TEMPORARY SURCHARGE OF 10 PER CENT. LEVIED UNDER CUSTOMS NOTIFICATION (R. P. O.) 52/2 APPEARING IN GAZETTE No. 10,481 OF SEPTEMBER 19, 1952

THE temporary surcharge of 10 per cent. levied under the above Notification on certain tariff items has been merged in new rates of duty published in Customs Notification (R P O) No 53/2 of July 23, 1953, which have now been ratified and appear as statutory duties under Customs Notification (Tariff) No. 53/5 of November 3, 1953, with effect from November 6, 1953.

2. There are however still certain items under the Old Tariff Notification and in Schedule B of the new Tariff Notification, which in addition to specified rates of duty also carry a surcharge of 10 per cent. But these are statutory surcharges and not temporary surcharges. All import duties and surcharges recovered under the existing Customs Tariff Notifications must therefore be credited under one head of Revenue.

3 The earlier Gazette Notification requiring that that temporary surcharges should be shown separately for purposes of crediting under a separate head of Revenue, is no longer in force and should be treated as cancelled with effect from November 6, 1953.

4. However, in preparing or accepting entries in respect of goods which are liable to the additional statutory surcharge, it is necessary that both the amount of duty at the specified rate and the amount of surcharge should be indicated separately against each item.
