(3) Where a public officer is, under the powers conferred by paragraph 1 (c) of this rule, required by the competent authority to retire from service, the date on which his retirement shall become effective shall be a date specified by such authority in the notice given to that officer in that behalf by such authority, being a date not earlier than three months from the date of the notice.”

ROYAL SEAL

GEORGE R.

GEORGE THE SIXTH, by the Grace of God of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas King, Defender of the Faith.
To all to whom these Presents shall come:

GREETING.

Whereas We have taken into Our Royal Consideration the long and good services rendered by subordinate members of the Police and Fire Services in the Island of Ceylon:

And Whereas We are desirous of distinguishing such long and good services by some mark of Our Royal favour:

We do by these Presents for Us, Our Heirs and Successors institute and create a new Medal to be awarded in recognition of such services.

First: The Medal shall be designated and styled “The Ceylon Police and Fire Services Long Service Medal”.

Secondly: The Ceylon Police and Fire Services Long Service Medal shall consist of a circular medal of cupronickel with the Effigy of the Sovereign on the obverse, and on the reverse an emblematic design, with the circumscription “Ceylon Police and Fire Services Medal for Long Service and Good Conduct”.

Thirdly: The name and rank of the recipient of the Medal shall be inscribed on the rim of the Medal.

Fourthly: It is ordained that the Medal shall be worn on the left breast suspended from a ribbon one inch and three-eighths in width of which the central part (five-eighths of an inch in width) shall be dark blue with two light blue borders each three-sixteenths of an inch in width, two silver stripes each one-sixteenth of an inch in width separating the light blue borders from two dark khaki stripes each one-eighth of an inch in width which shall lie on either side of the central part. In the case of awards to members of the Ceylon Fire Services, the central part shall be divided by a further silver stripe one-sixteenth of an inch in width.

Fifthly: It is ordained that in the approved list showing the order in which Orders, Decorations and Medals should be worn, the Ceylon Police and Fire Services Long Service Medal shall be placed immediately in front of the Colonial Police and Fire Brigades Long Service Medal.

Sixthly: The Medal shall be awarded only to subordinate officers and constables of the Police Service, and to persons holding equivalent positions and rendering whole-time service in the Fire Services in Ceylon, who have completed not less than eighteen years' qualifying service as defined in the regulations hereinafter mentioned.

Seventhly: No person shall qualify for the award of the Medal who has not been granted an exemplary character as defined in the Regulations hereinafter mentioned, and who has not been recommended by the Officer in Command of the Police Service or Fire Service after completion of the requisite period of qualifying service.

Eighthly: It is ordained that a Bar to be attached to the Medal ribbon will also be granted to a recipient of the Medal on completion of twenty-five years' qualifying service and a further Bar on completion of thirty years' qualifying service and for each Bar so awarded a small Silver Rose emblem may be added to the ribbon when worn alone.

Ninthly: The Medal shall be awarded in Our Name and on Our behalf by Our Governor-General in accordance with such regulations as to the grant, forfeiture, restoration and other matters, in amplification of the provisions of this Our Warrant, as may be issued or approved from time to time by Our Governor-General.

Lastly: We reserve to Ourselves, Our Heirs and Successors, full power of annulling, altering, abrogating, augmenting, interpreting or dispensing with these rules and ordinances, or any part thereof, by a notification under Our Sign Manual.

Given at Our Court at St. James's this Nineteenth day of June One thousand nine hundred and fifty in the fourteenth year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,
D. S. SENANAYAKE,
Minister of Defence and External Affairs.

REGULATIONS FOR THE CEYLON POLICE AND FIRE SERVICES LONG SERVICE MEDAL

1. The Ceylon Police and Fire Services Long Service Medal will be granted as a reward for long service and good conduct to constables and subordinate officers of, and below, the rank of Chief Inspector of the Police Service of Ceylon who on, or after the 19th June, 1950 (date of Royal Warrant), shall have completed eighteen years' continuous service as hereinafter defined.

2. (a) For the purpose of these regulations, service shall only be reckoned as qualifying service provided that the person recommended for the grant of the Medal is in possession of an exemplary character.

