Health Officer's Report for the Month of December, 1899.

SIR,—I HAVE the honour to forward my report for the month of December, 1899.

Scavenging.—The scavenging of the town has been particularly well carried out during the month.

Drainage.—The larger drains remain still in an unsatisfactory condition owing to defective construction. The smaller surface drains, both built and unbuilt, were kept clean and in a satisfactory state. All the drains were thoroughly flushed by the rains that fell during the month.

Market.—The market was clean and well kept; the beef, mutton, and fish stalls are in a satisfactory condition. The vegetable stalls require to be reconstructed on the plan of the beef stalls.

Food Supply.—The food supply is ample, and the quality of the beef, mutton, fish, vegetables, &c., has been good and wholesome. 498 cattle, 136 buffaloes, 91 sheep, and 370 goats were slaughtered during the month. When inspected they were all healthy.

Bakeries.—There are 11 bakeries within Municipal limits; of these, two were found to be in an unsatisfactory condition. The owners of these establishments have been prosecuted, and directions have been given to prosecute them again.

Dairies.—Of the four dairies in town, one was found to be in an unsatisfactory condition owing to want of space for the number of cattle stabled. Orders have been issued to reduce the number of cattle, so that the place may be kept clean and sweet.

Both bakeries and dairies are almost daily inspected by the Inspectors of the respective wards, weekly by the Chief Inspector, and periodically by me.

Laundries.—With a few exceptions of which a report has been submitted, the laundries are in a satisfactory condition. They require limewashing, which has been ordered.

Alleys.—Every attention is being paid to keep these localities clean, but no permanent improvement can be expected till they are pulled down and rebuilt on proper sanitary methods.

Exposing Shed and Slaughter House.—Clean and in order.

Cooly Lines.—All in order, excepting the one by the railway approach road, belonging to the Municipality and those at Mahaiyawa

Water Supply.—Good and ample (vide report).

General Health.—The health of the town has been exceptionally good.

12. The Company may at any time reduce the capital, with all or any of the incidents prescribed or allowed by Ordinance, and may consolidate and divide the capital or any part thereof into shares of larger or less amount than the original shares, in the manner and with all or any of the incidents prescribed or allowed by Ordinance, and may (subject to these Articles) exercise any of such powers so as to deal specially with any class of Shareholders.

17. When a share has been forfeited, and the certificate thereof is not delivered up to the Company, the Board may issue a new certificate of the share, distinguishing it as they think fit from the certificate so not delivered up.

18. The registered holders of shares shall (so far as concerns the Company) be deemed the only persons interested therein, both legally and equitably, and the Company shall not be bound by or recognize any trust to which any share may be subject, though having express notice thereof, or any right or interest in respect of a share (whether equitable, contingent, future, or partial) other than an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder thereof for the time being, and such right in case of transmission as herein-after mentioned.

19. If several persons are registered as joint-holders of any share, any one of those persons may give effectual receipts and discharges for any dividend, bonus, return of capital or other sum of money payable in respect of such share.

CALLS ON SHARES.

20. With respect to any shares not issued as paid up, the Board may, by the conditions of allotment, require the whole or any part of the nominal amount thereof to be paid up by such instalments and at such dates as they think fit; and every such instalment shall, when due, be paid to the Company, or as the Board may direct, by the holder of the shares.

21. The Board may from time to time make such calls as they think fit upon the members in respect of all moneys unpaid on the shares held by them and not by the conditions of the allotment thereof made payable at fixed dates, and every member shall pay the amount of every call so made upon him to the persons and at the times and places appointed by the Board.

22. Fourteen days' notice at the least shall be given of each call, specifying the time and place of payment and to whom such call shall be paid. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorizing such call was passed.

Nevertheless the Board shall have full discretion not to enforce payment of such interest.

24. Joint holders of shares shall be severally as well as jointly liable for all instalments and calls payable in respect thereof.

25. The Board may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same the whole or any part of the moneys for the time being remaining unpaid on his shares, and upon the moneys so paid in advance, or so much thereof as from time to time exceeds the amount actually payable upon the shares in respect whereof such advances have been made, the Company may pay interest at such rate as the member paying such moneys in advance and the Board agree upon, but any amount so for the time being paid in advance of calls shall not be included or taken into account in ascertaining the amount of the dividend payable upon the share in respect of which such advance has been made.

TRANSMISSION AND TRANSFER OF SHARES.

26. In the case of the death of any Shareholder, the survivors or survivor where the deceased was a joint holder, and the executors or administrators of the deceased where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to his share; but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share jointly held by him.

27. Any person becoming entitled to any share in consequence of the death, insolvency, or bankruptcy at any time of any holder of such a share, may, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, and upon producing such evidence of title as the Board may require, either be himself registered as the holder of the share, or elect to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof.

28. If the person so becoming entitled to a share shall elect to be registered himself, he shall serve upon the Company a notice in writing, signed by him, stating that he so elects. For all purposes of these Articles relating to the registration of transfers of shares such notice shall be deemed to be a transfer, and the Board shall have the same power of refusing to give effect thereto by registration as if the event upon which the transmission took place had not occurred, and the notice were a transfer executed by the person from whom the title by transmission is derived.

29. If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to have his nominee registered, he shall testify his election by executing to his nominee a transfer of such share. The Board shall have in respect of transfers so executed the same power of refusing registration as if the event upon which the transmission took place had not occurred, and the transfer were a transfer executed by the person from whom the title by transmission is derived.

