PASSED ORDINANCES.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 10 of 1899.

An Ordinance to amend "The Ceylon Postal and Telegraph Ordinance, 1892."

WEST RIDGEWAY.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to alter and amend "The Ceylon Postal and Telegraph Ordinance, 1892," hereinafter called the principal Ordinance: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

To be read as one with Ordinance No. 13 of 1892.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Ceylon Postal and Telegraph Amendment Ordinance, 1899," and shall be read as one with the principal Ordinance.

Amendment of section 17.

2 For section 17 of the principal Ordinance the following sections shall be substituted:

Opening of postal packets from foreign countries.

(a) If the Postmaster-General shall have reason to believe that any postal packet received from beyond seas contains any articles subject to duty, or if he be so requested to do by the Principal Collector of Customs, he shall require the attendance at the general post office of the addressee of such postal packet or of some agent deputed in writing by such addressee. Such postal packet shall then be opened by the addressee or his agent in the presence of an officer of the post office deputed for the purpose by the Postmaster-General and of a customs officer. If the addressee or his agent fail to attend in pursuance of the notification, the packet shall be opened by a customs officer in the presence of such officer of the post office.

When postal packets may be forfeited.

(b) Any postal packet in respect of which a declaration of value is required, the contents of which do not agree with the declaration of the sender, may be forfeited, and any postal packet, the true wholesale market value of which, as defined by Ordinance No. 18 of 1896, has not been declared by the sender, may be dealt with as undervalued goods under section 43 of the Customs Ordinance, No. 17 of 1869.

Amendment of section 44.

3 For section 44 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be substituted:

Postage to be deemed stamp duty.

44. The rates or duties which shall be expressed or denoted by any postage or telegraph stamp shall be denominated and deemed stamp duties, and shall be under the care and management of the Commissioner of Stamps for the time being; and all the powers, provisions, clauses, regulations, directions, fines, forfeitures, pains, and penalties contained in or imposed by any Ordinance now in force or to be hereafter enacted shall (so far as the same may be applicable and may be consistent with the provisions of this Ordinance), in all cases not hereby expressly provided for, be of full force and effect with respect to the stamps to be provided under and by virtue of this Ordinance, and to the paper on which the same shall be impressed, or to which the same shall be affixed, and shall be observed, applied, enforced, and put in execution for the raising, levying, collecting, and securing of the rates or duties denoted thereby, and for preventing, detecting, and punishing all frauds, forgeries, or other offences relating thereto, as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as if such powers, Proviso.

Amendment of section 87.

Power to enter on lands, put up posts, &c., cut down trees, and do other acts necessary for the construction of the electric telegraph.

provisions, clauses, regulations, and directions, fines, forfeitures, pains, and penalties had been herein repeated and specially enacted with reference to the said last-mentioned stamps and rates or duties respectively. Provided, however, that it shall not be necessary to cancel or initial any postage or telegraph stamps.

4 For section 87 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be substituted :

87. It shall be lawful for any officer in the employ of the Government in the postal department, and for the servants, workmen, and labourers employed by or under such officer, at all times, and with all necessary carriages and animals and other means, to enter upon all or any lands, and to put up thereon any posts which may be required for the support of any electric telegraph wire ; and to fasten or attach to any tree growing on such land any bracket or other support for such wire ; and to cut down any tree or branch which may in any way injure, or which is likely to injure, impede, or interfere with any line of electric telegraph ; and also severally to do and perform all other acts, matters, and things necessary for the purposes of establishing, constructing, repairing, or improving any electric telegraph, or in any way connected therewith, or for performing any act, matter, or thing under the provisions of this Ordinance.

Passed in Council the Thirteenth day of December, One thousand Eight hundred and Ninety-nine.
