The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to consolidate and amend the Law relating to the Possession and Sale of Opium.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law relating to the possession and sale of opium: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Opium Ordinance, 1899."

Repeal.

2 The Ordinances mentioned in the first schedule are hereby repealed, provided that such repeal shall not affect—

- (a) The past operation of anything duly done or suffered under the said Ordinances hereby repealed; nor
- (b) Any right, privilege, obligation, or liability acquired, accrued, or incurred thereunder; nor
- (c) Any penalty or forfeiture incurred in respect of any breach of the provisions of the said Ordinances hereby repealed; nor
- (d) Any legal proceeding or remedy in respect of such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, or forfeiture as aforesaid.

	Where any unrepealed Ordinance refers to any Ordinance or to the provision of any Ordinance hereby repealed, such unrepealed Ordinance shall be deemed to refer to this Ordinance or the corresponding provision of this Ordinance.
Interpretation clause.	3 For the purposes of this Ordinance the word "opium" shall include any preparation in which opium forms a component part.
Proper authority.	4 The "proper authority" hereinafter mentioned shall be in any province the government agent of the province and in any town wherein a municipal council or local board has been or may hereafter be established the chairman of such council or board, and in the town of Nuwara Eliya the Assistant Government Agent of Nuwara Eliya.
Possession of opium exceeding one pound in weight without license illegal.	5 It shall not be lawful for any person, other than a wholesale or retail vendor of opium duly licensed as hereinafter provided, to possess opium in any quantity beyond one pound in weight without a license authorizing such possession to be granted as hereinafter provided.
Sale of opium without a license illegal.	6 It shall not be lawful for any person to sell or to offer or expose for sale, or to suffer or permit to be sold, either by wholesale or retail, opium without a license authorizing such sale to be granted as hereinafter provided.
Proper authority may grant licenses.	7 The proper authority may grant licenses for the possession of opium beyond one pound in weight or for the sale of opium.
License to sell by wholesale.	A license to sell opium by wholesale will authorize the licensee to possess at one time any quantity of opium. A fee of two hundred and fifty rupees shall be payable for every such license. No such licensee shall sell less than ten pounds in weight of opium at any one time.
To possess opium.	A license to possess opium will authorize the licensee to possess opium in the quantity mentioned in the license, such quantity to be fixed at the discretion of the proper authority granting the license. A fee of fifty rupees shall be payable for such a license.
To sell by retail.	A license to sell opium by retail will authorize the licensee to possess at one time opium in any quantity not exceeding fifty pounds in weight, and shall be granted in manner hereinafter provided.
Number of licenses to sell by retail and conditions to be attached thereto to be annually published.	8 The proper authority shall, on or before the day of in each year, cause to be published twice at least in the Government Gazette and in one or more of the local newspapers a notice declaring the number of licenses for the sale by retail of opium within the limits of any province, part of a province, or any town, which shall be granted for the year commencing the first day of January next. The number of such licenses so to be granted shall be in the discretion of the said proper authority, but shall in no case exceed the number to be fixed by the Governor from time to time by Proclamation in the Gazette in respect of any province, part of a province, or any town.
Notice to fix date for sale by auction.	9 By the notice so to be published as aforesaid the said proper authority shall fix a date and place at which such licenses shall be put up to sale by public auction, and shall notify the conditions under which such licenses shall be issued. It shall be in the discretion of the said proper authority to fix an upset price at which each such license shall be put up; and in the event of no bid over the upset price being offered, the said proper authority shall be at liberty in his discretion to postpone any such sale.
Sales to be for ready money.	10 Every such sale shall be for ready money only; and if the highest bidder on being declared the purchaser shall not forthwith pay down the amount of his bid, the proper authority may in his discretion either declare the next highest bidder or any other bidder the purchaser, or forthwith put up the license for re-sale.
Issue of license.	11 Immediately after any bidder is declared the purchaser of any license, the said proper authority shall issue a license in the form hereinafter mentioned to the purchaser. But it shall be lawful for the said proper authority in his discretion to refuse to issue any such license; and in case of such refusal the purchase money so paid shall be refunded to the purchaser and the license may be re-sold either at once or at such future time as the said proper authority shall appoint.

Re-sale at risk of purchaser.

12 In the event of any such re-sale as in section 10 mentioned realizing a smaller amount than that at which the highest bidder at the previous sale had been declared the purchaser, such highest bidder shall be liable for the difference, which shall be recoverable by action in the court of requests having in other respects jurisdiction in that behalf, notwithstanding that such difference exceeds the sum of three hundred rupees.

Form and duration of licenses.

13 The licenses mentioned in section 7 shall be substantially in the forms set out in the second schedule hereto annexed, with such alterations and additions as the circumstances require, and shall continue in force from the day on which they are respectively granted until the thirty-first day of December then next ensuing, and shall specify the place where and the conditions upon which the same are granted, and in every license the locality of the house, shop, or place to which the said license applies shall be clearly defined in the said license.

Fees to go to municipal fund or local board or General Treasury.

14 The fees payable on licenses granted under this Ordinance by the chairman of a municipal council or local board or by the Assistant Government Agent of Nuwara Eliya shall form part of the municipal, local board, or board of improvement fund of the town to which such licenses shall apply, and in other cases shall be payable to the General Treasury.

Conditions may be attached to licenses.

