Travelling Allowances to Officers of the Survey Department.

1. The Surveyor-General.—The Surveyor-General will rank as an inspecting officer in Schedule A of the Minute of February 17, 1897, and all the provisions of that Minute which apply to officers in Schedule A will apply to the Surveyor-General.

2. Superintendents.—A superintendent when travelling beyond ten miles from his residence will receive subsistence allowance at the rate of Rs. 10 a day for each day he sleeps from home, provided that the detention at any station does not exceed three days.

3. If a superintendent remains at a station more than three days, his allowance will be reduced to Rs. 2-50 for each day of detention in excess of that period.

4. Assistant Superintendents.—An assistant superintendent whose appointment dates prior to February 5, 1878, when travelling beyond ten miles from his station will receive a subsistence allowance of Rs. 10 a day.

5. An assistant superintendent whose appointment dates after February 5, 1878, when travelling beyond ten miles from his station will receive a subsistence allowance of Rs. 7.50 a day.

6. If it is found necessary to employ a private conveyance for the purpose of his journey, it must be paid for by the assistant superintendent, or the actual expenses incurred during the journey may be charged in lieu of subsistence allowance.

7. Surveyors.—The regulations with regard to journeys on which subsistence allowance may be charged by surveyors are similar to those governing assistant superintendents. The rates, however, differ according to the grade of the surveyors, and are as follows :—

				Subsistence Allowance.
				Rs.	c.
First Grade	...	...	...	7	50
Second Grade	...	...	...	5	0
Third Grade	...	...	...	4	0

8. If it is found necessary to employ a private conveyance for the purpose of his journey, it must be paid for by the surveyor, or the actual expenses incurred during the journey may be charged in lieu of subsistence allowance, provided the Surveyor-General considers the expenses charged are such as the officer might reasonably have incurred had he been travelling privately.

9. The rule as regards the radius to be travelled by officers in the receipt of horse allowance, referred to in section 14 of the Minute of February 17, 1897, will not apply to superintendents and assistant superintendents.

Regulations regarding Travelling Allowances to Officers of the Survey Department when changing Stations.

ROYAL DECREE.

At the instance of the Minister of Finance and in accord with the Council of Ministers, I make the following Decree as Queen Regent of the Kingdom, in the name of my August Son, King Alfonso XIII. :—

Article 1.—In accordance with Article I. of the Law of the 10th instant, providing extra revenues to cover the yearly payment on the loan guaranteed by the Custom-house duties during the next financial year, the following temporary and interior duties on the revenue, included in the direct and indirect taxes in the Estimates, are imposed. The temporary surcharge will be at the rate of one-tenth of the assessed amounts, the tariffs and the liquidations to realize the payments under the following headings of the Estimates :—

- Industrial and Commercial Taxes.
- Probate Duties.
- Royalty on Mines.
- Duties on Titles, Nobility, &c.
- Personal Documents (Cedulas).
- Payments by the State, whether Provincial or Municipal.
- Port Dues in the Canary Islands.
- Duty on Private Carriages.
- Duties on Commercial Bills.
- Custom-house Duties.
- Consular Fees.
- Special Tax on the Manufacture of Spirits.
- Tax on Sugar (Foreign, Colonial, or Native).
- Special Octroi Duty on Colonial Importations.
- Duties on the Tariffs on Travellers and Merchandise.
- Stamp Duty.
- Duty on Gunpowder and Explosives.

The tax on salaries and on articles of consumption, including the special duties on spirits and salt, will also be increased by a temporary surcharge of 2 per 100 on existing tariffs.

Article 2.—The surcharge of one-tenth, designated as an interior tax on the Custom-house duties, is not to be considered as an alteration in the existing tariff, but as a temporary addition to the total amount due on each declaration. However, all the engagements entered into under the international tariff regulations will be respected.

Article 3.—In all towns, whether the taxes on articles of consumption are leased or administered directly, whether they are collected by an agreement with the guilds or by assessment of inhabitants, the temporary surcharge will be levied on the amount paid to the Treasury under this head.

When the assessment agreed to between the Government and the Municipal Corporations on the new leases produce a higher income for the Treasury from the 1st of July next, the temporary surcharge will be exacted only on that sum necessary to complete the amount of the surcharge.

Article 4.—When the tax to be levied on the tariff rates for travellers and merchandise does not amount to one peseta, the surcharge will be excused.

Article 5.—The temporary surcharge of 10 per cent. on the tax on Government Stamps will be paid by special stamps of values corresponding to the amount of the stamps used, excepting that of 0.75 pesetas, the surcharge of which will be five cents.

Postage and telegraph stamps of all descriptions, as well as stamps of less than 50 cents, and the stamps used for the bonds of external and colonial debts, are excepted from special surcharge.

Article 6.—So long as the lease for the manufacture and sale of explosives is not effected, the temporary surcharge will only be exacted on the actual stamped duties.

Article 7.—The special surcharge will be imposed at the same time as the tax on which it is based, and the collection will be made at the same time and by means of the same receipt.

The income obtained from the temporary surcharge will be entered under section 5 of the ordinary estimate receipts, under the heading of "Special Income to Pay the Annuity on the Loan guaranteed by the Custom-house Duties," which entry will be headed "Temporary Surcharge."

Article 8.—The Minister of Finance will give the necessary orders to carry out this Decree.

Given at the Palace on the 25th of June, 1897.

JOAO NAVARRO REVERTER,

No tender will be considered unless it is on such printed forms—to be obtained at the Office of the Colonial Storekeeper—and unless accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, whose addresses must be given, engaging to become sureties for the due fulfilment of the contract.

The amount of security to be given, and all other necessary information, can be ascertained on application at the Colonial Storekeeper's Office.

The person whose tender has been accepted by Government will be required to bear the expenses of having security bonds prepared for the due performance of his contract, which bonds will be subject to the approval of the Attorney-General, but may be drawn by the tenderer's own lawyers, in which case the name or stamp of the Proctor who drafted the bond should be affixed to the document. But if a contractor submits a security bond which does not bear the name or stamp of the lawyer who drafted it, he will be required to pay a fee of Rs. 10.50 to the Attorney-General for approving such bond.

The security bond should be furnished immediately on acceptance of tender being notified.

All alterations or erasures in tenders should bear the initials of the tenderers, otherwise the tenders will be treated as informal and rejected.

The Government reserves to itself the right, without question, of rejecting any or all tenders, and the right of accepting any portion of a tender.
