The Village Communities Ordinance

BY-LAWS under section 49 of the Village Communities Ordinance (Chapter 198), made by the Village Committee of the Ehetuwewa village area in the Kurunegala District, and approved by the Minister of Health and Local Government by virtue of the powers vested in him by sub-section (3) of that section, as modified by the Proclamation published in Gazette Extraordinary No. 9,773 of September 24, 1947.

E. W. KANNANGARA,
Permanent Secretary,

Ministry of Health and Local Government.

Colombo, January 24, 1950.

BY-LAWS

Dairies and the Sale of Milk

1. No person shall keep any dairy, except on a licence issued in that behalf by the Chairman. Every such licence shall, unless it is earlier cancelled under by-law 5, expire on the thirty-first day of December of the year in respect of which it is issued.

2. All notices relating to a dairy shall be deemed to be served upon the licensee when left with any person employed by him in the dairy.

3. Every licensee of a dairy shall comply with the requirements of any notice which the Chairman causes to be served on him—

- (a) within the time specified therein, or
- (b) within seven days of the service of that notice if no such time is specified therein.

4. If at any time during the period for which a licence has been issued under by-law 1, the licensed premises ceases to conform to the conditions specified in these by-laws for its issue, the Chairman may cause a notice to be served on the licensee requiring him to do all things necessary to make the premises conform to such conditions, and if the licensee fails to comply with the requirements of such notice, the Chairman may suspend the licence of such licensee.

5. It shall be lawful for the Rural Court, in addition to any other punishment that it may impose, to cancel the licence of any licensee of a dairy on a second or subsequent conviction by such Court for a breach of any of these by-laws relating to dairies and the sale of milk and such licensee shall not be entitled to any compensation in respect of the cancellation.

137—J. N. A 94863-1,494 (1/50)

6. No person shall expose for sale, sell, hawk, deliver or carry for sale any milk within the village area unless he is—

- (a) the licensee of a dairy, or a vendor of milk to whom a card of registration has been issued under by-law 18, or
- (b) a registered purveyor of milk, or a holder of a card of identity issued under by-law 22.

7. (1) No person shall be entitled to a licence to keep a dairy unless the building or shed intended for the accommodation of cattle is in conformity with the following requirements:—

- (a) such building or shed must be in good repair, and well ventilated and well lighted;
- (b) such building or shed must be provided with suitable drains for the purpose of conveying urine, washings and waste water into one or more covered receptacles;
- (c) such building or shed must be proportionate in size to the number of cows which the prospective licensee intends to keep therein, each cow to be given a minimum floor space of forty square feet and a minimum air space of four hundred cubic feet;
- (d) such building or shed must be provided with a sufficient supply of pure water obtainable from some place situated at a convenient distance from such building or shed;
- (e) the walls of such building or shed must be made of some permanent material;
- (f) the woodwork of such building or shed must be oil-painted or limewashed; and
- (g) the floor of such building or shed must be paved with cement concrete or with brick or stone rendered in cement.

(2) No person shall be entitled to a licence to keep a dairy unless the building or shed intended for use as a milk room is in conformity with the following requirements:—

- (a) such building or shed must be in a suitable position, at a distance of not less than twenty-five feet from the building intended for use as the cattle shed and not less than one hundred feet from any latrine, cesspit, ashpit, permanent manure heap, or open sewer;
- (b) such building or shed must be provided with an oil-painted ceiling that prevents dirt and dust falling from the roof;
- (c) such building or shed must be provided with at least one window and one door (the area of the window being not less than one-fifteenth of the floor space);
- (d) every door and window must be covered with fly-proof netting;

- (e) one window of such building or shed must face at least one door;
- (f) at least two opposite walls of such building or shed must abut on the open air,
- (g) the walls must be not less than seven feet in height and must be built of brick, stone or cabook;
- (h) every inside wall must be covered to a height of four feet from the floor with a layer of cement not less than three-quarters of an inch in thickness;
- (i) the inside walls must be plastered with lime-mortar or whitewashed,
- (j) the floor must be paved with cement concrete not less than four inches in thickness; and
- (k) the eaves of the roof must be at least six feet from the ground.

