Amount of labour to be supplied under the Ordinance No. 31 of 1884.

2 And whereas by the 31st section of the Ordinance No. 31 of the year 1884, intituled "An Ordinance to amend Ordinance No. 10 of 1861, entitled 'An Ordinance to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Public Thoroughfares in this Colony,'" it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor to propose the estimates prepared in pursuance thereof, or such of them as to him may appear expedient, in the Ordinance for making provision for the contingent expenditure of the colony for the ensuing year, to be dealt with in like manner as any other estimate to be so proposed: And it is thereby also provided that the amount of labour to be supplied under the provisions of the said Ordinance No. 31 of 1884, for the performance of any work or works for which an estimate or estimates may have been so proposed by the Governor, and approved of by the Legislative Council, shall be distinctly stated in the Ordinance enacted for the same, and that the same shall not exceed two-thirds of the whole amount of labour due from the district or districts within which it may be required to be performed: It is enacted that the amount of labour to be supplied under the provisions of the said Ordinance shall be in conformity with the estimates specified in the schedule hereunto annexed.

Treasurer to pay the above at such times as the Governor by warrant shall order.

3 The Treasurer of the said island shall issue and pay the said several sums to such persons, for the purposes hereinbefore-mentioned, upon such days and in such proportions as the Governor for the time being, by any warrant or order in writing to be signed by him, shall from time to time order and direct; and the payments so to be made shall be charged upon and payable out of the revenues of the said island.

And to receive credit in his accounts for the payments made in pursuance thereof.

4 The said Treasurer shall in his accounts from time to time be allowed credit for any sum or sums of money paid by him in pursuance of such warrant or order in writing as aforesaid; and the receipt or receipts of the respective persons to whom the same shall be so paid shall be a full and valid discharge to the said Treasurer in passing his said accounts for any such sum or sums as shall be therein mentioned; and he shall and may receive credit for the same accordingly.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to consolidate the Law regulating the carriage of Passengers and Goods by Boat.

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate the law regulating the carriage of passengers and goods by boat in this island : Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title. 1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as “ The Boats Ordinance, 1899.”

Repeal. 2 From and after the passing of this Ordinance the Ordinances mentioned in Schedule I. hereto shall be repealed.

CHAPTER I.

The Licensing of Boats.

Definition. 3 In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires,— “ Proper authority ” shall include the government agent of any province, the assistant government agent of any district, the chairman of any municipal or local board town, and the Assistant Government Agent of Nuwara Eliya.

“ Goods or passengers ” shall include goods and passengers.

“ Boat ” shall include all boats, padas, dhonies, kula boats, battals, ballams, canoes, and catamarans, whether propelled by steam or otherwise, and used in the sea adjacent to, or in the rivers, canals, lakes, and inland waters of this island.

“ Collector of customs ” shall include the principal collector, deputy collector, assistant collector, or other principal officer of customs of any port or place.

“ Port ” shall include all harbours, roadsteads, and places of anchorage in the island.

Boats to be licensed.

4 Subject to the provisions contained in section 29, no boat shall be used for carrying goods or passengers for hire from any port or place in this island to any other port or place in the island, or in any portion of the sea adjacent to this island, or in any river, canal, lake, or inland water within the same, unless the owner thereof shall have obtained a license for the same from the proper authority having jurisdiction within the province or town in which such owner resides or exercises his calling under the provisions of this Ordinance.

Proper authority to issue license on application and after inquiry.

5 (1) Any owner of a boat who may be desirous of obtaining a license to use such boat for the purpose of carrying goods or passengers for hire shall make an application in writing to that effect to such proper authority, which application shall be substantially in the Form D in Schedule II. hereto, and shall state accurately the cargo capacity of, and the number of passengers (if any) intended to be carried in, such boat, the length, breadth, and depth of such boat, the number of the crew to be carried by such boat, and whether such boat is propelled by steam or otherwise, and the class of boat for which such license is desired, and shall contain a true and full description of the names and residences of the owners or owner of the boat. Every such application shall be signed by the applicant, and the proper authority, on being satisfied, after making such inquiry as he shall deem necessary, that such boat is in good order and fit to be used for the purpose of carrying goods or passengers or both, as the case may be, shall issue a license to the owner of such boat.

(2) If it shall become necessary to license any boat belonging to two or more persons in partnership, or to a corporate body, or to a joint stock company, such application may be made by one of the partners, or by the persons managing the affairs of such partnership, body, or company.

License to be stamped.
Form and duration of license.

6 (1) Each license for a boat shall bear a stamp of three rupees, such stamp to be supplied by the party applying for the license.

