INTRODUCTION

For the compilation of the Newspaper Article Index 1993 (English), 2 daily newspapers eg. Ceylon Daily News, Island and 3 weekend newspapers eg. Sunday Observer, Sunday Island and Sunday Times have been selected. All the articles appeared in these newspapers were indexed according to the Anglo-American cataloguing Rules 2nd edition (AACR 11). Subject classification is mainly based on the 20th edition of the Dewey Decimal classification, and words in the current usage are used as subject headings in relation to the appropriate subjects. Entries are arranged according to the alphabetical order under each subject.

Example - Journalism and Publishing

Journalism

BANERJEE, Partha S.

HULUGALLE, H.A.

Journalism and scholarship

Publishing

ABEYNAYAKE, Rajpal

Pressing issues of the press.

There are instances where the sub headings are categorised according to countries arranged in alphabetical order.

Example - Political condition

India

NOYORM, Kuldip

Will India slay secular

Sri Lanka

NAVARATNA, Gamini

Why not a National Government

RATNASINGHE, Ariyadasa

Wining Independence

When one author has written several articles on the same topic with number of parts, the entries are arranged according to the numerical sequence of the part. When an author publish articles on one topic without mentioning the parts the entries are arranged in chronological order. There are some article topics which doesn't give a clear understanding about the content. In the cases like this a short note about the article is given at the end of the entry.

This index consists of 2121 entries and each entry contains the basic bibliographical information eg. author, article title, name of the newspaper, year, month and date, page number, column number and notes where necessary.

Example - GOVINNAGE, Malini

A voice for his people. -

Daily News : September 28, 1993. -

33p, 1-8 Col.

(about the society of veddas)

I am thankful to Miss.
