DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend and consolidate the Law relating to Pilots appointed by the Governor of Ceylon.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend and consolidate the law relating to pilots appointed by the Governor of Ceylon: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Pilots' Ordinance, 1898."

Interpretation clause.

2 In this Ordinance the following words and expressions have the following meanings, unless a different intention appears from the subject or context—

"Master attendant" means the master attendant of any port, and includes his deputies and assistants.

"Ports" means any port brought under the operation of this Ordinance under section 3.

"Vessel" includes any ship or boat or any other description of vessel used in navigation of above 100 tons register.

“Master” includes any person having for the time being the charge, command, or control of any vessel.

“Pilot” means any person appointed by the Governor under section 5 for the purposes of conducting vessels to or out of any port named in such appointment.

Governor to declare ports brought under the operation of this Ordinance and to define their limits.

3 The Governor may from time to time, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation declare the ports which are to be brought within the operation of this Ordinance, and define the limits of such ports respectively.

Pilotage required.

4 It shall be unlawful to bring into or remove out of any port any vessel without having a pilot on board, unless authority in writing so to do has been obtained from the master attendant or some officer empowered by such master attendant to give such authority; and if any vessel shall be brought into or removed out of any port contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance, the master of such vessel shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees for every such offence.

Appointment of pilots.

5 (1) The Governor shall continue from time to time to appoint fit, proper, and qualified persons to be pilots for the purpose of conducting vessels into or out of any port.

(2) The Governor may from time to time remove any pilot so appointed and appoint another in his stead.

(3) All such pilots shall be under the control and subject to the orders of the master attendant of the port for which they may be appointed.

Amount of outward pilotage to be paid in advance.

6 No pilot shall be in anywise bound to conduct any vessel to sea, neither shall any vessel proceed to sea, until the full amount of the outward pilotage of such vessel and the charges due on account of such vessel to the master attendant's department shall be first paid or secured to be paid to the satisfaction of such pilot and master attendant.

Pilots in certain cases to demand payment over and above the amount of pilotage.

7 Every pilot in charge of any vessel in, or entering, or proceeding from, any port, who shall remain on board any such vessel for a period exceeding forty-eight hours, either on account of stress of weather or under quarantine, shall be entitled to demand and receive over and above the amount of pilotage charged under port rules made or to be made under the authority of section 6 of “The Masters Attendant's Ordinance, 1865,” the sum of five rupees for each and every day he shall so remain on board any vessel.

Penalty: pilot for misconduct.

8 Every pilot who shall refuse, neglect, or delay to take charge of any vessel when required to do so by the master attendant, unless upon good and sufficient cause to justify such refusal, neglect, or delay, and every pilot who shall quit any such vessel or decline the piloting thereof after he has taken charge thereof, or shall by drunkenness or otherwise render himself incapable of conducting any vessel or do any injury to the same or to the tackle or furniture thereof, shall, in addition to his civil liability, be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees.

Penalty on person acting as pilot without authority.

9 It shall be lawful for any pilot within the limits of the port for which he is appointed to supersede in the charge of any vessel any person not appointed to act as a pilot within such limits, and every person assuming or continuing in the charge and conduct of any vessel, not being a pilot or not being duly appointed to act as a pilot within the limits in which such vessel shall actually be, after any pilot duly appointed to act within such limits shall have offered to take charge of such vessel, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees. Provided always that, notwithstanding anything in this Ordinance contained, any person shall and may lawfully and without being subject to any penalty by this Ordinance imposed assume or continue in the charge or conduct of any vessel as a pilot where and so long as a pilot duly appointed shall not have offered to take charge of such vessel or made a signal for that purpose, or where and so long as such vessel shall be in distress, or under circumstances which shall have rendered it necessary for the master or person in charge of such vessel to avail himself of the best assistance which at the time could be procured.

Proviso.

Pilot's liability limited.

