BADULLA URBAN DEVELOPMENT AREA

The Town and Country Planning Ordinance, No. 13 of 1946

BY virtue of the powers vested in me by section 32 of the Town and Country Planning Ordinance, No. 13 of 1946, as modified by the Proclamation published in Gazette Extraordinary No. 9,773 of September 24, 1947, I, Don Stephen Senanayake, Minister of Health and Local Government, do by this notification declare that the outline planning scheme for the Urban Development Area of Badulla specified in the Schedule hereto, has been sanctioned by me under section 28 (3) of that Ordinance.

D. S. SENANAYAKE,

Minister of Health and Local Government.

Colombo, February 22, 1952.

SCHEDULE

Part I

1. The areas specified in the First Schedule hereto are hereby reserved for buildings of a commercial character.

2. No person shall, within any commercial area—

(a) erect a new building for the purpose of being used for any of the dangerous or offensive trades enumerated in the Fifth Schedule hereto, or as a stable, cattle shed, pigsty, or gala for sheep or goats; or

(b) except with the approval of the Council, erect a building for the purpose of being used as a residential building, industrial building, place of assembly or tenement.

3. No person shall be given permission by the Council to erect a new building within any commercial area to be used as an industrial building, or a place of assembly or a tenement, unless such building is in conformity with the following conditions:—

(a) the use for which the building is intended must be such that no nuisance whatsoever is created thereby; and

(b) the erection of the building must be necessary for the convenience of the inhabitants of the area in which the site is situated and the design of the building must harmonize with the surroundings.

4. No person shall, within any commercial area—

(a) re-erect, enlarge or extend any existing building for the purpose of being used for any of the dangerous or offensive trades enumerated in the Fifth Schedule hereto or as a stable, cattle shed, pigsty or gala for sheep or goats; or

(b) use an existing building for any of the purposes set out in paragraph (a) unless the building was used for such purpose on the date on which the scheme came into operation: Provided that—

(i) the preceding provisions of sub-paragraph (b) shall not apply to an existing building which was used for any such purpose on the date on which the scheme came into operation but has not been used thereafter for that purpose for a continuous period exceeding twelve months, and

(ii) the preceding provisions of this paragraph shall not be deemed to prohibit a person from re-erecting, enlarging or extending an existing building or from using an existing building, in accordance with the written authority of the Chairman for the purpose of accommodating not more than four head of cattle or two horses.

5. No person shall, in any commercial area—

(a) re-erect, enlarge or extend an existing building for the purpose of being used as a residential building, industrial building, place of assembly or a tenement except with the written approval of the Council; or

(b) use an existing building for any of the purposes enumerated in sub-paragraph (a), unless the building was used for any such purpose on the date on which the scheme came into operation; or

- (c) use an existing building which was used on the date on which the scheme came into operation for any one of the purposes enumerated in sub-paragraph (a) for any other of such purposes, except with the written approval of the Council:

Provided that the provisions of sub-paragraph (b) shall not apply to any existing building which was used for any purpose specified in sub-paragraph (a) on the date on which the scheme came into operation, but has not been used thereafter for that purpose for a continuous period exceeding twelve months.

6. No person shall be authorised by the Council to re-erect, enlarge, or extend any building within a commercial area for the purpose of being used as an industrial building, or a place of assembly or a tenement unless the following conditions are fulfilled:—

- (a) the boundaries of the premises on which the building stands have been registered in the books of the Council within one year of the date on which the scheme came into operation;
- (b) the use for which the building is intended must not create any kind of nuisance whatsoever; and
- (c) such re-erection, enlargement or extension must be necessary for the convenience of the inhabitants of the area in which the building is situated and the design of the re-erection, enlargement or extension must harmonize with the surroundings.

7. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-paragraphs (2) and (3), no person shall, in any commercial area, erect any new building within the limits specified hereunder—

- (a) within 33 feet on either side of the centre of the following roads, that is to say, Bandara-wela road, Railway Station road and Passara road; or
- (b) within 25 feet on either side of the centre of any road other than the roads specified in clause (a).

