PROCLAMATIONS BY THE GOVERNOR.

IN the Name of Her Majesty VICTORIA, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency the Right Honourable Sir J. WEST RIDGEWAY, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Commander of the Most Exalted Order of the Star of India, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Island of Ceylon, with the Dependencies thereof.

WEST RIDGEWAY.

WHEREAS by section 122 of "The Municipal Councils' Ordinance, 1887," as amended by sub-section 3 of section 20 of the Ordinance No. 1 of 1896, it is enacted that it shall be lawful to the Municipal Council from time to time to make by-laws not inconsistent with the provisions of the said first-mentioned Ordinance, for any of the purposes in the said sections set forth and provided:

And whereas by section 124 of the said first-mentioned Ordinance it is enacted that no by-law, or alteration, amendment, or cancelment of, or substitution for, any by-law shall have effect until the same is confirmed by the Governor in Executive Council; and that notice of such confirmation shall be given by Proclamation to be made in that behalf; and that such by-laws, when so confirmed and published in the Government Gazette, shall be as valid and effectual as if they had been in the said Ordinance enacted:

And whereas the by-laws set forth in the schedule hereto have been made by the Municipal Council of Colombo under the provisions of section 122 aforesaid of the said first-mentioned Ordinance, as amended by sub-section 3 of section 20 of the Ordinance No. 1 of 1896, and the same have under section 124 of the said first-mentioned Ordinance been confirmed by the Governor in Executive Council:

Now know Ye that We, the said Governor, do hereby proclaim that the by-laws set forth in the schedule hereto have been confirmed by Us in Executive Council, and shall have effect as from and after the First day of January, 1897.

Given at Colombo, in the said Island of Ceylon, this Fourteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and Ninety-six.

By His Excellency's command,

W. T. TAYLOR,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

SCHEDULE.

The following by-laws made under section 122 of the Ordinance No. 7 of 1887, as amended by section 20 (3) of Ordinance No. 1 of 1896, shall apply only to bakeries where wheat flour is used for making bread :—

1. The walls of every bakery shall be plastered with chunam and whitewashed, the floor cemented, and drainage sufficiently provided.
2. No bakery shall be within 30 feet of any cesspit or latrine, nor in a position where bad odours wafted therefrom shall reach it.
3. No place used as a bakery shall be used for any other purpose whatsoever.
4. All utensils and other furniture shall be kept clean.
5. The flour, water, and other materials used in the manufacture of bread shall be good and wholesome.
6. All refuse and dirt in and about the premises shall be swept off, and the drains well flushed.
7. No person suffering from a contagious or loathsome disease, or who has recently been in attendance on such person, or who is unwashed or otherwise unclean, shall be employed in a bakery.
8. Any person who shall commit a breach of any of the foregoing by-laws shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

Notification Establishing New Toll.

WHEREAS by section 1 of the Ordinance No. 12 of 1885, it is enacted that from and after the passing thereof it shall be lawful for the Legislative Council of the Island of Ceylon, by means of any resolution duly passed at any public session thereof, to establish tolls in respect of any public road, bridge, ferry, or canal, anything in "The Tolls Ordinance, 1867," to the contrary notwithstanding :

It is hereby notified that in pursuance of the powers in that behalf by the said 1st section of the said Ordinance conferred, the Legislative Council, at a public session thereof held on the 29th day of July, 1896, did, by resolution, establish a ferry toll between Kalpitiya on the peninsula and Karativu on the mainland, in the North-Western Province, as from and after the First day of January, 1897.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, November 23, 1896.

By His Excellency's command,
W. T. TAYLOR,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Resolution as to Collection of New Toll.

WHEREAS by section 3 of Ordinance No. 12 of 1885, it is amongst other things enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, acting with the advice of the Executive Council, by resolution to be notified in the Government Gazette, to determine at what places tolls shall be collected, and to alter such places and other places to appoint for the collection thereof, anything which may be contained in "The Tolls Ordinance, 1867," to the contrary notwithstanding :

whereas by a resolution of the 29th day of July, 1896, the Legislative Council established a toll in respect of the ferry between Kalpitiya on the peninsula and Karativu on the mainland, in the North-Western Province :

and whereas it is expedient to determine at what place the toll in respect of the said ferry shall be collected :

It is hereby notified that the Governor, acting with the advice of the Executive Council, has by a resolution of the 11th day of September, 1896, determined that such toll shall be collected at the jetty on Kalpitiya side, and on Karativu side at St. James's Church during north-east monsoon, and at Mudaliyanturai during south-west monsoon, from and after the First day of January, 1897.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, November 23, 1896.