8. Every licensee of a dairy shall keep affixed in a conspicuous position on the outside of his premises a board on which his name in English, Sinhalese and Tamil and the phrase "Licensed Dairy" and its Sinhalese and Tamil equivalents are clearly painted.

9. Every licensee of a dairy shall cause—

- (a) a list of the names and addresses of all the employees (including the vendors of milk) to be kept in the premises so as to be easily available for inspection;
- (b) the walls of the milk room to be limewashed in June and December in every year, and at such other times as the Chairman may order in writing;
- (c) the floors and the top of the milk room table to be washed at least once every day;
- (d) all utensils, furniture and other requisites used in or belonging to the dairy to be kept clean;
- (e) every part of the dairy to be kept clean and in good repair;
- (f) all dung, refuse, urine, and washings to be removed at least once a day and disposed of at a suitable distance from the dairy in such a manner as to cause no nuisance; and
- (g) all cattle food, other than grass or straw, to be stored in suitable rat-proof receptacles.

10. The licensee of a dairy shall cause every vessel in the dairy containing milk to be adequately protected with a clean cover or lid and shall take all precautions to prevent the milk from being contaminated during transit.

11. The licensee of a dairy shall not allow any milk vessel, butter vessel, churn, separator, or other articles used in the dairy to be used for any purpose other than the purposes of the dairy and shall cause each such vessel, churn, separator or other articles to be thoroughly washed with boiling water after each occasion on which it has been used.

12. (1) No person who is suffering or has recently suffered from any cutaneous, contagious or infectious disease, or has been recently in attendance on any person suffering from any such disease, shall enter the dairy premises or take part in the preparation, sale or transport of milk until the periods of infection and incubation have elapsed.

(2) No licensee or person in charge of the dairy shall employ or permit any person suffering from any cutaneous, contagious or infectious disease or who has recently suffered from any such disease or who has been recently in attendance on any person suffering from any such disease, to enter the dairy premises or take part in the preparation, sale or transport of milk, until the periods of infection and incubation have elapsed.

13. The licensee of a dairy shall not cause or permit—

- (a) any milk to be poured into any vessel which is not thoroughly cleaned;
- (b) milk to be stored in any vessel other than a vessel made of glass, porcelain, glazed earthenware or enamelled or galvanized iron;
- (c) any vessel used for the storage of milk to be kept in any place other than the milk room;
- (d) milk for the purposes of sale to be drawn from any cow unless immediately before the time of milking, the udder and the teats of the cow are thoroughly cleaned and wiped with a clean damp cloth, and unless the hands of the person milking are also thoroughly washed and cleaned;

- (e) milk intended for sale to be kept in any place other than the milk room; or
- (f) any animal or bird to enter or remain in the milk room for any purpose whatsoever.

14. The licensee of a dairy shall give immediate notice to the Chairman of any case or suspected case of cutaneous, contagious or infectious disease which may occur among the persons employed in the dairy.

15. The licensee of a dairy shall not sell or permit to be sold the milk of any cow suffering from tuberculosis whether of the udder or otherwise, acute mastitis, foot-and-mouth disease, anthrax, actinomycosis of the udder, or add such milk of permit it to be added to the milk of other animals which is intended for sale for human consumption.

16. The licensee of a dairy shall not use the milk room or permit it to be used for any purpose other than that of storing and preparing milk.

17. The licensee of a dairy shall not sell or supply to any person milk obtained from any cow other than a cow kept in a licensed dairy.

18. The Chairman shall issue annually to the owner of every licensed dairy in respect of each vendor of milk, a card of registration bearing the name and thumb impression of the vendor and the name of the licensee and registered number of the dairy.

19. No card of registration referred to in by-law 18 shall be issued until a Medical Officer, authorised in writing by the Chairman, has examined and found such vendor of milk to be free from any cutaneous, contagious or infectious disease. Such card of registration shall not be transferable.

