P. E. V. BOTEJUS,
Justice of the Peace.

The accounts of the Urban Council, Kotte, for the year 1958, as furnished by the Chairman of the Council have been audited under my direction.

A sum of Rs. 1,920.00 was paid as rent allowance to the daily paid labourers of the Works Department contrary to C. L. G's directive that he does not as a matter of policy approve the payment of rent allowance to daily-paid labourers in Local Authorities. The expenditure has, therefore, not been passed in audit and its propriety is under consideration.

Sums amounting to Rs. 1,266.48 were paid during the year as legal expenses in connection with a Supreme Court Case which arose as the Chairman, U. C., refused to comply with a decision which was final in terms of section 15 (9) of the Electricity Act. As this expenditure could have been avoided, the matter is under correspondence with the Chairman, and the expenditure has not been passed in audit.

Subject to the above and other observations contained in the accompanying report No. L-1/23/21 of April 2, 1960, I am of opinion, that the statement of Assets and Liabilities gives a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Urban Council, Kotte, as at December 31, 1958.
