnibuses were permitted to carry a specified number of passengers in excess of the maximum number authorised by the Motor Car Ordinance. As the Regulations in question are no longer in force, it is now proposed to make similar provision in the Ordinance. (Clause 8). A consequential amendment is to be made in the Fourth Schedule to the Ordinance. (Clause 12).

5. Section 123 of the Motor Car Ordinance is to be amended so as to enable not more than four persons who are not described in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of sub-section (1) of that section to be carried on a lorry under the authority of a special permit issued by the Commissioner of Motor Transport in his discretion. (Clause 9)
