4. (1) The Food Controller may from time to time by notice published in the Gazette declare the weekly ration in respect of any urban area or non-urban area in which rationing is in force of any controlled commodity which may be sold for consumption by an individual over one year of age during the period of control and may by such notice declare different rations in respect of different classes of persons.

(2) The Deputy or Assistant Food Controller for any district or area shall, where a system of rationing supplies by coupons has been introduced in such district or area, save as otherwise provided in regulations 6 and 7, issue a ration book or cause a ration book to be issued to every inhabitant of that district or area who has attained the age of one year, in order to enable such inhabitants to procure supplies of a controlled commodity during the period of control:

Provided, however, that where the Deputy or Assistant Food Controller is satisfied that a sufficient quantity of food will be available for consumption by any inhabitant and that it is not necessary to issue a ration book to him, the Deputy or Assistant Food Controller may refuse to issue a ration book to that inhabitant.

Provided further, that where the Deputy or Assistant Food Controller is satisfied at any time after the issue of a ration book to any inhabitant that such inhabitant has in his possession a sufficient quantity of food for his consumption, the Deputy or Assistant Food Controller may demand the surrender of any ration book issued to such inhabitant.

(c) authorise such number of wholesale dealers as he may consider expedient to sell supplies of any controlled commodity to specified authorised distributors or persons in charge of depots;

(3) Where any person who is the holder of a ration book is received into any such prison, hospital or institution and resides or is detained therein, he shall surrender the ration book to the person in charge thereof and such person shall—

- (a) where any quantity of the controlled commodity is supplied to such person remove from the book the coupon entitling that person to receive that quantity and deal with such coupon in such manner as the Food Controller may direct; and
