Order under Section 2

BY virtue of the powers vested in me by section 2 of the Japanese Treaty of Peace Act, No 16 of 1952, as amended by the Japanese Treaty of Peace (Amendment) Act, No 41 of 1953, I, Herwald, Baron Soulbury, Governor-General of Ceylon, order as follows—

- (1) All such property in Ceylon as was formerly the property of Japanese nationals vested in the Custodian of Enemy Property appointed under the Defence (Trading with the Enemy) Regulations, 1939, and is now the property of the Crown by virtue of sub-section (2A) of section 2 of the Japanese Treaty of Peace Act, No. 16 of 1952, shall be disposed of as hereinafter provided

- (2) The claims against Japan or Japanese nationals which have been registered by the Custodian of Enemy Property shall be determined by a Committee (hereinafter referred to as "the Committee") consisting of the Custodian of Enemy Property and a Crown Counsel nominated by the Attorney-General. The Committee shall, in determining the claims, have regard to the provisions of the Treaty of Peace with Japan. The determination of the Committee on each claim shall be communicated in writing to the claimant, and, if the claimant is aggrieved by that determination, he may, within fourteen days after the receipt of such communication by him, make a written appeal against that determination to the Minister of Justice. In every appeal the grounds on which the appeal is made shall be specified. The decision of the Minister of Justice on an appeal shall be final and conclusive.
- (3) Out of the moneys forming part of the property referred to in paragraph (1) of this Order there shall be retained, for the purpose mentioned in paragraph (5) of this Order, a sum equal to the value of all the claims referred to in paragraph (2) of this Order.
- (4) The right, title and interest to and in such of the property referred to in paragraph (1) of this Order as is not retained under paragraph (3) of this Order shall be transferred to the Japanese nationals who were respectively entitled thereto immediately before such property vested in the Custodian of Enemy Property, so, however, that the value of the property transferred to any person under this paragraph shall bear to the value of all the property available for transfer to Japanese nationals under this paragraph the same proportion as the value of the property of that person which was vested in the Custodian of Enemy Property bears to the value of all the property referred to in paragraph (1) of this Order.

If any part of such sum is left after such payment has been made, the amount left shall be disposed of in like manner as the property to which paragraph (4) of this Order applies.
- (6) If any person entitled to receive any property under this Order is dead or cannot be found, that property shall be retained and dealt with as property of the Crown.
