BY-LAWS

PUBLIC NOTICES

1. No person shall deface, destroy or remove any notice which is exhibited by the Order of the Chairman or temper with any notice-board put up under the authority of the Village Council.

SALE OF PROVISIONS

2. No person shall keep any shop or place for the sale of meat, dry fish, poultry, vegetables, rice, currysuffs or other perishable articles of food (other than a market) except on a licence issued by the Council. Such licence shall, unless it is earlier cancelled under by-law 7, expire on the thirty-first day of December of the year in respect of which it is issued.

3. The owner or seller of meat, dry fish, poultry, vegetables, rice, currysuffs or other perishable articles of food in any shop or place (other than a market) shall keep meat, dry fish or poultry apart from the vegetables, rice or currysuffs. The poultry shall be kept in baskets so made that the birds may not suffer discomfort.

7. It shall be lawful for the Rural Court, in addition to any other punishment that it may impose, to cancel the licence of any licensee convicted twice or oftener of any breach of any of these by-laws relating to the sale of provisions, and the licensee shall not be entitled to any compensation in respect of such cancellation.

PREVENTION OF DAMAGE TO TANKS, WATER COURSES AND PUBLIC WELLS

8. No person shall throw into any tank, water course or public well anything that is likely to diminish the usefulness of such tank, water course or well, nor pile up earth, stones, rubbish or any other matter in or on the margin of such tank, water course or well.

9. No common water channel shall be closed wholly or in part without the written permission of the Chairman.

10. Any person who contravenes by-law 8 or by-law 9 may be directed by the Chairman in writing to restore such tank, water course, channel or well to its pre-existing condition, within the time specified in a notice served on such person, and if such person fails to comply with the requirements of such notice, the Chairman may authorise any workmen in writing, to do what was required in such notice to be done and the expenses so incurred may be recovered from such person as a debt due to the Council, in addition to any other punishment that may be imposed on him by a Rural Court.

WATER SUPPLY

11. (1) No person shall allow any cesspit, cesspool, pigsty, gala, cattle-shed, pit latrine or defective drain to remain within a distance of fifty feet from any communal well, spout, spring or other watering place for the supply of water for domestic purposes.

12. No private well for the supply of water for domestic purposes shall be sunk within a distance of fifty feet from any cesspit, cesspool, pigsty, gala, cattle-shed, pit latrine or defective drain or any other land regularly manured for the purpose of cultivation.

13. No person shall block, divert, pollute or cause any damage to any communal well, spout, spring or any other watering place for the supply of water for domestic purposes.

14. No person shall fell or destroy any timber or under-wood reserved for the conservation of any communal well, spout, spring or other watering place for the supply of water for domestic purposes.

15. Every person who makes use of a well, spout or other watering place for the supply of water for domestic purposes shall erect or cause to be erected a fence round such well, spout or other watering place, if and when so directed by the Chairman.

BY-LAWS RELATING TO LIBRARIES

16. In these By-laws relating to libraries, unless the context otherwise requires, the expression "librarian" means the person appointed by the Council to be in charge of the library and includes his assistants.

17. The public library established and maintained by the Council shall consist of:—

- (a) a lending library; and
- (b) a reading room.

18. (1) The supervision and general administration of the public library shall be vested in a library committee (hereinafter referred to as the "Committee") composed of—

- (a) the Chairman of the Council;
- (b) such other members of the Council not exceeding three as may be elected by the Council; and
- (c) five prominent residents of the village area, elected by the Council.

(2) The Council may appoint a librarian who shall be in charge of the public library and he shall be responsible for the maintenance of order in such library.

19. (1) The Chairman of the Council shall be ex-officio President of the Committee and he shall preside at every meeting of the Committee. In the absence of the Chairman at any meeting, such member of the Committee as may be elected for the purpose by a majority of the members present, shall preside at that meeting.

(1) The presiding member at any meeting shall have an original vote and a casting vote if the votes cast on any question are equal.

20. The quorum for a meeting of the Committee shall be five. The Committee shall have the power to allow any person, the use of the public library, subject to such conditions as it may deem necessary, or to refuse such person the use of the library, if in the opinion of the Committee such person has contravened any of these by-laws relating to libraries.