(2) The Council may, if it thinks fit, permit the erection of a building within the limits specified in clause (a) of sub-paragraph (1)—

- (i) for the purpose of architectural effect, or
- (ii) if on account of propinquity of buildings already within those limits or any other circumstance which in its opinion is special, compliance with the provisions of the aforesaid clause would seriously hamper the development of the site:

Provided that no such building shall be allowed within a distance of 25 feet from the centre of the roads specified in that clause.

(3) Where the building limit has been modified under section 88 of the Urban Councils Ordinance, No. 61 of 1939, no person shall erect any building within the modified building limit.

8. No person shall, in any commercial area, erect any new building or re-erect any existing building at the corner of a junction of roads within the triangular area specified hereunder:—

- (a) two sides of such area being the appropriate building lines relating to such roads from the place of intersection of such lines to points 16 feet away from such place of intersection, such points being hereinafter referred to as "terminal points"; and
- (b) the third side being the straight line connecting such terminal points.

9. (1) No person shall, in any commercial area, erect or re-erect any building unless the heights of the floors of such building conform to the following requirements:—

- (a) the ground floor must not be less than one foot above the level of the road in front of the building;
- (b) the first floor must not be less than 11 feet above the level of the road in front of the building; and
- (c) the third floor must not be less than 22 feet above the level of the road in front of the building.

(2) No person shall, in any commercial area, erect or re-erect any building of which the sunshades, balconies, eaves, or cornices project more than 4 feet, 4 feet, 3 feet and 2 feet, respectively.

(3) The Chairman shall have the power to define the nature of the front elevations of every new building in a commercial area: Provided, however, that nothing in the preceding provisions of this sub-paragraph shall be deemed to authorise the Chairman to give any directions which involve a substantial increase in the cost of such building.

10. No person shall, in any commercial area, erect any new building or re-erect or add to an existing building, unless the materials used for such new buildings, addition or re-erection conform to the following requirements:—

- (a) in the case of walls, the materials consist of bricks, stone, cabook, sun-dried bricks or concrete blocks laid in lime or cement mortar;
- (b) in the case of roofs, the materials consist of tiles, galvanized iron or cement asbestos sheeting;
- (c) in the case of ground floors, the materials consist of concrete, bricks or stone laid in cement mortar or timber boarding; and
- (d) in the case of upper floors, the materials consist of concrete or timber.

11. In any commercial area any temporary structure erected under section 17 of the Housing and Town Improvement Ordinance—

- (a) shall not be allowed to project within the limits specified in paragraph 7 (1); and
- (b) shall under no circumstances be permitted to remain for more than one year:

Provided, however, that the Chairman may extend the period for a further period of one year in the case of a temporary structure used in connection with the construction of a permanent structure.

12. (1) The total area covered by a new building in any commercial area shall not exceed three-quarters of the total area of the site and the area not so covered shall belong exclusively to the building and shall be retained as part and parcel of it:

Provided, however, that the provisions of this sub-paragraph shall not apply in any case where a building abuts on two roads, if the other requirements laid down in this scheme and in the Schedule to the Housing and Town Improvement Ordinance are complied with.

(2) No structure shall be erected upon the site of the new building other than that building and such latrines, bathing and cooking places as may be allowed by the by-laws of the Council, and in the absence of such by-laws, as may be approved by the Council.

13. No person shall, in any commercial area, fix any advertisement board or sign on the front elevation of a building without the approval in writing of the Chairman, who shall have the power to refuse such approval, if he considers that the proposed advertisement board or sign would mar the amenities of the street or is not in uniformity with the other boards or signs along the street.

Part II

1. The areas specified in the Second Schedule hereto are hereby reserved for buildings of an industrial character.

2. No person shall, within any industrial area—

- (a) erect a new building for the purpose of being used as a stable, cattle shed, pigsty or gala for sheep or goats; or
- (b) except with the written authority of the Council, erect a new building for the purpose of being used as a residential building, commercial building, place of assembly, or tenement or for any of the dangerous or offensive trades enumerated in the Fifth Schedule hereto.

