MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

L. D.—O. 57/46

An Ordinance to make provision as to the immunities, privileges and capacities of the United Nations and other international organisations of which His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and foreign governments are members ; to confer immunities and privileges on the staffs of such organisations and representatives of member governments and in respect of premises and documents of such organisations ; to remove doubts as to the extent to which representatives of foreign Powers attending international conferences and the staffs of such representatives are entitled to diplomatic immunities ; and for purposes connected with the matters aforesaid.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the State Council thereof, as follows :—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Diplomatic Privileges (Extension) Ordinance, No. of 1947, and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor may appoint by Proclamation published in the Government Gazette.

Short title and date of operation.

2. (1) This section shall apply to any organisation declared by the Governor, by Order published in the Government Gazette, to be an organisation of which His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and the Government or governments of one or more foreign sovereign Powers are members.

Privileges, immunities and capacities of certain international organisations and their staffs.

(2) The Governor may, by Order published in the Government Gazette—

- (a) provide that any organisation to which this section applies (hereinafter referred to as "the organisation") shall, to such extent as may be specified in the Order, have the immunities and privileges set out in Part I of the Schedule, and shall also have the legal capacities of a body corporate ;
- (b) confer upon such number of officers of the organisation as may be specified in the Order, being the holders of such high offices in the organisation as may be specified in the Order, and upon such persons employed on missions on behalf of the organisation as may be so specified, and upon any person who is the representative of a member government on the governing body or any committee of the organisation, to such extent as may be so specified, the immunities and privileges set out in Part II of the Schedule ;
- (c) confer upon such other classes of officers and servants of the organisation as may be specified in the Order, to such extent as may be so specified, the immunities and privileges set out in Part III of the Schedule ;

and Part IV of the Schedule shall have effect for the purpose of extending to the staffs of representatives of member governments and to the families of officers of the organisation any immunities and privileges conferred on the representatives or officers under paragraph (b) of this sub-section, except in so far as the operation of the said Part IV is excluded by the Order conferring the immunities and privileges :

Provided that the Order shall not confer any immunity or privilege upon any person as the representative of His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom or as a member of the staff of such a representative.

(3) Where immunities and privileges are conferred on any person by an Order made under the last foregoing sub-section, the Chief Secretary—

- (a) shall compile a list of the persons entitled to immunities and privileges conferred under paragraph (b) of that sub-section, and may compile a list of the persons entitled to immunities and privileges conferred under paragraph (c) of that sub-section ;
- (b) shall cause any list compiled under this sub-section to be published in the Government Gazette ; and
- (c) whenever any person ceases or begins to be entitled to the immunities and privileges to which any such list relates, shall amend the list or cause a notice of the amendment, or, if he thinks fit, an amended list, to be published as aforesaid.

(4) Every list or notice published under the last foregoing sub-section shall state the date from which the list or amendment takes or took effect ; and the fact that any person is or was included or not included at any time among the persons entitled to the immunities and privileges in question may, if a list of those persons has been so published, be conclusively proved by producing the Government Gazette containing the list, or, as the case may be, the last list taking effect before that time, together with the Government Gazettes, if any, containing notices of the amendments taking effect before that time, and by showing that the name of that person is or was at that time included or not included in the said list.

(5) The preceding provisions of this section shall, in their application to the United Nations have effect subject to the following modifications :—

- (a) any reference to the governing body or any committee of the organisation shall be construed as referring to the General Assembly or any council or other organ of the United Nations ; and
- (b) the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of this section shall include power, by Order, to confer on the judges and registrars of the International Court, and on suitors to that Court and their agents, counsel and advocates, such immunities, privileges and facilities as may be required to give effect to any resolution of or convention approved by the General Assembly of the United Nations.

Provisions
as to Orders.

3. (1) Every Order made under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of the last foregoing section shall be laid as soon as may be before the State Council, and if a resolution is passed by the State Council, within the period of forty days beginning with the day on which any such Order is laid before it, praying that the Order be annulled, the Governor may annul the Order and it shall thereupon cease to have effect, but without prejudice to the validity of anything done thereunder in the meantime or to the making of a new Order.

(2) In reckoning the said period of forty days, no account shall be taken of any time during which the State Council is adjourned.

(3) Where there is any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of any Order made under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of the last foregoing section and the provisions of any other written law, the provisions of such Order shall prevail.

Diplomatic immunities of representatives attending
conferences.

4. (1) Where a conference is held in Ceylon and is attended by the representatives of His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and the government or governments of one or more foreign sovereign Powers, and it appears to the Chief Secretary that doubts may arise as to the extent to which the representatives of such foreign Powers and members of their official staffs are entitled to diplomatic immunities, he may—

- (a) compile a list of the persons aforesaid who are entitled to such immunities, and cause that list to be published in the Government Gazette ; and
- (b) whenever it appears to the Chief Secretary that any person ceases or begins to be entitled to such immunities, amend the list and cause a notice of amendment or, if he thinks fit, an amended list, to be published as aforesaid ;

and every representative of a foreign Power who is for the time being included in the list shall, for the purpose of any enactment and rule of law or custom relating to the immunities of an envoy of a foreign Power accredited to His Majesty, and of the retinue of such an envoy, be treated as if he were such an envoy, and such of the members of his official staff as are for the time being included in the list shall be treated for the purpose aforesaid as if they were his retinue.

