THE NAVY ACT

REGULATIONS made by the Minister of Defence and External Affairs under section 161 of the Navy Act (Chapter 358) as amended by Navy (Amendment) Act, No. 11 of 1962.

SIRIMA R. D. BANDARANAIKE,
Minister of Defence and External Affairs.

Colombo, November 30, 1962.

Regulations

1. These regulations may be cited as the Navy Pensions and Gratuities Code, 1962.

PART I—OFFICERS PENSIONS

2. An officer, who has completed not less than twenty years' reckonable service and who retires in terms of regulation 3 or in consequence of a decision that further employment is not available for him, may be granted a pension in accordance with the provisions of regulation 4.

3. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this regulation, an officer shall retire on the expiry of such period in the substantive rank he holds as is specified below if he is not promoted to the next higher substantive rank within that period. He shall retire if not promoted to the substantive rank of Commander by his fiftieth year of age.

Substantive Rank	Period—Years
Sub-Lieutenant ..	6
Lieutenant ..	11
Lieutenant-Commander ..	10
Commander ..	8
Captain ..	5
Commodore ..	4

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1), the, Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Defence and External Affairs, in consultation with the Captain of the Navy, may retain the services of an officer in any rank beyond the period stipulated for that rank in that paragraph, or beyond the age specified in respect of that rank in that paragraph, if, in the opinion of the Governor-General, it is essential in the interests of the Navy to do so.

(3) An officer shall in any event retire at the age of 55 years.

(4) For the purpose of computation of service in the rank referred to in paragraph (1), the service of an officer in a temporary or acting rank shall be reckoned as service in the substantive rank of such officer during the period he holds such temporary or acting rank.

4. (1) The rate of pension of an officer shall be based on his rank as defined in regulation 17 and on the length of his reckonable service.

(2) Where the period of reckonable service of an officer specified in Column I hereunder is not less than such standard service period for his rank for pension purposes as is specified in Column II hereunder, his pension shall be at the standard pension rate specified in Column III hereunder.

Column I Rank for pension purposes	Column II Standard service period (completed years of reckonable service)	Column III Standard pension rate per year
Lieutenant or an officer of a rank below that of Lieutenant	20	Rs. 4,200
Lieutenant-Commander	22	5,850
Commander	24	7,200
Captain	26	9,000
Commodore	28	10,000
Rear-Admiral	30	11,400

(3) Where the period of reckonable service of an officer referred to in regulation 2 is less than such standard service period for his rank for pension purposes as is specified in paragraph (2) of this regulation, his pension shall be at the standard rate specified in that paragraph for that rank reduced by one deduction, according to the scale of deductions set out hereunder, for each year or part of a year by which such period of reckonable service is less than such standard service period.

SCALE OF DEDUCTIONS

Standard pension rate per Year	Amount of each deduction
Not less than Rs. 6,000	Rs. 300
Not less than Rs. 4,000 but below Rs. 6,000	200
Not less than Rs. 3,000 but below Rs. 4,000	150

Deductions shall be made successively until the number of deductions required to be made has been completed, and each deduction in turn shall be of the amount appropriate to the standard rate remaining after the preceding deduction.

(4) The pension of an officer who has been commissioned or appointed on the ranks shall be computed in terms of paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) of this regulation provided that he shall have served as an officer for at least five years; otherwise, the pension shall first be computed in terms of paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) of this regulation and thereafter reduced by one deduction for each year or part of a year by which his period of service as an officer is less than five years, according to the scale of deductions set out in paragraph (3) of this regulation.

(5) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the other provisions of this regulation, no officer shall receive an amount less than Rs. 3,000 per annum as pension under this regulation.

5. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in regulation 2, an officer who was granted a commission in the Regular Naval Force when he was over 23 years old and has, in consequence of his late entry, not completed 20 years reckonable service at the time of his retirement in the circumstances specified in regulation 3 or in consequence of a decision that further employment is not available for him, may, if he has completed at least fifteen years reckonable service and rendered satisfactory service be granted a pension in accordance with regulation 4.

6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in regulation 2, any officer who had been granted a commission in the Regular Naval Force prior to December 9, 1953, when he was over 23 years old, or who, having been enlisted into the Regular Naval Force as a seaman prior to December 9, 1953, when he was over 33 years old and had on any day subsequent to enlistment been granted a commission in the Regular Naval Force, shall if—

- he retires either in circumstances specified in regulation 3 or in consequence of a decision that further employment is not available for him or is invalidated;
- he completes not less than fifteen years' reckonable service at the time of retirement; and
- his record of service in the Navy is satisfactory, be granted for purposes of pension a bonus addition of ten years' reckonable service.

7. An officer who is retired on the ground that he has been superseded for promotion may, if he has at least twenty years' reckonable service, or at least fifteen years' reckonable service if he is eligible for the grant of a bonus addition of ten years' reckonable service for purposes of pension under regulation 6 and if his record of service has been, in the opinion of the Captain of the Navy, satisfactory, be granted a pension as if he has retired in consequence of a decision that further employment is not available for him.

8. An officer, who is permitted to retire at his own request, may, if he has at least twenty years' reckonable service, be granted a pension computed as follows:—

- If he is, at the date of retirement, within two years of his date of compulsory retirement, he may be granted a pension computed in accordance with regulation 4.

(2) If he is, at the date of retirement, not within two years of his date of compulsory retirement, he may be granted a pension computed in the following manner:—

(a) Firstly there shall be computed the amount of the pension he would have been eligible to receive, in accordance with regulation 4, had he continued to serve until he would have been compulsorily retired in accordance with the provisions of regulation 3 (1) or 3 (3);

(b) Thereafter from the amount so computed there shall be effected one deduction according to the scale of deductions set out in paragraph (3) of regulation 4 for each year or part of a year by which the difference between the date of retirement and the date of compulsory retirement exceeds two years;

(c) Finally from the amount so computed a further deduction of ten per centum shall be made.

(3) In this regulation, "date of compulsory retirement" shall mean the date on which the officer, in accordance with the provisions of regulation 3 (1) or 3 (3) is compulsorily retired either by virtue of his age or on completing the fixed period of service in the rank, whichever is earlier;

(4) No officer who is permitted to retire at his own request shall in any event receive an amount less than Rs. 3,000 per annum as pension.

