THE INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES ACT, CHAPTER 131

THE Award transmitted to the Commissioner of Labour by the Labour Tribunal to whom the industrial dispute which had arisen between The Ceylon Mercantile Union, 22 1/1, Upper Chatham Street, Colombo 1, and The Oriental Fire and General Insurance Co. Ltd., 52, Baillie Street, P. O. Box 1374, Colombo 1, was referred by order dated June 11, 1967, made under section 4 (1) of the Industrial Disputes Act, Chapter 131, as amended for settlement by arbitration is hereby published in terms of section 18 (1) of the said Act.

M. MATHIAPARANAM,
Deputy Commissioner of Labour.

Department of Labour,
Labour Secretariat,
Colombo 5, 24th May, 1970.

In the Matter of an Industrial Dispute

Between

Ceylon Mercantile Union,
22 1/1, Upper Chatham Street,
Colombo 1,

and

The Oriental Fire and General Insurance Company Limited, 52, Baillie Street, Colombo 1.

ID/LT 1/168/67.

Award

The Honourable the Minister of Labour and Employment by Order dated 11th June, 1967, under section 4 (1) of the Industrial Disputes Act, referred the above dispute to this Tribunal for settlement.

The Commissioner of Labour by a statement which accompanied the Honourable Minister's Order set out the matter in dispute as follows:—

"..... whether the termination of services of Mr. M. C. Rajaratnam by the Oriental Fire and General Insurance Company Limited is justified and to what relief Mr. Rajaratnam is entitled."

At the inquiry Mr. Kadirgamar instructed by Messrs. F. J. & G. de Saram appeared for the respondent and Mr. Prins Rajasooriya instructed by Mr. Bagavan appeared for the Union.

When this dispute was taken up for inquiry on 22.11.68, it was agreed between the parties that the only question to be determined by this Tribunal would be as to what sum should be paid to the applicant Mr. Rajaratnam if any consequent on the termination of the services of Mr. Rajaratnam. On the same date of inquiry it was agreed between the parties that the period of service of the applicant under the respondent was 18 years.

It appears from the pleadings that Mr. Rajaratnam's services were terminated consequent upon the monopoly of Life Insurance Business in this country being vested in the Insurance Corporation of Ceylon. It appears that the only ground of termination of the services of Mr. Rajaratnam is that the respondent wanted to reorganize and rationalize his business and office routine in such a way that the services of Mr. Rajaratnam had to be dispensed with.

Both parties on the last date of inquiry were called upon to make written submissions and according to the written submissions of the respondent, the respondent has submitted that a clear understanding had been arrived at between the parties before this Tribunal on the last date of inquiry, that is on 23.9.69 that the parties would leave to the Tribunal the computation of the gratuity if any which should be paid to Mr. Rajaratnam and also that this understanding was clearly based on the premise that the termination of the services of Mr. Rajaratnam was lawful and justified. The respondent company when they terminated the services of Mr. Rajaratnam offered him a gratuity of 15 months' terminal basic salary of Rs. 305 which amounts to Rs. 4,575. The Company also in addition to the gratuity had a provident fund and in the provident fund there was a sum of Rs. 7,166.12 lying to the credit of Mr. Rajaratnam which comprised a sum of Rs. 3,078.72 which was contributed by the Company and the balance by Mr. Rajaratnam.

During the course of the proceedings a settlement was suggested on the basis of the principle evolved and applied by consent of the parties to the dispute the Ceylon Mercantile Union and the National Mutual Life Association of Australasia Ltd. and according to the principle of that case a sum of Rs. 5,643.45 was offered as gratuity to Mr. Rajaratnam, but the offer was rejected by the Union at that stage. Counsel for the respondent Company has submitted that the Company is prepared to pay ex-gratia and without any admission of liability whatsoever the sum of Rs. 5,643.45 over and above the sum of Rs. 11,741.12. The respondent Company also has submitted that they are prepared to pay a total sum of Rs. 17,384.57 to Mr. Rajaratnam. The respondent Company has submitted very strenuously that this Tribunal should not award any sum whatsoever above the sum of Rs. 17,384.57 for the following reasons:—

- (a) that Mr. Rajaratnam's full period of service with this Company has been fully covered by a provident fund;
- (b) in addition to the provident fund the respondent Company is paying Mr. Rajaratnam a gratuity of Rs. 4,575 in terms of its rules worked out on the basis of 15 months' terminal basic salary;
- (c) it is unusual for a Company to provide for its employees both provident fund and a gratuity;
- (d) no additional burden should be placed on the Company for the further reason that it is common ground that it has ceased to do any insurance business by compulsion as from 1.1.65;
- (e) merely because a person has worked for a number of years it does not mean that he has a lawful claim to be paid a gratuity.