(2) The license for passenger boats shall be substantially in the Form A in Schedule II. hereto, the license for cargo boats shall be substantially in the Form B in Schedule II. hereto, and the license for boats carrying both passengers and cargo shall be in the Form C in Schedule II. hereto. Every such license shall specify the cargo capacity of such boat and the number of passengers, if any, to be carried by such boat, the number of the boat, and the number of the crew, the places between which such boat may ply, and the name of the boat, if any.

(3) Each license shall be in force until the thirty-first day of December in the year in and for which the same shall be granted, and no longer.

License to be numbered and registered.

7 The proper authority shall number each license issued by him consecutively, commencing at the beginning of every year with the number 1, and shall keep a book in which he shall register all the particulars stated in the license granted by him, and every entry in such register shall be numbered in accordance with the number of the license to which it has reference. Any authenticated copy or extract from the register shall be deemed prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

Proper authority may withdraw license.

8 It shall be lawful for the proper authority to withdraw a license, after the same shall have been issued, if he has reason to believe that a boat is out of repair and not fit to be used for the purpose for which it was licensed, or if the owner shall commit any breach of the provisions of this Ordinance or the by-laws made thereunder. Provided that when the proper authority withdraws a license after it is issued, he shall, if satisfied that the boat has been repaired and is fit to be used for the purpose of carrying goods or passengers, re-issue such license free of stamp duty.

Number of boat to be painted thereon.

9 The owner of every boat shall paint or cause to be painted, and shall keep painted, in English figures, and not less than nine inches in length, in white or yellow, on a black ground, or in black on a white or yellow ground, on a conspicuous part on both sides of the bow of such boat, in a legible and distinct manner, the number of such boat as mentioned in the license, preceded by a distinguishing letter in English denoting the port or place of registry; and in the case of any boat propelled by a sail or sails, such number and letter shall be similarly painted on such sail or sails; and the license of such boat may be withheld until it is so marked.

Notice of transfer to be given.

10 In case any boat so licensed as aforesaid shall be transferred to another by sale, gift, or otherwise, the person to whom the same shall be so transferred shall notify the same to the proper authority, in order that such transfer may be entered in the book of license, and a new license issued to the person to whom it shall be so transferred.

Notice to be given if boat destroyed or rendered unfit for use.

11 If any boat shall be sunk, destroyed, or rendered wholly unfit for use, the owner thereof shall notify the same to the proper authority, in order that the number may be erased from the book of licenses.

Owner to have original license and driver duplicate and ticket.

12 The original of the license shall be retained by the owner of the boat, but the person in charge of the boat shall have the duplicate of such license, and be ready to produce the same whenever thereunto required.

Proper authority may issue license, &c., in place of one lost or destroyed.

Books and lists to be kept of boats licensed.

Inspection.

13 The proper authority may on his being satisfied that any license has been lost or destroyed by accident issue an exemplification of the license on the application of the owner of the boat.

14 The proper authority shall and he is hereby required to keep a book or books in which shall be entered the lists of the boats licensed under this Ordinance, with all necessary particulars. It shall be lawful for any person at any time, during office hours, to demand inspection of the said lists, and also to take copies or extracts therefrom.

CHAPTER II.

Liabilities of Owners of Boats.

Liabilities of the owners of licensed boats.

Proviso.

Not liable for loss of certain goods above fifty rupees unless delivered as such.

Increased rate of charge for such goods.

15 The owner of every licensed boat used for the conveyance of goods for hire shall, in the absence of any specified contract between him or the person in charge of such boat and any other party for the conveyance of such goods, be liable for any loss of, or injury to, any goods, articles, or property whatsoever delivered to be carried therein for hire, which shall be occasioned by the neglect or misconduct of such owner, or of any boatman, book-keeper, or other person or servant in his employ, or in charge of any such boat; and such liability shall be deemed to continue in the person who shall have made the application under section 5, unless and until he shall have given the notice of transfer required by section 10. Provided, however, that nothing in this section contained shall be construed to limit, or in anywise affect the liability of any such owner as a common carrier if he shall be such.

16 No such owner shall be liable for the loss of, or injury to, any article or articles or property of the description following; that is to say, gold or silver coin of this or any other country, or any gold or silver in a manufactured or unmanufactured state, or any precious stones, jewellery, watches, clocks, or timepieces of any description, trinkets, bills of exchange, orders, notes, or security for payment of money, stamps, maps, writings, title deeds, paintings, engravings, pictures, gold or silver plate or plated article, glass, china, opium, silks in a manufactured or unmanufactured state, and whether or not wrought up into other material or lace, or any of them, contained in any parcel or package which shall have been delivered to be carried for hire, or to accompany the person of any passenger, when the value of such article or articles or property aforesaid contained in such parcel or package shall exceed the sum of fifty rupees, unless at the time of delivery thereof at the office, warehouse, or receiving house of such owner, or to such owner or his boatman, bookkeeper, or other servant, for the purpose of being carried, or of accompanying the person of any passenger as aforesaid, the value and nature of such article or articles or property shall have been declared by the person sending or delivering the same, and such increased charge as hereinafter mentioned, or an engagement to pay the same, be accepted by the person receiving such parcel or package.