9. (1) Where an officer, who has at least ten years' reckonable service is invalidated for causes not within his control, he may be granted a pension in accordance with the following provisions:—

(a) If he has not less than twenty years' reckonable service, his pension shall be equal to the pension for which he would have been eligible had he been compulsorily retired in consequence of a decision that further employment is not available for him;

(b) If he has less than twenty years' reckonable service, his pension shall be computed as follows:—

From the amount of the pension for which he would have been eligible under paragraph (a) had he completed twenty years' reckonable service and then retired in the rank of Lieutenant-Commander or his existing rank if higher, there shall be made a deduction of twice the amount specified in the scale of deductions set out in paragraph (3) of regulation 4 for each year or part of a year by which the period of his reckonable service falls short of twenty years.

(2) Where an officer, who has at least ten years' reckonable service is invalidated for causes within his control, he may, if his record of service is satisfactory, be granted a pension of an amount determined by the Minister in accordance with the provisions of regulation 36, such amount being not more than the amount of the pension for which such officer would have been eligible had his invaliding been due to causes not within his control.

10. Where an officer is compulsorily retired for unsuitability or inefficiency due to causes not within his control, he may, if he has at least twenty years' reckonable service, be granted a pension in accordance with regulation 4.

11. Where an officer is compulsorily retired for unsuitability or inefficiency due to causes within his control but not amounting to misconduct, he may, if he has at least twenty years' reckonable service and if his record of service is satisfactory, be granted a pension of an amount determined by the Minister in accordance with the provisions of regulation 36, such amount being not more than the amount of the pension for which such officer would have been eligible had he been permitted to retire at his own request.

12. Where, for misconduct not involving moral turpitude, an officer is compulsorily retired or is dismissed, he may, if he has at least twenty years' reckonable service and if, in the case of retirement, his record of service is satisfactory or, in the case of dismissal, his record of service is distinguished, be granted a pension of an amount determined by the Minister in accordance with the provisions of regulation 36, such amount being not more than ninety per centum of the pension for which such officer would have been eligible had he been permitted to retire at his own request.

GRATUITIES

13. An officer who on retirement or on being invalidated would be ineligible for a pension may, on the cessation of his service, be granted a gratuity in accordance with the following provisions:—

- Where he is retired under the terms of regulation 3 or in consequence of a decision that further employment is not available for him or where he is permitted to retire at his own request, he may, if he has at least ten years' reckonable service, be granted a gratuity, not exceeding Rs. 23,500 at the following rates :—

Where period of reckonable service is eight years ..	5,250
Where period of reckonable service is nine years ..	6,000
For each complete month of reckonable service short of one year ..	1/12th of Rs. 750

(5) Where he is compulsorily retired for inefficiency due to causes within his control but not amounting to misconduct, he may, if he has at least ten years' reckonable service and if his record of service is satisfactory, be granted a gratuity of an amount determined by the Minister in accordance with the provisions of regulation 36, such amount being not more than the amount of the gratuity for which he would have been eligible had he been permitted to retire at his own request.

(6) Where, for misconduct not involving moral turpitude, he is compulsorily retired or is dismissed, he may, if he has at least ten years' reckonable service and if, in the case of retirement, his record of service is satisfactory or, in the case of dismissal, his record of service is distinguished, be granted a gratuity of an amount determined by the Minister in accordance with the provisions of regulation 36, such amount being not more than ninety per centum of the gratuity for which he would have been eligible had he been permitted to retire at his own request.

14. An officer referred to in regulation 11 may, at his option, be granted in lieu of a pension, a gratuity in accordance with paragraph (5) of regulation 13 and an officer referred to in regulation 12 may, at his option, be granted in lieu of a pension, a gratuity in accordance with paragraph (6) of regulation 13.

15. (1) Where an officer, who has completed five years' reckonable service, dies whilst in service and if no award is payable under the regulations relating to "Disability Pensions", the dependants of such officer may be granted a gratuity of an amount equal to one year's basic pay, excluding any allowance, of the officer at the time of his death.

(2) Where an officer, who has completed five years' reckonable service, dies whilst seconded for service in any institution other than the Royal Ceylon Navy and if no award is payable under the regulations relating to "Disability Pensions", the dependants of such officer may be granted a gratuity of an amount equal to one year's basic pay, excluding any allowance, which the officer would have drawn in the Regular Naval Force at the date of death.

(3) Where on the retirement of an officer, he is awarded a pension which is not reduced under the provisions of regulation 33 and if he dies thereafter, the dependants of such deceased officer may, if no award is payable under the regulations relating to "Disability Pensions", be granted a gratuity not exceeding the sum, if any, by which the aggregate of the pension and allowances, if any, drawn and due falls short of one year's basic pay, excluding any allowance, drawn by the deceased officer at the time of retirement.

(4) For the purposes of this regulation "basic pay" shall mean the pay drawn by the officer in the rank he held at the time of his death or retirement as the case may be.

RECKONABLE SERVICE FOR OFFICERS' PENSIONS OR GRATUITIES

16. (1) The following service shall be reckonable service for a pension or gratuity of an officer :—

- (e) reckonable service as a seaman in terms of regulation 30 ;
- (f) pensionable service of a public servant in a permanent office which has been declared to be pensionable by a notification, published in the Gazette :

Provided that, in the case of a public servant commissioned after the date on which these regulations are published in the Gazette—

- (i) such public servant is commissioned from such permanent and pensionable office with the written approval of the Head of the Department in which he was employed, and
- (ii) such public servant has not forfeited the pension or gratuity due for such service by reason of his dismissal or on any other ground ;

Provided further that where a public servant is commissioned while serving his probationary period in a permanent and pensionable office under Government, his service on probation in that office shall be reckoned as "reckonable service" only if that service is continuous with his commissioned service in the Navy.

"Pensionable service" shall mean service in the permanent and pensionable office and any previous service that is admissible along with the service in such office for pension or gratuity under the Minutes on Pensions.

(g) pensionable service of a teacher whose name has been entered in the Register of Pensionable Teachers and who has made contributions to the School Teachers' Pension Scheme in accordance with the School Teachers' Pension Regulations :

Provided that—

- (i) such teacher is commissioned from his teaching post for service in the Instructor Branch of the Navy ;
- (ii) such teacher, if commissioned after the date on which these regulations are published in the Gazette, is commissioned as provided for in proviso (i) with the written approval of the Director of Education ; and
- (iii) such teacher has not forfeited the pension due for such service by reason of his dismissal or on any other ground.