The respondent Company also has cited the following authorities in support of their submissions: The Adams Peak Tea Estates Ltd. vs. Duraisamy (S.C. 11/69—L.T. 10/1796) and also Seneviratne vs. Singer Sewing Machine Co. Ltd. and Ukku Banda vs. Cargills (Ceylon) Ltd.

The applicant has submitted that he has asked for in lieu of reinstatement 24 months' salary, that is Rs. 16,608 as gratuity and after discussions the applicant was prepared to accept a sum of Rs. 12,456 in addition to the provident fund. The applicant Union also has submitted that the settlement arrived referred to between the applicant Union and the National Mutual Life Association of Australasia Ltd. will not apply in this case as in that dispute the employees were guaranteed employment, which was not available to the applicant in the present dispute. The union also has submitted that Mr. Rajaratnam was 45 years of age and that it would be difficult for him to find any kind of alternative employment of a nature and type which will bring him an income commensurate with what he was earning at the time of termination or would have earned if he had been absorbed into the Corporation. It has also been submitted by the applicant Union that due to the fault of the respondent Company in not releasing him in time he was not able to take steps in obtaining employment under the Insurance Corporation. The applicant Union also has submitted that before the termination of the services of Mr. Rajaratnam, the Company had not obtained the prior permission of the Commissioner of Labour as required by the Insurance Companies Act.

It is clear from the proceedings of the last date that both parties had agreed to leave the matter of awarding gratuity if any to the Tribunal and that the Tribunal was asked to make its order on the submissions of both parties which have been made in writing. It appears from the submissions that the applicant's total period of service has been covered by a provident fund and the sum lying to his credit in the provident fund is Rs. 7,166.12. The company has further offered him a gratuity of 15 months' terminal basic salary of Rs. 305 which amounts to Rs. 4,575 and according to the Company it seems that this is the maximum gratuity payable to any of the employees according to their rules and the company was also prepared to pay a further sum of Rs. 5,643.45 on the basis of the principle evolved and applied by consent of the parties between the Ceylon Mercantile Union and the National Mutual Life Association of Australasia Ltd. The company is prepared to pay a total sum of Rs. 17,384.57. It has been strenuously argued and submitted by the union that due to the fault of the company Mr. Rajaratnam was not able to take steps to get employment under the Insurance Corporation. From the submissions and the evidence led and the documents produced, it is very clear that this submission of the union has not been supported by any evidence. The claim of the union for gratuity is also based on the fact that Mr. Rajaratnam was 45 years of age and as such he will not be able to get suitable employment at that age. It has also been submitted by the union that the provisions of law had not been adhered to by the respondent that prior to the termination of services no prior permission was obtained from the Commissioner of Labour. It appears that this submission of the union has no merit for the reason that on the date when the services of the applicant were terminated the respondent Company had completely ceased to do insurance business and there were only 4 employees in the company and as such retrenchment provisions of the Industrial Disputes Act would not apply when there are less than 15 workmen employed by the Company and also that under section 31 (1) of the Insurance Corporation Act that no person carrying on the business of insurance shall terminate the services of any member of the staff relating to the insurance business of such person without the approval in writing of the Commissioner of Labour for the simple reason that this provision does not apply in the instant case because the Company was not carrying on the business of insurance on the date when they terminated the services of Mr. Rajaratnam.

In any event both parties agreed on the last date of inquiry that the only question to be determined by the Tribunal is the quantum of gratuity if any should be awarded to the applicant. It has been urged very strenuously and for very good reasons that the applicant's entire service under the respondent Company has been covered by a provident fund. Further the Company is prepared to pay a sum of Rs. 4,575 as gratuity which is the maximum that can be given according to the Company's rules and also the Company is further prepared to pay a sum of Rs. 5,643.45 purely as an ex-gratia payment to the applicant. It is now more or less settled law that when a workman's services are terminated it is not customary to award any sum as gratuity if the workman's services under the Company is fully covered by a provident fund. Counsel for the Respondent Company has cited certain authorities in support of this proposition. It appears the grouse of the workman is that the Company is to be blamed because he was not allowed to be discharged at the proper time in order to enable him to obtain employment under the Insurance Corporation, but this allegation of the applicant has not in any way supported from the documents that had been produced by the Applicant Union. This Tribunal has considered all the facts and circumstances of this dispute and comes to the conclusion that the offer of Rs. 17,384.57 which comprised as follows:—