20. (1) The Chairman or any officer authorised in writing by the Chairman, may at any time demand and take a sample of milk for analysis, on payment of the value thereof, from any licensed dairy or from any vendor of milk to whom a card of registration has been issued under by-law 18.

(2) No licensee of a dairy or a vendor to whom a card of registration has been issued under by-law 18 shall refuse to comply with a demand lawfully made under paragraph (1).

21. Every person who desires to sell in any place within the village area, any milk produced outside that area, shall cause himself to be registered in the books of the Committee as a purveyor of milk. No fee shall be charged for such registration.

22. Every registered purveyor of milk shall cause a card of identity to be issued annually by the Chairman to each vendor employed by such purveyor in the work of selling or delivering milk.

23. (1) The Chairman may in his discretion refuse to register any person as a purveyor of milk under by-law 21, if he has not been recommended for registration, after inspection of his cattle, premises and utensils by a Medical Officer authorised in writing by the Chairman.

(2) The Chairman may likewise refuse to issue a card of identity to any vendor under by-law 22, until a Medical Officer has examined and found such vendor to be free from any cutaneous, contagious or infectious disease. Every card of identity issued to a vendor by the Chairman under by-law 22 shall contain the following particulars—

- (a) name and registered number of the employer; and
- (b) name and thumb impression of the vendor.

24. Every vendor of milk to whom a card of registration has been issued under by-law 18, and every holder of a card of identity shall carry his registration card or card of identity, as the case may be on his person when exposing for sale, selling, hawking, delivering or carrying milk, and shall produce such card whenever directed to do so by any person duly authorised in that behalf by the Chairman in writing.

25. It shall be lawful for the Chairman or any person authorised by him in writing to enter and inspect any dairy licensed under these by-laws at all reasonable times and the licensee of such dairy shall render him all such assistance as may be necessary.

26. No person shall expose for sale, sell, deliver, hawk or carry for sale within the village area—

- (a) any milk from which the cream has been removed, unless such milk is contained in a vessel which bears a label on which is painted the phrase "Skimmed Milk" and its Sinhalese and Tamil equivalents and is declared at the time of sale to be skimmed milk, or
- (b) any milk contained in bottles of which the mouths are not adequately covered with some impermeable material, or
- (c) any milk adulterated with water or any other foreign substance or liquid. Provided that milk to which tea coffee or cocoa has been added for consumption on the premises of any tea or coffee boutique or eating-house shall not be deemed to be adulterated for the purpose of this by-law.

27. If any person found guilty of a breach of by-law 26 is proved to be the agent or servant of any other person such other person shall also be guilty of a breach of that by-law, unless he proves to the satisfaction of the court that he had given all necessary instructions and used due diligence to ensure compliance with that by-law and the breach was due to an act or default of the agent or servant without the knowledge, consent or connivance of such other person.

28. Every licensee of a dairy shall cause a copy of these by-laws (relating to dairies and the sale of milk) in English, Sinhalese and Tamil and the licence to be framed and hung in a conspicuous position in the dairy.

Boundaries and Fences

29. The owner, lessee, occupier or person in charge of every land which is not cultivated shall mark the boundaries of such land with live fences, or ditches or stones firmly embedded in the ground or in any other way which is in accordance with the custom of the village area.

30. The owner, lessee, occupier or person in charge of every land which is cultivated shall erect a fence along the boundary of such land and shall maintain such fence in good repair.

31. In the case of any two adjoining lands the owners, lessees, occupiers or persons in charge of both lands shall be jointly responsible for laying down, making, or erecting and for maintaining in good order, the marks, ditch or fence forming the common boundary: Provided that it shall be lawful for the owner, lessee, occupier or person in charge of either of such lands to erect the fence on the common boundary at his own expense, all due precautions being taken to prevent damage being caused to trees or plants on the other land.

32. Any person erecting a boundary fence at his own expense shall have the right to enjoy the produce of the fence-sticks on such boundary, and no person shall strip off leaves or cut down breaches from any such fence-sticks without his consent.

