Valuation DepartmentApprentices*

APPLICATIONS are invited for posts of Apprentices in the Government Valuation Department.

2 Candidates should be Ceylonese and must have passed the London Matriculation Examination or the Senior School Certificate Examination with a pass in Mathematics, be physically fit for outdoor work and be not less than 17 years or more than 23 years of age on June 1, 1949. Suitable candidates will be called upon to sit for a competitive examination, the subjects of which will be Mathematics and General Knowledge.

3 Candidates selected for training as apprentices must pass a medical examination as to their physical fitness to serve in any part of the Island.

4 The course of training would include 3 years training in Valuation and Rating work and the apprentices will be required to take such courses of study as are prescribed from time to time by the Chief Valuer, including attendance at day or evening classes in the Ceylon Technical College.

5 (a) A correct record will be kept of the training undertaken by each apprentice and his attendance and attainments in the Sessional Examination at the College.

(b) Apprentices who do not make full use of the opportunities afforded for training and make unsatisfactory progress either in Rating or Valuation work or in the technical classes will be discontinued.

6 Apprentices will receive the following remuneration subject to satisfactory progress being made—

1st year	—	Rs 60 per mensem
2nd year	—	Rs 70 per mensem
3rd year	—	Rs 80 per mensem

7 They will be eligible for not more than 14 days sick leave on full pay in a year. If they are required to travel they will be paid their expenses in accordance with the Financial Regulations of the Ceylon Government.

8 Apprentices will be indentured subject to a probationary period of six months and, if found satisfactory, the probationary period will be considered as part of the training. At the end of the probationary period the apprentice or his guardian will be required to deposit a sum of Rs 300 as a guarantee of good behaviour and conduct. This sum with interest earned will be paid back to the apprentice on the certification of the Chief Valuer that the apprentice has satisfactorily concluded his apprenticeship.

If the indenture is not satisfactorily concluded or it is cancelled for unsatisfactory conduct the deposit is liable to be forfeited.

If the indenture is cancelled on account of lack of aptitude or illness the deposit will be returned to the apprentice.

9 Apprentices on the completion of their apprenticeship will have no claim upon Government for any further employment or remuneration whatsoever.

10 The decision of the Chief Valuer in all matters pertaining to the apprenticeship training shall be final.

11 Applications stating age, educational and technical qualifications, with copies only of any testimonials, should be forwarded to the Chief Valuer, P. O. Box 561, Colombo, to reach him not later than 12 noon on June 11, 1949.