17 When any parcel or package containing any of the articles above specified shall be so delivered and its value and contents declared as aforesaid, and such value shall exceed the value of fifty rupees, it shall be lawful for the person receiving the same for carriage on hire to demand and receive an increased rate of charge, to be notified by some notice affixed in legible characters in some public and conspicuous part of the office, warehouse, or other receiving house, where such parcel or package was received for the purpose of conveyance, stating the increased rates of charge required to be paid over and above the ordinary rate of carriage as a compensation for the greater risk and care to be taken for the safe conveyance of such valuable articles; and all persons handing or delivering any such parcels or package at any such office shall be bound by such notice, without further proof of the same having come to their knowledge.

Carriers to give receipts.

18 Whenever any goods shall have been received for conveyance for hire by any licensed boat, whether the same be such goods as are mentioned in section 16 or other goods, the person receiving the same for conveyance on hire shall, if thereto required when the rate of conveyance shall have been paid, or an engagement to pay the same shall have been accepted, sign a receipt for the said goods, setting out therein the name and residence of the owner; and if such receipt shall not be given when required, the person so receiving the same for conveyance, in addition to any other liability which he may incur by such refusal, shall not have or be entitled to any benefit or advantage under section 16, and shall be liable to refund any increased rate of charge he may have received in respect of the goods specified therein, and shall further be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees.

Penalty in case of neglect.

Publication of notice to limit liability in respect of other goods.

19 No public notice or declaration by the owner of any licensed boat shall be deemed or construed to limit or in anywise affect his liability as aforesaid for or in respect of any articles or goods to be conveyed by him, but all and every such owner shall be liable to answer for the loss of, or any injury to, any articles and goods in respect whereof they may not be entitled to the benefits of section 16, any public notice or declaration by them made and given in anywise limiting such liability to the contrary notwithstanding.

Any owner may be sued.

20 Any one or more of the owners of any licensed boat shall be liable to be sued by his or their name or names only; and no action or suit commenced to recover damages for loss or injury to any parcel, package, or person shall abate for the want of joining any co-proprietor or co-partner in such boat.

Parties entitled to damages may also recover extra charges.

21 Where any such goods as are mentioned in section 16 shall have been delivered as aforesaid, and the value and contents declared as aforesaid, and the increased rate of charge (if any) paid, and such goods shall have been lost or damaged, the party entitled to recover damages in respect of such loss or damage shall also be entitled to recover such increased charge so paid as aforesaid, in addition to the value of such goods.

Owner liable for thefts committed by his servants, &c.

22 Nothing in section 16 of this Ordinance contained shall be deemed to protect the owner of any licensed boat from liability to answer for loss or injury to any goods or articles whatsoever arising from theft or fraudulent conduct of any boatman, bookkeeper, or other person or servant in his employ or in charge of such boat, or to protect any boatman, bookkeeper, or other person or servant from liability from any loss or injury occasioned by his or their own personal neglect or misconduct.

Owner liable to such damages only as are proved.

23 No owner of any licensed boat shall be concluded as to the value of any goods whereof the value shall be declared in pursuance of section 16, but he shall in all cases be entitled to require from the party suing in respect of any loss or injury proof of the actual value of the said goods by the ordinary legal evidence; and such owner shall be liable to such damages only as shall be proved as aforesaid, not exceeding the declared value, together with the increased charges as aforesaid.

Goods sent by boats to be delivered within twenty-four hours.

24 All goods and merchandise sent by any licensed boat for the purpose of delivery at any place within this island shall, in the absence of any special contract to the contrary, be delivered according to the direction thereof within twenty-four hours after the arrival of any such boat at the place of delivery, and in default thereof the owner of such boat shall forfeit and pay for every such offence any sum not exceeding twenty rupees.

CHAPTER III.

Miscellaneous.

