RULES

Part I

The Government Surveyors' Association

- Interpretation. 1. In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires—
 "Association" means the Government Surveyors' Association incorporated under the Government Surveyors' Association Incorporation Ordinance, No. 14 of 1939;
 "Committee" means the Committee of Management of the Association;
 "Fund" means the Government Surveyors' Association Benevolent Fund;
 "Ordinance" means the Government Surveyors' Association Incorporation Ordinance;
 "Secretary" means the person for the time being elected to perform the joint duties of a Secretary and Treasurer of the Association.
- Name. 2. The Association shall be called the Government Surveyors' Association.
- Office. 3. The registered office and place of transacting the business of the Association shall be at 279/2, Galle Road, Bambalapitiya, or such other place or places as may be determined from time to time by the Committee of Management.
- Membership. 4. (1) All officers of the field service of the Survey Department shall be eligible for membership of the Association.
 (2) The Association shall not admit any member as an honorary member or as a temporary member.
- Enrolment of members. 5. Every application for admission as a member of the Association shall be addressed to the Secretary, and shall be in such form as may from time to time be provided for the purpose by the Committee.
- Commencement of membership. 6. Membership shall commence on the date of acceptance of the application by the Committee.
- Subscriptions and special calls. 7. (1) Every member of the Association shall pay to the Association a monthly subscription of one rupee.
 (2) The Committee may in addition to the monthly subscription referred to in rule 7 (1) make special calls on the members as occasion arises.
- Expenses of the Association. 8. The expenses of the Association shall be met out of the moneys received as subscriptions and special calls from the members.
- Payment of subscriptions and special calls. 9. (1) The monthly subscription and any sum in respect of special calls due from a member to the Association shall be deducted from his salary except in the case of a member who is out of the Island. Such member shall, within two months of his return to the Island, pay up all arrears of subscriptions. A member who defaults in the payment of such arrears within the period aforesaid shall cease to be a member at the end of that period.
 (2) Any member other than a member referred to in the preceding provisions of this Rule, whose subscriptions are six months in arrears shall cease to be a member of the Association. Such member shall be restored to membership only on payment of the arrears due in addition to the subscriptions due.
- Office-bearers. 10. (1) The office-bearers of the Association, all of whom shall be members of the Association shall consist of a President, a Vice-President and a Secretary.
 (2) The President and Vice-President shall be elected at the Annual General Meeting of the Association.
 (3) The Secretary shall be elected at a General Meeting once in three years out of three members who, with the approval of the Surveyor-General, have been nominated for election by the Committee of Management.
 (4) The Secretary shall also act as the Treasurer of the Association and shall be responsible for maintaining proper accounts of the Association. He shall also maintain a Register of Members of the Association.
- Committee of Management. 11. The offices of the Association shall be administered by a Committee of Management consisting of the office-bearers and seven other members of the Association who shall be elected annually at the annual general meeting of the Association: provided that the preceding provisions of this rule shall not apply to the election of Committee members under rule 26 or rule 34.
- Cessing to be a member of the Committee. 12. A member of the Committee who absents himself from more than three consecutive meetings of the Committee shall cease to be a member of the Committee. His successor shall serve in the Committee, subject to the provisions of these rules, until the election of the next Committee.
- Quorum. 13. No business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Committee unless at least five members of the Committee are present at such meeting.
- Magazine. 14. The Association shall publish annually a magazine, which shall be edited by an Editor, who shall be elected annually at the annual general meeting of the Association. The Secretary shall act as Manager. All matter for publication in the magazine shall be approved by the President.
- Financial year. 15. The financial year of the Association shall commence on the first day of April of each year and end on the thirty-first day of March of the following year.
- Annual general meeting. 16. The annual general meeting of the Association shall be held not later than the thirtieth day of September each year at such place as may be determined by the Committee. No business shall be transacted at any annual general meeting of the Association unless at least twenty members of the Association are present.

17. At every annual general meeting an auditor approved by the Registrar of Trade Unions shall be appointed to audit the accounts of the Association for that financial year.	Auditors.
18. The Committee shall submit to the annual general meeting a report on the work of the Association during the preceding financial year together with the statement of accounts and the full report of the auditors appointed at the previous annual general meeting.	Annual report.
19. (1) A special general meeting of the Association may be convened—	Special general meetings
(a) at the instance of the Committee, or
(b) upon a written requisition of 25 members of the Association, or
(c) by the President in pursuance of rule 30.
Every requisition or notice convening a special general meeting shall specify the business to be transacted at the meeting.
(2) No business shall be transacted at any special general meeting unless at least 30 members are present.
20. Not less than six weeks' notice of the annual general meeting and not less than two weeks' notice of any special general meeting shall be given by the Secretary to each member.	Summoning general meetings.
21. The Secretary shall give to each member at least fourteen days' notice of the business to be transacted at an annual general meeting.	Notice of business at annual general meeting.
22. Written notice of every resolution or amendment to any rule to be moved by any member at an annual general meeting shall be given by that member to the Secretary at least 30 days previous to the date of meeting.	Resolutions at annual general meetings.
23. A notice addressed to a member's last known place of abode and duly posted, shall be deemed to have been served on him, on the day after such posting.	Notice of meetings to members.

