GENERAL CONDITIONS APPLICABLE TO APPOINTMENTS TO POSTS IN THE PUBLIC SERVICE ADVERTISED IN THE "GAZETTE OF THE REPUBLIC OF SRI LANKA (CEYLON)"

1. Allowances.—Unless otherwise stated, Rent Allowance, temporary Cost of Living Allowances and temporary Special Living Allowance are payable according to Government Regulations.

2. Conditions of Service.—Appointments will be subject to the Public Service Commission Rules, the Financial Regulations, the Regulations of the Manual of Procedure, Departmental Orders or Regulations, and any other orders or regulations issued from time to time by the Government.

3. Terms of Engagement.—(i) In the case of appointments to the non-pensionable establishment (excluding those on daily rates of pay) appointees will be required to contribute 5 per cent. of their salary to the Public Service Provident Fund, and they will be allowed to contribute at their option a further 5 per cent. The Government contribution in either case will be equal to 7½ per cent. of the salary paid in at the close of each financial year.

(ii) Appointees may be required to furnish security in terms of the Public Officers (Security) Ordinance, if so required by the Head of their Department.

(iii) Appointees other than those already in the Public Service will be required to pass a medical examination by a Government Medical Officer as to their physical fitness to serve in any part of the Island.

4. New Entrants to the Public Service.—(i) The period of probation/trial of New-Entrant Officers appointed to pensionable posts/non-pensionable posts, as the case may be, shall be three years, unless a longer period is prescribed in respect of any posts.

(ii) All New-Entrant Officers must subscribe to the condition that they will conform to the provisions of the Official Language Act, No. 33 of 1956 and any laws and rules that now exists or may be introduced in the future for giving effect to the Language Policy of the Government.

(iii) (a) They should acquire a working knowledge of the Official Language—(Sinhala)—during their period of probation/trial except in exceptional cases where it is not essential for the efficiency discharge of their duties.

(b) Their confirmation, at the expiry of the period of probation/trial, will depend inter alia, on their passing within specified periods of time prescribed proficiency tests in Sinhala leading up to a level not higher than the J. S. C. Standard. Failure to pass these proficiency tests within the prescribed period will result in the non-payment of the increments falling due, until the tests are passed. The services of those officers who do not reach the requisite standard of proficiency in Sinhala by the end of their period of probation/trial will be liable to be terminated.

Note.—Those who qualify for entry into the Public Service through the Sinhala medium will be exempted from passing these proficiency tests in Sinhala as a pre-requisite for confirmation.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

ALL Notices to be published in Part I: Section (IIA) and (IIB) of the Weekly Gazette of Sri Lanka will be accepted till 12.0 noon on the Wednesday, previous to the week of publication. Notices received after the scheduled time and date will not be accepted under any circumstances.

Department of Government Printing,
Colombo, December 15, 1972.

L. W. P. PERIS,
Government Printer.

5. Qualifications Required.—(i) Every applicant must furnish satisfactory proof that he is a Ceylonese. A "Ceylonese" is a citizen of Ceylon by descent or by registration.

(ii) A Candidate for any post for which the minimum educational qualification prescribed is a pass in the Senior School Certificate examination or equivalent or higher examination shall have a pass in the Sinhala Language or its equivalent obtained at the Senior School Certificate examination or its equivalent if he is a Sinhalese, educated in the Sinhala medium. (This requirement will not apply to those officers who are in the Public Service from a date prior to January 1, 1961, and who seek appointment to other posts in the Public Service.)

6. War Service Concession.—Provided they are qualified in all other respects, ex-Servicemen of Her Majesty's Fighting Forces and full-time members of the Auxiliary Fire, Air Raid Precautions and Civil Defence Services (excluding those who had left these Services of their own accord) will be allowed to deduct periods of such service commencing from September 3, 1939, at the earliest, and up to December 31, 1949, at the latest from their ages for purposes of eligibility alone provided that they joined the Forces before August 15, 1945, and that such service was satisfactory and continuous.

