The Explosives Ordinance

REGULATIONS made by the Minister of Home Affairs and Rural Development by virtue of the powers vested in him under section 12 (2) of the Explosives Ordinance (Chapter 140), as modified by the Proclamation published in Gazette Extraordinary
No 9,773 of September 24, 1947.

R. S. V. POULIER,
Permanent Secretary,

Ministry of Home Affairs and Rural Development.

Colombo, February 18, 1950.

REGULATIONS

1. (1) These regulations may be cited as the Port of Colombo (Service Explosives) Regulations, 1950.

(2) The provisions of these regulations shall apply to the Port of Colombo (hereinafter referred to as the “ Port ”).

2. (1) At least twenty-four hours' notice in writing of the expected arrival in the port of any vessel carrying service explosives shall be given to the Collector, the Master Attendant, Port Controller, the Superintendent of the Port Fire Service and the Inspector of Harbour Police. Such notice shall state the approximate date and time of the arrival of the vessel and the nature, quantity, group numbers and fire fighting classes of such explosives.

(2) The notice required by paragraph (1) shall be given—

- (a) by the Senior Sea Transport Officer where the vessel is a hired transport,
- (b) by the authorised officer where the vessel is not a hired transport and the explosives are naval, military or air-force explosives;
- (c) by the Deputy Superintendent of Stores, Colombo, where the vessel is not a hired transport and the explosives are not naval, military or air-force explosives.

3. As soon as a vessel carrying service explosives enters the Port, the Master shall sign and deliver to the Pilot boarding the vessel a declaration stating—

- (a) the nature, quantity, group numbers and fire fighting classes of such explosives; and
- (b) whether or not the vessel can, throughout the period during which any such explosives are on board, remain capable of moving under main engines within half an hour of the receipt by the master of an order to so move from the Master Attendant; and if not, the reasons therefor and the time within which the vessel can remain capable of so moving.

Such declaration shall be substantially in the Form prescribed in the First Schedule to these regulations.

4. (1) Every vessel carrying service explosives shall take up the berth appointed for such vessel by the Master Attendant and shall change her berth or move whenever required to do so by the Master Attendant.

(2) Except when required to do so by the Master Attendant or for the purpose of proceeding to sea, no vessel carrying service explosives shall change her berth or move without the permission of the Master Attendant.

5. The Master of every vessel which has service explosives on board shall take all such steps as may be necessary to ensure that, throughout the period during which such explosives are on board, the vessel will be capable of moving under main engines within half an hour, or within such longer period as may have been authorised by the Master Attendant in relation to such vessel, of the receipt by the Master of an order to so move from the Master Attendant.

6. The Master of every vessel containing or conveying service explosives or loading or unloading such explosives shall display by day a red flag and by night a red light at the masthead or, if the said vessel has no mast, on a staff, in addition to any navigation lights which may be required by any other law.

7. Before the handling, moving, loading, unloading, or stowing of service explosives is commenced, on any vessel, all ventilators on the vessel shall be covered, all due precautions shall be taken to reduce to a minimum the risks from sparks from funnels and the vessel's wireless telegraph apparatus shall be sealed or disconnected.

8. So long as service explosives are being handled on board any vessel, all hoses on the vessel shall be rigged and available and all other appliances shall be kept ready for use.

9. So long as service explosives are on board any vessel, all ship's tackle for the handling or such explosives shall be kept in proper working order, and no lights other than electric lamps of a pattern approved by the Master Attendant shall be used in any hold containing such explosives, and all wires and leads shall be maintained in good condition.

10. Without prior consultation with and permission of the Master Attendant, no welding or cutting operations involving the use of open flame or arc shall be undertaken on any vessel containing service explosives notwithstanding that the upper hatch cover of the hold or holds containing such explosives has not been opened.

11. No hatch containing service explosives shall be opened until the Representative Officer gives permission.

12. (1) Before service explosives are brought down for storage in transit or shipment, or are transhipped from one vessel to another, or are loaded into or unloaded from any transhipment vessel, notice in writing shall be given to the Collector, the Master Attendant, Port Controller, the Superintendent of the Port Fire Service and the Inspector of Harbour Police, of the nature, quantity, group numbers and fire fighting classes of such explosives and of the time when and of the place where it is desired to carry out such storage, shipment, transhipment, loading and unloading and the name or berth of the vessel or vessels which will discharge and/or receive such explosives.

(2) The notice required by paragraph (1) shall be given—

- (a) by the authorized officer where the explosives are naval, military or air-force explosives; and
- (b) by the Deputy Superintendent of Stores, Colombo, where the explosives are not naval, military or air-force explosives

13. (1) No service explosives shall be slung except on trays or nets or by means of tackle specially designed for the purpose.

(2) No service explosives shall be slung on nets or by means of tackle specially designed for the purpose except with the permission of the Representative Officer.

14. (1) Every person handling service explosives shall handle such explosives with care and shall take all such steps as may be necessary to ensure that no damage is caused to such explosives whether by dropping or otherwise.

(2) Whenever any service explosives are dropped or damaged, the person handling such explosives shall forthwith bring that act to the notice of the Representative Officer

15. No service explosives shall be loaded into any lighter, or be discharged from any merchant vessel into any lighter or be loaded into any merchant vessel from any lighter, unless a Police Officer is on board such lighter or unless such lighter is manned by members of His Majesty's forces or of the Army or Air Force of Ceylon or of the Ceylon Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve while such explosives are so loaded or discharged.