3. No person shall be authorised by the Council to erect any new residential building in any industrial area, if the site selected is in close proximity to a building used for any of the dangerous or offensive trades specified in the Fifth Schedule hereto.

4. No person shall be authorised by the Council to erect any new building in any industrial area, for the purpose of being used as a commercial building, place of assembly, or a tenement or any of the dangerous or offensive trades specified in the Fifth Schedule hereto unless the following conditions are fulfilled:—

- (a) the use for which the building is intended must not create any kind of nuisance whatsoever; and
- (b) the erection of the building must be necessary for the convenience of the inhabitants of the area in which the site is situated.

5. No person shall, within any industrial area—

- (a) re-erect, enlarge or extend an existing building for the purpose of being used as a stable, cattle shed, pigsty or gala for sheep or goats;
- (b) use an existing building for any of the purposes set out in sub-paragraph (a) unless the building was used for such purpose on the date on which the scheme came into operation:

Provided that—

- (i) the preceding provisions of sub-paragraph (b) shall not apply to an existing building which was used for any of the purposes specified in sub-paragraph (a) on the date on which the scheme came into operation, but has not been used thereafter for such purpose for a continuous period exceeding twelve months;
- (ii) the preceding provisions of this paragraph shall not be deemed to prohibit a person from re-erecting, enlarging or extending an existing building or from using an existing building in accordance with the written authority of the Chairman for the purpose of accommodating not more than four head of cattle or two horses.

6. No person shall, in any industrial area—

- (a) re-erect, enlarge or extend an existing building for the purpose of being used as a residential building, commercial building, place of assembly or a tenement, or for any of the dangerous or offensive trades enumerated in the Fifth Schedule hereto without the written authority of the Council;
- (b) use an existing building for any of the purposes enumerated in sub-paragraph (a), unless the building was used for any such purpose on the date on which the scheme came into operation; or
- (c) use an existing building which was used on the date on which the scheme came into operation for any one of the purposes enumerated in sub-paragraph (a) for any other of such purposes without the written authority of the Council:

Provided that the provisions of sub-paragraph (b) shall not apply to any existing building which was used for any of the purposes specified in sub-paragraph (a) on the date on which this scheme came into operation, but has not been used thereafter for a continuous period exceeding twelve months.

7. No person shall be authorised by the Chairman to re-erect, enlarge or extend an existing building in any industrial area for the purpose of being used as a residential building, commercial building, a place of assembly, a tenement or for any of the dangerous or offensive trades enumerated in the Fifth Schedule hereto, unless the following conditions are fulfilled:—

- (a) the boundaries of the premises on which the building stands have been registered in the books of the Council within one year of the date on which the scheme came into operation;
- (b) the use for which the building is intended must not create any kind of nuisance whatsoever; and
- (c) such re-erection, enlargement or extension must be necessary for the convenience of the inhabitants of the area in which the building is situated.

8. No person shall, in any industrial area, erect any new building or add to or re-erect any existing building, unless the materials used for such building are in conformity with the following requirements:—

- (a) in the case of walls, the materials are of a permanent nature;
- (b) in the case of roofs, the materials consist of tiles, galvanized iron or cement asbestos sheeting;
- (c) in the case of ground floors, the materials consist of concrete, brick or stone laid in cement mortar or timber boarding; and
- (d) in the case of upper floors, the materials consist of concrete or timber.

9. (1) The total area covered by any new building in any industrial area shall not exceed three-quarters of the total area of the site and the area not so covered shall belong exclusively to the building and shall be retained as part and parcel of it.

(2) No structure shall be erected upon the site of the new building other than that building and such latrines, bathing and cooking places as may be allowed by the by-laws of the Council, or in the absence of such by-laws, as may be approved by the Council.

10. No person shall fix an advertisement board or sign on the front elevation of a building in any industrial area without the approval in writing of the Chairman, who shall have the power to refuse such approval if he considers that the proposed advertisement board or sign would mar the amenities of the street or is not in uniformity with the other boards or signs along the street.