25. The Secretary shall keep a record of the minutes of each meeting and such minutes, if in order, shall be adopted at the next subsequent meeting.	Minutes of meetings.
26. (1) Where any vacancy occurs in the Committee between any two annual general meetings such vacancy shall be filled, except in the case referred to in rule 34, by another member by the remaining members of the Committee.	Vacancies in the committee.
(2) In the event of any of the office-bearers referred to in rule 10 ceasing to hold office before an annual general meeting the Committee shall convene a special general meeting under rule 19 to fill the vacancy so created.
27. The Committee shall meet as occasion arises and at least once in three months. The President on a requisition of five Committee members, shall summon a meeting of the Committee for the transaction of such business as may be specified in the requisition.	Committee meetings.
28. The President shall be responsible for carrying out the policy of the Association.	President's responsibility.
29. In the event of a disagreement between the President and the majority of the Committee members, the President may use his power of veto to prevent the wish of the majority being carried out.	Power of veto.
30. In the event of the President using the power of veto against the majority of the Committee, he shall forthwith summon a special general meeting of the Association and notice of such meeting shall be given to the members in accordance with the provisions of these rules.	President convening special general meetings.
31. At the special general meeting summoned under rule 30, the President shall place before the meeting the opposing views in detail and allow a full discussion.	Discussion at special general meetings.
32. Where at such special general meeting the voting is in favour of the views expressed by the President, he shall continue to function, the vote being considered a vote of confidence on the President.	Vote of confidence
33. In the event of the voting at such special general meeting being adverse to the views held by the President, such voting shall be considered a vote of no confidence on the President and the President shall forthwith tender his resignation from the office of President.	Resignation of President.
34. In the event of such special general meeting passing a vote of confidence on the President, the President may call upon the Committee members, holding views opposed to his, to resign and thereupon such members shall resign. The vacancies so created shall be filled at such meeting by the election of other members in their place.	Resignation of committee members.
35. (1) The moneys of the Association shall be lodged to the credit of the Association at the Bank of Ceylon or at such other Bank as may be approved by the Committee, in the names of the President, the Vice-President and the Secretary, any two of whom shall sign all cheques drawn on the Bank.	Moneys of the Association.
(2) The Secretary shall not at any time keep in his possession more than one hundred rupees of the moneys of the Association. Any sum in excess of one hundred rupees shall be deposited in the Bank to the credit of the Association.
36. The Committee shall cause proper books of accounts to be kept for the Association. All such books including the Register of Members referred to in rule 10 (4) shall be open for inspection by any member or any other person interested in the funds of the Association upon his giving seven days' notice in writing to the Secretary in that behalf.	Books of the Association.
37. (1) The Committee shall have the power to suspend any member who, in its opinion, has acted against the interests of the Association.	Suspension of members.
(2) In the event of the Committee suspending a member, such member's case shall be brought up for suitable action at the next general meeting of the Association.
38. The voting at meetings shall be by a show of hands except on occasions when it is decided that a secret ballot shall be taken.	Method of voting.
39. The Association shall not be affiliated to, amalgamated or federated with any other Trade Union whether of public servants or otherwise.	Affiliation.
40. The funds of the Association shall not be utilized for purposes other than the furtherance of objects of the Association as provided for in these rules.	Funds of the Association.

- Winding up of the Association. 41. The Association shall not be wound up except with the consent of not less than 75 per centum of the members on the Registers. In the event of its being wound up, the moneys of the Association shall, after payment of all claims, be divided amongst the members equally.
- Committee's decision final. 42. In the interpretation of these rules or in dealing with any matter or question not provided for in these rules the decision of the Committee shall be final. Every decision regarding any matter or question not provided for in these rules shall be reported at the next annual general meeting.
- Fines or forfeitures. 43. The Association shall not impose any fines or forfeitures other than those provided for, in these rules.