7. Other Requirements.—(i) Applications from officers of the Public Service who are qualified must be forwarded through the Heads of their respective Departments. Every such officer applying for a post advertised by the Secretary, Public Service Commission, must however, notify the date of despatch by him of his application, direct to the Secretary, Public Service Commission, on the printed Post Card (marked "B") provided for that purpose to reach him on or before the closing date. In the case of applications from officers holding permanent posts in the Public Service, the Heads of Departments should in forwarding the application, state whether or not they are prepared to release the applicant (if selected) in accordance with Administrative Regulation 100 of the Manual of Procedure.

(ii) Candidates may be required to present themselves for interview at an appointed time and place. No travelling or other expenses will be paid in this connection.

(iii) Anyone desiring to recommend a candidate should do so by giving a testimonial. Any form of canvassing or attempt to influence the selection of a candidate will disqualify such candidate.

(iv) Any statement in the application which is found to be incorrect will render the applicant liable to disqualification, if the inaccuracy is discovered before the selection and to dismissal, if discovered after the selection.

(v) Applications not conforming in every respect with the requirements of the advertisement will be rejected.

8. Definition of Salary for the Purpose of Eligibility.—Salary for purposes of eligibility means only the basic substantive salary and does not include any acting salary, allowance, &c.

RECRUITMENT TO THE GRAMA SEVAKA SERVICE

APPLICATIONS are invited from Muslim male candidates having the qualifications stipulated in paragraph 4 below for a vacancy in the Grama Sevaka Service in the District of Kandy.

2. Vacancies.—One vacancy in the post of Grama Sevaka (Muslim) in the Akurana Electorate.

3. Salary.—Successful candidates appointed to the Grama Sevaka Service after the completion of the training period stipulated in paragraph 8 (iii) (g) below will be placed on the consolidated salary of Rs. 3,000 per annum rising by annual increments of Rs. 90 to Rs. 5,160 per annum. In this scale, an Efficiency Bar operates before Rs. 3,810.

4. Eligibility.—(i) Candidates must be of very good character.

(ii) Candidates must be Ceylonese *.

* For all purposes of recruitment to the Public Service the term "Ceylonese" is defined as a citizen of Ceylon by descent or by registration.

(iii) Candidates must be physically fit to perform efficiently the functions of a Grama Sevaka.

(iv) Candidates should possess—

(a) the Ceylon Senior School Certificate which includes passes in Sinhala or Tamil Language and Arithmetic or Mathematics with credit passes in at least two subjects; OR

(b) the General Certificate of Education (Ordinary Level) in six subjects obtained at not more than two sittings including Sinhala or Tamil Language and Arithmetic or Commercial Arithmetic, Elementary Mathematics or Pure Mathematics, provided that credit passes have been obtained in at least two of the six subjects; OR

(c) higher qualifications such as the General Certificate of Education (Advanced Level) in 4 subjects or the Degree.

Note.—Candidates who apply should have passed in Sinhala Language or in Tamil Language in the S.S.C. or the G.C.E. (Ordinary Level) Examination.

(v) Candidates must not be less than 21 years nor more than 35 years of age on April 30, 1973. The maximum age limit does not apply to candidates holding permanent appointments in the Public Service.

(vi) Candidates should have—

(a) at least three years' continuous permanent residence in the Akurana Electorate within the period of six years immediately preceding the closing date for applications. This should be supported by a Residence Certificate from the Grama Sevaka. It may be supported by other documents such as Householders' Lists and Electoral Lists; OR

(b) been born in the Akurana Electorate. This claim should be supported by his Birth Certificate; OR

(c) received his education for not less than five consecutive years in the Akurana Electorate. This claim should be supported by School Certificates from the Principal.

Note.—In the case of children of transferable officers who are unable to satisfy the above residence qualifications due to periodic transfers of the parents, the birth place of either of the parents may be regarded as the place of permanent residence of the candidate.