10 The liability of a pilot for neglect or want of skill shall not exceed the sum of one thousand five hundred rupees, and in the event of his being entitled to fees on account of pilotage in respect of the voyage in which he was engaged when he became so liable, his liability shall not exceed the said sum and the amount payable to him as such fees.

Non-liability of Government, owner, or master where pilot is employed.

11 The Governor or the owner or master of a ship shall not be answerable to any person whatsoever for any loss or damage occasioned by the fault or incapacity of any pilot acting in charge of that ship within the limits of any port brought under the operation of this Ordinance.

Penalty : pilot offending against Ordinance or port rule.

12 If any pilot shall in any case fail or neglect to observe any lawful directions of the master attendant, or to do anything required by him by this Ordinance or by any port rule made or to be made under the authority of section 6 of "The Masters Attendant's Ordinance, 1865," or shall do or omit to do anything contrary to the true and plain meaning of this Ordinance or of any such port rule, he shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees.

Ordinance not to extend to Government vessels or ships of war.

13 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall extend to any vessel belonging to or in the service of Her Majesty, or to any vessel of war belonging to any foreign prince or state, nor affect any law relative to the Customs, nor any order or direction which shall have been lawfully made or given in pursuance of the provisions of any such law.

Offences against this Ordinance and debts due thereunder to be respectively punishable and recoverable in police courts and courts of requests.

14 All offences against this Ordinance shall and they are hereby declared to be fully cognizable and punishable by police courts, and all sums becoming due by reason of any of the provisions thereof shall and they are hereby declared to be recoverable before courts of requests, though such offences and sums should exceed the ordinary jurisdiction of those courts.

Repealing clause.

15 The Ordinances mentioned in the schedule shall be repealed to the extent specified in the third column thereof, provided that such repeal shall not affect any penalty or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any enactment hereby repealed.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to further amend "The Buddhist Temporalities Ordinance, 1889."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Ordinance No. 3 of 1889, intituled "An Ordinance relating to Buddhist Temporalities in this Island," hereinafter called "the principal Ordinance": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Buddhist Temporalities Amendment Ordinance, 1899," and this Ordinance and the principal Ordinance and "The Buddhist Temporalities Amendment Ordinance, 1895," shall be read as one, and may be cited collectively as "The Buddhist Temporalities Ordinances, 1889, 1895, and 1899."

Repealing clause.

2 Section 10 of "The Buddhist Temporalities Amendment Ordinance, 1895," is hereby repealed.

Section 36 of principal Ordinance amended.

Provincial committee to select a president and to make rules. Purposes for which rules may be made.

3 For section 36 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be substituted, namely:

(1) Every provincial committee elected as hereinbefore provided shall select one of their number to be president of such committee and shall make rules—

- (a) For determining the quorum necessary for the transaction of business, and the mode of filling up vacancies in their number.
- (b) For regulating the time and place of their meetings, and the conduct and records of their proceedings.
- (c) For regulating the procedure to be observed in the election of incumbents and of basnayaka nilames, and in their removal from office.
- (d) For assessing the proportion in which each temple within the province shall contribute a share of the expenses incurred or to be incurred in carrying out the provisions of this Ordinance; and
- (e) For every purpose necessary to the due exercise of their powers and the performance of their duties under this Ordinance.

(2) The provincial committee of the province in which the district of Kandy shall be included shall, in addition to such rules as aforesaid, make further rules for regulating the procedure to be observed in the election of a diya-wadana nilame and his removal from office.

(3) Rules so made shall be published in the Government Gazette, and shall thereupon become as legal, valid, and effectual as if the same had been inserted herein, and shall be binding upon and observed by all parties subject to their operation, and all courts, judges, and magistrates shall take judicial notice thereof; provided, however, that nothing in this section contained shall authorize the making of any rules at variance with the rights of those who by law or custom are entitled to elect or remove an incumbent, or of any person who is entitled to succeed to a vacant incumbency by right of pupillary or other mode of succession.

By His Excellency's command,

W. T. TAYLOR,
Acting Colonial Secretary.
