Colombo, May 19, 1953

S K D JAYAMANNE,
Chairman,
Wages Board for the Printing Trade

SCHEDULE

The decisions made by the Wages Board for the Printing Trade and set out in the Schedule to the notification published in Gazette Extraordinary No 9,436 of July 21, 1945, as varied in the manner set out in the notifications published in Gazette No 9,523 of February 22, 1946, Gazette No 9,634 of November 22, 1946, Gazette No 10,002 of July 29, 1949, and Gazettes Extraordinary No 10,229 of March 30, 1951, and No 10,429 of July 30, 1952, shall be further varied by the substitution, or Part II of that Schedule, of the following new Part —

" PART II

- Wages for the printing trade shall be paid on a monthly basis
- The minimum rate of wages for time work shall consist of a basic rate and a special allowance as set out below
- A worker of any class specified in this Part shall be paid as wages for any month mentioned in column I below, an amount equal to the minimum monthly rate specified in respect of that class in this Part, if he has worked during the minimum number of working days specified in respect of that month in column II below Any day on which the employer fails to provide with work any worker who presents himself therefor shall be deemed for this purpose to be a day on which the worker has worked

Wages Board for the Motor Transport Trade

SCHEDULE

The decisions made by the Wages Board for the Motor Transport Trade and set out in the Schedule to the notification published in Gazette No 9,667 of February 14, 1947, as varied in the manner set out in the notifications published in Gazette No 9,693 of April 25, 1947, Gazette No 10,147 of September 1, 1950 and, Gazette Extraordinary No 10,229 of March 30, 1951, shall be further varied by the substitution, for Part II of that Schedule, of the following new Part —

"PART II

1 Wages for the Motor Transport Trade shall be paid on a monthly basis to permanent workers and on a daily basis to temporary workers

2 The minimum rate of wages for time work shall consist of a basic rate and a special allowance as set out below

3 (1) A permanent worker of any class specified in this part shall be paid as wages for any month mentioned in column I below an amount equal to the minimum monthly rate specified in respect of that class in this part, if he has worked during the minimum number of working days specified in respect of that month in column II below

I Month	II Minimum number of working days

December	27

(2) In respect of each such day of work in any month as is in excess of the minimum number of working days specified in respect of that month in paragraph 3-(1), the minimum rate of wages payable shall be an amount equal to one and a half times the minimum daily rate ascertained by dividing the minimum monthly rate by 25

4 Where a permanent worker of any class specified in this part has commenced employment in the course of any month, he shall be paid as wages for that month an amount which bears to the minimum monthly rate specified in respect of that class in this part, the proportion which the period of his employment bears to the minimum number of working days specified in respect of that month in paragraph 3

5 Where by reason of any unauthorised absence a permanent worker of any class specified in this part has not worked in any month during the minimum number of working days specified in respect of that month in paragraph 3, he shall be paid as wages for that month an amount which bears to the minimum monthly rate specified in respect of that class in this part, the proportion which the difference between such minimum number of working days and the number of days of unauthorised absence bears to such minimum number of working days

6 Absence from work on holidays, on days on which the employer fails to provide work, and on days for which leave with full pay is allowed to a permanent worker, shall not be deemed to be unauthorised absence

7 For the purposes of computing the wages of a worker paid on a monthly basis, a holiday referred to in part IV, shall be deemed to be a day on which the worker has worked.

THE WAGES BOARDS ORDINANCE, No 27 OF 1941

Notification

IN accordance with the provisions of section 26A of the Wages Boards Ordinance, No 27 of 1941, the Wages Board for the Cinema Trade hereby notifies that the Board, by virtue of the powers vested in it by section 28 of that Ordinance, proposes to vary, in the manner set out in the Schedule hereto, such decisions of the Board as are specified in that Schedule

Objections to the aforesaid proposal will be received by the Chairman of the Board until 12 noon on June 2, 1953

Every such objection must be made in writing and must contain a statement of the grounds upon which such objection is taken

Colombo, May 19, 1953

S K D JAYAMANNE,
Chairman, Wages Board for the Cinema Trade

SCHEDULE

The decisions made by the Wages Board for the Cinema Trade and set out in the Schedule to the notification published in Gazette Extraordinary No 9,961 of March 30, 1949, as varied in the manner set out in the notifications published in Gazette No 9,999 of July 15, 1949, Gazette No 10,047 of November 25, 1949 and Gazette Extraordinary No 10,229 of March 30, 1951, shall be further varied by the substitution, for Part II of that Schedule, of the following new Part —

"PART II (SECTIONS 20 AND 26)

- 1 Wages shall be paid on a monthly basis
- 2 The minimum rate of wages for time work shall consist of a basic rate and a special allowance as set out below
- 3 (1) A worker of any class specified in this Part shall be paid as wages for any month mentioned in column I below an amount equal to the minimum monthly rate specified in respect of that class in this Part, if he has worked during the minimum number of working days specified in respect of that month in column II below

(2) In respect of each such day of work in any month as is in excess of the minimum number of working days specified in respect of that month in paragraph 3 (1), the minimum rate of wages payable shall be an amount equal to one and a half times the minimum daily rate ascertained by dividing the minimum monthly rate by 25

4 Where a worker of any class specified in this Part has commenced employment in the course of any month, he shall be paid as wages for that month an amount which bears to the minimum monthly rate specified in respect of that class in this Part the proportion which the period of his employment bears to the minimum number of working days specified in respect of that month in paragraph 3 (1)

5 Where by reason of any unauthorised absence a worker of any class specified in this Part has not worked in any month during the minimum number of working days specified in respect of that month in paragraph 3 (1), he shall be paid as wages for that month an amount which bears to the minimum monthly rate specified in respect of that class in this Part the proportion which the difference between such minimum number of working days and the number of days of unauthorised absence bears to such minimum number of working days

6 Absence from work on holidays, on days on which the employer fails to provide work, and on days for which leave with full pay is allowed to a worker, shall not be deemed to be unauthorised absence

7 For the purposes of computing the wages of a worker, a holiday referred to in Part III shall be deemed to be a day on which the worker has worked