5. Method of Selection.—Candidates for appointment will be selected on the basis of the grading at the S.S.C. Examination or the G.C.E. (Ordinary Level) Examination or the higher examinations on a rating system, as described in paragraph 6 below; together with their performances at the interview prescribed at paragraph 7 below.

6. Scheme of Rating.—Points will be assigned for the grading obtained by candidates in six subjects at the S.S.C. or the G.C.E. (Ordinary Level) as follows:—

D—Distinction	75 points
C—Credit	50 points
S—Ordinary pass	40 points

In order to avoid the possibility of a candidate who has sat and passed in more than 6 subjects, obtaining an advantage in the aggregate over a candidate who has sat and passed in 6 subjects specified in the application.

A candidate who has passed in the G.C.E. (Advanced Level) in four subjects will be entitled to an extra 30 points. No points, however, will be allotted where the number of passes at the G.C.E. (Advanced Level) is less than four subjects, or for the standard achieved in these subjects such as credit passes, distinctions, etc. A candidate who has obtained a Bachelor's Degree or any higher Degree will be allotted 70 extra points which will include 30 extra points allotted for the G.C.E. (Advanced Level). Candidates who hold the Degree will not be allotted for having more than one Degree or any other educational qualification not specified herein.

Candidates should rate themselves in accordance with the above rating scheme in the cages provided for in the application form.

7. Interview.—(i) There will be an interview which will carry 200 points. These points will be assigned taking into consideration the candidate's appearance, personally, qualities of leadership, character, reputation and intelligence as well as the candidates knowledge of local conditions generally.

Questions will be asked to determine the candidate's knowledge of matters pertaining to the village and its welfare.

(ii) Candidates should produce at the interview originals of certificates referred to in paragraph 10 (iii) below.

(iii) Candidates who have not qualified under the above criteria will not be called for interview. If a candidate is not summoned for interview it will be because he has not qualified.

8. Conditions of Service.—(i) Reference is invited to the general conditions applicable to the appointments to general posts in the Public Service, published at the beginning of Part I, Section (IIA), of the Government Gazette.

(ii) The post is permanent and non-pensionable. The appointment will be on a Provident Fund basis. The selected candidate shall contribute 6 per cent. of his consolidated salary to the Public Service Provident Fund. The Government contributions will be 9 per cent. of his consolidated salary.

(iii) If, for the purpose of the Official Language Act, the selected candidate is a new entrant to the public service—

- (a) his probation period shall be three years;
- (b) he should subscribe to the condition that he will conform to the provisions of the Official Language Act, No. 33 of 1956, and any laws and rules that now exist or may be introduced in the future for giving effect to the language policy of the Government.
- (c) he should acquire a working knowledge of the Official Language—Sinhala—during the period of probation;
- (d) his confirmation, at the expiry of the period of probation, will depend inter alia on his passing Grades I, II and III of the proficiency tests in Sinhala within one year, two years, and three years, respectively, from the date of appointment (or Grade I and II within 1 year and 2 years respectively, when applicable).

Failure to pass these proficiency tests within the prescribed periods will result in the suspension of increments falling due and failure to pass the proficiency tests within a further period of six months after the expiry of the specified period will lead to the suspension of increments being converted into a stoppage and such, stoppage will be effective until passing the proficiency test or until the period specified in the provisions of paragraph (iii) (e) below.

- (e) If the specified standard of proficiency in Sinhala is not acquired at the end of the period of probation the provisions 8 iii (a) 10: 12 Chapter II of the Administrative Code will be applicable.

Conditions (c), (d) and (e) above are not applicable to candidates recruited to the service in the Sinhala medium.

- (f) Candidates appointed as Grama Sevakas are transferable to any Grama Sevaka Division within the Administrative District.
- (g) All candidates selected for appointment should undergo a training in the functions that they would have to perform in their appointments. Appointments as Probationary Grama Sevakas will be made on a certificate issued by the Government Agent in charge of the Administrative District to the effect that the candidate has satisfactorily completed the training and that he is eligible in all respects to be appointed as a Probationary Grama Sevaka.

