No. ID/LT. 2/248.

Award

This Award relates to a reference made to this Tribunal by the Honourable Minister of Labour and Employment, under section 4 (1) of the Industrial Disputes Act, Chapter 131 of the Legislative Enactments of Ceylon (1956 Revised Edition) as amended by subsequent amending Acts. for settlement by arbitration.

The matter in dispute between the aforesaid parties is whether the termination of the services of the following workmen, by Messrs. Weerasinghe and Sirisoma, is justified and to what relief each of the workmen is entitled:—

1. Mr. G. P. M. Sena.
2. Mr. S. S. Rajah.
3. Mr. S. Chandradasa
4. Mr. M. Arak.
5. Mr. Piyadasa.
6. Mr. Gunapala.
7. Mr. A. S. Fonseka.
8. Mr. N. M. A. Jayakody.

The case for the workmen is that they were employed as labourers by Messrs. Weerasinghe and Sirisoma who were contractors to Messrs. Ceylon Tea Blending Company, for periods varying from 2 to 3½ years.

Three of the workmen gave evidence on behalf of all eight workmen in regard to their terms and conditions of employment. Chandradasa stated that he was employed as a stencil cutter and was paid Rs. 26 per week. He stated that he worked regularly for about 3½ years. On 30.12.66 Weerasinghe for no reason at all refused to give him work. Along with him, he stated, the services of another 4 or 5 workmen were similarly discontinued. N. M. A. Jayakody and W. S. Fonseka gave evidence to the same effect.

Of the two employers, only Weerasinghe was present. At the inquiry before the Tribunal, Sirisoma was not present in spite of the fact that due notice was given to him and several attempts were made to ensure his presence.

Weerasinghe in his evidence admitted that the 8 workmen were employed by Sirisoma and himself. But his position was that they (Weerasinghe and Sirisoma) had a contract with the Ceylon Tea Blending Company for a limited period of time from 1965 to 1967, for the supply of labour to do packing, blending, etc. He stated that none of the labourers employed by both of them, including the 8 workmen concerned in this dispute had regular work under them as they did not have regular work to offer because their work depended on the contracts the Ceylon Tea Blending Company received from the C.W.E. His position is that none of the workmen counted anything more than 2 to 3 months service under both of them.

Weerasinghe, however, under cross-examination admitted that they had not maintained any records of their labour force. He stated that he was not concerned with labour regulations because the contract was for one year.

Weerasinghe's evidence regarding the terms and conditions of employment of the 8 workmen is unconvincing. It was obviously their duty to maintain records of the labour force. In the absence of such records I would prefer to accept the evidence of the workmen regarding their terms and conditions of employment.

Some of the workmen have stated that they had worked for three years. This does not appear to be correct. It is clear from the evidence that Weerasinghe and Sirisoma were only contractors of the Ceylon Tea Blending Company for a definite period of time, namely, from 1965 to 1967. Their contract had ended in 1967. As such the total period of employment of these workmen could not have been anything more than 2 to 2½ years.

On the evidence placed before the Tribunal it would also appear that the workmen were unaware as to who their actual employer was, because of the fact that they worked on the premises of the Ceylon Tea Blending Company. They had apparently acted in the belief that they were assured of regular employment under the Ceylon Tea Blending Company. It seems to me that Weerasinghe and Sirisoma who actually employed these workmen should have made it known to the workmen who their actual employer was.

On the above evidence I hold that the 8 workmen were regular employees under Weerasinghe and Sirisoma, and their services were terminated without notice, which is wrongful.

In regard to the question of relief, it is to be noted that Weerasinghe and Sirisoma are no longer contractors. Their contract had ended in 1967 and the question of reinstatement is therefore impossible.

In all the circumstances, therefore, I make my award granting the following relief to the workmen concerned:—

Each of the 8 workmen shall be entitled to Rupees One hundred and thirty (Rs. 130) being approximately one month's wages in lieu of notice and a further sum of Rupees One hundred and thirty (Rs. 130) being gratuity for their two year period of employment.

The aggregate sum of Rupees Two thousand and eighty (Rs. 2,080) shall be deposited with the Assistant Commissioner of Labour, Colombo North, on or before 1st November, 1970, by the two employers in equal shares for payment to the workmen.

In considering the above relief, I have taken into consideration the fact that the two employers have failed even to make their E. P. F. contributions.

Award

An Industrial Dispute between the parties abovenamed was referred to this Tribunal by the Honourable Minister of Labour and Employment under section 4 (1) of the Industrial Disputes Act, Chapter 131, as subsequently amended, for settlement by arbitration. The matter in dispute between the aforesaid parties is whether the termination of employment of said A. Sandanam, Arockiamarey and Therasammal of Ingestre Group, Dickoya, by the management of said Ingestre Group, Dickoya, is justified and to what relief each of them is entitled.

When this matter was taken up for inquiry on 19th August, 1970, after prolonged discussions, the following agreement was arrived at:—

A. Sandanam will report back for work on the 1st of September, 1970, and he will be allocated any work other than Line Sweeper's work. He will have no claim for back wages. The period of non-employment will not be considered as a break in service for terminal benefits.

Since Arockiamarey is unfit to work she wishes to be retired and she will hand over a medical certificate to that effect on production of which the management will pay her the retiring gratuity she will be entitled to in terms of the Collective Agreement, No. 3 of 1967. It is agreed between the parties that the period of service of the woman concerned is 17 years and she will be entitled to gratuity accordingly.

Therasammal will report for work on 1st September, 1970. She will not be entitled to any back wages. The period of non-employment will not be considered as a break in service.

This settlement that the parties have come to is approved and the Award is made in terms of the settlement.