Part II

- Interpretation of rules in this Part. 1. In the interpretation of the rules in this Part and in any matter not provided for therein the decision of the Fund Committee shall be final. Every decision regarding any matter not provided for in this Part shall be reported at the next annual general meeting.
- Membership. 2. Any officer of the Survey Department not above the age of 40 years shall subject to the approval of the Committee of Management of the Fund (hereinafter referred to as the "Fund Committee") be eligible for membership of the Fund: Provided, however, that no field officer who is not a member of the Association shall be eligible for membership of the Fund.
- Transfer outside the Survey Department. 3. Any member of the Fund who has been transferred or seconded for service from the Survey Department to any other Department in the Public Service or to any Department approved by the Committee may continue as a member or if he so desires, resign his membership.
- Enrolment as members. 4. Every application for admission as a member of the Fund shall be addressed to the Secretary and shall be in such form as may from time to time be provided for the purpose by the Fund Committee.
- Commencement of membership. 5. The membership of every new member admitted under these rules shall be deemed to commence on the first day of the month in respect of which payment of the first contribution hereinafter provided has been made.
- Arrears of six months involve forfeiture of membership. 6. Any member other than a member who is on leave out of the Island, whose contribution to the Fund are in arrears for a period of six months, shall cease to be a member of the Fund and a refund of the amount to his credit shall be made on the like terms as in rule 22.
7. The contributions and all other moneys due to the Fund from a member shall be deducted from his salary except in the case of a member who is on leave out of the Island. Such member shall within two months of his return to the Island, pay up all arrears of contributions and all other moneys that may be due from him. A member who defaults in the payment of such arrears within the period aforesaid shall cease to be a member of the Fund and a refund of the amount lying to his credit shall be made as in rule 34.
- Office-bearers. 8. Office-bearers of the Association referred to in rule 8 of Part I shall also be the office-bearers of the Fund.
- Assistant Secretary, &c. 9. The Clerks and Draughtsmen who are members of the Fund shall elect annually one of them as Assistant Secretary, and two others to serve on the Fund Committee.

- Administrative committee. 11. (1) The Fund Committee shall consist of the Committee of Management of the Association, and the Assistant Secretary and the two persons elected under rule 9.
(2) No business shall be transacted at a meeting of the Fund Committee unless at least seven members are present at such meeting.
(3) The Secretary shall notify the Assistant Secretary of the date of a general meeting of the Association at least two weeks before the date fixed for that meeting.
- Notice of meeting to Assistant Secretary. (4) A member of the Fund Committee, who absents himself from more than three consecutive meetings of the Committee, shall cease to be a member of the Committee. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these rules his successor shall be elected by the other members of the Committee. He shall serve, subject to the provisions of these rules, until the election of the next Fund Committee.
- Ceasing to be member of the Fund Committee. 12. The financial year of the Fund shall commence on the first day of April of each year and end on the thirty-first day of March of the following year.
- Financial Year. 13. The Fund Committee shall submit to the annual general meeting a report on the work of the Fund during the preceding financial year together with the statement of accounts and the full report of the Public Auditors appointed at the previous general meeting.
- Annual Report and Accounts. 14. Every member of the Fund shall be provided with a pass book, and every member shall send such book at least once in every half year to the Secretary who shall enter the member's accounts therein.
- Pass Books. 15. The Fund shall have four grades of monthly contribution, namely, Grade A Rs. 10, Grade B Rs. 5, Grade C Rs. 2.50 and Grade D Re. 1.
- Grades of Contribution. 16. In addition to the monthly contributions, any member may also contribute monthly any additional sum which shall be placed to his credit. Such additional moneys may be withdrawn by the contributor after reasonable notice to the Secretary and shall not affect the rates of donation hereinafter referred to.
- Extra Contributions. 17. No member shall be admitted to Grade D after the date on which these rules are published in the Gazette.
- Admission to Grade D. 18. Any member may, subject to the provisions of rule 21, change from a lower grade to a higher grade with the approval of the Fund Committee, who shall fix the date from which such change is to take effect.
- Committee's approval to change to Higher Grades. 19. No member who is permitted to change into a higher grade shall be eligible to any of the privileges and benefits of that grade till he completes twelve months membership in that grade.
- Benefits of Higher Grades, after twelve months' membership. 20. (1) Any member may change from a higher to a lower grade with the approval of the Fund Committee who shall fix the date from which such change is to take effect. He shall forfeit all his privileges in the higher grade, and, for the purposes of rule 46, the donations paid by him in the higher grade shall be reduced to the rate payable in the lower grade.
(2) No member shall be permitted to change to a lower grade until he has paid his dues as a member of the higher grade.
- Change to Lower Grades.