This period of training which the candidates will have to undergo on initial recruitments will not exceed three months, and the trainees will be paid an all inclusive allowance of Rs. 50 per mensem. During the period of training the candidates are not entitled to leave concessions.

- (h) After the training, a Grama Sevaka will not be confirmed in his appointment until such time he completed 3 years' service as a Grama Sevaka and until the Government Agent is satisfied that he should be confirmed.

9. Applications.—(i) The form of application could be obtained from this Kachcheri or from any Divisional Revenue Officer's Office. Candidates should fill the application forms in their own handwriting in the language medium in which they have passed the qualifying examination referred to in paragraph 4 (iv) above or in the Sinhala medium at their option.

Candidates are forbidden to amend the prescribed form in any way. Applications that are not on the appropriate form will be rejected.

(ii) Applications must be sent by registered post to reach me on or before 30th April 1973. Candidates who are already in the Public Service must also forward their applications direct to reach the Government Agent by the prescribed date. A copy of the application should also be forwarded through the Head of the applicant's Department.

(iii) Any application received after that date will be rejected. Applications should not be personally addressed to me or to any official of the Kachcheri.

10. Documents of Eligibility.—(i) No documents whatsoever should be forwarded with the application, but the necessary particulars should be provided in the form, as required. An application which is not complete in all these respects will be judged on its own merits and may be rejected.

(ii) Documentary evidence in proof of eligibility will be required from candidates who have qualified for the interview. Such candidates should be ready to produce them if and when they are required to do so.

(iii) The following documents will be necessary:—

- (a) A certificate of character.

Note.—If a candidate is in attendance at or has recently left a Government or Assisted School, the certificate of character must be from the Principal of such schools; otherwise, it may be from a Justice of the Peace, Advocate, Procter or Notary, Divisional Revenue Officer or a permanent Government Officer in receipt of an annual consolidated salary of Rs. 4,800 or over, or generally speaking, some person whose name is known and to whom reference can be readily made. The name, designation and address of the person must be clearly indicated on the certificate.

Candidates who are already in the Public Service will not be required to furnish certificates of good character. But, they will be required to produce a certificate from the Head of their Department to the effect that their work and conduct are satisfactory and that they could be released if they are selected for appointment.

- (b) A certificate of the candidate's birth registration entry or a special certificate of age issued by the Registrar-General (in the case of candidates whose births have not been registered) The date of birth of any candidate who is only able to furnish a certificate of Probable Age will be regarded as the 1st July of the year of birth indicated in the certificate.

Note.—(i) The special certificate or birth issued for school or educational purposes, or a certified extract from the birth registration entry will not be accepted.

(ii) Affidavits or Baptismal Certificates will not be accepted as substitutes for birth certificates.

(iii) If the name/names appearing in the birth certificate differs/differ from the name/names which the candidate ordinarily uses and under which the candidate applies, action should be taken immediately in terms of Section 27 of 28, as the case may be, of (Cap. 110), to get the name in the birth registration entry amended.

Candidates holding permanent posts in Government employ who have changed their names in accordance with the provisions of Treasury Circular No. 394 of August, 18, 1957, will not be required to take action to have their names in the birth registration entry amended.

- (c) Certificate of registration as a Citizen of Ceylon or original official letter of acceptance of claim to citizenship by descent (where applicable).
- (d) Original certificate of educational qualification, or where the certificate has not been issued, other official documents, e.g. Ceylon G. C. E. (Ordinary Level) Results Slips issued to Private Applicants or original letter from the applicant's Head of School.
- (e) Certificates in proof of eligibility under 4 (vi) above.

(iv) Candidates are advised to have all the necessary documents in readiness at the time of application. Any candidate who is unable to produce the necessary documents at the interview may have his application rejected.