33. For the purpose of making or repairing any fence, ditch or boundary mark, it shall be lawful for the owner, lessee, occupier or person in charge of one land or his employees to enter into any of the adjoining lands with the necessary materials and implements.

34. No person shall knowingly or wilfully alter or deface or do any act likely to damage any fence or boundary or remove any landmarks from any land.

Road and Paths

35. (1) No person shall—

- (a) injure, damage, obstruct, encroach upon or otherwise interfere with the use of any public road or path; or
  - (b) except with the permission of the Committee, divert the line of any public road or path.
- (2) For the purposes of this by-law a village road or path includes a public road or path which is in the course of construction.

36. (1) It shall be the duty of the proprietors and cultivators of any paddy field through which a public path runs to maintain such path at his customary width,

(2) No person shall cut or encroach upon any public path running through a paddy field so as to reduce its width to less than its customary width.

37. When a range of paddy fields through which any public road or path passes is under cultivation, the cultivators of such range shall be entitled, with the previous permission of the Chairman and subject to such terms and conditions as he may impose, to put up a suitable gate across such road or path during the period of cultivation in order to prevent cattle from trespassing in the paddy fields.

38. (1) When any work of construction or of repair is commenced on any public road or path the Chairman may prohibit the use of such road or path by the public for such time as may be necessary after giving at least three days' notice by beat of tom-tom or otherwise.

(2) It shall be lawful for the Committee, by a resolution in that behalf, to restrict or to prohibit the use of any public road or path by any kind or class of heavy vehicular traffic.

(3) Where a restriction or prohibition is imposed under paragraph (2) in respect of any public road or path the Chairman shall cause notices setting out the restriction or prohibition in English, Sinhalese and Tamil to be displayed conspicuously at the beginning and at the end of such road or path and at its junction with any other road or path.

(4) No person shall fail to conform to the requirements of any notice displayed under paragraph (3).

39. It shall be lawful for any person thereunto authorised in writing by the Chairman—

(1) to enter between the hours of 7 a.m. and 5 p.m., with all necessary workmen, vehicles, animals and implements upon any land adjacent to or near any existing or proposed public road or path for the purpose of doing any work connected with such road or path.

(2) to throw upon any land adjacent to or near any existing or proposed public road or path such earth, rubbish or materials as it may be necessary to remove from the place of any work connected with such road or path;

(3) to make any temporary road through the grounds near any existing or proposed public road or path during the execution of any work in any way connected with such road or path; or

(4) to enter upon any land for the purpose of constructing, repairing or cleaning such drains or water-courses or culverts as it may be necessary for the preservation, improvement, repair or construction of any public road or path:

Provided that the earth, rubbish or materials referred to in paragraph (2) are removed within a reasonable time, and the temporary road referred to in paragraph (3) does not run over any ground whereon any building stands or over any enclosed garden or yard.

Public Health and Amenities and Disorderly Conduct

40. The owner or occupier of every house or land shall keep his premises clean and free from all weeds, rank or noisome vegetation and all refuse or rubbish or receptacles likely to form breeding places for mosquitoes for a distance of thirty yards from such house or to the boundary of his premises, whichever is less.

41. (a) When any tree or any branch or fruit or other part of a tree is causing or is likely to cause damage to any building or is in a condition dangerous to the safety of passers-by along any public thoroughfare, the Chairman may by a notice in writing served on the owner or occupier of the land on which such tree stands, require such owner or occupier to tie up and make secure, or to cut down and remove, such tree or such branch or fruit or other part of the tree, within such time as may be specified in the notice.

(b) Every person on whom a notice is served under this by-law shall comply with the requirements of such notice within the time specified therein, and in the event of the refusal or neglect of such person to comply with such requirements within such time, the Chairman or any person authorised by him in writing may enter upon the land referred to in such notice and do what such person was required to do by such notice and the expenses thereby incurred shall be recoverable from such person as a debt due to the Committee.

