ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF THE EGYPTIAN CIGARETTES AND TURKISH TOBACCO COMPANY, LIMITED.

It is agreed that the regulations contained in the Table C in the schedule annexed to “The Joint Stock Companies’ Ordinance, 1861,” subject to the hereinafter-mentioned modifications, shall be deemed to be the regulations of the Company. The modifications are as follows :—

Transfer of Shares.—The Directors may decline to register the transfer of any share or shares held by a Shareholder which in the interest of the Company they deem it inexpedient to register.

Every instrument of transfer shall be left at the office of the Company for approval by the Directors, accompanied by such evidence as may be required by the Directors to prove the title of the transferrer. If the transfer be approved, such approval shall be certified in writing under the hand of one of the Directors and the Secretaries endorsed on such instrument of transfer, and the Company shall thereupon register the transferee as a Shareholder. If the transfer be not approved, the proposed transfer shall be absolutely void, and notice of non-approval shall be sent to the Shareholder intending to transfer such share. If no notice of non-approval shall be sent to the Shareholder within thirty days, the transfer shall be deemed to have been approved.

Increase of Capital.—The capital may be increased or decreased with the sanction of the Shareholders given by a special resolution at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company held for the purpose, of which seven days’ notice by registered letter shall have been previously given.

Quorum of General Meeting.—No business shall be transacted at any meeting except the declaration of a dividend, unless a quorum of Shareholders is present at the commencement of such business, and five Shareholders shall form a quorum.

Vote of Shareholders.—Every Shareholder shall have one vote for every share held by him up to ten. He shall have an additional vote for every five shares beyond the first ten shares up to one hundred, and an additional vote for every ten shares held by him beyond the first hundred shares. Shares may be registered in the name of a firm, and any partner of the firm or representative duly authorized to sign the name of the firm shall be entitled to vote in respect of such shares.

Any partner of a firm holding registered shares, or the representative of such firm duly authorized and notified as hereinafter provided, or any representative by power of attorney of any absent Shareholder duly authorized and notified as hereinafter provided, shall be entitled not only to speak and vote at the meetings of the Company, but shall also have power to appoint a proxy to represent his interests at such meetings, provided always that no person can be appointed to act as proxy who is not a Shareholder in the Company.

No person shall be appointed a proxy who is not a Shareholder; and the instrument or mandate appointing him shall be deposited at the registered office of the Company not less than forty-eight hours before the time of holding the meeting at which he proposes to vote; but no instrument or mandate appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of one year from the date of its execution.

Directors.—Until other or further provision is made at the first Ordinary General Meeting, the number of Directors shall be three, of whom two shall form a quorum, and the first Directors shall be Messrs. C. B. Brodie, H. van Cuylenburg, and H. Wilmson. The latter will join the Board immediately after allotment.

Every Director shall hold not less than fifty shares in the Company.

As remuneration for their services, the Directors shall be entitled to appropriate the sum of ten rupees a meeting for each Director present at such meeting, but the Company in General Meeting may at any time alter the amount of such remuneration for the future.

One of the Directors may be appointed by the Board to act as Managing Director, on such terms as the Board may determine.

Powers of Directors.—Directors shall have the power to do the following things in the name and on behalf of the Company:—

The Directors shall have the power from time to time to appoint and remove any employes, bankers, and proctors or solicitors to the Company as they may deem expedient; and appoint an attorney or attorneys under the seal of the Company to act specially, when necessary, on behalf of the Company out of the Island.

To purchase or take on lease any land or other real or personal property that they think requisite or desirable for the purpose of the Company, and again to sell the same.

To refer disputes to arbitration; to compromise any debt or claim due to or from the Company; to give time to any debtor for payment of his debt.

To issue from time to time any unissued shares, and may add to such shares such an amount of premium as they may consider proper. Provided that such unissued shares shall first be offered by the Directors to the registered Shareholders for the time being of the Company as nearly as possible in proportion to the shares already held by them, and such shares as shall not be accepted by the Shareholder or Shareholders to whom the shares shall have been offered, within the time specified in that behalf by the Directors, may be disposed of by the Directors in such manner as they think most beneficial to the Company.