21. A member who changes into a higher grade and who is above 40 years of age at the time of such change shall enjoy the privileges of the higher grade except in the case of donations, which he shall pay out to and receive from the other members in accordance with his previous grade.

Change of Grade over 40 years.

22. Any member who—

- (1) retires from service on reaching the age limit fixed for retirement, or on being condemned by a Medical Board, or on being deprived of his situation on abolition of office, or
- (2) resigns from service, or is dismissed from service, shall cease to be a member of the fund.
- (3) Such a member shall be entitled to a refund of the amount lying to his credit at the date of his retirement, resignation or dismissal, as the case may be, in the books of the Fund within three months from the date of his application for a refund. Such application shall not be entertained prior to the date of his retirement, resignation or dismissal.

Refund of Contribution on retirement.

23. No person shall be entitled to the benefits hereinafter specified in this part unless he has been a member of the Fund for at least twelve months: Provided, however, that the preceding provisions of this rule shall not apply in the case of death of a person who has been a member of the Fund for a period not exceeding twelve months.

Twelve months' membership to enjoy benefits.

24. (1) In this rule a "full donation" payable to any member means, a donation made on the following basis, that is to say, by the payment to him—

Full donations.

- (a) if he is in Grade A, of Rs. 10.00 by every member in Grade A, of Rs. 5.00 by every member in Grade B, of Rs. 2.50 by every member in Grade C, and of Re. 1.00 by every member in Grade D;
- (b) if he is in Grade B, of Rs. 5.00 by every member in Grade A and Grade B, of Rs. 2.50 by every member in Grade C, and of Re. 1.00 by every member in Grade D;
- (c) if he is in Grade C, of Rs. 2.50 by every member in Grade A, Grade B and Grade C, and of Re. 1.00 by every member in Grade D; and
- (d) if he is in Grade D, of Re. 1.00 by every member in Grade A, Grade B, Grade C and Grade D.

(2) Every member referred to in rule 22 who has not ceased to be a member under rule 6, shall be entitled to a donation equal to 1/20 of the full donation for each complete period of 12 months membership in the Fund:

Donations to members referred to in rule 22.

Provided, however, that any member who had qualified for the full donation before the date on which these rules are published in the Gazette shall receive the full donation to which he would have been entitled under the rules in force on the day immediately prior to the said date: And, provided further, that in the case of a member who has been in more than one grade, the period of his membership in the Fund shall be calculated in accordance with the following provision:—

(a) When a donation is due to a member in Grade A—

- (i) Each member in Grade A shall pay him as if he had been a member in Grade A for the number of years he was in that Grade plus the number of years arrived at by dividing the total of all his contributions paid in the lower grade or grades by 120;
- (ii) Each member in Grade B shall pay him, as if he had been a member in Grade B for the number of years he was in Grades A and B, plus the number of years arrived at by dividing the total of all his contributions paid in the lower Grade or Grades by 60;
- (iii) Each member in Grade C shall pay him as if he had been a member in Grade C for the number of years he was in Grades A, B and C plus the number of years arrived at by dividing the total of all his contributions paid in the lower Grade by 30;
- (iv) Each member in Grade D shall pay him for the number of years his name has been in the books of the Fund.

Calculation of donations to Grade A members who have changed grades.

(b) When a donation is due to a member in Grade B—

- (i) Each member in Grade A, shall pay him the same amount as that payable by a member in Grade B;
- (ii) Each member in Grade B shall pay him as if he had been a member in Grade B for the number of years he was in Grade B plus the number of years arrived at by dividing the total of all his contributions paid in the lower Grade or Grades by 60;
- (iii) Each member in Grade C shall pay him as if he had been a member in Grade C for the number of years he was in Grades B and C, plus the number of years arrived at by dividing the total of all his contributions paid in the lower Grade by 30;
- (iv) Each member in Grade D shall pay him for the number of years his name has been in the books of the Fund.

Calculations of donations to Grade B members who have changed grades.

(c) When a donation is due to a member in Grade C—

- (i) Each member in Grade A and in Grade B shall pay him the same amount as that payable by a member in Grade C;
- (ii) Each member in Grade C shall pay him as if he had been a member in Grade C for the number of years he was in Grade C, plus the number of years arrived at by dividing the total of all his contributions paid in the lower Grade by 30;
- (iii) Each member in Grade D shall pay him for the number of years his name has been in the books of the Fund.

Calculation of donations to Grade C members who have changed grades.

(d) When a donation is due to a member in Grade D, each member shall pay him for the number of years his name has been in the books of the Fund.

Donations to Grade D members.