Part III

1. The areas specified in the Third Schedule hereto are hereby reserved for public open spaces.

2. No person shall erect any new building within an area reserved as a public open space, except a building the erection of which is incidental to the purposes for which the land is reserved as a public open space.

3. No person shall re-erect, enlarge or extend any existing building within any area reserved as a public open space, or use any existing building in a public open space for any purpose other than the purpose for which it was being used on the date on which the scheme came into operation, or for any purpose incidental to the purposes for which the land is reserved as a public open space.

Part IV

1. The areas specified in the Fourth Schedule hereto are hereby reserved for the erection of public buildings.

Part V

1. All that area of land within the limits of the Council, other than the areas reserved under Schedules One to Four are hereby reserved for residential buildings.

2. No person shall, within a residential area—

- (a) erect more than 16 residential units in each acre of land;
- (b) erect a new building for the purpose of being used for an industrial building, petrol filling station, or for any of the dangerous or offensive trades enumerated in the Fifth Schedule hereto; or
- (c) except with the written authority of the Council erect a building for the purpose of being used as a commercial building, place of assembly or as a stable, cattle shed, pigsty, or gala for sheep or goats.

3. No person shall be authorised by the Council to erect any new building in any residential area for the purpose of being used as a commercial building, place of assembly or as a stable, cattle shed, pigsty, or gala for sheep or goats, unless the following conditions are fulfilled:—

- (a) the site selected for such building must not be in close proximity to existing residential buildings;
- (b) the site must not be situated in such a prominent place as to mar the amenities of the neighbourhood by the erection of such building thereon;
- (c) the use for which the building is intended must not create any kind of a nuisance whatsoever; and
- (d) the erection of the building must be necessary for the convenience of the inhabitants of the area in which the site is situated and the design of the building must harmonize with the surroundings.

4. No person shall, within a residential area—

- (a) re-erect, enlarge or extend an existing building for the purpose of being used for an industrial building, petrol filling station, or for any of the dangerous or offensive trades enumerated in the Fifth Schedule hereto;
- (b) use an existing building for any of the purposes set out in paragraph (a) unless the building was used for such purpose on the date on which the scheme came into operation:

Provided that—

- (i) the preceding provisions of sub-paragraph (b) shall not apply to an existing building which was used for any of the purposes specified in sub-paragraph (a) on the date on which the scheme came into operation but has not been used thereafter for that purpose for a continuous period exceeding twelve months;
- (ii) the preceding provisions of this paragraph shall not be deemed to prohibit a person from re-erecting, enlarging or extending an existing building or from using such building in accordance with the written authority of the Chairman for the purpose of accommodating not more than four head of cattle or two horses.

5. No person shall, in any residential area—

- (a) re-erect, enlarge or extend an existing building for the purpose of being used as a commercial building, place of assembly, or as a stable, cattle shed, pigsty, or gala for sheep or goats, except with the written authority of the Council;
- (b) use an existing building for any of the purposes enumerated in sub-paragraph (a) unless the building was used for any of such purposes on the date on which the scheme came into operation; or

- (c) use an existing building which was used on the date on which the scheme came into operation for any one of the purposes enumerated in sub-paragraph (a) for any other of such purposes, except with the written authority of the Council:

Provided that the provisions of sub-paragraph (b) shall not apply to any building which was used for any of the purposes specified in sub-paragraph (a) on the date on which this scheme came into operation, but has not been used thereafter for that purpose for a continuous period exceeding twelve months.

6. No person shall be authorised by the Council to re-erect, enlarge or extend an existing building in any residential area for the purpose of being used as a commercial building, a place of assembly, or as a stable, cattle shed, pigsty, or a gala for sheep or cattle unless the following conditions are fulfilled:—

- (a) the boundaries of the premises on which the building stands have been registered in the books of the Council within one year of the date on which the scheme came into operation;
- (b) the re-erection, enlargement or extension must not mar the amenities of the neighbourhood;
- (c) the use for which the building is intended must not create any kind of nuisance whatsoever; and
- (d) in the case of a building which is re-erected, enlarged or extended for the purpose of being used as a commercial building, such re-erection, enlargement or extension must be necessary for the convenience of the inhabitants of the area in which the building is situated.