42. No person shall cause any annoyance to any other person by publishing any obscene writing or by making any obscene drawing or by signing or reciting any obscene song or ballad or do any other act which is likely to outrage public decency.

43. No person shall throw stones or filth at the house or into the compound of any other person.

Washing and Bathing

44. No person shall bathe or wash any animal or article at a communal well, spout, spring or other watering place for the supply of water for domestic purposes.

45. Where any place has been set apart by the Committee as a public bathing place or as a place for washing animals and clothes, no person shall use such place for any purpose other than that for which it has been set apart: Provided, however, that a person may wash at a public bathing place the clothes worn by him whilst bathing at such place.

46. No person of one sex shall enter any enclosure at a public bathing place set apart by the Committee for the exclusive use of persons of the other sex.

47. No person who is suffering or has recently suffered from any contagious, cutaneous or infectious disease or who has been recently in attendance on any person suffering from such disease shall bathe or wash at any public bathing place until the periods of infection and incubation have elapsed.

48. No person shall drive or take any animal to a public bathing place for any purpose whatsoever.

Gambling, Cock-fighting and Cart-racing

49. No person shall gamble with dice or cards, play any game for a stake or take part in betting of any kind within the village area.

50. No person shall allow gambling with dice or cards or the playing of any game for a stake in any house, premises, boat, vessel or vehicle occupied by that person or belonging to him or under his control.

51. No person shall engage in cart-racing on any public road or path.

Spring guns and traps

52. No person shall set any spring gun or trap without the written permission of the Chairman. The fact that such permission has been granted shall be proclaimed by beat of tom-tom by an officer authorised in that behalf by the Chairman.

The disposal of the bodies of dead animals

53. On the death of any animal, it shall be the duty of the owner thereof, or in the absence of the owner, or the occupier of the premises in which the death occurs, to cause the body of the animal to be buried before the expiry of a period of twelve hours from the time of death.

54. Where any person who is responsible under by-law 53 for the burial of any dead animal fails to bury such animal within a period of twelve hours, the Chairman shall cause such dead animal to be buried and the expenses incurred thereby may be recovered from such person as a debt due to the Committee.

Public notice

55. No person shall deface or destroy any notice which is exhibited by order of the Committee.

Sanitation nuisances

56. No person shall sink any well or cause any well to be sunk for the supply of water for domestic purposes within fifty feet from any cesspit, cesspool, pigsty, gala, cattle shed, defective drain or latrine, or any refuse heap or manure heap which is not removed at intervals of not more than two weeks, or of any land under cultivation which is manured every season.

57. No person shall within a distance of fifty feet from any well used for the supply of water for domestic purposes—

- (a) construct or cause or permit the construction of a cesspit, cesspool, latrine, pigsty, gala or cattle shed; or
- (b) allow any cesspit, cesspool, latrine, pigsty, gala or cattle shed to remain; or
- (c) deposit, or cause or permit the deposit of, any manure or decaying animal or vegetable matter, or
- (d) manure any land; or
- (e) allow any drain to be in a defective condition.

58. Whenever any tree or any branch or other part of a tree overhangs any well, it shall be lawful for the Chairman to cause a notice in writing under his hand to be served on the owner or occupier of the land on which such tree stands, requiring such owner or occupier to tie up, cut down or remove such tree or such branch or part of the tree and such owner or occupier shall comply with the requirements of such notice within fourteen days from the date of service thereof.

59. The Committee may, whenever such a course is deemed to be necessary, cause a notice in writing under the hand of the Chairman to be served on the owner or occupier of any land in which there is a well supplying water for domestic purposes, requiring such owner or occupier to bail out the water and clean the well and to execute such repairs as the Committee, may, in the interest of health, consider necessary, and such owner or occupier shall comply with the requirements of such notice within fourteen days from the date of service thereof.

60. The owner or occupier of every land in which there is any abandoned well, quarry, or pit shall cause such well, quarry or pit to be filled up within two days from the date on which the Chairman gives notice in that behalf either by beat of tom-tom or in any other suitable manner.