The qualifications for an exemplary character shall be as follows:—

- (i) The possession of five good conduct badges, or a record which would have entitled a man to the award of five good conduct badges had he enlisted in the Service and remained as a Constable.
- (ii) A record of two years' uninterrupted good conduct dating from the day after the award of the fifth good conduct badge or eligibility therefor.
- (iii) A record showing not more than four bad entries in his service register during his whole service, none of which must be for offences of a disgraceful nature.
- (iv) A record showing not less than eleven years' Divisional Service.

Note.—By Divisional Service is meant executive work from which is excluded service as

Personal Orderly
Office Orderly
Tappal Orderly
Barrack Orderly
Store Orderly
Hospital Orderly
Magazine Orderly or Sergeant
Motor Car Orderly Armourer

and any employment which is primarily of a clerical nature and which does not entail constant and actual contact with the public.

(b) The qualifications for the award of the first bar to the Medal after twenty-five years' service shall be as follows:—

- (i) The possession of six good conduct badges.
- (ii) Five years' uninterrupted good conduct after the award of the sixth good conduct badge.
- (iii) Not more than four bad entries in his Service Register during his whole service, none of which must be for an offence of a disgraceful nature.
- (iv) Fifteen years' Divisional Service.

(c) The qualifications for the award of the second bar to the Medal after thirty years' service shall be as follows:—

- (i) Five years' uninterrupted good conduct after the award of the first bar.
- (ii) Not more than four bad entries in his Service Register during his whole service, none of which must be for an offence of a disgraceful nature.
- (iii) Eighteen years' Divisional Service.

3. (a) Qualifying service in the Civil Police Forces of other Commonwealth countries, or countries under His Majesty's protection, including Mandated or Trust Territories may be allowed to reckon towards the required period of qualifying service provided that the total period of such service amounts to not less than eighteen years: Provided, however, that where service has been rendered in more than one such territory as aforesaid an interval not exceeding twelve months between any two periods of service shall not be regarded as breaking the continuity of such service; provided also, that a break of service not exceeding six calendar months in any one such territory shall not be regarded as breaking the continuity of such service.

(b) Service in Military Police Forces shall not be regarded as qualifying service.

4. Recommendations for the award of the Medal shall be submitted by the Officer in Command of the Police Service to the Governor-General. The Medal will be awarded on the authority of the Governor-General and a notification of such award shall be published in the Government Gazette.

5. When a Medal has been lost and it is desired to replace it, a declaration must be made before a Magistrate stating the circumstances under which the loss occurred and the rank, number and name of the person to whom the Medal belonged. This declaration should be forwarded to the Governor-General through the usual channel of correspondence in the case of a member who is still serving, and direct, in the case of a person who has retired. If the explanation as to the loss is considered satisfactory, the Medal lost will be replaced on payment by the recipient unless it is decided to relieve him of this liability.

6. (a) A recipient of the Medal who is convicted of a criminal offence, or is dismissed or removed from the Police Service for misconduct shall forfeit the Medal unless the Governor-General shall otherwise direct.

(b) A Medal so forfeited may be restored to the recipient by the Governor-General at his discretion.

(c) A notice of forfeiture or restoration shall in every case be published in the Government Gazette.

7. The foregoing regulations when read with the substitution of the words "Entries in the Fire Services Register" for the word "badges", shall apply mutatis mutandis to persons holding equivalent positions and rendering whole-time service in the Ceylon Fire Services.

ROYAL SEAL

GEORGE R.

GEORGE THE SIXTH, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas King, Defender of the Faith.

To all to whom these Presents shall come:

GREETING:

Whereas We have taken into Our Royal consideration the good services which are rendered by members of the Police Service in the Island of Ceylon:

And Whereas We are desirous of rewarding gallant conduct or conspicuously meritorious service rendered by them:

We do by these Presents for Us, Our Heirs and Successors institute and create a new Medal to be awarded by Our Governor-General to members of Our aforesaid Police Service.

First: It is ordained that the Medal shall be designated and styled "The Ceylon Police Medal".