By His Excellency's command,
W. T. TAYLOR,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

In the Name of Her Majesty VICTORIA, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency the Right Honourable Sir J. WEST RIDGEWAY, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Commander of the Most Exalted Order of the Star of India, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Island of Ceylon, with the Dependencies thereof.

WEST RIDGEWAY.

WHEREAS by section 4 of "The Tolls Ordinance, 1867," it is enacted that, subject to the provisions and limitations in the said Ordinance contained, tolls shall be levied upon all horses, oxen, vehicles, and boats in respect of the roads, bridges, ferries, and canals specified in the several schedules to the said Ordinance annexed, at such rates as the Governor from time to time shall, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, be pleased to appoint, provided that the same shall in no case exceed the rates thereafter specified :

And whereas by section 1 of the Ordinance No. 12 of 1885, intituled "An Ordinance authorizing the Legislative Council, by Resolution, to establish Tolls, and the Governor in Executive Council, by Resolution, to abolish Tolls and to alter the places where Tolls shall be collected," it is enacted that from and after the passing thereof it shall be lawful for the Legislative Council of the Island of Ceylon, by means of any resolution duly passed at any public session thereof, to establish tolls in respect of any public road, bridge, ferry, or canal in this Island, anything in the said "Tolls Ordinance, 1867," to the contrary notwithstanding; and by section 2 of the same Ordinance it is further enacted that where tolls shall be so established by any such resolution, the provisions of the said "Tolls Ordinance, 1867," and of the Ordinance No. 9 of 1871 shall, in so far as they are not repugnant to the said Ordinance, apply to such tolls :

And whereas the Legislative Council of the said Island, at a public session thereof held on the 29th day of July, 1896, by a resolution established a toll in respect of the ferry between Kalpitiya on the peninsula and Karativu on the mainland, in the North-Western Province, as from and after the First day of January, 1897, and it is expedient to appoint the rates at which the said toll so established in respect of the said ferry shall be levied :

Now know Ye that We, the said Governor, under and by virtue of the powers in that behalf on Us conferred as aforesaid, do hereby appoint that the rates at which the toll so established at the Kalpitiya jetty on Kalpitiya side and on Karativu side at St. James's Church during the north-east monsoon and at Mudaliyanturai during the south-west monsoon, in respect of the said ferry between Kalpitiya on the peninsula and Karativu on the mainland, in the North-Western Province, shall be in accordance with those set out in the schedule hereto.

Given at Colombo, in the said Island of Ceylon, this Twenty-third day of November, in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and Ninety-six.

By His Excellency's command,

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN ! W. T. TAYLOR,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Code for 1896.

16. (a) All amendments affecting the schedules of examination and appearing for the first time in this Code shall come into operation on July 1, [1896.]

26. (a) No English school will be eligible for a grant after January 1, 1897, unless all the teachers engaged in the instruction of the primary standards either hold certificates granted after examination by the Department or possess such other qualification as shall, in the opinion of the Director, satisfy the requirements of Government, and that after January 1, 1898, no grant will be paid to any English school unless the whole teaching staff of such school shall consist of teachers either holding certificates granted after examination by the Department or possessing such other qualification as shall, in the opinion of the Director, satisfy the requirements of Government. Provided, however, that all teachers appointed from the United Kingdom or America to English schools in this Colony, graduates of any of the British or Indian Universities now engaged as teachers in English schools, and persons recognized as certificated teachers by the Education Departments of the United Kingdom or by any of the Departments of Public Instruction in India, shall be exempt from such requirements.

NOTE.—Persons who have passed the Cambridge Local Examination for senior students, the University of London Matriculation Examination, or the First Arts Examination of any of the Indian Universities, will be required to pass only in English reading, school management, and class teaching at the examinations to be held by this Department, before certificates of competency to teach can be issued to them.

26. (c) No English school, or English school on a vernacular basis, shall retain at any one time as free scholars on its register more than fifteen per cent. of the total number of pupils appearing on such register.

26. (d) Any English school, or English school on a vernacular basis, in which it has been found that the fees prescribed in the schedule of fees affecting such school (see Schedules R, S, T) have not been paid by the scholars and duly credited to the school fund, will be removed from the list of aided schools.