(2) Every list or notice published under the last foregoing sub-section in relation to any conference shall include a statement of the date from which the list or amendment takes or took effect ; and the fact that any person is or was included or not included at any time among the persons entitled to diplomatic immunities as representatives attending the conference or as members of the official staff of any such representative may, if a list of those persons has been so published, be conclusively proved by producing the Government Gazette containing the list or, as the case may be, the last list taking effect before that time, together with the Government Gazettes, if any, containing notices of the amendments taking effect before that time, and by showing that the name of that person is or was at that time included or not included in the said list.

5. Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this Ordinance shall be construed as precluding the Governor from declining to accord immunities or privileges to, or from withdrawing immunities or privileges from, nationals or representatives of any Power on the ground that that Power is failing to accord corresponding immunities or privileges to British nationals or representatives.

Reciprocal

SCHEDULE.

PART I.

Immunities and privileges of the organisation.

1. Immunity from suit and legal process.
2. The like inviolability of official archives and premises occupied as offices as is accorded in the United Kingdom in respect of the official archives and premises of an envoy of a foreign sovereign Power accredited to His Majesty.
3. The like exemption or relief from taxes and rates, other than taxes on the importation of goods, as is accorded in the United Kingdom to a foreign sovereign Power.
4. Exemption from taxes on the importation of goods directly imported by the organisation for its official use in Ceylon or for exportation, or on the importation of any publications of the organisation directly imported by it, such exemption to be subject to compliance with such conditions as the Financial Secretary may prescribe for the protection of the revenue.
5. Exemption from prohibitions and restrictions on importation or exportation in the case of goods directly imported or exported by the organisation for its official use and in the case of any publications of the organisation directly imported or exported by it.
6. The right to avail itself, for telegraphic communications sent by it and containing only matter intended for publication by the press or for broadcasting (including communications addressed to or despatched from places outside Ceylon), of any reduced rates applicable for the corresponding service in the case of press telegrams.

PART II.

Immunities and privileges of high officers, persons on missions and government representatives.

1. The like immunity from suit and legal process as is accorded in the United Kingdom to an envoy of a foreign sovereign Power accredited to His Majesty.
2. The like inviolability of residence as is accorded in the United Kingdom to such an envoy.
3. The like exemption or relief from taxes as is accorded in the United Kingdom to such an envoy.

PART III.

Immunities and privileges of other officers and servants.

1. Immunity from suit and legal process in respect of things done or omitted to be done in the course of the performance of official duties.
2. Exemption from income tax in respect of emoluments received as an officer or servant of the organisation.

PART IV.

Immunities and privileges of representative's staff and of high officer's family.

1. Where any person is entitled to any such immunities and privileges as are mentioned in Part II of this Schedule as the representative of a member government, his official staff accompanying him as such a representative shall also be entitled to those immunities and privileges to the same extent as the retinue of an envoy of a foreign sovereign Power accredited to His Majesty in the United Kingdom is entitled to the immunities and privileges accorded to the envoy.
2. Where any person is entitled to any such immunities and privileges as are mentioned in Part II of this Schedule as an officer of the organisation, that person's wife or husband and children under the age of twenty-one shall also be entitled to those immunities and privileges to the same extent as the wife or husband and children of an envoy of a foreign sovereign Power accredited to His Majesty in the United Kingdom are entitled to the immunities and privileges accorded to the envoy.

Objects and Reasons.

A General Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations was adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations on February 13, 1946. The object of the Convention is to give legal capacity to the United Nations Organisation and to confer the necessary privileges and immunities on its organisation and officials, particularly in such matters as legal process, taxation, custom and travel facilities. The intention is that each member State of the United Nations shall accede to the Convention as soon as it has enacted the necessary legislation in its own territory to give effect to the provisions of the Convention.

2. Legislation enabling His Majesty's Government to accede to the Convention has been passed in the United Kingdom in the form of an amendment to the Diplomatic Privileges (Extension) Act, 1944, entitled the Diplomatic Privileges (Extension) Act, 1946.

3. It is desirable to bring the position in Ceylon into line with that in the United Kingdom, although many of the provisions of the Convention would seldom be applicable to Ceylon. It is accordingly proposed by this Bill to enact legislation on the lines of the Diplomatic Privileges (Extension) Act, 1946, of the Imperial Parliament. The Bill, if passed into law, will be implemented from time to time by Orders made by the Governor under sub-clauses (1) and (2) of clause 2.

Colombo, 12th May, 1947.

C. H. COLLINS,
Acting Chief Secretary.
