Section 17
amended.

Trustees for temples to be elected.

6 For section 17 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be substituted, namely :

There shall be for every temple one trustee or three trustees, who shall be elected by a majority of the members of the district committee of the district within which such temple is situate, at a meeting held by such committee specially for that purpose. And in the case of any trustee or trustees whose services, in the opinion of the provincial committee, are deserving of special recognition, it shall be competent for such committee to award him or them such remuneration as the committee may deem proper. No person, however, who does not possess the qualifications described in section 8, and who is not a member of a sect of Buddhists to which such temple belongs, shall be competent either to be elected or to serve as trustee.

Provided that the principal lay officer of a déwálé who has hitherto been styled or called by the title of basnýaka nilamé shall continue to hold that title; and the basnýaka nilamé now holding office shall be entitled to act as trustee of such déwálé for the purposes of this Ordinance, and shall continue to act as such until and unless he retires, or is suspended or dismissed under section 16.

In the event of the death, dismissal, retirement, or suspension of a basnýaka nilamé of a déwálé, a basnýaka nilamé shall be elected to such déwálé by a majority of the members of the district committee of the district within which such déwálé is situate, the ratémahatmayás and kórálas, being Buddhists, holding office within the revenue district in which such déwálé is situate, and the basnýaka nilamés of déwálés situate within such revenue district, at a meeting to be held specially for that purpose. Should such déwálé be situate within the revenue district of Kandy, the diyawadana nilamé shall also be entitled to vote at such meeting.

Provided further that for the purposes of this Ordinance the trustee of the Daladá Máligáwa shall continue to be styled and called by the title of diyawadana nilamé, and the person now holding that office and title shall continue to act as trustee of the Daladá Máligáwa for the purposes of this Ordinance, or until and unless suspended or dismissed under section 16. On the office of diyawadana nilamé becoming vacant by death, suspension, or dismissal, a successor shall be elected by a majority of the members of the provincial committee and district committees of the province and district of Kandy, the ratémahatmayás, being Buddhists, holding office within the revenue district of Kandy, and the basnýaka nilamés of déwálés situate within such revenue district, at a meeting to be held specially for that purpose.

Provided further that the trustees of any temple which may be declared by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to have been founded or endowed under royal sannas (a list of which temples shall be published in the Government Gazette) shall be nominated by a majority of the district committee of the district and the ratémahatmayás, being Buddhists, of the revenue district in which such temple is situate.

Section 18

under Service
Tenures Ordinance, 1870, to be paid to trustees. The Daladá Máligáwa to be a temple under that Ordinance.

7 For section 18 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be substituted, namely :

Any commutation of the services due by any temple tenant which has been or may hereafter be made under the provisions of "The Service Tenures Ordinance, 1870," shall from the time of this Ordinance coming into operation become due and payable to the trustee of such temple. The Daladá Máligáwa shall, for the purposes of "The Service Tenures Ordinance, 1870," be deemed to be a temple, anything in the said Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding.

Section 29
amended.

Power of trustees to demise temple lands.

8 For section 29 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be substituted, namely :

It shall be lawful for the trustee from time to time or at any time, with the sanction of the provincial committee, and for such rent and subject to such conditions as they shall deem reasonable, to demise for any term not exceeding fifty years, all or any of the lands vested in him under the provisions of this Ordinance, save and except such garden and hēna lands as may be reserved for the use of the paravēni pangu tenants at the discretion of the said committee. The sanction of the provincial committee required by this section shall in every case be in writing, certified under the hand of the president of such committee.

Provided that whenever a trustee shall, with the consent of the provincial committee, be desirous of demising any land for a period of more than twenty years, the sanction of the district judge of the district in which such land is situate shall first be had and obtained by him for that purpose.

Insertion of 29 (a) and 29 (b).

district committee.

9 After section 29 of the principal Ordinance there shall be inserted the two following sections, which shall be numbered 29 (a) and 29 (b) respectively :

It shall be the duty of an incumbent to furnish to the trustee of the temple and to the president of the district committee, when called upon to do so, all such information as he may possess regarding (1) the annual income of the temple from the offerings made to such temple ; (2) the nature, extent, and value of the paravēni and maruveni pangu and other lands belonging to such temple ; and (3) the monthly or annual value of the rents, issues, and profits of each and every land belonging to or held by such temple by virtue of any title whatsoever.

Penalty for giving wrong information or obstructing trustee.

Any incumbent who, without just cause, withholds from the president of the district committee or the trustee of the temple any information required to be given by the last preceding section, or who wilfully gives to such trustee or president false information regarding the same, or who retains possession of any property vested in a trustee under the provisions of this Ordinance, or wilfully obstructs a trustee or causes a trustee to be obstructed in the discharge of his duties, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees.

Section 36

select a president and to make

Purposes for which rules may be made.

10 For section 36 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be substituted, namely :

(1) Every provincial committee elected as hereinbefore provided shall select one of their number to be president of such committee, and shall make rules—

- (a) For determining the quorum necessary for the transaction of business, and the mode of filling up vacancies in their number.
- (b) For regulating the time and place of their meetings, and the conduct and records of their proceedings.
- (c) For regulating the procedure to be observed in the election of incumbents and of basnāyaka nilamés, and in their removal from office.
- (d) For assessing the proportion in which each temple within the province shall contribute a share of the expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this Ordinance ; and
- (e) For every purpose necessary to the due exercise of their powers and the performance of their duties under this Ordinance.

(2) The provincial committee of the province in which the district of Kandy shall be included shall, in addition to such rules as aforesaid, make further rules for regulating the procedure to be observed in the election of a diyawadana nilamé and his removal from office.

(3) Rules so made shall be published in the Government Gazette, and shall thereupon become as legal, valid, and effectual as if the same had been inserted herein, and shall be binding upon and observed by all parties subject to their operation, and all courts, judges, and magistrates shall take judicial notice thereof.

Provided, however, that nothing in this section contained shall authorize the making of any rules at variance with the rights of those who by law or custom are entitled to elect or remove an incumbent, or of any person who is entitled to succeed to a vacant incumbency by right of pupillary or other mode of succession.

36 (a).

11 After section 36 of the principal Ordinance there shall be inserted the following section, which shall be numbered 36 (a), namely :
