2. The sale of the lease will be restricted to Citizens of Ceylon
3. The bidding will be on the premium, provided that no bid below the upset premium of Rs. 100 will be accepted.
4. The Government Agent may before accepting any bid satisfy himself of the bona fides of the person making it and his ability to comply with the conditions of the lease. If he is not so satisfied, the Government Agent may refuse to accept any bid and continue the sale as if no such bid has been made.
5. Every bidder shall be present in person or by a duly accredited agent at the aforesaid place and time. The necessary letters of appointment should be produced by the agents for scrutiny prior to the sale.
6. The successful bidder shall immediately after his bid is accepted pay one-tenth of the amount of his bid and the first year's rent. The balance of the amount bid shall be paid within one month of the date of sale. In the event of the successful bidder failing to pay any of the above amounts as stipulated, the Government Agent may cancel the sale and confiscate any monies paid to him.
7. The successful bidder shall on payment of the balance amount of his bid be entitled to receive possession of the land. The successful bidder shall execute an Indenture of Lease within 14 days of its being presented to him. In the event of his failing to do so, the Government Agent shall be entitled to cancel the sale and confiscate any monies paid by such bidder.
8. Such lease will include the following conditions, amongst others—
 - (a) the lease will be for a term of ninety-nine (99) years,
 - (b) the lessee shall pay rent at the rate and times specified in the lease. The annual rental for the lease will be as shown in the schedule hereto;
 - (c) the lessee shall pay all rates and taxes and other assessments and outgoings in respect of the land and buildings thereon,
 - (d) the lessee shall, within six months from the commencement of the lease, submit to the Government Agent plans showing the buildings and structures it is proposed to erect on the land and shall make such amendments or additions thereto as are considered necessary by the Government Agent for the purpose for which the lease was obtained,
 - (e) the lessee shall construct such buildings and structures within such time as may be specified in the lease and in accordance with plans approved by the Government Agent. The lessee shall not alter such buildings or structures or erect any further buildings or structures except with the written approval of the Government Agent;
 - (f) except with the prior written consent of the Government Agent, the lessee shall not use the land for any purpose other than for the purpose approved by the Government Agent and specified in the lease;
 - (g) the lessee shall provide approach roads, culverts of such sufficient capacity, boundary walls, &c. as are considered necessary by the Government Agent,
 - (h) the lessee shall not sub-let, donate, mortgage or otherwise dispose of or deal with the written consent of the Land Commissioner on the lessor's behalf,
 - (i) at the expiration or earlier determination of the lease, the lessee shall yield up and surrender to the Government Agent or any officer duly authorized by him quiet possession of the land and buildings thereon in good condition (due allowance being made for fair wear and tear);
 - (j) no compensation shall be payable by the Crown to the lessee for any buildings on the land or on any other account whatsoever.
9. For further particulars application should be made to the Government Agent.

Sale of Lease of Commercial Sites

NOTICE is hereby given that the Government Agent, Trincomalee District (hereinafter referred to as the Government Agent), will on August 30, 1956, at 10 a.m. at the D.R.O.'s Office, Mutur, sell by public auction the lease of the Crown lands described in the schedule hereto.

2 The bidding will be on the premium. No bid below the upset premium will be accepted. The upset premium for each lot will be Rs 100.

3 The Government Agent may, before accepting any bid, satisfy himself of the bona fides of the person making it and his ability to comply with the conditions of the lease. If he is not satisfied, the Government Agent may refuse to accept any bid and continue the sale as if no bid had been made.

4 The successful bidder shall, immediately after his bid is accepted pay one tenth of the amount of such bid, and the balance within one month of the date of sale.

5 The successful bidder shall, within ten days of being required to do so by the Government Agent, enter into an Indenture of the lease. In the event of his failure to do so or of any breach of the conditions on which the bid was accepted, the successful bidder shall be liable to forfeit any deposit made by him.

6 Each lease will include the following conditions amongst others—

- (a) the term shall be 99 years.
- (b) the lessee shall on each site, pay an annual rent of Rs 25 (Rupees twenty-five), during the first 30 years of the lease. The rent during each subsequent period of 30 years shall be such rent as the Government Agent may fix, provided that the rent for any such period shall not exceed the rent for the period immediately preceding by more than fifty per cent.
- (c) the lessee shall within six months from the commencement of the lease and to the satisfaction of the Government Agent, erect on the land a building to be used for commercial purpose.
- (d) The lessee shall use the land and the building erected thereon for commercial purpose and for no other purpose;
- (e) the lessee shall not sublet, donate, mortgage or otherwise dispose of or deal with interest in the lease without the written consent of the Land Commissioner;
- (f) the lessee shall keep any buildings erected on the land by him in good repair, and maintain a substantial fence or boundary wall round the land;
- (g) the lessee shall pay rents and taxes and other assessments in respect of the land and any buildings thereon;
- (h) the lessee shall, at the expiry of the term of the lease or on its earlier termination, surrender the land to crown together with all buildings, improvements and fixtures. He shall not however, be entitled to any compensation in respect of such buildings, improvements or fixtures or any other account whatsoever (Due allowances being made for fair wear and tear).
