At the end of 12 years, a soldier will be discharged, but if he is efficient and of good character and is recommended for a further period of engagement by his Commanding Officer to fill a vacancy, he will be permitted to re-engage for a period of 10 years.

At the end of the period of engagement (i.e., 22 years after the date of original enlistment) a soldier who has the requisite rank may be permitted to extend his service for a year at a time till he has served a further 10 years provided a vacancy exists for him.
