IMPORTS FROM CHINA

10 (i) Individual Import Licences must be obtained before any orders are placed for any goods produced or manufactured in China

(ii) "Registered Ceylonese Traders who hold Valid General Import Licences and who desire to import goods for which licences are issued, the produce or manufacture of China, direct from China or through Hongkong, Singapore or other channels, are requested before they place any orders with the Rubber Commissioner, to forward to this office four copies of each order for the issue of an import licence to enable the Rubber Commissioner to order the goods on their behalf. The suppliers' copy of the import licence should be forwarded to the Rubber Commissioner to be retained by him. On arrival of the goods the Rubber Commissioner will endorse the documents in favour of the Importer who placed the order to enable him to pass the necessary Customs entry for the clearance of the goods. The Importer's copy of the licence should be produced to the Customs for the release of the goods."

(iii) A record should be maintained by the importer in respect of all whole sale transactions of Rs. 2,500 and over [vide para 6 (iv)].

IMPORTS FROM AUSTRIA

11. (i) Registered Ceylonese Traders who hold valid General Import Licences are permitted to import goods produced or manufactured in Austria on their General Import Licences—vide para 6.

(ii) Non-Ceylonese Importers will be issued individual import licences to import only goods of the category and item number and description imported by them in 1952, without limitation as to quantity or value except for goods in the Schedule under "Imports from E. P. U Sources"—vide para 8.

IMPORTS FROM YUGOSLAVIA, CZECHOSLOVAKIA AND POLAND

12. (i) Registered Ceylonese Traders who hold valid General Import Licences are permitted to import goods produced or manufactured in Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia or Poland on their General Import Licences—vide para 6.

(ii) Non-Ceylonese Importers will be issued individual import licences to import only goods of the category and item number and description imported by them in 1952, without limitation as to quantity or value.

IMPORTS FROM U. S. S. R. AND OTHER COUNTRIES

13. (i) Individual Import Licences must be obtained before any orders are placed for any goods produced or manufactured in the U. S. S. R., Albania, Bulgaria, Estonia, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania and Rumania.

(ii) Registered Ceylonese Traders who hold valid General Import Licences will be allowed to import goods for which licences are issued from the above sources without limitation as to quantity or value.
