W. L. P. DE MEL,
Commissioner of Labour.

Colombo 3, July 10, 1970.

In the matter of an industrial dispute between

The Ceylon General Workers' Union, 4, 1/1, Maliban Street, Colombo II,

and

Messrs. Brown & Company Limited, 481, Darley Road, Colombo 10.

Award

The Commissioner of Labour by his Order dated 28.9.69, by virtue of the powers vested in him under section 3 (1) (d) of the Industrial Disputes Act, Chapter 131 of the Legislative Enactments of Ceylon (1956 Revised Edition), as amended by Industrial Disputes (Amendment) Acts Nos. 14 and 62 of 1957, 4 of 1962 and 39 of 1968 (read with Industrial Disputes (Special Provisions) Act No. 37 of 1968) referred the above-mentioned dispute to me for settlement by arbitration.

The dispute, as set out in the Statement of the Commissioner of Labour, appended to his Order, is "whether G. V. de Silva (Watcher), is entitled to receive wages and/or any fringe benefits for the period during which he was under interdiction (i.e., 2.2.66 to 1.12.67)".

Mr. N. L. Perera of the Ceylon General Workers' Union appeared for the Union and Messrs. S. R. de Silva and K. Nagalingam, Assistant Secretaries, Employers' Federation of Ceylon, successively appeared for the Employer-Company.

The facts of the case appear to be as follows: Mr. G. V. de Silva was employed by Messrs. Brown & Company (Brown's Group) as a temporary watcher in 1965. Towards the end of 1965 the Stores of Messrs. Dunlop Limited situated within the premises of Messrs. Walker & Greig (Brown's Group) were broken into and robbed. Police investigated and charged certain persons, including De Silva the area watcher. The Union stated, which was not denied by the Company, that De Silva was at first not implicated but was required by the Police as a witness. This he refused whereupon he was arranged with complicity in the theft. The Police had then informed the Company of his prosecution for necessary action by his Employer. In the circumstances the Company had no alternative but to suspend him from his duties till the results of the case became known. In February, 1967, the Magistrate discharged De Silva but directed that a fresh plaint be filed against him. From this second case De Silva was discharged in December, 1967. The Management promptly took him back and also paid him, ex-gratia, a sum of Rs. 500 in consideration of his non-employment during the period 2.2.66 to 30.11.67 (22 months).

At the time De Silva was suspended from work he was still on a temporary (daily-pay) basis according to which his services were terminable at 24 hours notice on either side. The Company, however, did not actually discontinue him, apparently because they themselves had brought no charge or held no inquiry against him, but was merely forced to take this measure due to the Police action, pending results of the Court case.

De Silva has lost 22 months' pay as a result of his being implicated in the theft case, but it appears it would not be fair to lay the full liability for this on the Employer, who also had to employ a substitute in his place for the period. The circumstances of this case clearly indicated that an equitable compromise was necessary.

On the 30th June, 1970, parties informed me that the dispute is settled and that they have agreed on the payment by the Company to De Silva of a sum of Rs. 1,250, which does not include the sum of Rs. 500 already paid to him ex-gratia. I consider this settlement reasonable and equitable and make Award accordingly.

The sum of Rs. 1,250 was handed over to G. V. de Silva by the Company's representative, Mr. K. Mackwood in the presence of Mr. N. L. Perera the Union representative in open Court today, and the parties have signed the record in full acceptance.

Arbitrator.

The Award

This Award relates to a reference made to this Tribunal under section 4 (1) of the Industrial Disputes Act, Chapter 131 of the Legislative Enactments of Ceylon (Revised Edition 1956), as amended by subsequent Acts, for settlement by arbitration.

The matter in dispute is whether the non payment of a bonus to Mr. D. S. Gunawardena for 1968 by the Management of St. George Group, Matugama is justified and to what relief he is entitled.

When this matter was taken up for inquiry on 23.7.70 the parties arrived at the following settlement:—

- (1) Carson Cumberbatch & Co. Ltd., while denying that they are the employers of Mr. D. S. Gunawardena, on behalf of St. George Rubber Estates Ltd.; shall pay a sum of Rupees Four Hundred and Fifty (Rs. 450) without admitting liability for payment of a bonus as such.
- (2) The aforesaid sum of Rs. 450 shall be paid to Mr. D. S. Gunawardena direct on or before the 31st of July, 1970.

I consider the above settlement just and equitable and make my Award accordingly.
