PART III

Overtime Rate

In respect of each hour of work in excess of the normal working day, the minimum overtime rate shall be the minimum hourly rate (ascertained by dividing the minimum daily rate by eight) increased by 50 per centum of such minimum hourly rate; and in respect of any part of an hour of work in excess of the normal working day the minimum overtime rate shall be computed proportionately.

PART IV

Weekly Holiday (Section 24)

Every employer shall allow any one day in the week as the weekly holiday to all workers employed under him :

Provided, however, that an employer may employ any worker on such weekly holiday, subject to the following conditions :—

- (1) that a day within the six days next succeeding such weekly holiday shall be allowed to that worker as a holiday ; and
- (2) that in respect of work done on weekly holiday that worker shall be paid as remuneration the minimum rate of wage for a normal working day increased by—
 - (a) 50 per centum of such minimum rate for the first 9 hours (inclusive of one hour for a meal) ; and
 - (b) 100 per centum of the minimum hourly rate (ascertained by dividing the daily minimum time rate by 8) for each subsequent hour of work.
- (3) The remuneration due to a worker for work done on the weekly holiday during any period shall be paid along with the wages payable for that period.

PART V

Annual Holidays (Section 25)

If a worker has been in continuous employment and has worked under the same employer for more than 232 days in any year (hereinafter called the "qualifying year") he shall be allowed in the next succeeding year a holiday or holidays, calculated at the rate of one holiday for each unit of 4 days by which the number of days on which the worker has worked exceeds 232 :

Provided, however, that it shall not be obligatory on an employer to allow any such holiday in respect of any period of work in excess of 288 days.

In this paragraph "days on which the worker has worked" includes—

- (a) every holiday allowed by the employer to the worker under section 25 of the Wages Boards Ordinance (Chapter 136) in any year under consideration ;
 - (b) every day of absence on any grounds approved by the employer ;
 - (c) every day of absence due to any injury to the worker caused by an accident arising out of and in the course of his employment ;
 - (d) every day of absence due to any occupational disease specified in Schedule III of the Workmen's Compensation Ordinance (Chapter 139) ;
 - (e) every day on which the employer fails to provide work for the worker ; and
 - (f) every day of absence due to a strike or lockout that is not illegal and that does not continue for more than 30 days ;
- but shall not include the day fixed as the weekly holiday under section 24.

2. (i) If the number of holidays that a worker is entitled to does not exceed seven, such worker shall be allowed, and he shall take those holidays on consecutive days.

(ii) If the number of holidays that a worker is entitled to exceeds seven, such worker shall be allowed, and he shall take seven of those holidays on consecutive days.

3. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 2, a worker shall be allowed his holiday or holidays on a day or days to be mutually agreed upon between him and his employer.

4. The remuneration for each holiday shall be the average daily wage of the worker obtained by dividing the total wage (excluding overtime and bonuses) earned by the worker for the days on which he has actually worked in the last 60 days of the qualifying year by the number of such days.

5. The remuneration due to a worker in respect of his holiday or holidays shall be paid to him before such holiday or holidays but not earlier than seven days before such holiday or holidays.

Public Holidays (Section 25)

1. (a) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph and of paragraph 2, every employer shall allow as holidays with remuneration to all workers employed by him, the following public holidays within the meaning of the Holidays Ordinance (Chapter 177) :—

- (1) The Tamil Thai Pongal Day ;
- (2) The Independence Commemoration Day (February 4) ;
- (3) The Sinhala and Hindu New Year's Day ;
- (4) May Day (May 1) ;
- (5) The Full Moon Day of the Sinhala Month of Wesak ;
- (6) The Birthday of the Holy Prophet Mohamed (On Whom Be Peace, Meelad-un-Nabi) ; and
- (7) Christmas Day.

(b) The provisions of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph shall not apply to a worker in any case where a public holiday referred to in that sub-paragraph occurs during any period when such worker is on strike.

(c) The remuneration payable to a worker for each such holiday as is referred to in the preceding sub-paragraph (a) shall be not less than the minimum rate of wages payable for a normal working day in the month in which such holiday occurs.

2. An employer may employ any worker on any such public holiday as is referred to in the preceding paragraph subject, however, to the following conditions:—

- (a) a day on or before the thirty-first day of December next succeeding such public holiday shall be granted to the worker as a holiday with remuneration at not less than the daily minimum rate of wages payable for a normal working day in the month in which the alternative holiday is granted; or
- (b) such worker shall be remunerated for work done on any such public holiday at not less than double the minimum daily rate of wages for work done during the number of hours constituting a normal working day, and at not less than 3 times the normal hourly rate (obtained by dividing the minimum daily rate by 8) for work done during each hour (and proportionately for work done for part of such hour) in excess of the number of hours constituting a normal working day.