16. Except with the permission of the Collector, no lighter or other harbour craft containing service explosives shall remain in the Harbour between sunset and sunrise.

Every such lighter or other harbour craft shall, if the permission aforesaid is granted, tie up at the special Moorings or be removed to such other place as the Collector may direct

17. (1) Every lighter engaged in the conveyance of service explosives shall, while so engaged—

- (a) have on board a Police Officer, unless such lighter is manned by members of His Majesty's forces or of the Army or Air Force of Ceylon or of the Ceylon Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve;
- (b) fly at its bows and stern a red flag not less than two feet square on a staff not less than six feet above the deck of such lighter; and
- (c) have its hatches securely fastened and covered by tarpaulins.

18. (1) No cargo, not being cargo consisting of service explosives, shall be loaded into, or conveyed in, any lighter or other harbour craft containing service explosives in quantity exceeding one hundredweight.

(2) No service explosives in quantity exceeding one hundredweight shall be loaded into any lighter or other harbour craft containing any other cargo

19. (1) No service explosives of the 5th (Fulminate) class shall be loaded into, or conveyed in, any vehicle, lighter or other harbour craft carrying explosives of any other class.

(2) No service explosives of the 6th (Ammunition) class containing its own means of ignition shall be loaded into, or conveyed in, any vehicle, lighter or other harbour craft carrying explosives of any other class.

(3) No service explosives of the 7th (Fire works) class shall be loaded into, or conveyed in, any vehicle, lighter or other harbour craft carrying explosives of any other class.

20. No person shall smoke or take any fire, matches, cigarette lighters, or any article of an inflammable nature, or light any fire, or light or strike any match, or cause ignition by any other means—

- (a) on any lighter which carries service explosives;
- (b) on any vessel within fifty feet of any hatch where such explosives are being received or loaded; or
- (c) within fifty feet or a place on land where such explosives are being landed, loaded or stacked.

21. No cotton-waste or other inflammable material shall be kept in or be brought into any hold, lighter or vehicle which contains service explosives or into which such explosives are being loaded or from which such explosives are being unloaded.

22. No petroleum, coal or inflammable substance shall be handled in the vicinity of service explosives or be stowed in the holds of a vessel into which such explosives are being loaded or from which such explosives are being unloaded.

23. No person under the influence of alcohol or drugs shall be on board that part of a vessel in which service explosives are being handled.

24. Any officer of His Majesty's forces or of the Army or Air Force of Ceylon or of the Ceylon Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve detailed for duty in connection with the discharge landing, loading or shipping of service explosives or any Police Officer or Custom Officer shall have and exercise all such powers as may be necessary for securing compliance with the provisions of these regulations or any direction given thereunder.

25. The powers conferred on the Collector or the Master Attendant by this Order may be exercised on his behalf by any other officer acting under the general or special directions of the Collector or Master Attendant as the case may be.

26. In these regulations unless the context otherwise requires—

“ air force explosives ” means any service explosives intended for the use of any of His Majesty's air forces other than the Army or Air Force of Ceylon or of the Ceylon Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve;

“ authorized officer ”, in relation to service explosives which are naval, military or air-force explosives, means the officer nominated as authorized officer in respect of such Naval, Military or Air Force explosives, as the case may be, by the Collector for the purposes of the regulation in which the expression occurs;

“Collector” means the Principal Collector of Customs or any Deputy or Assistant Collector of Customs;

“Customs premises” means the “Customs premises” as defined from time to time by notification published under section 101 of the Customs Ordinance (Chapter 185);

“explosives” has the same meaning as in the Explosives Ordinance (Chapter 140);

“His Majesty’s forces” means His Majesty’s Navy, Army or Air Force but does not include the Army or Air Force of Ceylon or the Ceylon Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve;

“land” includes any pier, jetty, breakwater or quay; “lighter” means any vessel which is exclusively used within the port either for the conveyance of cargo, fuel or water or as a floating landing stage alongside any other vessel;

“Master”, in relation to a vessel, includes the person for the time being in charge of the vessel,

“Merchant vessel” means any vessel other than a British or foreign war vessel or a lighter;

“Military explosives” means any service explosives intended for the use of any of His Majesty’s Military forces other than the Army or Air Force of Ceylon or the Ceylon Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve;

“Naval explosives” means any service explosives intended for use of any of His Majesty’s naval forces other than the Army or Air Force of Ceylon or the Ceylon Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve;

“Port of Colombo” means the area bounded on the north by a line drawn due west from a point on the beach one geographical mile north of Mutwal point to a distance of three geographical miles; on the south by a line drawn due west from a point on the beach one geographical mile south of the Flagstaff to a distance of three geographical miles; on the west by a line connecting the western ends of the above-named north and south limits; on the east by the shore contained between the north and south limits and includes the Customs premises;

“Representative Officer” —

(a) in relation to service explosives which are naval, military or air force explosives, means the officer nominated by the Collector as Representative Officer in respect of such naval, military or air force explosives, as the case may be, and

(b) in relation to service explosives which are not naval, military or air force explosives, means the officer nominated as Representative Officer by the Collector in respect of such explosives.

“Service explosives” means explosives imported, exported or conveyed for the use of any of His Majesty’s forces or of the Army or Air Force of Ceylon or of the Ceylon Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve or of any Department of Government or for any other service of the Crown or of the Government.

27. The person or persons liable for a contravention of such of the provisions of these regulations as are specified in column I of Second Schedule shall be the person or persons specified in the corresponding entry in column II of that schedule