30. A person entitled to a share by transmission shall not be entitled to receive notices of, or to attend, or vote at meetings of the Company, or, save as aforesaid, to any of the rights or privileges of a member, unless and until he is registered as a member in respect of the share.

31. No share shall, without the express sanction of the Board, be transferred to any person other than an original Shareholder of the Company who is still a member thereof and holds at least ten shares of the Company, so long as there shall be any such member and he be willing to purchase the same at the fair value.

32. In order to ascertain whether any such member is willing to purchase a share, the proposing transferor shall give notice in writing (hereinafter called the "Transfer Notice") to the Secretary of the Company that he desires to transfer the same. Such notice shall specify the sum he fixes as the fair value, and shall constitute the Directors of the Company his agent for the sale of the share to any such member of the Company at the price so fixed, or, at the option of the purchaser, at a price to be fixed as hereinafter provided by Article 34. The transfer notice may include several shares, and in such case shall operate as if it were a separate notice in respect of each. A transfer notice shall not be revocable except with the consent of the Directors.

33. If the Directors of the Company shall within fifteen days after being served with such notice find a member willing to purchase the share (hereinafter called the "Proposed Purchasing Member"), and shall forthwith give notice thereof to the proposing transferor, he shall be bound, upon payment of the fair value as fixed by himself, to transfer the share to the purchasing member.

34. If the proposing transferor and the proposed purchasing member shall not be able to agree as to the fair value of a share, the proposing transferor shall be at liberty to offer the same for sale to any other person, but shall not be at liberty to sell the same to such other person without giving the proposed purchasing member the option of purchasing the same at the price at which the proposing transferor is prepared to sell to such other person; and if the proposed purchasing member agrees to purchase such share at such price, the proposing transferor shall be bound upon payment of such price to transfer the share to such proposed purchasing member.

35. If the proposing transferor, after having become bound as aforesaid, makes default in transferring the share, the Company may receive the purchase money and shall thereupon cause the name of the purchasing member to be entered on the register as the holder of the share, and shall hold the purchase money in trust for the proposing transferor. The receipt of the Company for the purchase money shall be a good discharge to the purchasing member, and after his name has been entered on the register in purported exercise of the aforesaid power, the validity of the proceedings shall not be questioned by any person.

36. If the Directors shall not, within fifteen days after the Secretary of the Company has been served with the transfer notice, find a member willing to purchase the shares and forthwith give notice in manner aforesaid, the proposing transferor shall at any time within three calendar months afterwards be at liberty, subject to Article 41, to sell and transfer the shares (or those not placed) to any person and at any price.

37. Subject to the provisions and restrictions of these Articles any member may transfer all or any of his shares, but every transfer must be in writing in the usual common form, and must be left at the office of the Company, with the certificates of the shares to be transferred and such other evidence (if any) as the Board require to prove the title of the intending transferor.

38. The instrument of transfer of any share shall be executed both by the transferor and the transferee, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the share until the name of the transferee is registered in the Register of Members in respect thereof.

39. The Company shall provide a book or books to be called the "Register of Transfers," which shall be kept by the Secretary under the control of the Board, and in which shall be entered particulars of every transfer or transmission of shares.

40. The Board shall have power to refuse to register the transfer of any share, not being a fully paid share, on any of the following grounds:—

- (1) That the transferor or one of the transferors is indebted to the Company, or is under any obligation to the Company on any bill or note, or other contract remaining unfulfilled, or that the shares dealt with by the transfer are subject to a lien to the Company.
- (2) That the transfer has not been effected according to these Articles, or is in contravention of any agreement made by the transferor.
- (3) That the transferee is, in the opinion of the Board, an irresponsible, unfit, or undesirable person to be a member, or that the transfer will not be conducive to the interests of the Company.

41. All instruments of transfer, where the transfer is registered, shall be retained by the Company, but any instrument of transfer, where the Board decline to register the transfer, shall be returned to the person depositing the same.

42. The Board shall not be required to furnish any reason for declining to register a transfer, but in the event of their so declining, they shall, on the request of the Shareholders desirous of transferring, convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company to consider whether such transfer shall be registered or not, and the resolution of such meeting shall be conclusive, and shall be complied with.

43. Such fee, not exceeding rupees two and cents fifty for each transfer, as the Board may from time to time determine, may be charged by the Company for the registration of a transfer.

44. The transfer books shall be closed during such time, not exceeding fourteen days at one time and thirty days in any year, as the Board may from time to time determine.

45. The Board may, by such means as they shall deem expedient, authorize the registration of transferees as Shareholders without the necessity of any meeting of the Board for the purpose.

LIEN OF SHARES.

46. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien and charge on all the shares (not being fully paid) registered in the name of a member, whether solely or jointly with another or others, for all money due to the Company from him or his estate, either alone or jointly with any other person, whether a member or not, and whether the money is presently payable or not.

47. For the purpose of enforcing this lien, the Board may sell the shares subject thereto in such manner as they think fit, but the sale shall not be made until the time at which the money is presently payable, or until a demand or notice in writing, stating the amount due and demanding payment, and giving notice of intention to sell in default, has been served on the member or the persons (if any) entitled by transmission to the shares, and default in payment has been made by him or them for seven days after the notice.

48. The net proceeds of any such sale shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of the amount due, and the residue (if any) shall be paid to the member or the person entitled by transmission to the shares.

49. On any such sale as aforesaid, the Board may enter the purchaser's name in the register as the holder of the shares, and the purchaser shall not be bound to see to the regularity or validity of, or be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in, the proceedings, or be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, and after his name has been entered in the register the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person, and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively.