LENDING LIBRARY

21. (1) No person shall be admitted as a member of the lending library unless he—

- (a) is not less than fourteen years of age;

(b) is literate;

(c) is resident, or has an office of a place of business within the village area;

(d) deposits with the librarian a sum of five rupees; and

(e) is recommended by the occupier or owner of a house fetching a monthly rental of not less than twenty-five rupees.

(2) Every person desirous of being admitted as a member of the lending library shall make application in that behalf and shall have such application endorsed by any one of the following—

(a) a member of Parliament;

(b) a member of the Council;

(c) a member of the Committee;

(d) a Minister of religion;

(e) a member of the medical or legal profession;

(f) a Justice of the Peace;

(g) a Government Servant whose name appears in the annual Civil List;

(h) a Principal of a School or Pirivena; or

(i) an employee of the Council whose salary is not less than one thousand two hundred rupees per annum.

22. The librarian shall issue two tickets to every person who is admitted as a member of the lending library and such person shall be entitled to borrow one book on each such ticket.

23. A member of the lending library shall be responsible for any book removed from such library on a ticket issued to him.

24. Where a member of the lending library loses a ticket issued to him under by-law 22, he shall immediately give notice to the librarian of such loss. If the librarian is satisfied that no book has been borrowed from the lending library on such ticket he may issue to such member a duplicate ticket. No such duplicate ticket shall be issued by the librarian unless there has elapsed at least a period of thirty days from the date on which the loss was brought to his notice.

25. Any book borrowed by a member from the lending library shall be returned to the librarian within the period of fourteen days from the date on which it was borrowed. The member may be allowed by the librarian to borrow any such book for a further period of fourteen days if the book is not required by any other member.

26. Where a member fails to return a book he has borrowed from the lending library within the thirty days of the expiry of the period of fourteen days referred to in by-law 25; then such book shall be presumed to be lost.

27. Where a book borrowed by a member is lost or presumed to be lost then such member shall be liable to pay the cost of its replacement.

28. No member shall damage in any manner any book he has borrowed from the lending library.

29. It shall be the duty of every member to bring to the notice of the librarian any damage to any book he intends to borrow from the lending library. Where he has failed to bring any such damage to the notice of the librarian, such book shall be presumed to have been issued to him in good condition.

30. Where the librarian is satisfied that a book returned by a member has been so damaged by him as to render it unfit for further circulation such member shall be liable to pay the cost of its replacement. When the book has been replaced the damaged book shall be given to that member with the words "The Public Library Sold as Damaged" stamped thereon.

31. (1) No member shall lend to any person any book borrowed by him from the lending library.

(2) Any member who contravenes the provisions of paragraph (1) of this by-law shall forfeit his deposit and shall cease to be a member of the lending library.

32. (1) No member shall return to the lending library any book which to his knowledge has been used by any person suffering from an infectious or contagious disease.

(2) Where a book borrowed from the lending library by a member has been used by any person suffering from any infectious or contagious disease such book shall be destroyed and that member shall pay to the librarian the cost of its replacement.

33. Where any dispute arises between two or more members of the lending library as to which member should borrow a particular book the librarian shall decide such dispute.

34. Any member who desirous to borrow any book which has already been borrowed by another member, shall enter his name and the title of the book in a register kept for that purpose and the librarian shall, on such book being returned by the member who borrowed it, issue it to the member who has entered his name in the register. Where two or more members have entered their names in the register for any book, then, such book shall be issued to them in the order in which they have entered their names in the register.

35. Any member who ceases to reside or ceases to have an office or place of business, within the village area, shall cease to be a member of the lending library and shall return to the librarian the two tickets issued to him under by-law 22.

36. The deposit of five rupees paid by any person under by-law 21 (1) (d) shall, less any sum due from him to the lending library, be refunded to him on his ceasing to be a member.

37. The lending library shall be kept open daily between the hours of 8 a.m. and 3.30 p.m. except on Sundays, Public Holidays and such other days as the Committee may, decide upon.

READING ROOM

38. No person shall make use of the Reading Room unless he—

- (a) has obtained permission from the librarian for that purpose, and
- (b) has signed the register kept in the Reading Room.

39. The librarian may permit any person who

- (a) is literate;
- (b) is resident within the village area; and
- (c) is not less than fourteen years of age, to make use of the Reading Room.

40. (1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (2) of this by-law, the reading room shall on any day other than a Sunday or Public Holiday, be open between the hours of 8 a.m. and 3.30 p.m. on week days and 8 a.m. and 12 noon on Saturdays.