"Pensionable service" shall mean service as such teacher and any previous service that is admissible along with the service of such teacher for pension under the School Teachers' Pension Regulations.

(h) service on secondment where an officer is seconded for temporary employment in any Government sponsored Board or Corporation or similar institution under Government control or to an office in the service of the Government to which pension rights are not attached :

Provided that—

- (i) his secondment for such employment is authorised by the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Defence and External Affairs ;
- (ii) his secondment for such employment with claim to pension is notified in the Gazette by the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Defence and External Affairs ; and

(iii) the pensionary contributions, if any, as may be determined from time to time by the Deputy Secretary to the Treasury, are credited to the Consolidated Fund of Ceylon by the Board of Corporation or Institution or the Department of Government to which the officer is seconded for temporary employment.

(i) service on secondment where an officer is seconded for service in a post under Government which is pensionable under the Minutes on Pensions provided that such secondment is authorised by the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Defence and External Affairs.

(2) (a) Where in respect of any reckonable service a gratuity has already been paid, it shall be a condition for the reckoning of such service for pension or gratuity that the gratuity drawn shall be refunded. The refund shall be made on final discharge from the Navy by a deduction from the award of pension or from the fresh award of the gratuity :

Provided however that where a " War Gratuity " has already been paid from the United Kingdom funds in respect of service during World War II between September 3, 1939, and August 15, 1946, such gratuity shall not be refunded.

(b) Where in respect of any reckonable service, a pension has already been granted, it shall be a condition for the reckoning of such service for pension or gratuity that the pension granted shall cease from the date of re-commissioning.

RANK FOR PENSION PURPOSES OF OFFICERS

17. (1) (a) Subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (b), the rank for pension purposes of an officer who is not invalidated shall be the highest rank, whether substantive or temporary, held by such officer in the Regular Naval Force for a continuous period of not less than two years immediately prior to retirement.

Provided that where such officer held such substantive or temporary rank for less than two years, the rank for pension purposes of such officer shall be the highest preceding substantive or temporary rank which together with any higher temporary or substantive rank has been held by such officer for a period aggregating not less than two years.

(b) The rank for pension purposes of an officer of the rank of Lieutenant or below who is not invalidated shall be the rank whether substantive or temporary held by such officer in the Regular Naval Force at the time of his retirement.

(2) The rank for pension purposes of an officer who is invalidated shall be the rank whether substantive or temporary held by him in the Regular Naval Force at the time he is invalidated.

(3) For the purposes of this regulation, an officer who holds the rank of Acting Sub-Lieutenant or Acting Lieutenant shall be deemed to hold the substantive rank of Sub-Lieutenant or Lieutenant, as the case may be :

Provided however that no officer who is appointed to act for a Lieutenant of an Acting, Temporary or Substantive rank shall be regarded as the holder of the rank of Acting Lieutenant.

DISABILITY PENSIONS

18. (1) An annual pension may, on the recommendation of the Captain of the Navy, be awarded in accordance with the scale set out hereunder to an officer in the event of disablement or in respect of an officer in the event of death, where such disablement or death, if caused by illness is certified by a Navy Medical Board and in all other cases by a Board of officers appointed for the purpose, to be attributable to naval service, but so however that the aggregate amount of pension so awarded together with the Navy Service Pension, if any, shall not exceed 50/60ths of the rate of basic pay per annum.

(6) (a) In the event of disablement of less than twenty per centum, a gratuity shall be payable to officers (irrespective of rank) provided such disablement is a measure of permanent disablement. In such a case gratuities may be awarded as follows on the percentage of the permanent disablement :—

	5 per centum loss of earning capacity	10 per centum loss of earning capacity	15 per centum loss of earning capacity
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Officers specified in paragraph (2)	450	900	1,350

(b) Where a pension has been originally granted on a disablement of twenty per centum or over and the disablement subsequently drops below twenty per centum, a proportionate reduced pension based on the extent of the permanent disablement may be awarded at the following rates:—

Percentage of loss of earning capacity	Proportionate reduced Pension (per annum)
	Extent of Permanent Disablement
	15 per centum	10 per centum	5 per centum
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Lieutenant or Sub-Lieutenant or rank below that of a Sub-Lieutenant ..	350	233	116

Captain ..	600	400	200
Commodore ..	700	466	233
Rear-Admiral ..	800	532	266

(c) Where a gratuity has been originally awarded, on a disablement of less than twenty per centum in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (a) and the disablement subsequently rises to twenty per centum or exceeds twenty per centum, a pension may be awarded from the date on which the increased disablement occurs in accordance with the rates laid down for disablement of twenty per centum and above, but any gratuity already awarded shall be revised to a reduced proportionate pension for the period commencing on the date following the date of cessation of pay and allowances and terminating on the date from which the new pension shall be payable. Where the total proportionate pension payable for this period falls short of the gratuity already paid, the difference shall be recovered from the new pension payable.

(7) When an officer who is eligible for a pension or gratuity on the ground of disablement unreasonably refuses to undergo an operation or other medical treatment which in the opinion of the medical board is likely to remove wholly or otherwise reduce in degree such disablement, such pension or gratuity may be withheld wholly or in part.

(8) Any wound, injury, or disease which is due to the misconduct of the officer concerned shall not be regarded as attributable to the conditions of service, and no pension or gratuity shall be payable in respect of disablement or death resulting therefrom.

(9) Disablement or death which is due to a wound, injury or disease which is not attributable to conditions of service but which has been aggravated or accelerated thereby shall be regarded as attributable to the conditions of such service.

(10) The pension payable to an officer may be reduced or withheld if such officer recovers partially or wholly from the disablement in respect of which such pension is paid.

(11) The pension payable to the widow of an officer may be withheld if the widow remarries:

Provided however, that where a pension is so withheld, the pension payable in respect of the children, if any, of such officer may be increased to that payable under paragraph (3) (b).

(12) Pension may be withheld from the widow of an officer—

(a) if she has married such officer after he received the wound or injury or contracted the disease from which he died, and (b) if at the time of the marriage, she knew that the officer was suffering from such disability or disease.