(a) Provident fund	...	Rs. 7,166.12
(b) Company's gratuity	...	Rs. 4,575
(c) Company's ex-gratia payment	...	Rs. 5,643.45

is just and equitable

Accordingly I award that the sum of Rs. 17,384.57 be paid to Mr. Rajaratnam the workman concerned in this dispute within one month of the publication of this award and shall be deposited with the Assistant Commissioner of Labour, Colombo South, Labour Secretariat, Narahenpita, Colombo 5, by the Respondent Company.

The workman concerned in this dispute Mr. Rajaratnam is free to withdraw this sum once the deposit has been made by the Respondent Company.

F. X. J. RASANAYAGAM,
President,
Labour Tribunal.

Dated at Kandy, this 14th day of May, 1970.

THE INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES ACT, CHAPTER 131

THE Award transmitted to the Commissioner of Labour by the Arbitrator to whom the industrial dispute which had arisen between the United Tea, Rubber and Local Produce Workers, Union and Ceylon Coconut Producers' Co-operative Societies Union Ltd., Colombo, was referred by order dated August 14, 1969, made under section 4 (1) of the Industrial Disputes Act, Chapter 131, as amended (read with Industrial Disputes (Special Provisions) Act, No. 37 of 1968), and published in Ceylon Government Gazette No. 14,868 of August 22, 1969, for settlement by arbitration is hereby published in terms of section 18 (1) of the said Act.

In the Matter of an Industrial Dispute
between

United Tea, Rubber and Local Produce Workers' Union, 71, Malay Street, Colombo 2,

and

Ceylon Coconut Producers' Co-operative Societies Union Limited, 127, Grandpass Road, Colombo 14.

Award

By virtue of the powers vested in him under section 4 (1) of the Industrial Disputes Act, Chapter 131 of the Legislative Enactments of Ceylon (1956 Revised Edition), as amended by Acts Nos. 14 and 62 of 1957 and 4 of 1962, the Commissioner of Labour has, by his Order dated 14th August, 1969, formally referred this dispute to me for settlement by arbitration.

This is a dispute between the United Tea, Rubber and Local Produce Workers' Union (hereinafter referred to as the "employee Union") and the Ceylon Coconut Producers' Co-operative Societies Union Limited (hereinafter referred to as the "Employer").

The Employee Union was represented at the inquiry by Mr. E. R. de Silva and the employer was represented by Mr. R. L. Jayasuriya, instructed by Messrs. Perera and Wijenayake.

The matter was inquired into by me on two days, namely on the 20th November, 1969, and the 13th January, 1970.

The statement of the matter in dispute as set out by the Commissioner of Labour in his statement dated 8th August, 1969, accompanying the reference is whether the non-employment of the following workmen who were employed by the Ceylon Coconut Producers' Co-operative Societies Limited at their Mills at Mirigama is justified or not and to what relief each of them is entitled:—

According to the statement submitted by the Employee Union:—

- (1) Twenty-eight workers had been refused work by the Employer as from 8.11.68.
- (2) The said workers have many years of service to their credit.
- (3) No proper notices of the termination of the service of the said workers were given to them by the Employer, nor had they been paid any gratuity for their services.
- (4) The non-offer of work is unjustifiable and reinstatement is prayed for with back wages for the period of non-employment.

According to a summary of the statement submitted by the Employer, the Employer was summoned by the Department of Labour on representations made by the Employee Union to a conference on the 22nd January, 1969, and again on the 29th May, 1969. At the conferences the Employer had requested the Employee Union to furnish a full and correct particulars, especially regarding the dates of non-offer of work to the workers, category of work done by each of them and the exact number of workmen represented by the Employee Union. The Employee Union, although it had undertaken to furnish all these particulars, had not done so in full. In brief, the position of the Employer is that this Employee Trade Union does not represent the workers. Their suspicions were confirmed when the said Employee Trade Union was not able to furnish the required particulars as undertaken by them. The Employer also denied both at the Labour Department conference and in their statement at this inquiry that they refused to employ the said workers as from 8.11.68.