25. In the event of the death of a member, the full donation as described in rule 24 shall be paid to his nominee or his heirs: (vide rule 28). Provided, however, that in the case of any member who has joined the Fund after the age of 30 years, the donation payable to such member shall be computed on the following basis:—

- (a) Where such member dies within a period of five years from the date of his enrolment, his nominee shall be entitled to a donation calculated on the number of completed years during which the deceased was a member;
- (b) Where such member dies after a period of five years from the date of his enrolment, his nominee shall be entitled to a donation calculated on the number of years the deceased would have been a member if he had died on completing the age of 55 years.

26. No member who ceases to be a member of the Fund before he retires, resigns, or is dismissed from service, as the case may be, shall be entitled to any donation.

Registration of nominee compulsory.

27. A member may have the name or names of his nominee or nominees registered in the books of the Fund. No alteration of a nominee shall be valid unless such alteration has been registered in the books of the Fund, at least two weeks prior to a member's death.

Donations of deceased members.

28. In the event of the death of a member, the aggregate amount of the sum standing to his credit in the books of the Fund and of the donation due to him shall be paid to his nominee or nominees: Provided that in any case where any such nominee is a minor, the Fund Committee shall deposit such aggregate amount to his credit in the Ceylon Savings Bank. If there is no nominee of that member registered in the books of the Fund, or if a nominee registered in the books of the Fund has pre-deceased the member, the aggregate amount aforesaid shall—

- (a) where testamentary proceedings in respect of the estate of the member are not required by law, be paid to the heirs-at-law of that member; and
- (b) where such testamentary proceedings are required by law, be paid to the person who has obtained probate or letters of administration, as the case may be.

General expenses of deceased member.

29. On the death of a member, the Secretary shall pay immediately to that member's nominee or, if no nominee had been appointed by that member, to his next-of-kin, an amount not exceeding five hundred rupees from the moneys due to the member to meet the funeral expenses, and such amount shall be deducted from the moneys due to the nominee, or next-of-kin, as the case may be.

Protection of officers.

30. No liability shall be incurred by the Association, the Fund Committee or any officer thereof in respect of any payment bona fide made to any person of moneys due to a deceased:

Provided that the preceding provisions of this rule shall not affect or prejudice or be deemed to affect or prejudice the right of any person to recover from any other person any money erroneously paid to such other person by the Association, the Fund Committee or any officer thereof.

How donations are payable.

31. The donations payable under these rules shall be met by special calls or by debiting the contributions of members liable thereto. Every member who makes default in the payment of any such special call on or before the due date shall cease to be a member of the Fund.

Limit of donations per annum.

32. The number of donations payable during any one financial year shall be determined by the Fund Committee. The payment of such donations shall be made in the order of the dates of resignation, dismissal or retirement from service, or death, of the members, and on a date fixed by the Fund Committee. No person shall be paid a donation or any part thereof until the date fixed by the Fund Committee for such payment is reached.

Special Calls not to be made for the payment of more than 20 donations, &c.

33. (1) In any one financial year, special calls shall not be made on members for the payment of more than 20 donations.

(2) Where the amount payable as donations at any time exceeds the amount received from members as Special Calls, the excess shall be paid from the Reserve Fund pending the collection of such excess from members.

Resignation from the Fund.

34. Any member of the Fund may resign from the Fund while continuing to hold office in the Survey Department by giving six months' written notice in that behalf to the Secretary. Receipt of such notice shall be acknowledged by the Secretary. Every member who resigns from the Fund without giving six months' notice shall forfeit 10 per centum of the amount due to him for each calendar month short of six months.

Dividend.

35. (1) The dividend declared in respect of any financial year at an annual general meeting shall be placed to the credit of only those members who, throughout that year, had their names in the books of the Fund and have made contributions thereto.

(2) The dividend referred to in paragraph (1)—

- (a) on moneys consisting of monthly contributions, shall be calculated on the amount standing to a member's credit on the first day of the closing financial year; and
- (b) on moneys consisting of extra-contributions, shall be calculated on the average amount for the twelve months of the closing financial year.

H Loan.

36. (1) Any member shall be entitled to a loan, known as an H loan, the amount of which when added to the amount that may be already due to the Fund on account of the principal of any other H loan or loans previously granted to such member, shall not exceed three-fourths of the amount standing to the credit of such member in the books of the Fund at the time of the granting of such loan. Not more than four such loans shall be granted during any one year. An H loan shall be repaid in such number of monthly instalments as may be agreed upon at the time the loan is granted, the amount of each such instalment not being less than the member's monthly contribution.

(2) In this rule, "year" means the period of twelve months commencing on January 1 and ending on December 31.