To carry into effect all or any of the objects of the Company as expressed in the Memorandum of Association, and to exercise all or any of the powers thereby given to the Company.

To bring or defend any action, suit, or prosecution, or other legal proceedings, civil or criminal.

To exercise in the name of and on behalf of the Company all such powers of the Company as are not expressly required to be exercised by the Company in General Meetings.

Provided, however, that the seal of the Company shall not be affixed to any instrument except in the presence of two or more Directors, who shall attest the sealing thereof. And provided further, that all moneys, except the money required for current expenses, shall from time to time be deposited by the Directors with the bankers of the Company to the account of the Egyptian Cigarettes and Turkish Tobacco Company, Limited, and that all cheques must be signed by one Director and the Secretary, the latter to have power to endorse cheques only.

Dividends and Applications and Distribution of Profits.—No dividend shall be payable except out of the profits arising from the business of the Company.

The Directors may deduct from the dividends payable to any Shareholder all such sums of money as may be due from him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise.

Notice of any dividend that may have been declared shall be given to each Shareholder or sent by post or otherwise to his registered place of abode, and all dividends unclaimed for three years after having been declared may be forfeited by the Directors for the benefit of the Company.

No dividend shall bear interest as against the Company.

Provision relative to Winding up or Dissolution of the Company.—Any Shareholder, whether a Director or not, or whether alone or jointly with any other Shareholder or Director, and any person not a Shareholder, may become the purchaser of the property of the Company or any part thereof in the event of a winding up or a dissolution, or at any other time when a sale of the Company's property or effects or any part thereof shall be made by the Directors under the powers hereby or under the Ordinance conferred upon them.

Meetings of the Directors and General Meetings.—The Directors shall meet once in three months or more frequently if necessary. A General Meeting of the Shareholders shall be held as soon after the 30th September in each year as the books of the Company shall have been closed, of which meeting not less than seven days' notice by registered letter shall be given.

The Directors shall, seven days prior to this meeting, give or send to the registered address of every resident Shareholder or notified attorney of an absentee Shareholder, and also shall submit to this meeting a correct statement of the affairs of the Company, their earnings and expenses during the past year, their assets and liabilities to the said 30th of September; and shall also submit for the consideration of the meeting any information and suggestions likely to forward the general public convenience and the interests of the Company.

Besides the Yearly General Meeting to be held as aforesaid, General Meetings shall be held at such other times as business of importance may render necessary.

Notices.—When shares are registered in the name of a firm, notice may be duly served upon such firm, by giving the same to any member thereof, or any agent thereof duly notified as hereinafter provided, or by leaving such notices, or by sending them through the post in a letter addressed to the firm at their place of business.

It shall be imperative on every Shareholder resident abroad to have an agent or attorney, resident in Ceylon, lawfully authorized and notified to the Company as being authorized to receive on behalf of the said Shareholder all notices which the said Shareholder may be entitled to receive under these Articles or otherwise, and the Company shall not be bound to give notice to any Shareholder resident abroad, otherwise than by giving the same to the agent or attorney so authorized and notified.

Any Shareholder who shall not have a resident agent or attorney so authorized and notified shall not be entitled to notice, and may be dealt with as having had notice, or as having agreed to dispense with notice, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Every person who, by operation of law, by transfer, or other means, shall become entitled to any share, shall be bound by any and every notice or other document which, previous to his name and address being entered on the register in respect of his share, is given to the person from whom he derives his title.

When any notice or document is delivered or sent in accordance with these presents to the registered place or abode of a Shareholder, then, notwithstanding his being then deceased, and whether or not the Company have notice of his decease, such service of the notice or other document shall for all purposes of these presents be deemed service thereof on his heirs, executors, and administrators.