7. No person shall, in any residential area, erect any new building or add to or re-erect an existing building unless the materials used for such building conform to the following requirements:—

- (a) in the case of walls, the materials must be of a permanent nature;
- (b) in the case of roofs, the materials must consist of tiles, galvanized iron or cement asbestos sheets;
- (c) in the case of ground floors, the materials must consist of concrete, brick or stone laid in cement mortar or timber boarding; and
- (d) in the case of upper floors, the materials must consist of concrete or timber.

8. (1) The total area covered by a new building in any residential area shall not exceed two-thirds of the total area of the site and the area not so covered shall belong exclusively to the building and shall be retained as part and parcel of it.

(2) No structure shall be erected upon the site of the new building other than that building and such latrines, bathing and cooking places as may be allowed by the by-laws of the Council, or in the absence of such by-laws, as may be approved by the Council.

9. No person shall fix an advertisement board or sign on the front elevation of a building in any residential area without the approval in writing of the Chairman, who shall have the power to refuse such approval if he considers that the proposed advertisement board or sign would mar the amenities of the street or is not in uniformity with the other boards or signs along the street.

The Rabies Ordinance

REGULATIONS under section 9 of the Rabies Ordinance (Chapter 333), as amended by the Rabies (Amendment) Ordinance, No. 13 of 1941, made by the Chairman of the Tangalla Urban Council, and approved by the Minister of Home Affairs and Rural Development by virtue of the powers vested in him by that section, as modified by the Proclamation published in Gazette Extraordinary No. 9,773 of September 24, 1947.

B. F. PERERA,
Permanent Secretary,
Ministry of Home Affairs and Rural Development.
Colombo, March 8, 1952.

REGULATIONS

1. The Chairman or any officer authorised by him in that behalf may declare any place or premises to be an inoculation station for the purpose of inoculating dogs against rabies.
2. Every owner or person in charge of a dog shall produce such dog at an inoculation station for inoculation against rabies, at such time and date as may be fixed for the purpose by the Government Veterinary Surgeon by notice published in one or more newspapers.
3. Where a dog produced for inoculation at any inoculation station is, in the opinion of the Government Veterinary Surgeon or any other officer authorised by him to inoculate dogs, not in a fit condition to be so inoculated, the Government Veterinary Surgeon or such other officer may require the owner or person in charge of the dog to produce that dog for inoculation on such subsequent date as may be appointed by him, and it shall be the duty of such owner or person to comply with such requirement.
4. In these regulations, "Chairman" means the Chairman of the Tangalla Urban Council.

JAFFNA MUNICIPAL COUNCIL

The Municipal Councils Ordinance, No. 29 of 1947

BY-LAWS made by the Municipal Council of Jaffna under sections 184 (1) and 267 of the Municipal Councils Ordinance, No. 29 of 1947, approved by the Minister of Health and Local Government by virtue of the powers vested in him by section 268 of the Ordinance, as modified by the Proclamation published in Gazette Extraordinary No. 9,773 of September 24, 1947, and confirmed by the Senate and the House of Representatives.

Colombo, March 10, 1952.

G. DE SOYZA,
Permanent Secretary,
Ministry of Health and Local Government.

BY-LAWS

Short title.

Establishment of Provident Fund.

Contributions by servants.

Contributions to be deducted from salary or wage.

1. These by-laws may be cited as the Jaffna Municipal Council Provident Fund By-laws, 1952.
2. A fund, which shall be known as the Jaffna Municipal Council Provident Fund, is hereby established for the benefit of the servants of the Council who are not members of the Local Government Service.
3. (1) Every servant of the Council (other than a member of the Local Government Service) shall, until he ceases to be a servant of the Council or is appointed to a scheduled post, contribute to the Provident Fund an amount equal to one-twentieth of his monthly salary or wage :
Provided that the preceding provisions of this by-law shall not apply to any such servant if he is entitled to the grant of a pension under the by-laws made in that behalf by the Council.
(2) The contribution of a servant for any month shall be calculated on the full monthly salary or wage of that servant notwithstanding that the amount received as salary or wage for that month is less than the full monthly salary or wage, or that no amount whatsoever is received by way of salary or wage for that month.
4. (1) Every contribution shall be recovered as an abatement from the salary or wage of the contributor.