11. Penalty for furnishing false particulars.—If a candidate is found to be ineligible according to the regulations shown in this notification, his application is liable to be cancelled at any stage, prior to, or after, selection.

If any of the particulars furnished by a candidate are found to be false within his knowledge, or if he has wilfully suppressed any material fact or if it is proved, at any time during the period of his service, that he was ineligible to apply, he will be liable to immediate dismissal or discontinuance from the service.

The applications of those who do not strictly conform to the requirements laid down in this notification will be rejected.

12. Medical Examination.—Candidate selected for appointment will be required to pass a medical examination as to their physical fitness for service in any part of Ceylon. Candidates who fail in the medical examination will not be selected for training.

13. Any matters not provided for in these regulations will be dealt with at my discretion.

S. MARALANDE,
Government Agent,
Kandy District.

The Kachcheri,
Kandy, March, 1973.

LIMITED COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION FOR PROMOTION TO THE SUPRA CLASS OF THE GENERAL CLERICAL SERVICE, 1973

A limited competitive examination for promotion to the Supra Class of the General Clerical Service will be held in Colombo, by the Commissioner of Examinations on 2nd and 3rd June, 1973.

2. The number of vacancies in the Supra Class of the General Clerical Service to be filled on the results of this examination and the date of filling of such vacancies will be determined by the Ministry of Public Administration, Local Government and Home Affairs in due course. The Ministry of Public Administration, Local Government and Home Affairs reserves to itself the right of not appointing anyone or more of the successful candidates if they are considered not eligible for such appointments under the provisions of the Official Language Regulations prevailing at the time of such appointments or due to unsatisfactory work and or conduct.

3. Form of Application to the Examination.—(a) Printed application forms can be obtained from the Commissioner of Examinations from April 05, 1973 to April 21, 1973. A candidate will not be issued more than one form. The printed form of application will be issued by the Commissioner of Examinations at the written request of a candidate, who should, for this purpose, supply a self addressed unstamped envelope of 9" x 4" in size bearing the following superscription at the top left side corner. "Application form Limited Competitive Examination for promotion to Supra Class of the General Clerical Service."

(b) (i) Completed applications should be sent by registered post to reach the Commissioner of Examinations, Post Box 1503, Colombo 2, before April 23, 1973. Applications received after that date will be rejected. Candidates should forward their applications through the Head of their Department to reach the Commissioner of Examinations before the closing date. Heads of Departments are required to certify that the respective applications are complete in all respects; they should sign the certificate in the application form. Applications should not be addressed personally to the Commissioner of Examinations or any other officer in his Department. The top corner of the envelope containing the application should bear the name of the examination, viz. "Limited Competitive Examination for promotion to the Supra Class of the General Clerical Service."

(ii) Applications should be complete in all respects. If all the particulars sought have not been furnished the application is liable to be rejected after determination according to the particulars mentioned, therein.

(c) (i) The fee for the examination is Rs. 50. This fee should be paid on or before the closing date of applications at the nearest Kachcheri or at the General Treasury, Colombo, with advice that it should be credited to Revenue-Head: 6, Sub-Head: 2, Item: 5. The Kachcheri or Treasury receipt should be attached to the application form.

Note.—A candidate who withdraws or absents himself from the examination for any reason whatsoever, or having sat the examination is found to be ineligible to have done so, shall not be entitled to a refund, the whole or a portion of the fee.

(ii) Examination fees will not be charged from candidates who submit applications for this examination for the first time only, i.e. those who did not submit application for the Limited Competitive Examination, which was held on a previous occasion for appointment to the Supra Class of the General Clerical Service.

(d) No allegation that an application or letter concerning such form has been lost or delayed in the post can be considered. Candidates who delay their applications until the last few days will do so at their own risk.