FORFEITURE AND SURRENDER OF SHARES.

50. If any member shall fail to pay any instalment or call on or before the day appointed for payment thereof, the Board may at any time thereafter during such time as the instalment or call shall remain unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring him to pay the same, together with all interest that may have accrued, and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company, by reason of such non-payment.

51. The notice shall name a further day, on or before which such instalment or call and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. It shall also name the place where payment is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed the shares in respect of which such call was made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.

52. If the terms of any such notice as aforesaid be not complied with, any shares in respect of which such notice shall have been given may, at any time thereafter, before payment of all instalments or calls, interest, and expenses due in respect thereof has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect.

53. Every share so forfeited, and all dividends or profits in respect thereof, and all rights and interests in respect of such share, shall be deemed to be the absolute property of the Company.

54. Any member whose shares may have been forfeited shall, notwithstanding such forfeiture, be liable to pay to the Company all calls or instalments owing upon such shares at the time of the forfeiture thereof, and all such expenses as aforesaid, and the interest which may have accrued in respect thereof up to the day of the shares being forfeited, and the payment thereof may be enforced by the Company, notwithstanding such forfeiture, and without any allowance or deduction for the value of the share at the time of forfeiture.

55. When any share shall have been forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be given to the holder of the share, and an entry of the forfeiture, with the date thereof, shall be made on the Register of Members, but the provisions of this Article are directory only, and no forfeiture shall be in any manner invalidated by any omission or neglect to give such notice or to make such entry as aforesaid.

56. The Board may at any time accept the surrender of any shares from any holder thereof desirous of surrendering the same on such terms as the Board shall in each case determine.

57. The Board may sell any forfeited or surrendered shares, or extinguish or cancel the same, or re-issue the same on such terms as they may think fit.

58. The Board may, on the application of the former holder of forfeited shares, at any time before the same are disposed of, remit such forfeiture on such terms as they shall think fit to impose, but it shall not be obligatory upon them to do so.

59. In giving effect to a sale of forfeited or surrendered shares the Board may execute under the Company's seal a transfer of such shares to the purchaser thereof, and such transfer shall operate to confer the same rights on the transferee as if the shares had not been forfeited or surrendered, and the transfer had been executed by the registered holder thereof.

60. The Register of Members shall be conclusive evidence of title to a share, as against any person claiming as a former holder of a share which the Board shall have purported to forfeit, and the remedy of any Shareholder for any irregularity in any forfeiture of a share shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively.

GENERAL MEETINGS.

61. The first General Meeting shall be held within 12 months after the incorporation of the Company.

62. An Ordinary Meeting shall be held once in each year, and all General Meetings shall be held at such time and place as the Board may from time to time determine.

63. The Board may, whenever they think fit, and shall upon a requisition in writing left at the office, signed by at least six members holding in the aggregate not less than one-fifth in nominal amount of the issued capital, and entitled by these Articles to be present and vote at the meeting to which the requisition relates, convene an Extraordinary Meeting.

64. Any requisition so made by the members shall express the object for which the meeting is to be called, and the resolutions to be proposed thereat.

65. If the Board do not upon the receipt of such requisition convene an Extraordinary Meeting within twenty-one days from the service thereof, the requisitionists or any four of them may, if entitled as aforesaid to be present and vote, themselves convene an Extraordinary Meeting by notice to the members, provided that such meeting shall be held within two months after the time of leaving such requisition as aforesaid.

66. Seven days' notice at the least (exclusive of the day on which the notice is served or deemed to be served, but inclusive of the day for which the notice is given) of every Ordinary or Extraordinary Meeting specifying the time and place of meeting, and the special business (if any) to be transacted thereat, shall be given by circular to each member entitled under these Articles to receive notice of the meeting, and no special business shall be transacted at any General Meeting other than that of which notice has been given pursuant to these Articles.

67. Neither the accidental omission to give any notice to, or the non-receipt of any notice by, any member shall invalidate the proceedings of any General Meeting.

68. All business shall be deemed special except sanctioning a dividend, the consideration or adoption of the accounts, balance sheets, and ordinary report of the Directors and Auditors, and the election of Directors and Auditors.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS.

69. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting except the choice of a Chairman and the declaration of a dividend, unless a quorum of members be present previously to the commencement of such business, and such quorum shall be three members present in person.

70. If within half an hour from the time appointed for any General Meeting a quorum of members shall not be or have been obtained, such meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved, and in any other case shall stand adjourned until such day and time and be held at such place as may be determined by the Chairman of the meeting; and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present, those Shareholders who are present shall form a quorum, and may transact the business for which the meeting was called.

71. The Board shall from time to time elect a Director to preside as Chairman at every meeting of the Company.

72. If no Director be present at a meeting, or if such Directors as may be present decline to take the chair, the members present shall choose some one of their number to be Chairman of such meeting.

73. The Chairman presiding at any meeting may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn such meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

74. At every General Meeting all questions shall be determined in the first instance by a show of hands.

75. A declaration by the Chairman of any General Meeting that a resolution has, upon a show of hands, been carried, or carried by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, shall be conclusive, and an entry to that effect in the book of proceedings of the Company shall be sufficient evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution; but if upon such declaration being made a poll shall be demanded by a notice in writing signed by at least three members present in person and entitled to vote at such meeting, which notice shall be handed during the meeting to the Chairman, the same shall be taken accordingly, but no poll shall be taken on any vote relating to the appointment of a Chairman, or any question of adjournment.