- By-laws. 25 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, from time to time, or at any time, to make, and when made revoke, add to, or alter by-laws for any of the following purposes :
- For regulating the number and description of lights to be carried by any class of boats used for the purposes of carrying passengers or goods, and for limiting the pace of such boats, and generally for providing for the safety and comfort of the passengers conveyed by any such boat, and for providing for the issue of licenses to the tindals of such boats, and for the recalling and taking away of such licenses in case of misconduct, and for regulating the number of boatmen to be employed in such boats.
- Publication of by-laws. 26 Any by-law when made, added to, or altered shall be published in the Government Gazette, and when so published shall, until the same is revoked in manner aforesaid, be as valid, legal, and effectual as if such by-law had been inserted in this Ordinance.
- Penalties. 27 Any person committing any of the following acts shall be guilty of an offence, and shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees :
- (1) Neglecting or omitting to specify truly in the application required by section 5 the name of any person who shall be an owner or part owner of any boat.
  - (2) Neglecting or omitting to paint or to cause to be painted or to keep painted on any licensed boat the number and letter prescribed by section 9, in the manner therein enacted, during the continuance of such license.
  - (3) Neglecting or omitting to paint or to cause to be painted or to keep painted on the sail or sails of any licensed boat propelled by a sail or sails the number and letter prescribed by section 9, in the manner therein enacted, during the continuance of such license.
  - (4) Using a boat for the purpose of carrying goods or passengers for hire without license, or after such license shall have expired.
  - (5) Refusing to allow or to permit any person deputed by the proper authority in writing under this Ordinance to examine any boat for the purpose of reporting thereon to the proper authority.
  - (6) Permitting or suffering more passengers or persons to enter a boat than such boat is authorized by the license to carry.
  - (7) Loading or suffering or permitting to be loaded in any boat goods or cargo in excess of the cubic measurement or weight stated in the application required by section 5 as the cargo capacity of such boat.
  - (8) Plying a boat licensed under this Ordinance for hire in any port which has been declared by Proclamation to have been brought within the provisions of "The Masters Attendant's Ordinance, 1865," without having obtained a license under such Ordinance.
  - (9) Committing a breach of any by-law made under the provisions of this Ordinance.
- Saving clause. 28 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall authorize any proper authority to issue a license to any owner of a boat to use a boat for the purpose of the conveyance of goods or passengers for hire in any port which has been declared by Proclamation to have been brought within the provisions of "The Masters Attendant's Ordinance, 1865," nor shall the owner of any boat use for the purpose of conveyance goods or passengers for hire in any port which has been duly licensed under the provisions of the said Ordinance, whilst plying for hire within the limits of such port, be subject to the provisions of this Ordinance or be liable to prosecution for the breach of any provision herein.

Execution of Ordinance may be delegated to master attendant or collector of customs.

29 The Governor in Executive Council may by notification in the Government Gazette delegate the enforcement and execution of any provisions of this Ordinance in respect of boats which are used for carrying passengers by sea from any port or place to any other port or place to the master attendant or collector of customs at any such port or place, and may authorize such master attendant or collector of customs to perform all or any of the powers and duties vested in and imposed on the proper authority under this Ordinance, subject to such restriction as the Governor in Executive Council may from time to time think fit to impose.

Proof of license to be on the accused.

30 If in any prosecution or proceeding under this Ordinance any question shall arise as to whether any boat has been used for the conveyance of any passengers or goods for hire without a license, or as to whether a license has been obtained for any boat within the meaning thereof, or as to whether any person has made the declaration required by section 5 the proof that such passengers or goods were not conveyed for hire, or in the case of goods that the goods belong to himself, or that license has been obtained or the declaration made, shall be upon the accused, or the party against whom such prosecution or proceeding shall be had. Provided that it shall be lawful for the court to award a reasonable sum in lieu of costs to the accused against any person who may have made a vexatious complaint, and such sum shall be recovered in like manner as any fine imposed under the provisions of this Ordinance.

Proviso.

Burden of proof.

31 Where a person is charged with any offence against sub-section (4) of section 26, and it is established by the prosecution to the satisfaction of the court that there were more persons carried in such boat than were necessary for its working, such person shall be presumed to have used such boat for the purpose of carrying passengers for hire, unless and until he shows to the satisfaction of the court before which he is charged that none of the persons in such boat were carried for hire.

Informers share of penalty.

32 The court before which the prosecution or proceeding is taken may award any share of the fines actually recovered and realized, not exceeding one-half, to be paid to the informer.

Limitation of prosecution.

33 No prosecution shall be instituted against any person for any offence committed against any of the provisions of this Ordinance cognizable by the police court, unless the same shall be commenced within one month from the time of the commission of such offence.

Certain boats exempted from the Ordinance.

34 The provisions of this Ordinance shall not apply to boats the property of the Crown or of committees established under the provisions of "The Road Ordinance, 1861."