26. [(b)] No scholar shall be admitted into any grant-in-aid English school, or English school on a vernacular basis, from any registered grant-in-aid English school or English school on a vernacular basis, or from a Government English school, who does not produce a certificate showing that no fees are due by such scholar to the authorities of the school at which he was last in attendance. Such certificate should be in the form Q of this Code.

30. (d) No grant will be allowed for any scholar over twenty years of age on the day of examination, excepting in night schools, and no grant will be paid in night schools on account of any scholar under [sixteen] years of age.

33. The managers of an industrial school registered by the Department may claim for each pupil above the age of 6 and below 21, certified to have been in regular attendance for nine months since the previous annual examination of the school, and to have received instruction in the workshop for not less than three hours daily on not less than 100 days, a grant of ten rupees in addition to the general grants; provided the Inspector shall be satisfied with the efficiency of the instruction given in the trade in which each such pupil is presented for examination. No grant can be claimed for the industrial instruction of any pupil who does not at the same time pass the examination in such standard of Schedules A, B, D, and E as such pupil may be eligible for, unless such pupil has passed in standard [V.] of any such schedule.

Amendments sanctioned for 1897.

Omit and insert "1897."

Omit and insert :—

26. (a) All teachers appointed after January 1, 1898, must possess certificates. Existing teachers must obtain them before January 1, 1899.

26. (b) After the latter date the enhanced grant cannot be earned in any school where the majority of masters do not possess certificates.

26. (c) Head teachers who have served continuously for five years and upwards with satisfactory results will, on the certificate of the Director of Public Instruction to that effect, be exempt from examination.

All members of existing accredited religious Teaching Orders will also be exempted from examination.

Colleges where higher education is given will be exempt (see Schedule R).

26. (d) The requirement that certificates must be held by teachers will not for the present be enforced in the case of girls' schools.

Code for 1896.

35. In girls' vernacular boarding schools the value of a "pass" will be twice the value of a corresponding "pass" in day schools. When the day girls [on the rolls] do not amount to more than one-fourth of the number of boarders [on the rolls] their "passes" will be computed as for boarders. When the number of day girls [on the rolls] is in excess of one-fourth of the number of boarders [on the rolls] their "passes" will be calculated as for scholars in day schools.

36. In girls' Anglo-vernacular boarding schools the value of a "pass" for boarders will be computed according to Schedule H 1. When the day girls [on the rolls] do not amount to more than one-fourth of the boarders [on the rolls] their "passes" will be computed as for boarders. When the number of day girls [on the rolls] is in excess of one-fourth of the number of boarders [on the rolls] their "passes" will be computed at half the rate for boarders.

75. Three exhibitions will be opened to candidates in conformity with the regulations of the Cambridge Syndicate as regards age and qualifications. One of the value of rupees 240 per annum and two each of the value of rupees 120 per annum, tenable for three years, either at the Royal College or at any [registered] English school, will be awarded every year to the three best candidates who shall pass this examination in honours. But no candidate shall be eligible for a second election to a scholarship corresponding exactly to that previously won by him.

75. (a) Two scholarships, each of the value of rupees 120, tenable for three years at any [registered] English school, will be awarded to the two girl candidates who shall pass the best junior examination. Such scholarship will be open to candidates who have not completed their seventeenth year on the last day of the month appointed for the examination. But no candidate shall be eligible for a second election to either of these scholarships.

79. One scholarship of the value of rupees 240, tenable for three years at any [registered] high school, will be awarded to the senior girl candidate who shall pass the best examination. The scholarship will be open to candidates who have not completed their nineteenth year on the last day of the month appointed for the examination. But no candidate shall be eligible for a second election to this scholarship.

79. (b) One scholarship of the value of £150, tenable for four years, will be awarded on the results of a special examination to be conducted for the present by the Oxford and Cambridge School Examination Board.

No candidate will be admitted to this examination who has not been resident in the Island for the five years next before the examination; or who has completed his [nineteenth] year before the last day of the month fixed for this examination; or who has not previously passed the "London Matriculation Examination" or the "Cambridge Senior Local Examination" with Honours, or the "First in Arts Examination" of the Calcutta University in the first division.