37. In case of an emergency, it shall be lawful for the Fund Committee to grant to any member, who satisfies any two of the following, namely, the President, the Vice-President, the Secretary and the Assistant Secretary, that immediate financial aid is necessary, a loan which shall be known as the "S" loan and shall be granted under the following conditions:—

S Loan.

- (1) (a) A sum not exceeding one month's salary to a member who has completed one year's membership in the Fund;
- (b) A sum not exceeding two months' salary to a member who has completed five years' membership in the Fund;
- (c) A sum not exceeding three months' salary to a member who has completed ten years' membership in the Fund:

Provided, however, that a loan granted under this rule shall not exceed half the amount of the contributions to the credit of the member, on the date on which the loan is granted, or one month's salary whichever is more.

- (2) It shall be repaid in monthly instalments calculated on the following basis:—
  - (a) Not more than eighteen instalments for a loan of one month's salary or less;
  - (b) not more than thirty-six instalments for a loan of more than one month's salary but less than two months' salary;
  - (c) not more than fifty-four instalments for a loan of more than two months' salary but less than three months' salary.
- (3) No "S" loan shall be granted to a member more than twice in a calendar year.
- (4) If the amount of the loan exceeds the amount to his credit he shall provide two guarantors who are members of the Fund and who have such an amount to their credit in the Fund as will, in the aggregate, cover the excess amount of the loan.

38. Every applicant for a loan shall perfect the Form of Application, Letter of Authority, Declaration Form and such other forms as may be provided for the purpose by the Fund Committee, and shall forward such form or forms, as the case may be, duly perfected to the Secretary.

Application for H and S Loans.

39. The rate of interest on every H Loan or S Loan shall be half per centum per mensem on the balance outstanding.

Interest on H and S Loans.

40. The moneys of the Fund shall be lodged to the credit of the Fund at the Bank of Ceylon or such other Bank as may be approved by the Fund Committee in the names of the President, the Vice-President and the Secretary, any two of whom shall sign all cheques drawn on the Bank.

Moneys of the Fund.

41. A sum not less than Rs. 25,000 shall be invested in such of the securities specified in section 20 of the Trusts Ordinance (Chapter 72) as the Fund Committee may determine.

Investments.

42. The assets of the Fund other than those invested under rule 41, shall be invested by the Fund Committee in loans to members on the security of immovable property. Such loans shall be known as P Loans and shall be granted on the following conditions:—

P Loans.

- (a) A P Loan shall be granted to a member for any of the following purposes and no other:—
  - (i) to purchase a house and garden,
  - (ii) to build a house on a land owned either by him or by his wife or by both or to renovate a house owned by either him or by his wife or by both, or
  - (iii) to redeem a mortgage on a property or on a house and property owned by either by him or by his wife or by both.

Limit of Loan.

The amount of a P Loan shall not exceed seventy-five per centum of the value of the security tendered, and, where the loan is required for building a house, seventy-five per centum of the value of the security and the estimated cost of such building.

- (b) (i) A P Loan shall be granted to a member who does not already possess a house in his name within the administrative limits of any Municipal Council, Urban Council or Town Council.
- (ii) Where an application for a P Loan is made by any member who already possesses a house and garden in his name, or by any member who, having previously obtained a P Loan, has fully repaid that loan, the Fund Committee may grant to such member a P Loan if there is no prior application from any other member who has not been granted any P Loan previously.
- (c) No P Loan shall exceed—
  - Rs. 20,000 to a member in Grade A;
  - Rs. 12,500 to a member in Grade B,
  - Rs. 10,000 to a member in Grade C, or
  - Rs. 7,500 to a member in Grade D.

(d) Every application for a P Loan shall be made on such form as may be provided for the purpose by the Fund Committee. The Committee may call upon an applicant to furnish any further information they may consider necessary.

Form of Application.

(e) The rate of interest payable on P Loans shall be five-twelfth per centum per mensem on the outstanding balance.

Interest on Loan.

This rate of interest shall apply to all "P" Loans in force on the date this amendment is published in the Ceylon Government Gazette and Loans issued thereafter.

(f) A P Loan shall be repayable in not more than 300 equal monthly instalments and the first of such instalments shall be paid not later than twelve months after the date on which the loan is granted.

Repayment.

