THE AWARD

This award relates to a dispute between the parties above named, and is in terms of a settlement that the parties have come to. The dispute was referred to this Tribunal by the Honourable the Acting Minister of Labour and Nationalised Services, by Order made on 19th September, 1961, under section 4 (1) of the Industrial Disputes Act, No. 43 of 1950, for settlement by arbitration. The matter in dispute specified in the statement of the Acting Commissioner of Labour which accompanied the Honourable Minister's Order is whether the non-employment of the employees whose names appear above is justified, and to what relief each of them is entitled.

At the sittings of the Tribunal, which were on the 2nd and 22nd of January, 1962, the employees were represented by Mr. W. M. M. G. Ran Banda whom the employees had nominated as their representative. The Ceylon Tobacco Company was represented by Mr. Lyn Wirasekera of the Employers' Federation of Ceylon on the first day and by Mr. S. B. M. Ranatunga, Personnel Assistant of the company, on the second day.

The case for the employees was that they had been working as tobacco curers and the company, having terminated their services, had recruited others in their places. The company's case was that the employees were seasonal workers and their last period of seasonal employment came to an end on 30th June, 1960; there was now no need to employ any curers as the farmers from whom the company was buying tobacco, having gained experience, were curing tobacco themselves.

The employees also complained about non-payment of overtime and holiday wages and about provident fund contributions, but these matters could not be admitted for adjudication as matters arising out of, or connected with, the matters specified in the statement of the Acting Commissioner of Labour. There was, however, nothing to prevent the parties coming to a settlement in respect of these matters too. The settlement that the parties have come to covers these also and is in the following terms:—

1. The company has paid Rs. 750 to each of the 13 employees whose non employment has been the matter in dispute and the employees have accepted the sum as relief in respect of distress consequent to the termination of their employment and payment in satisfaction of all their claims including the claim for provident fund benefits.

2. When occasions for the recruitment of labourers for employment at any of the company's leaf depots arise, the company will write to the following employees, who out of the 13 employees whose non employment has been in dispute are willing to accept work as labourers without prejudice to their rights under clause (3) to be considered for employment as watchers, overseers or field instructors, offering them employment as labourers. If any of the employees who are offered such employment accept the employment offered, they will be employed:—

1. W. M. Tikiri Banda,
2. K. M. Cyril,
3. P. G. Punchi Banda,
4. W. B. Weerasooriya,
5. D. G. Ukku Banda,
6. W. A. Podimahatmaya,
7. P. G. Somapala,
8. D. M. Kalubanda, and
9. P. M. Panditharatna.

3. When occasions for the recruitment of watchers, overseers, or field instructors for employment at any of the company's leaf depots arise, the 13 employees whose non employment has been the matter in dispute will be notified in writing, and, if they apply for such vacancies and are found by the company to be suitable, they will be given preference over other applicants.

4. The company has selected 17 persons from among the casual and temporary labourers who are in employment now for appointment as regular labourers. This settlement in respect of the 13 employees whose non employment has been the matter in dispute is without prejudice to the appointment of the 17 persons who have already been selected.

The settlement is just and equitable and I make award in terms of it.

The employees will furnish their addresses to the company through the Assistant Commissioner of Labour, Kandy.

R. SUBBRAMANIAM,
President,
Labour Tribunal (3).

Dated at Colombo, this thirty-first day of January, 1962.