At the present inquiry on 20.11.69 the Employee Union undertook to bring the twenty-eight workers to court on the next date, namely, 13.1.70. 26 out of the twenty-eight workers were present in court on that date and the inquiry commenced by the Employee Union leading evidence of one Sirisena and Edwin who are two of the twenty-eight workers mentioned in the reference. Apart from the contradictory nature of evidence of both Sirisena and Edwin they categorically said in their evidence that they had worked for the Employer even after the 8th November, 1968. This evidence of both Sirisena and Edwin are quite inconsistent and incompatible with the statement filed by the Employee Union. The Employee Union thereupon did not wish to proceed with the inquiry any further. Although the Employer in his statement made certain allegations against the Employee Union, the Employer did not pursue these matters at this inquiry. Nevertheless, I would like to mention here that it appears that the Employer had been unnecessarily brought by the Employee Union to the Department of Labour for labour conferences. The failure on the part of the Employee Union to furnish the particulars required by the Employer also indicates that the Employer has been subjected to an unfair labour practice.

The evidence at this inquiry clearly shows that even at a latter stage after the conference, and prior to this inquiry, the Employee Union has not endeavoured to ascertain the correct facts and the position of this dispute from its members. As the Employer has been without any just or fair reason been dragged to these inquiries by the Employee Union to the Department of Labour and ultimately to this court, I order the Employee Union to pay Rs. 100 as costs to the Employer, through the Assistant Commissioner of Labour (Industrial Relations) within a month of publication of this Award.

M. W. S. COORAY,
Arbitrator.

In the matter of an industrial dispute
between

Mr. D. P. Wickramasuriya, "Yamuna", Kotuwegoda, Matara
and

Insurance Corporation of Ceylon, 288, Union Place, Colombo 2.

ID. LT. 1/156/67.

The Award

The Honourable the Minister of Labour, Employment and Housing, by his order dated 4th June, 1967, under section 4 (1) of the Industrial Disputes Act, Chapter 131 of the Legislative Enactments of Ceylon (1956 Revised Edition), as amended by Acts No. 14 of 1957, 62 of 1957 and 4 of 1962, referred this dispute to this Tribunal for settlement by arbitration.

The statement of the matters in dispute accompanying the reference by the Commissioner of Labour states the dispute as follows:—

"Whether the termination of the services of Mr. D. P. Wickramasuriya is justified and to what relief he is entitled".

When this matter was taken up for inquiry on the 13th of March, 1970, Mr. D. P. Wickramasuriya, the workman in respect of whom this reference has been made appeared in person and Mr. S. P. Amarasingham instructed by Mr. Dissanayake appeared for the employer.

Of consent parties came to an amicable settlement of this dispute on the following terms:—

The respondent Corporation offers to pay a sum of Rs. 5,000 to the workman concerned as an ex-gratia payment in full and final settlement of all claims in respect of this reference.

The workman concerned accepts this amount in full and final satisfaction of all his claims.

I consider the above settlement just and equitable and make my award accordingly.

The respondent Corporation shall deposit this sum of Rs. 5,000 (Rupees five thousand only) in favour of Mr. D. P. Wickramasuriya, the workman concerned with the Assistant Commissioner of Labour, Galle, within 2 weeks of this publication of this award.

The workman, Mr. D. P. Wickramasuriya is at liberty to withdraw this sum of money once the deposit has been made by the respondent Corporation.

B. W. J. F. RODRIGO,
President,
Labour Tribunal (1).

Dated at Colombo, this 16th day of March, 1970.

IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING PUBLICATION OF GAZETTE

THE Weekly issue of the Ceylon Government Gazette is normally published on Fridays. If a Friday happens to be a Public Holiday the Gazette is published on the working day immediately preceding the Friday. Thus the last date specified for the receipt of notices for publication in the Gazette also varies depending on the incidence of public holidays in the week concerned.

The Schedule below shows the dates of publication and the latest time by which notices should be received for publication in the respective weekly Gazettes. All notices received out of times specified below will not be published. Such notices will be returned to the sender by post for necessary amendment and return if publication is desired in a subsequent issue of the Gazette. It will be in the interest of all concerned if those desirous of ensuring the timely publication of notices in the Gazette make it a point to see that sufficient time is allowed for postal transmission of notices to the Government Press.

The Government Printer does not accept payments of subscriptions for the Government Gazettes. Payments should be made direct to the Superintendent, Government Publications Bureau, P. O. Box 500, Secretariat, Colombo 1.