15 (1) The proper authority may at his discretion refuse to grant any license, or may attach such conditions thereto as he may deem expedient, provided that such conditions shall, in the case of a license to sell opium by retail, inter alia include the following:—

- (a) No opium shall be sold between the hours of 8 at night and 6 in the morning.
- (b) The quantity to be sold at any one time to any individual, except to a licensed retail vendor, shall not exceed 180 grains.
- (c) Opium shall not be consumed on the premises.
- (d) Opium offered for sale shall not be adulterated or deteriorated in any way.
- (e) Opium shall not be sold to any individual apparently under the age of fifteen years, as provided by section 16 of this Ordinance.
- (f) Wearing apparel or other goods shall not be received in barter for opium.
- (g) Daily accounts shall be kept in a form, to be prescribed by the proper authority, of the quantities of opium received, sold, and remaining on hand at the end of each day.

Licenses may be revoked.

(2) The proper authority may revoke such license in the event of—

- (a) Any conditions or any of the provisions of this Ordinance being infringed in respect thereof; or
- (b) For any reason whatsoever on giving fifteen days' notice to the licensee and on paying to him a sum bearing the same proportion to the sum paid for the license, as the unexpired part of the period for which the license runs does to the whole period in respect of which it was issued.

Penalty for breaches of Ordinance. Sale of bhang or ganja absolutely prohibited.

16 Any person who shall possess or sell or offer for sale, or suffer or permit to be sold, any opium in breach of or in any way contrary to any of the provisions of this Ordinance, or otherwise than in accordance with the license in that behalf granted under this Ordinance, or possess or sell or offer for sale, or suffer or permit to be sold, any bhang or ganja, or any substance containing bhang or ganja, and every holder of a license for the sale by wholesale or retail of opium who sells or allows any person to sell opium to any person apparently under the age of fifteen years, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on the first conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, or to simple or rigorous imprisonment not exceeding three months, or to both; and on every subsequent conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, or to imprisonment, simple or rigorous, not exceeding six months, or to both.

Sale of opium to children prohibited.

Search into places where opium, bhang, or ganja is kept or sold.

17 It shall be lawful for any police officer or municipal or local board or board of improvement inspector to enter and inspect any shop or place where opium is allowed to be sold, or in which there shall be reasonable cause for suspicion that bhang or ganja or any substance containing bhang or ganja is kept, possessed, or sold, or that opium exceeding one pound in weight is kept or possessed without a license or contrary to the conditions thereof, or that the illicit sale of opium is being carried on, and to seize any opium or bhang or ganja or any substance containing bhang or ganja which may be found therein, and the vessels holding the same, and to take into custody the persons suspected to be keeping, possessing, or selling the same.

It shall be lawful for the police court having jurisdiction in the place where such seizure shall have taken place to cause the opium, bhang, or ganja, or the substance containing bhang or ganja, and the vessel holding the same so seized as aforesaid to be sold, and the proceeds of such sale shall be paid into the municipal, local board, or board of improvement fund if the seizure shall have taken place within municipal, local board, or board of improvement limits, and in other cases shall be paid into the General Treasury.

Informers share of fine.

18 It shall be lawful for the court before whom any person shall be convicted of any offence under this Ordinance to direct a portion of the fine actually recovered and realized, not exceeding one-half, to be paid to the informer.

Ordinance not to apply to opium sold for bona fide medicinal purposes.

19 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be held to prevent any medical practitioner, chemist, or druggist from selling by retail or possessing opium bona fide for medicinal purposes, the burden of proof whereof shall lie upon the person alleging the same in his defence. Provided, however, that no person shall under this section possess more than five pounds of opium at one time without a license.

Hospitals, &c. exempted.

20 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall apply to any opium kept, dispensed, or supplied by or in any Government or military hospital or dispensary, or any dispensary established in pursuance of the Ordinance No. 17 of 1880, intituled "An Ordinance to provide for the Medical Wants of Immigrant Labourers in certain Planting Districts," and Ordinance No. 9 of 1882, intituled "The Medical Wants Ordinance, 1880, Amendment Ordinance, 1882," or any Ordinance to be hereafter enacted to provide for such medical wants.

Limitation of prosecution.

21 No prosecution shall be entertained for any offence under this Ordinance unless instituted within three months from the date of the commission of the offence.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Widows' and Orphans' Pension Fund Ordinance, 1898."

Preamble.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen as to the liability of certain public officers to contribute to the Widows' and Orphans' Pension Fund under Ordinance No. 1 of 1898, and it is expedient to remove such doubts: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Ordinance to be read as one with Ordinance No. 1 of 1898.

1 This Ordinance shall be read as one with the Ordinance No. 1 of 1898, herein referred to as the principal Ordinance.

Limitation of the definition of "public officer."

2 The term "public officer," whenever used throughout the principal Ordinance, shall not include public officers who could have been but have not been admitted under the provisions of the Ordinance No. 15 of 1884 or No. 20 of 1885 to contribute to the fund formed under the provisions of the Ordinance No. 15 of 1884, and such public officers are hereby declared exempted from the operations of the principal Ordinance, and the directors of "The Widows' and Orphans' Pension Fund" shall repay to such public officers all sums which may have been contributed to the fund by such public officers under the provisions of the principal Ordinance.

By His Excellency's command,

W. T. TAYLOR,
Acting Colonial Secretary.