(13) Pension may be withheld from the widow of an officer who at the time of the death of such officer was separated from him, unless—

- (a) such officer was at the time of his death contributing to her support, or
- (b) such widow was entitled to support under a separation decree, maintenance order, or duly executed deed of separation.

(14) The pension payable to the daughter of a deceased officer shall cease upon the marriage of such daughter notwithstanding that she may be under the age of twenty-one years.

(15) The following provisions shall apply in the case of awards in respect of step-children, adopted children and illegitimate children:—

(a) For a step-child, the mother shall have married the officer before he sustained the wound or injury or before he resigned or was relegated to the Regular Naval Reserve on account of the disease, and the child shall have been regularly maintained by the officer up to the date of any award, or up to the date of his death, as the case may be.

(b) For a legally adopted child, the child shall have been adopted by the officer before he sustained the wound or injury, or before he resigned or was relegated to the Regular Naval Reserve on account of the disease, unless the child would, but for the adoption, have qualified for an allowance as a step-child or as an illegitimate child of the officer.

(c) For an illegitimate child, the child shall have been born before or within nine months after the date on which the officer sustained the wound or injury, or the date on which he resigned or was relegated to the Regular Naval Reserve on account of the disease, and the child shall have been regularly maintained by the officer up to the date of any award, or up to the date of his death, as the case may be, or shall have been the subject of a maintenance order in force against the officer at the date of his death.

(16) (a) The award of pension to a parent or parents may be made only if—

- (i) the deceased officer does not leave a widow or legitimate or illegitimate child, step-child or adopted child eligible for a pension; and
- (ii) the parent or parents are in pecuniary need, and were either solely dependent on the deceased at the time of his death, or that the father is deceased or incapable of earning his living by reason of age or infirmity.

(b) The pension of a parent who remarries shall cease as from the date of remarriage.

(17) The award to brothers and sisters may be granted only if—

- (a) the deceased did not leave a widow, legitimate or illegitimate child, step-child or adopted child, or parent eligible for a pension; and
- (b) the brothers and sisters were solely dependent on the deceased at the time of his death, and their pecuniary and other circumstances are such as, in the opinion of the Minister, would justify the grant.

(18) (a) The pension payable to a person under any of the preceding provisions relating to disability awards shall be withheld during the period of imprisonment if such person is convicted by a Court of Law for any offence and sentenced to imprisonment. Payment of pension shall be resumed in full from the date of release from prison except—

- (i) where the conviction was for treason; or
- (ii) where the conviction was for obtaining public money by fraud from the Government when not less than one-half of the restored pension shall be withheld until recovery of the amount obtained by fraud has been effected.

(b) In the event, however, of imprisonment of a disabled officer who is in receipt of a pension, a sum not exceeding one-half of his pension may be paid to his wife or children provided he was not convicted for treason.

19. Regulations 1 to 17 shall not apply to a medical or dental officer of the Navy.

PART II—SEAMEN PENSIONS

20. (1) A seaman shall retire at the age of 55 years. A pension computed in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (2) and (3) of this regulation may be granted to—

- (a) a seaman transferred to the Regular Naval Reserve or discharged otherwise than for misconduct or for inefficiency due to causes within his control, if he has at least twenty-two years' reckonable service;
- (b) a seaman who has been re-engaged to complete twenty-two years' service and who is discharged on or after the termination of his re-engagement, if he has at least twenty-two years' reckonable service;
- (c) a seaman who is invalided after having been re-engaged to complete twenty-two years' service or after having been re-enlisted for a period which would complete twenty-two years' service, if he has at least twelve years' reckonable service.

(2) The rate of pension of a seaman referred to in paragraph (1) of this regulation shall be based on his rating as defined in regulation 24 and on the length of his reckonable service.

(3) Where the period of reckonable service of a seaman specified in Column I hereunder is not less than such standard service period for his rating for pension purposes as is specified in Column II hereunder, his pension shall be at the standard pension rate specified in Column III hereunder.

Column I Rating for pension purposes	Column II Standard Service period— (Completed years of reckonable service)	Column III Standard pension rate per year
		Rs. o.
Leading Seaman or equivalent rating or a rating below that of a Leading Seaman or equivalent rating ..	22	1,213 16
Petty Officer or equivalent rating ..	22	1,336 32
Chief Petty Officer or equivalent rating ..	22	1,560 0

21. Where a seaman is discharged for inefficiency due to causes within his control, he may, if he has at least twenty-two years' reckonable service and if his record of service is creditable, be granted a pension of an amount determined by the Minister in accordance with the provisions of regulation 36, such amount being not more than the amount of pension for which such seaman would have been eligible had he been discharged otherwise than for misconduct or with disgrace or for inefficiency due to causes within his control.

22. Where a seaman is discharged for misconduct or with disgrace and the circumstances leading to the discharge do not involve moral turpitude, he may, if he has at least twenty-two years' reckonable service and if his record of service is distinguished, be granted a pension of an amount determined by the Minister in accordance with the provisions of regulation 36, such amount being not more than ninety per centum of the pension for which such seaman would have been eligible had he been discharged, otherwise than for misconduct or with disgrace or for inefficiency due to causes within his control.

23. Where a seaman having been enlisted in the Regular Naval Force prior to December 9, 1953, and when he was over 33 years old, is invalided or is transferred to the Regular Naval Reserve on the expiry of his term of service with the Regular Naval Force or is discharged on the expiry of his term of original enlistment, re-engagement or re-enlistment or in consequence of a decision that further employment is not available for him, he shall be granted for purposes of pension a bonus addition of ten years' reckonable service if he has completed at least fifteen years' reckonable service at the time of retirement and if his record of service had been satisfactory.

RATING FOR PENSION PURPOSES OF A SEAMAN

24. (1) The rating for pension purposes of a seaman who is not invalided shall be the highest rating, whether substantive or temporary, held by such seaman in the Regular Naval Force for a continuous period of not less than two years immediately prior to retirement:

Provided that where such seaman held such substantive or temporary rating for less than two years, the rating for pension purposes of such seaman shall be the highest preceding substantive or temporary rating which together with any higher substantive or temporary rating has been held by such seaman for a period aggregating not less than two years.

(2) The rating for pension purposes of a seaman who is invalided shall be the rating whether substantive or temporary held by him in the Regular Naval Force at the time he is invalided.