(2) Where, for any reason, a contribution due from any contributor in respect of any month is not recovered as an abatement from his salary or wage, the contributor shall, within ten days of the receipt of his salary or wage for that month, pay such contribution to the Provident Fund; and in case of default of payment, such contribution shall be recovered as an abatement from his salary or wage for any month subsequent to that for which such contribution is due.

5 The Council shall, out of its own funds, contribute each month to the Provident Fund in respect of each contributor in its service, an amount equal to one and one half times the contribution due to the Provident Fund from that contributor.

6. (1) The amounts deducted under by-law 4 and the amounts contributed under by-law 5 shall be credited monthly to the Provident Fund.

(2) The amounts referred to in paragraph (1) shall be credited to the Provident Fund within ten days of the deduction or contribution, as the case may be.

7. (1) An officer duly authorised in that behalf by the Council shall open and keep—

- (a) a general account of the amounts credited to and the payments made out of the Provident Fund; and
- (b) a separate account in respect of each contributor to that Fund showing all contributions made by the contributor and all contributions made by the Council in respect of that contributor.

(2) Every entry relating to contributions to and payments out of the Provident Fund shall be authenticated by an officer duly authorised in that behalf by the Council.

8. Monies credited to the Provident Fund shall, so far as practicable, be invested by the Council in securities (other than the security of a mortgage of immovable property) prescribed in section 20 of the Trusts Ordinance for the investment of trust property which consists of money.

9. (1) The amount lying to the credit of the account of a contributor shall accumulate at compound interest, at such rate as may from time to time be decided upon by the Council, until the date on which he ceases to be a servant of the Council or is appointed to a scheduled post.

(2) Interest shall be calculated on the aggregate amount of the contributions and interest lying to the credit of each account as on the last day of every financial year of the Council.

(3) If a contributor ceases to be a servant of the Council or is appointed to a scheduled post in the course of any financial year, interest shall be calculated on the basis of the aggregate amount of contributions and interest to the credit of his account at the end of each complete month preceding the date of the termination of his service, and no account shall be taken of any period less than a month.

10. (1) The account of a contributor shall be closed on the date on which such contributor is appointed to a scheduled post or ceases to be a servant of the Council, that is to say—

- (a) where he dies while he is in the service of the Council, on the date of his death; or
- (b) where he leaves the service of the Council or is dismissed from the service of the Council, on the date on which he leaves such service or is dismissed therefrom, as the case may be.

(2) Notice of closing of an account shall be given by the duly authorised officer of the Council in the following manner:—

- (a) if the contributor is living, to the contributor; or
- (b) if the contributor is dead, to such person or persons as may have been nominated by the contributor.

11. (1) If a contributor dies while he is in the service of the Council, or if his post is abolished, or he is appointed to a scheduled post which is not pensionable or if he leaves the service in any of the following circumstances, that is to say—

- (a) on retirement on medical evidence, to the satisfaction of the Council, that he is incapable by reason of some infirmity of mind or body of discharging the duties of his office;
- (b) on retirement on account of age;
- (c) on satisfactory completion of contract;
- (d) on determination of contract by or with the consent of the Council, otherwise than by dismissal;
- (e) in the case of a female contributor, on retirement with a view to, or in consequence of, marriage after not less than three years' service,

the amount standing to the credit of that contributor in the Provident Fund at the closing of such account shall be paid to the contributor or any other person to whom by virtue of these by-laws or otherwise payment may lawfully be made:

Provided, however, that such payment shall—

- (i) in the case of the death of a contributor, be made in accordance with the provisions of by-law 14; and
- (ii) in the case of a female contributor referred to in paragraph (e) of this by-law, be subject to the condition that she produces satisfactory proof of marriage within three months of the date of retirement.