61. No person shall cause any annoyance, danger or injury to any other person or cause damage to the property of any other person by committing any of the following acts:—

- (1) Halting any vehicle on any public road or path longer than is reasonably necessary for the purpose of taking up or setting down passengers or loading and unloading goods.
- (2) Allowing children of tender years to play or stray in any public road or path or public place.
- (3) Overtaking or passing a vehicle on the wrong side in any public place or public road or path.
- (4) Easing himself on his own land in such a way as to offend other peoples' feelings of decency, or easing himself on another's land or on any public road or path or in any public place other than that specially provided for such a purpose.
- (5) Throwing rubbish, offensive matter or unserviceable articles or any other things on land belonging to any other person.
- (6) Allowing dirty or unwholesome water to run into or along the land of any other person or any public place or public road or path.
- (7) Allowing offensive smells to arise in his own compound so as to pollute the surrounding air.
- (8) Omitting to drain or fill up any pit, hollow, trench, ditch or low place where water may collect and stagnate within twenty yards of any building used for human habitation in such manner as to constitute a danger to public health.
- (9) Altering the existing conditions of the general drainage of any land by any building or planting operation or by raising or lowering the level of such land, or by diverting or blocking any drain or channel or waterway without first obtaining the sanction of the Committee. In this paragraph "general drainage" means the flow of water over the surface of land in the ordinary course of gravitation and not necessarily in any defined channel or drain.
- (10) Allowing cactus or prickly pear to grow on his land.

(11) Placing or burying any charmed metal plate, leaf or paper, or a charm of any other form on the land of any other person, and causing fear or annoyance thereby to any person.

62. No person shall for sale or for any purpose other than that of immediate use, keep or deposit or cause the keeping or depositing of, any guano, bone-dust or any substance whatsoever from which noxious or offensive smells may arise, in any place within the village area.

63. In the case of the death of any person, the occupier of the premises where the death took place, or in his absence, the nearest adult male relative of the deceased, shall be responsible for the proper burial of the body. In the absence or default of such occupier or nearest relative, the Chairman may cause the body to be buried at the expense of the Committee.

64. (1) No person shall deposit the body of any dead animal on any land or premises occupied by any other person.

(2) The Chairman shall cause the bodies of dead animals of which the owners are absent or cannot be ascertained to be buried in a suitable place at the expense of the Committee.

65. The owner or occupier of every house within the village area shall cause his house to be whitewashed within and without at least once yearly before the fifteenth day of April: Provided that it shall, at any time be lawful for the Committee, if on account of the prevalence of any epidemic disease or for any other similar reason it appears to be necessary, to order the owner or occupier of any house within the village area to cause it to be whitewashed notwithstanding that such house may already have been whitewashed.

66. Every person splitting coconuts or causing coconuts to be split for other than domestic purposes, shall collect and throw away or otherwise dispose of the milk thereof, or cause such milk to be collected and thrown away or otherwise disposed of, at a distance of at least one hundred yards from any public road or path, or public place or any dwelling house.

67. (1) If any building, or wall or anything affixed thereon is in such condition as to be dangerous to any neighbouring building or the occupiers thereof or to passers-by, the Chairman shall cause a notice in writing to be served upon the owner or occupier of the land on which such building or wall stands requiring him—

- (a) in any case of urgency, within twenty-four hours after the service of the notice, to put up a proper hoarding or fence for the protection of passers by, and
- (b) in all cases within three days after the service of the notice to secure or repair such building, or wall or thing affixed thereon.

(2) Every owner or occupier on whom a notice is served under this by-law shall comply with the requirements of such notice within the time specified therein.

(3) Where any owner or occupier fails or neglects to comply with the requirements of a notice served on him under this by-law, the Committee may authorise any person or persons to do the work which ought to have been done by such owner or occupier and the expenses thereby incurred shall be recovered from such owner or occupier as a debt due to the Committee.

68. (1) Whenever any house or hut appears to be in an insanitary condition or in such disrepair as to be prejudicial to the health of the inmates of the neighbours, the Chairman may cause a notice in writing to be served upon the owner or occupier of that house or hut requiring him, within a time specified in such notice, to do such work as may be necessary to put that house or hut into a sanitary condition.