GRATUITIES

25. A seaman who is transferred to the Regular Naval Reserve or is discharged otherwise than for inefficiency due to causes within his control or for misconduct, or with disgrace, may, if he has not less than ten years' reckonable service immediately preceding the transfer or discharge, be granted a gratuity computed on the basis of one month's basic pay, excluding any allowance, drawn at the date of transfer or at the date of discharge, for each complete year of service and 1/12th of the gratuity payable in respect of one year's service for each complete month of service short of one year.

26. A seaman who is invalided from the Regular Naval Force and who has more than five but less than ten years' reckonable service immediately preceding the invaliding may be granted a gratuity at the rate of rupees one hundred and twenty-five for each year of such service and 1/12th of Rs. 125 for each complete month of service short of one year.

27. Where a seaman is discharged for inefficiency due to causes within his control, he may, if he has not less than ten years' reckonable service immediately preceding the discharge and if his record of service is creditable, be granted a gratuity of an amount determined by the Minister in accordance with the provisions of regulation 36, such amount being not more than the amount of the gratuity for which he would have been eligible had he been discharged otherwise than for inefficiency due to causes within his control, or for misconduct, or with disgrace.

28. Where a seaman is discharged for misconduct or with disgrace and the circumstances leading to the discharge do not involve moral turpitude, he may, if he has not less than ten years' reckonable service immediately preceding the discharge and if his record of service is distinguished, be granted a gratuity of an amount determined by the Minister in accordance with the provisions of regulation 36, such amount being not more than ninety per centum of the gratuity for which he would have been eligible had he been discharged otherwise than for inefficiency due to causes within his control, or for misconduct, or with disgrace.

29. (1) Where a seaman who has completed five years' reckonable service dies whilst in service, and if no award is payable under the regulations relating to "Disability Pensions", the dependants of such seaman may be granted a gratuity of an amount equal to one year's basic pay, excluding any allowance, drawn by the seaman at the time of his death.

(2) Where a seaman who has completed five years' reckonable service dies whilst seconded for service and if no award is payable under the regulations relating to "Disability Pensions", the dependants of such seaman may be granted a gratuity of an amount equal to one year's basic pay, excluding any allowance, which the seaman would have drawn in the Regular Naval Force at the date of his death.

(3) Where on the retirement of a seaman, he is awarded a pension which is not reduced under the provisions of regulation 33 and if he dies thereafter, the dependants of such deceased seaman may, if no award is payable under the regulations relating to "Disability Pensions", be granted a gratuity not exceeding the sum, if any, by which the aggregate of the pension and allowances, if any, drawn and due falls short of one year's basic pay, excluding any allowance, drawn by the deceased seaman at the time of retirement.

(4) For the purposes of this regulation "basic pay" shall mean the pay drawn by the seaman in the rating he held at the time of his death or retirement, as the case may be.

RECKONABLE SERVICE FOR SEAMEN'S PENSIONS OR GRATUITIES

30. (1) The following service shall be reckonable service for a pension or gratuity of a seaman:—

- (a) Unforfeited full pay service in the Regular Naval Force;
- (b) One-half of any period of unforfeited service in the Regular Naval Force on half-pay or more but less than full-pay;
- (c) Previous unforfeited full pay or unforfeited full pay embodied or mobilised service in the Armed Forces of the British Commonwealth and/or previous unforfeited full pay or unforfeited full pay embodied or mobilised service in the Ceylon Defence Force and/or in the Ceylon Naval Volunteer Force and/or in the Ceylon Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve;
- (d) Service as a Commissioned Officer which is considered to be reckonable service under regulation 16;
- (e) Pensionable service of a public servant in a permanent office which has been declared to be pensionable by a notification published in the Gazette:

Provided that in the case of a public servant who has been enlisted after the date on which these regulations are published in the Gazette—

- (i) such public servant is enlisted from such permanent and pensionable office with the written approval of the Head of the Department in which he was employed, and
- (ii) such public servant has not forfeited the pension or gratuity due for such service by reason of his dismissal or on any other ground.

Provided further that where a public servant is enlisted while serving his probationary period in a permanent and pensionable office under Government, his service on probation in that office shall be reckoned as "reckonable service" only if that service is continuous with his service in the Navy.

'Pensionable Service' shall mean service in the permanent and pensionable office and any previous service that is admissible along with the service in such office for pension or gratuity under the Minutes on Pensions.

- (f) Pensionable service of a teacher whose name has been entered in the Register of Pensionable Teachers and who has made contributions to the School Teachers' Pension Scheme in accordance with the School Teachers' Pension Regulations:

Provided that—

- (i) such teacher is enlisted from his teaching post for service in the Instructor Branch of the Navy;
- (ii) such teacher, if enlisted after the date on which these regulations are published in the Gazette, is enlisted as provided for in proviso (i) with the written approval of the Director of Education; and
- (iii) such teacher has not forfeited the pension due for such service by reason of his dismissal or on any other ground.

'Pensionable Service' shall mean service as such teacher and any previous service that is admissible along with the service of such teacher for pension under the School Teachers' Pension Regulations.

(g) Service on secondment where a seaman is seconded for temporary employment in any Government sponsored Board or Corporation or similar institution under Government control or to an office in the service of the Government to which pension rights are not attached :

Provided that—

- (i) his secondment for such employment is authorised by the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Defence and External Affairs ;
- (ii) his secondment for such employment with claim to pension is notified in the Gazette by the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Defence and External Affairs ; and
- (iii) the pensionary contributions, if any, as may be determined from time to time by the Deputy Secretary to the Treasury are credited to the Consolidated Fund of Ceylon by the Board or Corporation or Institution or the Department of Government to which the seaman is seconded for temporary employment.

(h) Service on secondment where a seaman is seconded for service to a post under Government which is pensionable under the Minutes on Pensions provided that such secondment is authorised by the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Defence and External Affairs.

(2) (a) Where in respect of any reckonable service a gratuity has already been paid, it shall be a condition for the reckoning of such service for pension or gratuity that the gratuity drawn shall be refunded. The refund shall be made on final discharge from the Navy by a deduction from the award of pension or from the fresh award of the gratuity :

Provided, however that where a "War Gratuity" has already been paid from the United Kingdom funds in respect of service during World War II between September 3, 1939 and August 15, 1946, such gratuity shall not be refunded.