76. If a poll be demanded in manner aforesaid, the same shall be taken in such manner and either immediately or at such time and place as the Chairman shall direct, and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

77. In the case of an equality of votes, either on a show of hands or at the poll, the Chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place, or at which the poll is demanded, as the case may be, shall have a casting vote in addition to any votes he may be entitled to as a member.

78. The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.

VOTES OF MEMBERS.

79. Every member at every meeting at which he is entitled to vote shall, in the case of a poll, have one vote for every share held by him up to five, an additional vote for any further shares held by him up to twenty-five, an additional vote for every further twenty-five shares held by him up to one hundred, and an additional vote for every one hundred shares held by him beyond the first hundred; and in the case of a show of hands one vote only.

80. If two or more persons be jointly entitled to any share, either or any, but only one of them, shall be entitled to attend a meeting and vote in respect of such share; and if the joint holders cannot arrange amongst themselves as to which of them shall vote (or give proxies and exercise such other rights and powers as are conferred on a Shareholder), the holder whose name stands first on the register of shares shall vote (or give proxies and exercise those rights and powers).

81. No member, except a member registered during the first six months from the registration of the Company, shall be entitled to vote, either personally or by proxy, at any meeting until he shall have been the registered holder of his shares, or some of them, two months at least, and then only in respect of such shares as he may have had for such period, unless such shares shall have been acquired by reason of the death of a member, in which case the period for which the deceased member held the shares in respect of which the vote is claimed shall be reckoned in computing the said period of two months.

82. A member becoming lunatic may vote by his committee, but otherwise no vote shall be given in respect of a share registered in the name of a person under disability.

83. No member shall be entitled to vote or exercise any rights or privileges of a member in respect of any share upon which any instalment or call shall be in arrear.

84. Votes may be given either personally or by proxy. A proxy shall be appointed in writing, under the hand of the appointor or person entitled to vote, or, if such appointor shall be a corporation, under its common seal. Proxies, which may be issued by the Board at the expense of the Company, may be in the following form, or to the following effect, and shall be duly stamped:—

I, the undersigned, a member of "THE PLUMBAGO MINING COMPANY, LIMITED," hereby appoint _____, also a member of the Company, or him failing _____, another member of the Company, to act as my proxy and to vote for me and on my behalf at the (Ordinary or Extraordinary) General Meeting (or Adjourned General meeting) of the Company, to be held on the _____ day of _____, and at any adjournment thereof.

Dated this _____ day of _____.

85. Where any proxy shall not be in the above form, or as near thereto as circumstances will admit, the same shall be subject to the approval of the Board.

86. No Shareholder shall be disqualified from voting by reason of his being personally interested in the result of the voting.

87. No objection shall be made to the validity of any vote (whether given personally or by proxy) except at the meeting or poll at which such vote shall be tendered, and every vote (whether given personally or by proxy) to which no objection shall be made at such meeting or poll shall be deemed valid for all purposes of such meeting or poll.

88. No person except a member entitled to vote at a meeting shall be appointed a proxy (provided that a corporation holding shares may appoint any one of its Directors a proxy), and the instrument appointing him shall be lodged at the office of the Company not less than forty-eight hours before the time for holding the meeting for which such proxy may have been given.

DIRECTORS.

89. The number of Directors shall not be less than three, nor more than five, provided that a General Meeting may increase or, by directing that any vacancy then subsisting or subsequently occurring be not filled up, may reduce the number of Directors for the time being.

90. The first Directors shall be W. B. Kingsbury, G. H. Alston, C. E. Haslop, R. W. Harrison, and J. P. Morton, who shall hold office till the first Ordinary General Meeting of the Company, when they shall all retire, but shall be eligible for re-election.

91. The qualification of a Director shall be the holding of shares of the Company of the nominal amount of Rs. 500.

92. The General Meeting at which Directors retire, or ought to retire by rotation, shall elect an equal number of duly qualified persons to supply the places of the retiring Directors; and in default of its so doing, they shall be elected at a subsequent General Meeting.

93. At the Ordinary Meeting in the year 1901, and at the Ordinary Meeting in each subsequent year, two of the Directors shall retire from office, and the meeting may elect an equal number of duly qualified persons to supply their places.

94. The order in which the Directors shall retire shall be determined among themselves by agreement, or, failing agreement, by ballot, as the Board may resolve.

95. Any retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election, but a member not being a retiring Director, or one recommended by the Directors, shall not be qualified to be elected a Director, unless written notice of his intention to offer himself for election is given to the Company not less than fourteen clear days, nor more than one month before the day of the election of the Directors.

96. Whenever an Ordinary Meeting fails to elect Directors in lieu of Directors whose places ought to be filled up at such meeting, then the retiring Directors, or those of them whose places ought to have been but have not been filled up, shall (if willing and able to act), and subject to the right of the Company to reduce the number of Directors as aforesaid, remain in office until the Ordinary Meeting in the year following.

97. Any Director may vacate his office on giving notice in writing to the Board of his intention to retire.

98. Any casual vacancy in the number of Directors may be filled up by the Board, subject to the approval of the next Ordinary Meeting, but any person so chosen shall retain his office only so long as the vacating Director would have retained the same if he had not vacated it.

99. The continuing Directors for the time being may act, notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, provided that if the Directors be at any time reduced in number to less than two they may act only for the purpose of filling up a vacancy in their body, and not for any other purpose.

100. The Company may, by special resolution, remove any Director before the expiration of his period of office, and may by an ordinary resolution appoint a qualified Shareholder in his stead, and the Director so appointed shall, in all respects, stand in the place of his predecessor.