(e) Candidates should write their names and addresses on the Post Card appended to the application form. This would be used to acknowledge the application. Applications of candidates who do not state their names and addresses accordingly will not be acknowledged. A candidate who having stated the name and address does not receive an acknowledgment within 3 weeks of the date of closing entries should at once inform the Commissioner of Examinations. Failure to comply with this provision may deprive the candidate of the opportunity to sit the examination.

4. Admission to the Examination.—(a) Commissioner of Examinations will issue Admission Cards to all candidates whose applications have been received. Candidates presenting themselves for the examination must produce their admission cards to the Supervisor of the Examination Centre. A candidate who fails to produce such cards will not be permitted to sit the examination.

(b) Candidates must sit the examination at the examination hall assigned to them. No candidate will be permitted to sit the examination at a centre other than the one assigned to him. Every candidate presenting himself for the examination must give up his admission card to the Supervisor on the day of the examination. A set of rules to be observed by all candidates is published at the end of this notification. Candidates are bound by these rules.

(c) If a candidate does not receive his admission card at least seven days before the day of the examination he should at once notify the Commissioner of Examinations, P. O. Box 1503, Colombo 2, (Telegraphic Address "Exams, Colombo"). The following particulars should also be supplied while informing the Commissioner of Examinations of the non-receipt of the admission card:—

- (i) Name of examination.
- (ii) Full name of candidate,
- (iii) Address,
- (iv) Date of posting the application, registered number, and Post Office.

(d) Admission to the examination does not constitute acceptance of eligibility. The Commissioner of Examinations may, however, grant a candidate provisional admission to the examination at his discretion. Such candidature will subsequently be either confirmed or cancelled.

5. Eligibility.—Officers in the General Clerical Service who have been confirmed in their appointments and who have completed not less than eight years' service in the General Clerical Service on February 01, 1973, and whose services have been satisfactory will be eligible to compete at the examination.

Note.—Only candidates who have a satisfactory record of service will be eligible to compete. A candidate will be considered to have a satisfactory record of service only if he has been paid in due time all increments falling within the 5 years preceding February 01, 1973 and provided he has not suffered any disciplinary punishment whatsoever (except warnings) during the same preceding 5 years. Any disciplinary punishments received or adverse comments made regarding an officer's work or conduct during the period prior to the preceding 5 years will be taken note of in the award of marks for the Viva Voce. In no case, however will an officer who has been punished for any act of dishonesty or other act of misconduct involving moral turpitude at any time in his career be eligible to compete at this examination or be selected.

6. Identity Cards.—Candidates will be required to prove their identity in the examination hall to the satisfaction of the Supervisor for each subject they offer. For this purpose any of the following documents will be accepted:—

- (a) Identity Cards issued by the Postmaster-General;
- (b) A valid Passport issued not more than three years before the date of this examination;
- (c) Any certificate, licence or other document embodying the photograph of the holder and issued not more than three years before the date of this examination on the authority of a Government Department, Public Corporation or other Statutory Organization.
- (d) A Passport size photograph (the signature of the candidate should be placed on the reverse of the photograph, and attested by the Head of the Department or by an officer authorised by him to the effect that the photograph and the signature are of the candidate. The name, designation, date and the address of the attester should be given in it. (This photograph will be retained by the Supervisor).
- (c) An Identity Card issued by the Department for the Registration of Persons.

7. Penalty for furnishing False Information.—(a) If a candidate is found to be ineligible according to the Regulations for this examination, his candidature is liable to be cancelled at any stage prior to, during or after the examination.

(b) If any of the particulars furnished by a candidate are found to be false within his knowledge or if he has wilfully suppressed any material fact, he will be liable to dismissal from the Public Service.

8. Scheme of Examination.—Candidates will be required to offer the following subjects :—

Offer the following subjects :—		Marks
(1) Office Management	100
(2) Office Systems	100
(3) Accounting Systems	100
(4) Establishments work	100
(5) Viva Voce.	50
TOTAL		450

The time allowed for each written paper will be 2 hours. Only those candidates who attain a sufficiently high standard in the written examination will be summoned for the Viva Voce test. Marks obtained at the written examination will not be made available to the Board at the Viva Voce test.