(2) Every owner or occupier on whom a notice is served under this by-law shall comply with the requirements of such notice within the time specified therein.

(3) Where any owner or occupier fails or neglects to comply with the requirements of a notice served on him under this by-law, the Chairman may cause the work to be done and the expenses thereby incurred shall be recovered from such owner or occupier as a debt due to the Committee.

Gala

69. No person shall establish or keep a gala except on a licence issued by the Chairman in that behalf.

70. Every licence for a gala shall be subject to the following conditions:—

- (1) The licensee shall cause a table of rents and fees leviable at the gala written in Sinhalese to be exhibited in a conspicuous place at the gala.
- (2) The licensee shall not permit any person who is suffering or has recently suffered from any contagious cutaneous, or infectious disease, or has been recently in attendance on any person suffering from such disease to occupy any place in the gala, until the periods of infection and incubation have elapsed.
- (3) The licensee shall keep the gala in a clean and sanitary condition.
- (4) The licensee shall cause any refuse or rubbish from the gala to be so buried or burned as to prevent the breeding of flies or the creation of any nuisance.
- (5) The licensee shall maintain order within the gala.
- (6) The licensee shall not permit any gambling or disorderly conduct to take place at the gala.
- (7) The licensee shall not allow any person to keep within the gala any cattle suffering from a contagious disease

71. The Chairman may suspend any licence for a gala during the continuance of an epidemic if such suspension is essential in the public interest.

72. No person shall establish or keep a gala within fifty yards of a dwelling house.

73. It shall be lawful for the Rural Court, in addition to any other punishment that it may impose, to cancel the licence of any licensee of a gala convicted twice or oftener of any breach of any of the conditions specified in by-law 70, and the licensee shall not be entitled to any compensation in respect of the cancellation.

The sale of spirits

74. No person shall sell to any boy under sixteen years of age or any female any spirit or other intoxicating liquor or toddy drawn from any species of palm or any fermented juice of the sugar cane.

Toddy drawing

75. Every owner or lessee of trees from which toddy is drawn shall, for the purpose of coupling such trees, use not less than six separate, good and sound ropes for the feet and not less than three separate, good and sound ropes for the hands.

76. Each rope use by such owner or lessee for such purpose shall consist of not less than six strands and at the end of each three months such owner or lessee shall replace each such rope by a new rope of the kind specified herein.

77. The owner or lessee of every kitul or coconut tree which is tapped for toddy shall cause any pole that may be used for climbing such tree to be renewed at intervals of not more than four months.

78. It shall be lawful for the Chairman or any person authorised by the Chairman in writing, at any time to enter any land whereon trees are being tapped for toddy and to inspect the ropes and other appliances used for that purpose.

Stray cattle

79. The owners of cattle which are believed to have strayed shall forthwith give information thereof to the village headman or to the Chairman.

The housing and penning of cattle, goats and pigs

80. The occupier of any premises shall not keep any cattle, goat or pig except in an enclosure situated at a distance of fifty feet or more from any dwelling house.

81. The occupier of any premises shall not keep any enclosure for any cattle, goat or pig so as to be a nuisance to any person residing in the village area or making use of any public road.

82. Every occupier of any premises or building whereon or wherein any cattle, goat or pig may be kept shall cause every part of such premises or building to be thoroughly cleaned from time to time as often as may be requisite.

83. Every occupier of any premises or building whereon or wherein any cattle, goat or pig is kept shall at all reasonable times afford free access to the Chairman or any officer duly authorised by him for the purpose of inspecting such premises or building.

Construction of latrines

84. Whenever the Committee defines an area within which the owner or lessee of any premises used for human habitation shall be required to construct and maintain a latrine, the Chairman, may by notice in writing served on the owner or lessee, direct the owner or lessee to construct a latrine of such type and size and in such position on the premises and with such connecting drains as may be determined by the Committee and are specified in the notice.