Repayment on ceasing from service.	(g) Where a member to whom a P Loan has been granted ceases to be a member of the Fund consequent on his ceasing to be a member of the service, any unpaid part of the loan shall be deducted from the amount standing to the credit of such member in the books of the Fund. If such amount is insufficient to pay such unpaid part of the loan, together with interest on the unpaid at the rate of half per centum per mensem shall be deducted from the retiring donations due to the member. If such retiring donations are insufficient to pay the balance remaining due to the Fund, such balance shall be repaid within twelve months of his ceasing to be a member of the Fund with interest at the rate of half per centum per mensem.
Repayment on ceasing from Membership.	(h) Where a member to whom a P Loan has been granted ceases to be a member of the Fund for any cause other than his ceasing to be a member of the Service, such part of the loan that remains unpaid, shall be deducted from the amount standing to the credit of the member in the books of the Fund. If such amount is insufficient to pay such unpaid part, the balance due to the Fund shall be repaid within twelve months of his ceasing to be a member, with interest thereon at the rate of one per centum per mensem.
Examination of Security.	(i) All deeds and documents tendered as security shall be examined by the lawyers of the Association.
Mortgage Bonds.	(j) The necessary mortgage bonds shall be executed in the name of the Association, and shall be prepared and attested by the Notary appointed by the Fund Committee.
Appraisers.	(k) The Fund Committee may appoint two appraisers, one of whom shall be a professional appraiser and the other a member of the Committee to value each property tendered as security. Such valuation is for the information and guidance of the Committee who shall decide on the merits of each case the value to be adopted.
Expense.	(l) All legal fees, appraisal fees and other expenses incurred in connection with a loan shall be borne by the applicant for the loan. The applicant shall in addition insure the property against fire for an amount not less than the amount determined by the Fund Committee, and also execute a warrant of attorney to confess judgment. If the loan is not granted all such fees and expenses already incurred shall be deducted in such instalments as the Fund Committee may determine, from the applicant's salary. If the loan is granted, all such fees and expenses shall be deducted in full from the amount of the loan.
Loan for constructing House.	(m) Where the Fund Committee proposes to grant a loan for the purpose of building a house under paragraph (a) (ii) of this rule, the amount of that loan shall be paid in the following manner :— <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(1) half the value of the security which is tendered and which is accepted by the Fund Committee, or one-fourth of the amount of that loan, whichever is the less, shall be paid on signing the mortgage bond, and</li> <li>(2) the balance shall be paid in three equal instalments as follows :—  <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(i) the first instalment, on completion of the foundation of the building ;</li> <li>(ii) the second instalment, as soon as the walls, including the window and door frames, are constructed, and</li> <li>(iii) the third instalment, on completion of the house.</li> </ol> </li> </ol>
No priority in granting loan.	(n) The Fund Committee do not bind themselves to accept any particular application or applications or to grant loans in any particular order.
Calculation of interest.	43. In the calculation of interest any outstanding part of a month if it exceeds 15 days shall be reckoned as one month, if it does not exceed 15 days shall be reckoned as half a month.
Deductions.	44. Every member from whom any contribution, loan, interest, special call or other money is due shall consent to the deductions from his salary, of the amount due from him.
Reserve Fund.	45. (a) The excess of income, if any, after declaring the dividend referred to in rule 35, and after setting apart such sum of money as the Fund Committee may determine to carry forward to the Profit and Loss Account of the following year, shall form a Reserve Fund which shall remain to the credit of the Benevolent Fund. (b) Any amount in excess of one hundred thousand rupees standing to the credit of the Reserve Fund, may, at the discretion of the Fund Committee, be transferred to the Profit and Loss Account and be available for distribution as dividend to members.
Members' donations supplemented.	46. A member who receives as donation a sum less than the total amount he himself has paid out to others on account of donations shall be paid the difference from the " Reserve Fund ".
Books of the Fund.	47. The Fund Committee shall cause proper books of accounts to be kept which shall be open for inspection by any member on his giving seven days' notice to the Secretary.
Winding up of the Fund.	48. The Fund shall not be wound up before the winding up of the Association except with the consent of at least 75 per centum of the members of the Fund only and 75 per centum of the members of the Association who are also members of the Fund. In the event of its being wound up, the assets of the Fund shall, after payment of all claims, including sums of money placed to the credit of members under rule 16, be divided amongst the members, in proportion to the amount to the credit of each member.

Part III

Special Debt Redemption Scheme

1. The Fund Committee may, as provided in this part, grant a loan to any member who, in its opinion, is suffering actual hardships due to his inability to liquidate his debts out of his resources : Provided, however, that no member shall be entitled to a loan under this Part unless he has been a member of the Fund for a period not less than five years.

2. Every applicant for assistance under this Part shall make a full declaration of all his debts, both secured and unsecured, on a form to be provided for the purpose by the Fund Committee.