101. The remuneration to be paid to the Directors for their services shall be fixed by the Company at the first Ordinary General Meeting, and such remuneration shall be divided between the Directors in such manner as they may agree, or in default of agreement equally. Such remuneration shall not be considered as including any remuneration for special or extra services hereinafter referred to, nor any extra remuneration to the managing Director of the Company. The Company in General Meeting may at any time alter the amount of the remuneration so fixed.

102. Every Director shall be entitled to be paid out of the funds of the Company all travelling expenses which he shall be authorized by the Board to incur. If in the opinion of the Board it is desirable that any member of the Board should perform any special services on behalf of the Company, such Director shall be paid such reasonable additional remuneration as the Board may think fit.

DISQUALIFICATION OF DIRECTORS.

103. Any Director shall forthwith become disqualified and incapable of continuing to hold such office—

- (1) If he shall cease to hold the number of shares necessary for his qualification ;
- (2) If he shall become insolvent or take the benefit of any Ordinance for the time being in force for the relief of insolvent debtors, or compound or arrange with his creditors, or become lunatic or of unsound mind.
- (3) If he shall be absent from the Board for six consecutive months without the consent of the Board in writing.
- (4) If he shall be absent from or have left the Island, and the Board shall pass a resolution that he has thereby vacated his office as Director.

104. Any Director may, notwithstanding his holding the office of Director, or of his fiduciary relation to the Company, enter into or be interested in any contract or arrangement with, or any operation or business undertaken by, the Company, either in his individual capacity, or as a member of any other company, or of any partnership, entering into contracts or having dealings with the Company or otherwise, and shall be at liberty to retain for his own absolute benefit all profits or benefits which he may derive under or by reason of any such contract, arrangement, operation, or business, and shall not be disqualified as a Director on account thereof; nevertheless, to entitle himself to the benefit of this Article, such Director shall, before any such contract, arrangement, operation, or business is determined on, or if he shall not have become interested therein at that time, or if he shall not be aware that he is so interested, then so soon as reasonably practicable after the acquisition of his interest, or his knowledge thereof, give notice to the Board of the fact of his being a party to or interested in such contract, arrangement, operation, or business, and, so far as the Board shall require him to do so, give particulars of the nature and extent of his interest; but no Director shall be entitled to vote at Board Meetings in respect of any contract, arrangement, operation, or business in which he may be so interested as aforesaid, except that any of the Directors referred to in Article 90 may take part in and vote on the adoption and carrying into effect of the purchase from the Plumbago Syndicate hereinbefore referred to, and the option granted the said Syndicate by the Vogan Tea Company of Ceylon, Limited.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS.

105. The Directors may meet together for the despatch of business at such times and places as they may think fit, and make such regulations as they think proper for summoning and holding their meetings, and for the transaction of business thereat, and for determining the quorum necessary for the transaction of business. Until otherwise determined the quorum necessary for the transaction of business shall be two.

106. All Board Meetings shall be held in Colombo, or at such other place as the Board may from time to time fix, and any such meeting shall be convened on the request of any Director. It shall not be necessary, to constitute a valid meeting of the Board, to give any notice thereof to any Director who may be out of Ceylon.

107. The Directors shall elect a Chairman of their Board, and determine the period for which he is to hold office. The Chairman so elected shall preside at all meetings of the Board; but if there be at any time no Chairman, or if at any meeting the Chairman be not present within ten minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, the Directors present shall choose some one of their number to act as Chairman of the meeting, and the Director so chosen shall preside at such meeting accordingly.

108. All questions arising at a Board shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the Directors present, and each Director shall have one vote only. In case of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

109. All acts done by the Directors shall, notwithstanding it may afterwards be discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any Director, or that he was disqualified, be as valid as if such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to act as a Director.

110. The Board may by resolution delegate any of their powers, other than the power to make calls, to such Committee or Committees, consisting of such one or more of the Directors as the Board shall think fit, and may from time to time revoke and discharge any such appointment or delegation of power, either wholly or in part, and either as to persons or purposes; but every Committee so formed shall, in the exercise of the powers delegated, conform to all such regulations as are prescribed by the Board. All acts done by any such Committee in conformity with such regulations and in fulfilment of the purpose of their appointment, but not otherwise, shall have the like force and effect as if done by the Board.

111. The Board shall cause minutes to be made in books to be provided for the purpose—

- (a) Of all appointments of officers made by the Board.
- (b) Of the names of Directors present at each meeting of the Board and of a Committee of Directors.
- (c) Of all resolutions passed by and proceedings which took place at meetings of the Company and of the Directors and Committees of Directors.

Any such minutes as aforesaid, if purporting to be signed by the Chairman of the meeting, at which such appointments were made, or such Directors were present, or such resolutions were passed or proceedings took place (as the case may be), or by the Chairman of the following meeting of the Company or Directors or Committee (as the case may be), shall be sufficient evidence without any further proof of the facts therein stated.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD.

112. The business of the Company shall be managed by the Board, who may pay out of the funds of the Company all or any of the expenses of or incidental to the formation or establishment of the Company, and may exercise all such powers of the Company as are not by Ordinance or by these Articles required to be exercised by the Company in General Meeting, subject nevertheless to these Articles, to the provisions of the Companies' Ordinances, and to such regulations (not inconsistent with the aforesaid regulations and provisions) as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting; but no regulations made by the Company in General Meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if such regulations had not been made.

