(a) by substituting the following article for article 47.—

47. Modification of rights—If at any time the capital, by reason of the issue of preference shares or otherwise is divided into different classes of shares, all or any of the rights and privileges attached to each class may, subject to the provisions of section 62 of the Companies Ordinance, No. 51 of 1938, be modified, abrogated, or dealt with by an extraordinary resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of shares of that class, at which members holding or representing by proxy one-tenth of the nominal amount of the issued shares of that class shall form a quorum. The resolution whereby any share is sub-divided may determine that as between the holders of the shares resulting from such sub-division one or more of such shares shall have some preference or special advantage as regards dividend, capital, voting or otherwise over or as compared with the others or other.

(c) by substituting the following articles for articles 70 and 71 respectively:—

71. Voting at a poll—In case of a poll, every member present in person or by proxy or attorney shall have one vote for every share held by him.