(b) Where in respect of any reckonable service a pension has already been granted, it shall be a condition for the reckoning of such service for pension or gratuity that the pension granted shall cease from the date of re-enlistment.

(3) The following period shall not be reckoned as reckonable service for the purposes of calculating a pension or gratuity to a seaman :

- (a) the period during which he served a sentence of imprisonment or detention ;
- (b) the period during which he has been confined in cells ;
- (c) the period of imprisonment in respect of a civil offence ;
- (d) in the case of a deserter, the following periods :—
  - (i) the period of service prior to the date of desertion ; and
  - (ii) the period during which he was a deserter.
- (e) In the case of a seaman who enlisted in contravention of the provisions of section 87 of the Navy Act (Chapter 358), the period of service prior to such enlistment ;

Provided that the provisions of sub-paragraph (d) (i) or sub-paragraph (e) shall not apply in any case where the service performed by a seaman during any period referred to in those paragraphs has been restored to him by the Captain of the Navy.

DISABILITY PENSIONS

31. (1) An annual pension may, on the recommendation of the Captain of the Navy, be awarded in accordance with the scale set out hereunder to a seaman in the event of disablement or in respect of a seaman in the event of death, where such disablement or death, if caused by illness is certified by a Navy Medical Board and in all other cases by a Board of Officers appointed for the purpose, to be attributable to naval service, but so however, that the aggregate amount of pension so awarded together with the Navy service pension, if any, shall not exceed 50/60ths of the rate of basic pay per annum.

(4) (a) An annual pension may, subject to paragraph (16) of regulation 18, be awarded to dependent parents of a deceased Seaman in accordance with the following scale :—

In case the deceased Seaman was :—	Rs. c.
Ordinary Seaman or equivalent rating, Able Seaman or equivalent rating, Leading Seaman or equivalent rating, Petty Officer or equivalent rating, Chief Petty Officer or equivalent rating	433 32

(b) Where both parents are alive, the pension shall be paid in equal shares to each parent. Where only one parent is alive, the full pension shall be paid to that parent.

(5) An annual pension may, subject to paragraph (17) of regulation 18, be awarded to the dependent brothers and sisters

(c) Where a gratuity has been originally awarded on a disablement of less than twenty per centum in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (a) and the disablement subsequently rises to twenty per centum or exceeds twenty per centum, a pension may be awarded from the date on which the increased disablement occurs in accordance with the rates laid down for disablement of twenty per centum and above, but any gratuity already awarded shall be revised to a reduced proportionate pension for the period commencing on the date following the date of cessation of pay and allowances and terminating on the date from which the new pension shall be payable. Where the total proportionate pension payable for this period falls short of the gratuity already paid, the difference shall be recovered from the new pension payable.

(7) If a Seaman who is eligible for a pension or gratuity on the ground of disablement unreasonably refuses to undergo an operation or other medical treatment which in the opinion of the medical board is likely to remove wholly or otherwise reduce in degree such disablement, such pension or gratuity may be withheld wholly or in part.

(8) Any wound, injury or disease which is due to the misconduct of the Seaman concerned shall not be regarded as attributable to the conditions of service and no pension or gratuity shall be payable in respect of disablement or death resulting therefrom.

(9) Disablement or death which is due to a wound, injury or disease which is not attributable to conditions of service but which has been aggravated or accelerated thereby shall be regarded as attributable to the conditions of such service.

(10) The pension payable to a seaman may be reduced or withheld if such Seaman recovers partially or wholly from the disablement in respect of which such pension is paid.

(11) The pension payable to the widow of a seaman may be withheld if the widow remarries :

Provided however, that—

Where the pension is so withheld, the pension payable in respect of the children, if any, of such Seaman may be increased to that payable under paragraph (3) (b).

(12) Pension may be withheld from the widow of a seaman—

(a) if she married such Seaman after he had received the wound or injury or contracted the disease from which he died ; and

(b) if at the time of the marriage she knew that the Seaman was suffering from such disability or disease.

(13) Pension may be withheld from the widow of a seaman who at the time of the death of such Seaman was separated from him unless :—

(a) such Seaman was at the time of his death contributing to her support, or

(b) such widow was entitled to support under a separation decree, maintenance order, or duly executed deed of separation.

(14) The pension payable to the daughter of a deceased seaman shall cease upon the marriage of such daughter notwithstanding that she may be under the age of twenty-one years.

(15) The following provisions shall apply in the case of awards in respect of step-children, adopted children and illegitimate children :—

(a) For a step-child, the mother shall have married the Seaman before he sustained the wound or injury or before he was discharged on account of the disease, and the child shall have been regularly maintained by the Seaman up to the date of any award to him, or up to the date of his death, as the case may be.

(b) For a legally adopted child, the child shall have been adopted by the seaman before he sustained the wound or injury, or before he was discharged on account of the disease, unless the child would, but for the adoption, have qualified for an allowance as a step-child or as an illegitimate child of the seaman.

(c) For an illegitimate child, the child shall have been born before or within nine months after the date on which the seaman sustained the wound or injury, or the date on which he was discharged on account of the disease, and the child shall have been regularly maintained in whole or in part by the seaman up to the date of any award, or up to the date of his death, as the case may be, or shall have been the subject of a maintenance order in force against the seaman at the date of his death.

(16) (a) The pension payable to a person under any of the preceding provisions relating to disability awards shall be withheld during the period of imprisonment, if such person is convicted by a Court of Law for any offence and sentenced to imprisonment. Payment of pension shall be resumed in full from the date of release from prison except :—

(i) where the conviction was for treason ; or

(ii) where the conviction was for obtaining public money by fraud from the Government when not less than one half of the restored pension shall be withheld until recovery of the amount obtained by fraud has been effected.

(b) In the event however of imprisonment of a disabled seaman who is in receipt of a pension, a sum not exceeding one half of his pension may be paid to his wife or children provided he was not convicted for treason.

PART III—GENERAL

32. An officer or seaman of the Volunteer Naval Force seconded for full time service with the Regular Naval Force and who is in receipt of full pay in like manner as though he were an officer or seaman of the Regular Naval Force, shall, during the period of such seconded service be deemed to be an officer or seaman of the Regular Naval Force for the purposes of these regulations.