113. More particularly, and without limiting or controlling the effect of the last preceding Article, or the exercise by the Board of any general or specific powers which may be exercisable by them as incident to their office, or by virtue of the Company's regulations, or by Ordinance or otherwise, it shall be lawful for the Board in their absolute discretion, and without any responsibility for any exercise of such discretion, to exercise on behalf of the Company, and in the name of the Company or otherwise, all and each or any of the following specific powers; that is to say:—

- (i.) To procure subscriptions for shares, and to allot and issue shares (including themselves amongst the persons to whom shares are allotted), to procure subscriptions for, or sell and dispose of, and either at a premium, at a discount, or at par, debenture stock, debentures, bonds, or other securities or obligations, and subject to these Articles to issue and allot or dispose of the same.
- (ii.) To obtain or acquire from any Government, authority, association, or private persons any concessions, licenses, or authorizations relative to or for the purposes of the Company's business, and to fulfil all conditions thereof.
- (iii.) To regulate and control the custody, management, and expenditure of the moneys and funds of the Company as the Board may think fit, and to contract any debts or liabilities, give any guarantees, give credit, and generally to make and enter into or vary any contracts, or incur any risks or liabilities whatsoever, in the name and on behalf of the Company, in relation to its property, business, or affairs.
- (iv.) To purchase or acquire in perpetuity, or for any less interest, and for the purposes of the Company, any real or personal, movable or immovable property, rights, powers, privileges, or benefits.
- (v.) To make any payment, or to satisfy any claim, or the consideration for any purchase or acquisition, either in cash or wholly or partly in shares treated as wholly or partly paid up, or in bonds, debenture stock, debentures, or other securities, or evidences of liability of the Company.
- (vi.) To lease, license, take in exchange, or otherwise acquire in the name of the Company, or to sell, let on lease or on hire, grant licenses or other rights under or in respect of, or otherwise deal with or dispose of any inventions, processes, patents, licenses, privileges, or real or personal, movable or immovable property of any description, for any pecuniary or other consideration paid or agreed to be paid.
- (vii.) To take or accept on behalf of the Company, and either in the name of the Company or otherwise, any security, real or personal, movable or immovable, or otherwise, for the payment of any debt which shall from time to time be owing to the Company, whether the term or time of credit for the same has expired or not, or for the performance of any contract entered into with the Company or otherwise for the indemnity, protection, or advantage of the Company, and to sell, assign, transfer, or otherwise deal with any security which shall be so taken.

- (viii.) To raise and borrow money in the name and for the purposes of the Company, on such terms and conditions as to time of repayment, rate of interest, and generally under and subject to such conditions as the Board shall think fit.
- (ix.) 23. Board may decline to Register Transfers.—The Board may, at their own absolute and uncontrolled discretion, decline to register any transfer of shares by Shareholder who is indebted to the Company, or upon whose shares the Company have a lien or otherwise, or to any person not approved by them.

24. Not bound to state Reason.—In no case shall a Shareholder or proposed transferee be entitled to require the Directors to state the reason of their refusal to register, but their decision shall be absolute.

25. Registration of Transfers.—Every instrument of transfer must be left at the office of the Company to be registered, accompanied by such evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to prove the title of the transferee, and a fee of rupees two and cents fifty, or such other sum as the Directors shall from time to time determine, must be paid; and thereupon the Directors, subject to the powers vested in them by Articles 23, 24, and 26, shall register the transferee as a Shareholder and retain the instrument of transfer.

26. The Directors may, by such means as they shall deem expedient, authorize the registration of transferees as Shareholders without the necessity of any meeting of the Directors for that purpose.

27. Directors not bound to inquire as to validity of Transfer.—In no case shall the Directors be bound to inquire into the validity, legal effect, or genuineness of any instrument of transfer produced by a person claiming as transferee of any share in accordance with these Articles; and whether they abstain from so inquiring, or do so inquire and are misled, the transferor shall have no claim whatsoever upon the Company in respect of the share, except for the dividends previously declared in respect thereof, but only, if at all, upon the transferee.

28. Transfer Books when to be closed.—The transfer books may be closed during the fourteen days immediately preceding each Ordinary General Meeting, including the first General Meeting; also when a dividend is declared, for the three next days ensuing the meeting.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES.

29. Title to Shares of deceased Holder.—The executors or administrators of a deceased Shareholder shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to the shares of such Shareholder.

30. Registration of Persons entitled to Shares otherwise than by Transfer.—The guardian of an infant Shareholder, or the Committee of a lunatic Shareholder or any person becoming legally entitled to shares in consequence of the death or insolvency of any Shareholder, or the marriage of any female Shareholder, or in any other way than by transfer, shall upon furnishing such evidence of title as the Board may require be registered subject to the provisions herein contained as the holder of such shares; or have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof, subject to the regulations as to transfers hereinbefore contained; and subject in either case to the payment of a fee of Rs. 2.50.

31. Failing such Registration Shares may be sold by the Company.—If any member who shall become entitled to be registered in respect of any share shall not, from any cause whatever, within twelve calendar months after the event on the happening of which his title shall accrue, be registered in respect of such share; or if in the case of the death of any Shareholder no member shall within twelve calendar months after such death be registered as a Shareholder in respect of the shares of such deceased Shareholder, the Company may sell such shares to a member or to members of the Club, either by public auction or private contract, and give a receipt for the purchase money.

In either of such cases the purchaser or purchasers shall be entitled to be registered in respect of such share, and shall not be bound to inquire whether the events have happened which entitled the Company to sell the same, and the net proceeds of such sale, after deducting all expenses and all moneys in respect of which the Company is entitled to a lien on the share so sold, shall be paid to the person entitled thereto.

