Miscellaneous Departmental Notices

IMPORT CONTROL NOTICE No. 31/66

Imports on allocations made under France/Ceylon Credit—1966

THE procedure applicable in regard to the issue of import licences on allocations for imports under the above credit will be as follows:—

- (i) Importers whose imports are financed from the above Credit will be issued allocations by this Department which will be headed, "France/Ceylon Credit, 1966".
- (ii) On receipt of such allocations, importers will open negotiations with their suppliers in France, and on completion of contracts, will instruct their suppliers to forward immediately to the Banque Francaise du Commerce Extérieur (B.F.C.E.) No. 21, Boulevard Haussmann 9(e), Paris, France, three copies of the contract quoting reference to the allocation number of this Department. B.F.C.E. will keep one copy for its files and will remit one to Compagnie Francaise d' Assurance Pour le Commerce Extérieur "COFACE".
- (iii) As soon as B.F.C.E. is satisfied with the financial and technical standing of the suppliers, it will request the approval of the French Authorities 'COFACE' who will deliver the usual insurance guarantees. When these guarantees are received, B.F.C.E. will notify the Controller of Imports & Exports, Colombo regarding the admission of the contract together with a copy of the Contract quoting the allocation number of this Department and the B.F.C.E.'s own identification number of the contract.
- (iv) Action to issue import licences will be taken by this Department on receipt of the notification from the B.F.C.E. referred to, at (iii) above.
- (v) Immediately on receipt of the licences the importers should arrange with their Banks to initiate action in regard to the financing of the imports in accordance with the directions issued to the banks by the Central Bank of Ceylon in regard to the subject.
- (vi) All contracts for imports to be financed from the above Credit must have a compulsory arbitration clause referring to the rules of the International Chamber of Commerce in Zurich, Switzerland and stipulating the use of French Law.

D. B. I. P. S. SIBIWARDHANA,
Controller of Imports & Exports.
