Council of Legal Education Notices

"THE COUNCIL OF LEGAL EDUCATION INCORPORATION ORDINANCE, 1900."

RULES made by the Incorporated Council of Legal Education under section 7 of "The Council of Legal Education Incorporation Ordinance, 1900".

G. M. DE SILVA,
Registrar, Council of Legal Education.

Ceylon Law College,
Colombo, December 31, 1957.

Rules

The Rules made under the Council of Legal Education Incorporation Ordinance, 1900, as amended, were further amended at a meeting of the Council held on July 26, 1955, by the substitution of the following new Rules 51, 51A, and 51B for Rule 51:—

"51. Any person who has been duly called to the Bar in England, Scotland, or Ireland, may be admitted and enrolled an Advocate of the Supreme Court without the examinations hereinbefore prescribed, provided that—

- (a) three years have elapsed since the date of his call to the Bar in England, Scotland, or Ireland;
- (b) he pays a sum equal to the admission fee, the lecture fees, and the examination fees payable by an Advocate student at the Law College for the full course therein;
- (c) he applies to the Supreme Court for admission as an Advocate and fulfils the requirements prescribed by Rule 37 and produces documentary proof of his call to the Bar in England, Scotland, or Ireland, together with an affidavit that he is the person named in the said documents, and that he has not done or committed any act or thing rendering him liable to be disbarred; and
- (d) the Registrar of the Supreme Court reports that the applicant is of good repute and that there exists no impediment or objection to his admission and enrolment.

51A. Where any person has been duly called to the Bar in England, Scotland, or Ireland, and three years have not elapsed since the date of his call to the Bar of any of those countries, he may be admitted and enrolled as an Advocate of the Supreme Court—

- (a) upon his passing the examination for Advocate students in the following subjects, viz.:—
Criminal Law and Procedure,
Civil Procedure,
Persons and Property;
- (b) upon his paying a sum equal to the admission fee, the lecture fees, and the examination fees payable by an Advocate student at the Law College for the full course therein;
- (c) upon his applying to the Supreme Court for admission as an Advocate and fulfilling the requirements prescribed by Rule 37 and producing documentary proof of his call to the Bar in England, Scotland, or Ireland, together with an affidavit that he is the person named in the said documents and that he has not done or committed any act or thing rendering him liable to be disbarred; and
- (d) upon the Registrar of the Supreme Court reporting that the applicant is of good repute and that there exists no impediment or objection to his admission and enrolment.

51B. Upon every application for enrolment made to the Supreme Court, it may make such order as it may deem proper."
