The dispute was referred to this Tribunal by the Honourable the Minister of Labour and Nationalised Services by Order under section 4 (1) of the Industrial Disputes Act for settlement by arbitration. The matter in dispute, as given in the statement of the Commissioner of Labour accompanying the Minister's Order, is whether the retrenchment of Messrs. D. P. Wijesinghe, M. A. Arnolis, H. M. Jayasena, B. Davis, P. G. Wimalasiri, M. B. Senarayake and C. P. Remando of Kandy Branch and Messrs. H. Chandrasekera and G. V. Welsh of Nuwara Elva Branch is justified and to what relief each of them is entitled.

3. The dispute has been settled. The terms of the settlement are as follows:—

The sums payable to the rest of the workmen totalling Rs. 1,299.36 will be sent to the Assistant Commissioner of Labour, Kandy, for payment to the workmen concerned. These sums will be sent on or before such date as is appointed by the Tribunal.

"3. At the time of the termination of the services of these workmen each one was informed by the company that he would be offered his old job back at the first opportunity. The company reiterates its promise. The union accepts the assurance of the company and does not seek any further guarantee regarding future employment for the workmen concerned."

4. The settlement is just and equitable and I make award in terms of it. The sums agreed upon as retrenchment benefit shall be sent to the Assistant Commissioners of Labour within two weeks of the date of the publication of this award in the Government Gazette.

THE Award transmitted to me by the Arbitrator appointed for the purpose of settling the Industrial Dispute between the Democratic Workers' Congress and L. E. Perera, Superintendent, Dotel Oya Estate, Dolosbage, which was referred for settlement by Arbitration under section 3 (1) (d) of the Industrial Disputes Act, Chapter 131, of the Legislative Enactments, Ceylon (Revised Edition 1956), as amended by the Industrial Disputes (Amendment) Acts, Nos. 14 and 62 of 1957, and No. 4 of 1962, is hereby published in terms of section 18 (1) of the said Act.

R. L. GUNASEKERA,
Acting Commissioner of Labour.

Department of Labour,
Colombo 3, 7th November, 1962.

No. W. 105/222.

In the matter of an Industrial Dispute between

The Democratic Workers' Congress, 213/2,
Main Street, Colombo 11

and

Mr. L. E. Perera, The Superintendent, Dotel Oya Estate, Dolosbage.

The Award

This is an Award under section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, Chapter 131 of the Legislative Enactments, Ceylon (Revised Edition), as amended by the Industrial Disputes (Amendment) Acts, Nos. 14 and 62 of 1957, and 4 of 1962. It relates to an industrial dispute between the Democratic Workers' Congress (hereinafter referred to as the "Congress") and Mr. L. E. Perera, the Superintendent of Dotel Oya Estate, Dolosbage (hereinafter referred to as the "Superintendent").

2. By his order, made under section 3 (1) (d) of the aforesaid Act, dated 26th July, 1962, the Commissioner of Labour referred the above dispute to me for settlement by arbitration. According to the statement of the Commissioner of Labour, appended to his order, the matter in dispute between the parties is whether the refusal of work to P. Muniyandy by the Management of Dotel Oya Estate, Dolosbage is justified and to what relief he is entitled.

3. An inquiry was held on the 11th, 20th and 25th September, 1962. The Congress was represented by Mr. Advocate T. W. Rajaratnam, instructed by Mr. Nallasekeram, while the Superintendent appeared in person on the first two dates and on the third date was represented by Mr. Advocate A. C. Krishna Rajah, instructed by Messrs. D. L. & F. de Saram.

4. On the 11th September Mr. Advocate Rajaratnam explained to Court that owing to some mis-reading of the notice he had been retained by the Congress only that morning and applied for a fresh date. He apologised for the inconvenience caused and volunteered to pay costs of the day to the Superintendent. The Superintendent agreed to this request and further hearing was adjourned for the 20th September, 1962.

5. On the 20th September, Mr. Perera, the Superintendent, stated that there was a possibility of settling this dispute on the next date of hearing and asked that Court be adjourned till after the 23rd September, 1962, when Dr. H. V. J. Fernando, the proprietor of the estate, who was on that day away on official duty, would be present. Mr. Perera agreed to waive the costs offered to him on the first date as he himself was now asking for a postponement of the hearing. Mr. Rajaratnam agreed and said that he thought the matter could be settled on the next date when Dr. Fernando was present. Mr. Rajaratnam also stated that he did not oppose a date since there is every possibility of settling the matter in dispute. The hearing was therefore adjourned for the 25th.

6. On the 25th September when the parties met, after a brief discussion in Court Mr. Rajaratnam applied for a short adjournment to enable the parties to negotiate a settlement. Mr. Krishna Rajah did not oppose and Court allowed the adjournment.

7. When the Court resumed, after the short adjournment, the parties indicated to Court that they had arrived at a settlement of the dispute on the following terms:—

- (1) The worker P. Muniyandy is prepared to accept a sum of Rs. 100 in full and final settlement of the dispute. This sum is offered by the management as an ex-gratia payment.
- (2) The management undertakes to make a re-endorsement in the discharge tickets of Muniyandy and his wife that they were discharged as from today, the 25th September, 1962, in view of Muniyandy undertaking to withdraw all claims for reinstatement and/or back wages for himself and his wife.

(3) This sum of Rs. 100 is to be deposited with the Labour Officer, Nawalapitiya, before the 10th October, 1962. The management also states that the discharge tickets of Muniyandy and his wife, along with their ration cards, will be left with the said Labour Officer on or before the 10th October, 1962.

8. I consider this a fair and equitable settlement and make award accordingly.

J. L. C. RODRIGO,
Arbitrator.

Dated at Colombo this 23rd day of October, 1962.