33. An officer or seaman to whom a pension is grantable in respect of his reckonable service may, at his option, be paid, in lieu of such service pension, a reduced pension and a gratuity on the same terms and conditions obtaining for public servants under section 2A of the Minutes on Pensions, as may be amended from time to time by Notification in the Gazette.

34. There shall be deducted from any pension or gratuity payable under the preceding regulations in respect of any officer or seaman any sum or sums due from such officer or seaman to the Government or to the Lady Lochore Loan Fund.

35. Cost of Living Allowance and Special Living Allowance at rates determined by the Government shall be payable on any pension provided for under these regulations. Where a pension in respect of reckonable service is reduced in terms of the provisions of regulation 33, the living allowances hereinbefore mentioned shall be payable only on such reduced pension.

36. Where, by virtue of the powers conferred by any of these regulations, the Minister determines the amount of a pension or gratuity to be granted to an officer or seaman, he shall take into consideration :—

(1) the degree of culpability of that officer or seaman in respect of the causes of the cessation of his service, .

(2) the need for assistance for the maintenance of that officer or seaman and his dependants, and

(3) the ability of that officer or seaman to earn a livelihood for himself and his dependants.

37. Where, at the time of retirement or discharge of an officer or seaman from the Navy, proceedings were pending or contemplated against such officer or seaman in respect of his negligence, irregularity or misconduct, the Minister, may, if the findings in such proceedings so warrant, either withhold or reduce any pension or gratuity payable to such officer or seaman under these regulations.

38. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires— "Active Service", "Navy", "Naval Training", "Regular Naval Force", "Regular Naval Reserve", "Volunteer Naval Force", "Volunteer Naval Reserve", "Seaman" shall have the same meanings respectively as in the Navy Act (Chapter 358) ; "Minister" means the Minister of Defence and External Affairs ; "Officer" means a Commissioned Officer or a Subordinate Officer and shall have the same meaning as in the Navy Act (Chapter 358) ; and "Subordinate Officer" means an Acting Sub-Lieutenant, a Midshipman, or a Cadet.

39. The Navy Pensions and Gratuities Code published in Gazette No. 10,240 of April 27, 1951, is hereby rescinded.

THE REGISTERED STOCK AND SECURITIES ORDINANCE

BY virtue of the powers vested in me by Section 4 of the Registered Stock and Securities Ordinance (Chapter 420), I, Idampitiye RaHage Punchi Banda Gunatilaka Kalugalla, Minister of Finance, do by this Order direct that, of the sum of five hundred million rupees for the raising of which by way of loan authority has been given by the Appropriation Act, No. 30 of 1962, the sum specified in the Schedule hereto shall be raised in Ceylon in the mode and upon the terms and conditions specified in that Schedule.

Colombo, December 3, 1962.

P. B. G. KALUGALLA,
Minister of Finance.

Schedule

1. The sum of money to be raised shall be twenty million rupees, and it shall be raised by way of a 21/25 year loan issued at par.
2. The loan shall be raised by the creation and issue of registered stock only.
3. The rate of interest payable on the loan shall be 4½ per centum per annum.
4. The dates in each year on which the half-yearly interest on the loan shall be payable, shall be the fifteenth day of June and the fifteenth day of December.
5. A half-yearly appropriation out of the Consolidated Fund of Ceylon as a contribution to the Sinking Fund to be established for the purpose of redeeming the loan shall be made at the rate of 3 per centum per annum, and such contribution shall commence on the fifteenth day of December, 1963.
6. The date of redemption of the registered stock issued for the purpose of raising the loan shall be the fifteenth day of December, 1987.

Provided, however, that the Government shall have the option of redeeming any such registered stock at par on such date subsequent to the fourteenth day of December, 1983, as may be appointed by the Minister of Finance by notification published, not less than six months prior to that date in the Gazette and in at least two newspapers circulating in Ceylon.

PROSPECTUS

The List will be opened on December 15, 1962, and will be closed on January 16, 1963, or earlier if the loan is fully subscribed

Issue of Rs. 20,000,000

CEYLON GOVERNMENT 4½ PER CENT. LOAN, 1983-87, “H” SERIES

Issued at par—Repayable at par

THE Central Bank of Ceylon, on behalf of the Government of Ceylon, invites applications for a 4½ per cent. Loan of Rs. 20 millions. The loan is repayable at par on December 15, 1987, but the Government will have the option of repayment at par on such date subsequent to December 14, 1983, on giving 6 month's notice.

Authority.—The loan is raised on the authority of the Appropriation Act, No. 30 of 1962, and under the provisions of the Registered Stock and Securities Ordinance (Chapter 420).

Purpose.—The loan is raised by the Government of Ceylon to meet expenditure for the service of the financial year 1962-63, under Section 2 (1) (b) of the Appropriation Act, No. 30 of 1962.

Form of Issue.—The loan will be issued in the form of Registered Stock. (Leaflets containing the general conditions applicable to Registered Stock are available on application to the Department of Public Debt, Central Bank of Ceylon).

Issue Price.—The issue price is Rs. 100 per cent. payable in full at the time of application. The minimum holding is Rs. 100.

Applications.—Applications will be received by the Registrar of Public Debt from December 15, 1962, and until the list is closed. Applications must be on the proper form and must be accompanied by a remittance in full. Depositors of the Ceylon Savings Bank and Post Office Savings Bank may, by arrangement with these Institutions, forward their applications through these Institutions.

A commission of 1/16 per cent. on the nominal amount of subscription accepted will be allowed to bankers (including the Ceylon Savings Bank and the Post Office Savings Bank), recognised stock-brokers and brokers in respect of applications bearing their stamp. A negotiating fee of the same percentage on the amount of subscription accepted will be allowed to Proctors in respect of applications bearing their stamp.

Payment for Stock.—Payment should be made by cheque drawn in favour of the Central Bank of Ceylon and crossed “on account of Ceylon Government Loan”.

Scip.—Stock Certificate will be issued after receipt and acceptance of the applications.

Interest.—Interest at the rate of 4½ per cent. per annum will be payable half-yearly on the 15th day of June and the 15th day of December in each year. The first payment of interest will be on the 15th day of June, 1963, and will be for the period commencing on the date on which the application is accepted up to and including the 14th day of June, 1963.

Taxation.—(i) Stamp Duty.—All documents used in the issue, transfer or redemption of the loan will be free from stamp duty.