SHARES (SURRENDER AND FORFEITURE).

32. The Directors may accept surrender of Shares.—The Directors may accept, in the name and for the benefit of the Company, and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed, a surrender of the shares of Shareholders who may be desirous of retiring from the Company.

33. If Call or Instalment be not paid, notice to be given to Shareholder.—If any Shareholder fail to pay any call or instalment on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same, the Directors may, at any time thereafter, during such time as the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on such Shareholder, requiring him to pay the same, together with any interest that may have accrued, and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.

Terms of Notice.—The notice shall name a day (not being less than one month from the date of the notice) and a place or places at which such call or instalment and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The notice shall also state that, in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which the call was made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.

In default of payment Shares to be forfeited.—If the requisition of such notice as aforesaid be not complied with, every or any share or shares in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before payment of calls or instalments, interest, and expenses due in respect thereof, be declared forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect.

Shareholder still liable to pay Money owing at time of Forfeiture.—Any Shareholder whose shares have been so declared forfeited shall, notwithstanding, be liable to pay, and shall forthwith pay to the Company all calls, instalments, interest, and expenses owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of the forfeiture, together with interest thereon from the time of forfeiture until payment, at nine per cent. per annum; and the Directors may enforce the payment thereof if they think fit.

34. Surrendered or forfeited Shares to be Property of Company, and may be sold, &c.—Every share surrendered or so declared forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and may be sold, reallocated, or otherwise disposed of upon such terms and in such manner as the Board shall think fit.

35. Effect of Surrender or Forfeiture.—The surrender or forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction of all interest in, and also of all claims and demands against, the Company in respect of the share and the proceeds thereof, and all other rights incident to the share, except only such of those rights (if any) as by these presents are expressly saved.

36. Certificate of Surrender or Forfeiture.—A certificate in writing under the hands of two of the Directors and of the Secretary, that a share has been duly surrendered or forfeited, stating the time when it was surrendered or forfeited, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons who would have been entitled to the share but for such surrender or forfeiture; and such certificate and the receipt of the Company for the price of such share shall constitute a good title to such share, and a certificate of proprietorship shall be delivered to any member who may purchase the same from the Company, and thereupon such purchaser shall be deemed the holder of such share discharged from all calls due prior to such purchase; and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to such share be affected by any irregularity in the proceedings in reference to such forfeiture or sale.

Forfeiture may be remitted.—The Directors may in their discretion remit or annul the forfeiture of any share within six months from the date thereof upon the payment of all moneys due to the Company from the late holder or holders of such share or shares, and all expenses incurred in relation to such forfeiture, together with such further sum of money by way of redemption money, for the deficit, as they shall think fit, not being less than nine per cent. on the amount of the sums wherein default in payment had been made, but no share, bonâ fide sold or re-allotted, or otherwise disposed of under Article 34 hereof, shall be redeemable after sale or disposal.

37. Company's Lien on Shares.—The Company shall have a first charge or paramount lien upon all the shares of any holder or joint-holders, for all moneys for the time being due to the Company by such holder, or by all or any of such joint-holders respectively, either in respect of such shares or of other shares held by such holder or joint-holders, or otherwise, and whether due from any such holder individually or jointly with others, including all calls resolutions for which shall have been passed by the Directors, although the times appointed for the payment thereof shall not have arrived; and where any share is held by more members than one, the Company shall be entitled to the said charge or lien in respect of any money due to the Company from any of such members. And the Directors may decline to register any transfer of shares subject to such charge (or lien).

38. Lien how made available.—Such charge or lien may be made available by a sale of all or any of the shares subject to it, provided that no such sale shall be made except under a resolution of the Directors, and until notice in writing shall have been given to the indebted Shareholder or his executors or administrators, or the assignee or trustee in his bankruptcy, requiring him or them to pay the amount for the time being due to the Company, and default shall have been made for twenty-eight days from such notice in paying the sum thereby required to be paid. Should the Shareholder over whose share the lien exists be in England or elsewhere abroad, sixty days' notice shall be allowed him.

39. Proceeds how applied.—The net proceeds of any such sale shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of such debts, liabilities, or engagements, and the residue (if any) paid to such Shareholder or his representatives.

40. Certificate of Sale.—A certificate in writing under the hands of two of the Directors and of the Secretary, that the power of sale given by clause 38 has arisen, and is exercisable by the Company under these presents, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated.

41. Transfer on Sale how executed.—Upon any such sale, two of the Directors may execute a transfer of such share to the purchaser thereof, and such transfer, with the certificate last aforesaid, shall confer on the purchaser a complete title to such shares.

CALLS.

42. Directors may make Calls.—The Directors may from time to time make such calls as they think fit upon the holders of registered shares in respect of moneys unpaid thereon, and not by the conditions of allotment made payable at fixed times; and each Shareholder shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the persons and at the times and places appointed by the Directors, provided that two months' notice at least shall be given to the Shareholder of the time and place appointed for payment of each call. If any Shareholder fail to pay any call due from him on the day appointed for payment thereof, he shall be liable to pay interest for the same at the rate of nine per cent. per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of actual payment.

Calls, time when made.—A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution authorizing the call was passed at a Board meeting of the Directors.

Extension of time for payment of Call.—The Directors shall have power in their absolute discretion to give time to any one or more Shareholder or Shareholders, exclusive of the others, for payment of any call or part thereof, on such terms as the Directors may determine. But no Shareholder shall be entitled to any such extension except as a matter of grace or favour.