(2) The Council may by resolution—

- (a) extend the hours specified in paragraph (1) of this by-law;
- (b) request the Committee to have the Reading Room open on a Sunday or Public Holiday during such hours as may be specified in the resolution or;
- (c) require the Committee to close the Reading Room on such days as may be fixed by the Council for purposes of stock-taking.

41. No person shall remove from the Reading Room any news paper, periodical, magazine, map, document, manuscript or any other article placed in or belonging to the Reading Room.

GENERAL

42. No person who is suffering or has recently suffered from any contagious or infectious disease or has recently been in attendance on any person suffering from such disease, shall enter the premises of the public library until the periods of infection and incubation have elapsed.

43. No person shall—

THE NUWARA ELIYA FOUR GRAVETS VILLAGE COUNCIL

The Cemeteries and Burials Ordinance

BY-LAWS for burial grounds within the limits of the Four Gravets Village Council, made by the proper authority, to wit, the Village Council of the Four Gravets village area in the Nuwara Eliya District, under section 38 of the Cemeteries and Burials Ordinance (Chapter 231) and confirmed by the Minister for Local Government by virtue of the powers vested in him by section 39 of that Ordinance.

A. E. GOGGERLY MORAGODA,
Permanent Secretary,
Ministry of Local Government.

Colombo, 14th August, 1965.

BY-LAWS

1. (1) The owner of every burial ground, existing within the administrative limits of the Village Council at the date of publication of these by-laws in the Gazette, shall within two months from that date apply for the registration of that burial ground.

(2) The owner of every burial ground which is to be established within the administrative limits of the Village Council on any date after the publication of these by-laws in the Gazette shall, at least three months before that date, apply for the registration of that burial ground.

2. (1) Every application for the registration of a burial ground shall be in writing, addressed to the Chairman, and signed by the owner.

(2) The owner shall submit with the application, a plan of the burial ground certified by, on or behalf of, the Surveyor General or by a duly licensed surveyor.

(3) Where the owner intends to appoint a person to be the keeper of the burial ground, the name of the keeper shall be stated in the application.

(4) The person named as keeper in the application shall sign the application in acknowledgment of his acceptance of the office and duties of keeper.

3. Where the keeper's name is not stated in the application, or where the keeper so named has not signed the application in the manner specified in by-law 2 (4), the owner shall, on the burial ground being registered, be deemed to be the keeper of that burial ground.

4. In the event of the death or resignation of the keeper of a burial ground, the name of some other keeper shall be registered, and no burial or cremation shall take place in such ground until such fresh registration has been effected, except with the permission of the Chairman.

5. (1) The keeper of a burial ground shall enter in a register, particulars of every burial or cremation, carried out in the burial ground and shall within a month of such burial or cremation, send the Chairman an extract of every such entry.

(2) The register shall be in a form approved by the Chairman.

6. The keeper of a burial ground shall permit the Chairman or any officer or person authorised in writing in that behalf by the Chairman at any time to—

(a) inspect the burial ground, or

(b) examine the register referred to in by-law 5 (2).

7. The owner of a registered burial ground shall enclose such burial ground with a wall or a fence to the satisfaction of the Chairman, and shall maintain such wall or fence in good repair.

8. The owner of a burial ground shall keep it clear of jungle, in a clean and sanitary condition and to the satisfaction of the Chairman.

9. No grave shall be less than 5 feet in depth, or at a distance of less than 4 feet from any other grave.

10. Except upon the orders of a competent authority, no person shall re-open any grave within one year of the burial in that grave of a dead body.

11. (1) No person shall bury or cremate a dead body in a burial ground, except with the permission of the keeper of the burial ground.

(2) No person shall cremate a dead body in a burial ground, at any spot other than the spot indicated by the keeper of that burial ground.

12. The person responsible for a cremation at a burial ground shall within seven days of such cremation, bury or cause to be buried the ashes and other refuse left after the cremation.

13. It shall be lawful for the Chairman or any officer authorised in writing in that behalf by the Chairman to inspect any burial ground.

14. Any person aggrieved by an order given by the keeper of a burial ground, or by any act or omission on his part, may complain to the Chairman and the Chairman shall make such order as may be necessary in the circumstances of each case.

15. In these by-laws—

"Chairman" means the Chairman of the Village Council;

"Village Council" means the Four Gravets Village Council in the Nuwara Eliya District; and