(ii) Income Tax.—Interest to resident holders will be paid without deduction of income tax, but resident holders liable to income tax should include such interest in their income tax returns. Deduction of tax at source will be made from holdings of non-residents. (Current rate of income tax is 33½ per cent. in the case of non-resident individuals, 39½ per cent. in the case of Hindu undivided families and 62 1/9 per cent. in the case of non-resident companies). Persons who are exempt from Ceylon income tax will be entitled to claim repayment of the tax deducted.

(iii) Wealth Tax.—Under Section 6 (1) (g) of the Personal Tax Act, No. 14 of 1959, investments in securities of the Government of Ceylon are excluded from the wealth of a person, and are thus exempt from Wealth Tax.

(iv) Estate Duty.—Government accepts in payment of estate duty Ceylon Government stocks issued in Ceylon. In the case of fully paid stock issued and repayable at par, the stock will discharge an amount of estate duty equal to the aggregate of its face value and the accrued interest thereon. In the case of stock not fully paid, or issued below par, or repayable at an amount other than par the amount of estate duty to be discharged per Rs. 100 nominal stock, together with accrued interest thereon, will be announced from time to time in the Government Gazette, but the amount to be discharged per Rs. 100 nominal stock will not be less than the amount originally subscribed or the amount repayable on maturity, whichever is less. The acceptance of any stock in lieu of cash for payment of estate duty is conditional on its being either (a) subscribed for by the deceased when first issued, or (b) purchased by the deceased not less than one year prior to date of death.

Security.—The loan is secured on the Consolidated Fund of Ceylon. A separate sinking fund will be established towards the redemption of the loan under the management of the Monetary Board of the Central Bank of Ceylon, who are the Trustees of the sinking funds. Half-yearly contributions at the rate of 3 per cent. per annum to the sinking fund will be commenced on December 15, 1963.

Public Debt.—The present gross funded public debt of Ceylon is Rs. 1,899,047,100. The approximate market value of the accumulated sinking funds amounts to Rs. 360,729,737. The net funded public debt is thus Rs. 1,538,317,363.

Application forms.—Application forms may be obtained at the Department of Public Debt, or at any Commercial Bank, Kachcheri Post Office or at the Office of the Commissioner, National Savings Movement.

BEFORE LABOUR TRIBUNAL (4) COLOMBO
No. I. D/L. T/4/37

In the matter of an Industrial Dispute between

The Independent Industrial and Commercial Workers' Union,
407, Galle Road, Colombo 3

K. K. Jagtiani, Proprietor, Crown Theatre, Skinners'
Road South, Colombo 10.

THE AWARD

This is an award made under section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, Chapter 131 of the Legislative Enactments (Revised Edition, 1956), as amended by the Industrial Disputes (Amendment) Acts, No. 14 of 1957, 62 of 1957 and 4 of 1962. It relates to a dispute between the Independent Industrial and Commercial Workers' Union, 407, Galle Road, Colombo 3, and K. K. Jagtiani, Proprietor of Crown Theatre, Skinners' Road South, Colombo 10 (hereinafter referred to as "the Union" and "the Respondent" respectively).

2. The Honourable the Minister of Labour and Nationalised Services by his Order dated 27th August, 1962, made under section 4 (1) referred this matter to me for arbitration. The Commissioner of Labour, by his statement of 22nd August, 1962, has stated that the matter in dispute is whether the non-employment of Mrs. G. Pilapitiya is justified, and to what relief she is entitled. I do not propose to outline the various matters pleaded in the statements of the Union and the Respondent in view of a settlement effected between the parties in the course of keenly contested proceedings. Mr. S. P. Amerasingam (Advocate) who appeared for the Union and Mr. R. A. Kannagara (Advocate) who appeared for the Respondent settled the dispute on the following terms :—

- (i) The Respondent whilst reiterating the averments contained in his statement dated 29th September, 1962, agrees to pay Mrs. G. Pilapitiya, the union member concerned, a sum of Rs. 1,500 in consideration of Mr. and Mrs. Pilapitiya vacating the rooms occupied by them in the Crown Theatre before 6 p.m. on 30th November, 1962;
- (ii) the said sum of Rs. 1,500 will be deposited by the employer with the Assistant Commissioner of Labour, Colombo Industrial Relations, by the 22nd of November, 1962;
- (iii) the said sum shall be paid to Mrs. Pilapitiya only on condition that Mr. and Mrs. Pilapitiya vacate the said rooms on or before 6 p.m. on 30th November, 1962;
- (iv) the amount aforesaid will be released by the Assistant Commissioner of Labour, on production of a letter from the employer to the effect that Mr. and Mrs. Pilapitiya have vacated the premises, or on the Assistant Commissioner of Labour being otherwise satisfied;
- (v) it is further agreed that if both Mr. and Mrs. Pilapitiya do not vacate the said rooms before 6 p.m. on 30th November, 1962, Mrs. G. Pilapitiya will not be entitled to withdraw this sum of Rs. 1,500 from the Assistant Commissioner of Labour, and the Assistant Commissioner of Labour, after due inquiry, will refund the said sum to the employer.

3. When this settlement was reached Mrs. G. Pilapitiya was present and herself was willing to settle the dispute in the aforesaid manner. I consider the above terms of settlement just and equitable and make award accordingly.

W. E. M. ABEYSEKERA,
President,
Labour Tribunal (4).

Miscellaneous Departmental Notices

RENEWAL OF FIREARMS LICENCES FOR 1963

Administrative District of Puttalam

IT is hereby notified for the information of the general public that the renewal of firearm licences registered in the Administrative District of Puttalam will be done by the Divisional Revenue Officers of the respective divisions, with effect from 1.12.62. All applications for such renewal should, therefore, be made to the respective Divisional Revenue Officers. The public are advised to renew their licences on or before December 31, 1962. The 1962 licences and the firearms should be produced for inspection by the officers authorised to renew licences on my behalf, before issue of the licences for 1963. All applications for renewal received after December 31, 1962, if entertained, will be subject to a fine equivalent to licence fee.

2. The licensees who do not propose to renew their licences for 1963 or are in possession of unserviceable firearms, should surrender them with the respective licences to the officer renewing the licences or to this office on or before December 31, 1962.

3. Prosecutions will be entered in respect of all licences which have not been renewed by March 31, 1963.

V. RAMANATHAN,
Government Agent.