43. Payments in anticipation of Calls at Interest.—The Directors may at their discretion receive from any Shareholder willing to advance the same, and upon such terms as they think fit, all or any part of the amount of his shares beyond the sum actually called up.

BORROWING POWERS.

44. Power to Borrow.—The Directors may from time to time, at their discretion, borrow any sum or sums of money for the purposes of the Company, and may raise or secure the re-payment of such moneys in such manner, and upon such terms and conditions in all respects as they think fit, and may, for the purpose of securing the re-payment of any such sum or sums so borrowed, secure any bonds, mortgages, debentures and debenture stock bonds, or obligations of the Company charged upon all or any part of the property of the Company (both present and future), including its uncalled capital for the time being.

MEETINGS.

45. Ordinary General Meeting.—An Ordinary General Meeting of the Company shall be held at least once a year after the incorporation of the Company, and oftener whenever the Directors shall so determine. The General Meeting shall take place at such time and place as the Directors shall appoint; provided, nevertheless, that a General Meeting of the Company shall be held within twelve months after the date of the registration of the Company.

46. Extraordinary General Meeting.—The Directors may, whenever they think fit, call an Extraordinary General Meeting, and the Directors shall do so upon a requisition made in writing by not less than one-eighth of the number of shareholders holding not less than one-eighth of the issued capital, and entitled to vote.

47. Requisition of Shareholders to state object of Meeting; on receipt of Requisition Directors to call Meeting, and in default Shareholders may do so.—Any requisition so made shall express the object of the meeting proposed to be called, shall be addressed to the Directors, and shall be sent to the registered office of the Company. Upon the receipt of such requisition the Directors shall forthwith proceed to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting to be held at such time and place as they shall determine. If they do not proceed to convene the same within seven days from the delivery of the requisition, the requisitionists may themselves convene an Extraordinary General Meeting to be held at such place and at such time as the Shareholders convening the meeting may themselves fix.

48. Seven Days' notice of Meeting to be given.—Fourteen days' notice at least of every General Meeting Ordinary or Extraordinary, and by whomsoever convened, specifying the place, day, hour of meeting, and the objects and business of the meeting, shall be given to the Shareholders entitled to be present at such meeting in manner hereinafter mentioned, but an accidental omission to give such notice to any Shareholder shall not invalidate the proceedings at any General Meeting.

49. Business requiring and not requiring Notification.—Every Ordinary General Meeting shall be competent, without special notice having been given of the purposes for which it is convened, or of the business to be transacted thereat, to receive and discuss any report and any accounts presented thereto by the Directors, and to pass resolution in approval or disapproval thereof, and to declare dividends, and to elect Directors and Auditors retiring in rotation and to fix the remuneration of the Auditors, and shall also be competent to enter upon, discuss, and transact any business whatever, of which special mention shall have been given in the notice or notices upon which the meeting was convened.

50. Notice of other business to be given.—With the exceptions mentioned in the foregoing Articles as to the business which may be transacted at Ordinary General Meetings without notice, no General Meeting, Ordinary or Extraordinary, shall be competent to enter upon, discuss, or transact any business which has not been specially mentioned in the notice or notices upon which it was convened.

51. Quorum to be present.—No business shall be transacted at a General Meeting unless there shall be present in person at the commencement of the business five or more Shareholders entitled to vote; provided, however, that the declaration of a dividend, recommended by a report of the Directors, or the election of a Chairman may be decided at a meeting at which at least three Shareholders in person are present.

52. If quorum not present, Meeting to be dissolved or adjourned; adjourned Meeting to transact business.—If at the expiration of half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the required number of Shareholders shall not be present at the meeting, the meeting, if convened by or upon the requisition of Shareholders, shall be dissolved; but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place. And if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present, those Shareholders who are present shall be a quorum, and may transact the business for which the meeting was called.

53. Chairman of Directors or a Director to be Chairman of General Meeting; in case of their absence or refusal a Shareholder may act.—The Chairman (if any) of the Directors shall be entitled to take the chair at every General Meeting, whether Ordinary or Extraordinary; or if there be no Chairman, or if at any meeting he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding such meeting, or if he shall refuse to take the chair, the Shareholders shall choose another Director as Chairman; and if no Directors be present, or if all the Directors present decline to take the chair, then the Shareholders present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman.

VOTING AT MEETINGS.

57. Votes.—At any meeting every resolution shall be decided by the votes of the Shareholders present in person or by proxy, and in case there shall be an equality of votes, the Chairman at such meeting shall be entitled to give a casting vote in addition to the vote to which he may be entitled as a Shareholder, and unless a poll be immediately demanded in writing by at least three members present and entitled to vote, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Company, shall be sufficient evidence of the fact, without proof of the number of votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

58. Poll.—If a poll be duly demanded, the same shall be taken in such manner and at such time and place as the Chairman shall direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.

59. Poll how taken.—If at any meeting a poll be demanded by notice in writing, signed by three Shareholders present at the meeting and entitled to vote, which notice shall be delivered during the meeting to the Chairman, the meeting shall, if necessary, be adjourned, and the poll shall be taken at such time and in such manner as the Chairman shall direct; and in such case every Shareholder shall have the number of votes to which he may be entitled as hereinafter provided; and in case at any such poll there shall be an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting at which such poll shall have been demanded shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any votes to which he may be entitled as a Shareholder and proxy, and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Company in such meeting.