(2) Where a contributor is appointed to a scheduled post which is pensionable, the aggregate amount of his contributions to the Provident Fund together with interest accrued on such contributions shall be paid to that contributor.

12. (1) The nomination by a contributor of the person or persons to whom payments are to be made on the death of that contributor shall be in the form set out in the Schedule hereto. Such form shall be signed by the contributor in the presence of two witnesses and by those witnesses in the presence of each other and of that contributor, and shall be sent to the duly authorised officer of the Council for registration.

(2) No nomination made by any contributor shall be valid unless the nomination is made substantially in the form set out in the Schedule hereto and unless that form is received by the officer duly authorised by the Council at least thirty clear days before the death of the contributor.

(3) The date of receipt of the nomination form by the Municipal Office shall be the date from which such nomination shall become duly registered.

Contributions by the Council.

Payment of contributions into the Provident Fund

Accounts.

Investments of monies credited to the Fund.

Cap. 72.
Interest.

Closing of accounts.

Death or termination of service.

Nominations.

(4) A contributor shall be entitled to cancel or alter his nomination. Such cancellation or alteration shall be made in writing signed by the contributor and attested by two witnesses. Every such cancellation and alteration will be valid only if received by the duly authorised officer at least thirty clear days before the death of the contributor.

Dismissal or termination of service in circumstances other than those referred to in by-law 11.

13. If a contributor is dismissed from or leaves the service of the Council in any circumstances other than those referred to in by-law 11—

- (a) the amount of his contributions to the Provident Fund and the interest thereon shall be paid to the contributor ; and
- (b) the amount of the contributions made in respect of that contributor under by-law 5 by the Council, and the interest thereon, shall be refunded to the Municipal Fund

Payment on death of contributor.

14. (1) On the death of a contributor—

- (a) if the amount payable does not exceed two thousand five hundred rupees, the Council shall pay such amount to the person or persons nominated for the purpose by the contributor, or, if no such nomination has been made, to the credit of the estate of the deceased contributor, or, at the discretion of the Council, to the person or persons appearing to the Council to be entitled in law to receive such amount ; or
- (b) if the amount payable exceeds two thousand five hundred rupees, the Council shall pay such amount to the credit of the estate of the deceased contributor :

Provided that the Council may authorise the payment of a sum not exceeding three hundred rupees in any case to meet the expenses of the funeral of the deceased contributor or to give immediate relief to the widow or children or other dependants of the deceased contributor, if, in the opinion of the Council, such relief is required.

(2) Any sum of money paid by the Council under the proviso to paragraph (1) of this by-law shall be refunded to the Council from the amount to the credit of a deceased contributor.

(3) Any payment made by the Council under these by-laws shall be valid and effectual against any demand made upon the Council by any other person in respect of the amount payable in respect of any contributor.

Contributions not liable to attachment.

15. The amount lying to the credit of any contributor in the Provident Fund shall not be assignable or transferable or be liable to be attached, sequestered or levied upon, in execution of any decree or order of any court for or in respect of any debt or claim whatsoever.

Authorised deductions.

16. Before any payment is made of moneys lying to the credit of any contributor in the Provident Fund, any sum or sums due from that contributor to the Council may be deducted from such moneys.

Audit.

17. The accounts of the Provident Fund shall be annually audited by the Auditor-General.

Interpretation.

18. In these by-laws—

- “ contributor ” means a servant of the Council who is a contributor to the Provident Fund ;
 “ Council ” means the Jaffna Municipal Council ;
 “ monthly salary ” means the monthly salary, exclusive of all allowances, paid to a servant who has been appointed on a monthly basis of payment ;
 “ monthly wage ” means the aggregate of daily wages, exclusive of all allowances, which a daily paid servant had earned or could have earned on all the days on which he was normally expected to work ; and “ scheduled post ” shall have the same meaning as in the Local Government Service Ordinance, No. 43 of 1945.