3. No loans shall be granted to any member unless the Fund Committee is fully satisfied as to the capacity of such member to repay it.

4. No loans shall be granted under this Part which will make the total indebtedness to the Fund exclusive of any amount owing to the Fund on account of an H Loan of a borrower in Grade A exceed Rs. 5,000, of a borrower in Grade B exceed Rs. 3,500, of a borrower in Grade C exceed Rs. 2,500 and of a borrower in Grade D exceed Rs. 1,500.

5. The period within which any loan granted under this Part is repayable shall in no case exceed 10 years.

6. The rate of interest for any loan under this Part shall be half per centum per mensem on the balance outstanding.

7. Every loan granted under this Part shall be recovered in equal, regular, monthly instalments. No postponement of instalments shall be permitted under any circumstance.

8. Where a member to whom a loan under this Part has been granted ceases to be a member of the Fund consequent on his ceasing to be a member of the Service, any unpaid part of the loan shall be deducted from the amount standing to the credit of such member in the books of the Fund. If such amount is insufficient to pay the unpaid part of the loan, such part together with interest on the unpaid part of the loan, at the rate of half per centum per mensem, shall be deducted from the retiring donations due to the members.

9. Where a member, to whom a loan under this Part has been granted ceases to be a member of the Fund for any cause other than his ceasing to be a member of the Service, such part of the loan that remains unpaid shall be deducted from the amount standing to the credit of the member in the books of the Fund. If such amount is insufficient to pay such unpaid part of the loan, the balance due to the Fund shall be repaid within twelve months of his ceasing to be a member, with interest at the rate of half per centum per mensem.

10. The investigation, conciliation and redemption of the debts of any member, who seeks the assistance of the Fund, shall be done by the Fund Committee.

11. All moneys lent under this Part for the purpose of the liquidation of the debts of any member shall be paid by the Fund Committee to the creditor or creditors, as the case may be, of such member.

12. No member shall be entitled to any relief under this Part on more than one occasion.

13. Where a loan has been granted under this Part to any member, such member shall not be entitled to any of the loans referred to in Part II of these Rules other than rule 36 (1) and (2), until such loan has been fully repaid.

14. Before a loan under this Part is granted to any member, such member shall sign an agreement authorising the deduction of the unpaid amount of such loan from his gratuity or commuted pension or from any other moneys due to him from the Government in the event of his retiring from Government Service before the expiry of the period of the loan.

15. Where a member is unable to offer any security for a loan granted under this Part, the Fund Committee may, in its discretion, direct such member to insure his life for such amount as may be determined by the Fund Committee and the policy shall be assigned absolutely to the Fund and shall be deposited with the Fund Committee. The Fund Committee shall pay the premiums due on such policy on the borrower's behalf, as long as it considers the maintenance of such policy necessary. All such premiums shall be deducted in monthly instalments from the borrower's salary before the payments of such premiums fall due.

16. (1) There shall be constituted a Fund under this Part called the Contingency Fund and the moneys of that Fund shall be utilized, where necessary, to make good any losses resulting from the operation of the Debt Redemption Scheme set out in this Part.

(2) All moneys belonging to the Contingency Fund shall be invested in such manner as may be determined by the Fund Committee.

17. Every member who obtains a loan under this Part shall contribute annually to the Contingency Fund one per centum of such unsecured portion of the loan as may be outstanding at the time of payment. The first contribution shall be made at the expiration of the month in which the loan is granted.

Part IV.

Supplementary

1. These rules shall take effect on the date on which they are published in the Gazette, and all rules made by the Association and in force on the day immediately preceding that date shall, on the date, cease to have effect. Date of commencement of rules.

2. Where any loan, known as a D Loan, has been granted on any date prior to the date of the publication of these rules in the Gazette, the amount due on such loan shall be recovered together with such interest as may be due thereon in 72 monthly instalments from members in Grade A, and 60 monthly instalments from members in Grade B, Grade C or Grade D. The recovery of the money due on such loan shall commence one month after the date of the publication of these rules in the Gazette. D Loans.

3. Where a member desires to have the premiums due on any insurance policy of his to be paid through the Association, the Fund Committee may, on the written authority of such member, remit the moneys due on such premiums to the Insurance Company to which such premiums are due, after the full amount has been deducted from such member's salary in monthly instalments. Payment of Insurance Premiums.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions relating to the repayment by monthly instalments of loans granted under rules 36, 37 or 42 of Part II or under rule 2 of Part IV, the Fund Committee may, in its discretion, allow a member to postpone the payment of the instalment due in respect of either March or December and pay only the interest payable in respect of such month. Suspension of Loan Instalments.