Note.—For the examination for this scholarship to be held under the new regulations for the first time in May, 1897, no candidate will be eligible who [shall have completed his nineteenth year on December 31, 1896.]

NOTICES CALLING FOR TENDERS.

SEALD Tenders (in duplicate), marked on the envelopes "Tender for _____," will be received up to noon on Monday, December 14, 1896, from persons willing to contract for supplying the Negombo jail with good drinking water for one year commencing from January 1, 1897.*

2. The tenders should be submitted in duplicate, the original being forwarded to the Inspector-General of Prisons and the duplicate direct to the Hon. the Auditor-General, both being required to be forwarded at the same time.

3. A deposit of Rs. 10, which must be made at the Treasury or Kachcheri, will be required, and no tender will be considered unless the receipt for such deposit is attached thereto; and should any person fail (within a fortnight after he has been written to or notified to the address given by him of the acceptance of his tender), or decline to enter into the contract and bond after he has tendered, or fail to furnish approved security, such deposit will be forfeited to the Crown. All other deposits will be returned upon signature of a contract.

4. Quantity of water required and further particulars may be obtained upon application from the Superintendent of the above-mentioned jail.

5. The Government reserves to itself the right, without question, of rejecting any or all tenders, and the right of accepting any portion of a tender.

6. The person whose tender is accepted by Government will be required to bear the expenses of having the security bonds prepared for the due performance of his contract, which bonds will be subject to the approval of the Attorney-General, but may be drawn by the tenderer's own lawyers.

7. When bonds have been drawn by the tenderers' own lawyers, the name or stamp of the Proctor who drafted the bonds should be affixed to the document.

8. Every alteration should bear the initials of the tenderers, and all tenders containing alterations not bearing the tenderers' initials will be treated as informal and rejected.

9. The tenderer should state the rate per month at which he is prepared to supply water.

10. Every tenderer should write his address on his tender, giving the name of the street and number of the house he lives in.

L. F. KNOLLYS,
Acting Inspector-General of Prisons.

Prisons Office,
Colombo, November 23, 1896.

* Water to be supplied from an approved well at Tammitta.

SEALED Tenders (in duplicate) will be received, the original by myself direct in Colonial Store and the duplicate by the Hon. the Auditor-General, both being forwarded at the same time, up to noon on Monday, December 14, 1896, from persons willing to contract for making and supplying the under-mentioned jailors' uniforms, &c., for 1897:—

For supplying to measurements and to patterns:—

	Probable No. of Suits required.
Blue serge coats and trousers ...	20
White drill coats and trousers ...	120
Khaki coats and trousers ...	622

All the above should be delivered in such quantities as may be required from time to time.

2. Deposit for tender forms, Rs. 50.

3. A deposit, as noted above, will be required before any form of tender is issued; and should any person decline to enter into the contract and bond after he has tendered, or fail to furnish approved security, such deposit will be forfeited to the Crown. All other deposits will be returned upon signature of a contract.

4. The deposit must be made at the Treasury or Kachcheri, and the deposit receipt must be produced to the officer issuing the form of tender as his authority for making the issue.

5. No tender will be considered unless it is on such printed forms—to be obtained at the office of the Colonial Storekeeper—and unless accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, whose addresses must be given, engaging to become sureties for the due fulfilment of the contract.

6. Persons who tender must deposit samples with the Colonial Storekeeper before the date on which the tenders are considered, of which due notice will be given. No tender will be considered if the sample is not so deposited.

7. The amount of security to be given, and all other necessary information, can be ascertained on application at the Colonial Storekeeper's Office.

8. The person whose tender has been accepted by Government will be required to bear the expense of having security bonds prepared for the due performance, of his contract, which bonds will be subject to the approval of the Attorney-General, but may be drawn by the tenderer's own lawyers, in which case the name or stamp of the Proctor who drafted the bond should be affixed to the document. But if a contractor submits a security bond which does not bear the name or stamp of the lawyer who drafted it, he will be required to pay a fee of Rs. 10.50 to the Attorney-General for approving each bond.

9. The security bond should be furnished immediately on acceptance of tender being notified.

10. All alterations or erasures should bear the initials of the tenderers, otherwise the tenders will be treated as informal and rejected.

11. The Government reserves to itself the right, without question, of rejecting any or all tenders, and the right of accepting any portion of a tender.

JNO. ROOT,
Colonial Store, Colonial Storekeeper.
Colombo, November 17, 1896.