Secondly: It is ordained that the Ceylon Police Medal shall consist of a circular medal of silver with the Effigy of the Sovereign on the obverse, and on the reverse an emblematic design with the words "For Gallantry" or "For Merit" as the case may be and the circumscription "Ceylon Police Service". The Medal shall bear on the rim the name and rank of the person to whom it is awarded.

Thirdly: It is ordained that the Medal shall be awarded only to those members of the Ceylon Police Service who have performed acts of gallantry or services of conspicuous merit.

Fourthly: It is ordained that the names of those to whom this Medal may be awarded shall be published in the Ceylon Government Gazette, and that a Register of such names shall be kept by such person as Our Governor-General may direct.

Fifthly: It is ordained that, in the approved list showing the order in which Orders, Decorations and Medals should be worn, the Ceylon Police Medal for Gallantry shall be placed immediately in front of the Colonial Police Medal for Gallantry, and the Ceylon Police Medal for Merit shall be placed immediately in front of the Colonial Police Medal for Meritorious Service.

Sixthly: It is ordained that the Medal shall be worn on the left breast suspended from a ribbon one inch and three-eighths in width of which the central part (one half of an inch in width) shall be dark khaki. There shall be two dark blue borders each one-eighth of an inch in width separated from the central part by two light blue stripes each one-eighth of an inch in width, with two silver stripes each three-sixteenths of an inch in width which shall lie on either side of the central part. In the case of awards for gallantry, the silver stripes adjacent to the central part shall each be centrally divided by a crimson stripe one-sixteenth of an inch in width.

Seventhly: It is ordained that any gallant conduct which is worthy of recognition by the award of the Ceylon Police Medal, but is performed by one upon whom the Medal has already been conferred, may be recorded by a Bar attached to the ribbon by which the Medal is suspended. For each such additional award an additional Bar may be added, and for each Bar awarded a small silver rose may be added to the ribbon when worn alone.

Eighthly: It is ordained that it shall be competent for Our Governor-General for the time being to cancel and annul the award to any person of the Ceylon Police Medal, and that thereupon the name of such person in the Register shall be erased: provided that it shall be competent for Our Governor-General to restore the Medal so forfeited. And every person to whom the said Medal is awarded shall, before receiving the same, enter into an agreement to return the Medal if his name shall be erased as aforesaid.

Ninthly: It is ordained that the Medal shall be awarded under such regulations as to grant, forfeiture, restoration and other matters in amplification of these Our rules and ordinances as may be issued from time to time by Our Governor-General.

Lastly: We reserve to Ourselves, Our Heirs and Successors full power of annulling, altering, abrogating, augmenting, interpreting or dispensing with these rules and ordinances, or any part thereof, by a notification under Our Sign Manual.

Given at Our Court at St. James's the nineteenth day of June One thousand nine hundred and fifty in the fourteenth year of Our Reign.

By His Excellency's command,

D. S. SENANAYAKE,
Minister of Defence and External Affairs.

REGULATIONS FOR THE CEYLON POLICE MEDAL

The following Regulations shall be observed in awarding the Ceylon Police Medal:—

- (a) The Medal shall be open to all ranks of the Police Service

- (b) Each recommendation for the Medal shall state the name and rank of the person recommended and particulars of the action or service for which the grant of the Medal is recommended.
- (c) The qualifications for the Medal shall be as follows:—
- (i) Conspicuous gallantry.
  - (ii) Valuable service characterised by resource and devotion to duty, including prolonged service marked by exceptional ability, merit and exemplary conduct.
- (d) Any award of the Medal for conspicuous gallantry shall be made as soon as possible after the event occasioning the grant; and all other awards shall be made annually on the occasion of the celebration of His Majesty's Birthday; provided that an award may be made at any time when His Majesty so commands.
- (e) The number of Medals to be awarded in any one year, for services other than conspicuous gallantry, shall not exceed ten save and except that in very special circumstances which would justify an exceptional grant, the Governor-General may award Medals exceeding that number.
- (f) The award of the Medal will not be a bar to subsequent recommendation for The King's Police and Fire Services Medal.