9. Medium of Examination.—The examination will be held in the Sinhala, Tamil and English media. Candidates should answer the papers in the language medium in which they sat the competitive examination to enter the General Clerical Service, or in the case of those who were recruited without a competitive examination, in the medium in which they qualified for entry into the service. However, any officer may at his option answer the papers in the Sinhala Language. No alteration of the language medium specified will be permitted after the closing date of applications.

10. The conditions of service and salary scale applicable to appointments to posts in the Supra Class of the General Clerical Service published in Government Gazette Extraordinary No. 14,977/9 dated September, 29, 1971 are liable to alteration from time to time.

11. Any matter which has not been provided for under these regulations will be settled at the discretion of the Secretary, Ministry of Public Administration, Local Government and Home Affairs.

B. MAHADEVA,
Secretary to the Ministry of Public Administration, Local Government and Home Affairs and Acting Director-General of Public Administration.

RULES FOR CANDIDATES

All candidates are bound by the Rules given below. A candidate who violates any one of them is liable to be punished, at the discretion of the Commissioner, in one or more of the following ways :—

- (i) Suspension from the whole or part of the examination or from the whole or part of a paper.
- (ii) Disqualification from a paper or from the examination.
- (iii) Debarment from examinations for a period of one or two years.
- (iv) Debarment for life.
- (v) Suspension of certificate for a period.
- (vi) Reporting of the candidate's conduct to his superior or handing the candidate to or placing the matter in the hands of the Police.

The Commissioner reserves to himself the right to take, before the examination or at any stage of it or thereafter, any action deemed necessary by him and his decision will be final except in the case of examinations for recruitment to the Public Service where the Commissioner's decision will be subject to review by the State Services Advisory Board.

RULES

1. Every candidates should so conduct himself in the precincts of the Examination Hall as not to cause disturbance or inconvenience to the Supervisor or his Staff or to other candidates. In entering and leaving the Hall he should conduct himself as quietly as possible.
2. Candidates are under the authority of the Supervisor and should assist him by carrying out his introductions and those of his Invigilators, during the examination and immediately before and after it.
3. Under no circumstances whatsoever will a candidate be admitted into the Examination Hall after the lapse of half an hour from the commencement of a paper. Nor will he be permitted to leave the Hall till this period of time has elapsed. In the case of a Practical or Oral examination a candidate who is late may be refused admission.
4. Every candidate should sit at the particular desk assigned to him by the Supervisor and at no other. No change should be made without the express permission of the Supervisor. The occupation by a candidate of a seat not assigned to him is liable to be considered as an act motivated by dishonestly.
5. Absolute silence must be maintained in the Examination Hall. A candidate is not permitted to communicate or have any dealings with any other candidate or person inside or outside the Hall other than with the examination staff for any reason whatsoever, in case of urgent necessity the Supervisor's prior permission should be obtained.
6. A candidate should not write his name on his answer-script which should be identified only by his Index Number. A candidate who inserts on his script the index Number of another candidate is liable to be considered as having attempted to cheat while a candidate whose script bears an Index Number which cannot be identified will have it rejected.
7. Candidates should not write on the blotting paper, on the question paper, on the desk or anywhere else other than on the paper supplied to them for the purpose. Disregard to this Rule may be treated as an act with dishonest intentions.
8. No sheet of paper or answer book supplied to a candidate may be torn, crumpled, folded or otherwise mutilated. Every sheet of paper used including any sheet with rough work, outline, etc., must form part of the answer-script. (Such rough work, etc., should be neatly crossed out.) Nothing that has been written in the Examination Hall may be removed outside. If the same question has been attempted in more than one place, the answer or answers that are not to be counted should be neatly crossed out. A breach of any of these requirements may be considered as an attempt to cheat.
9. The submission in regard to Mathematical questions of correct answers with incorrect or no working, and in regard to art of work which is identical with or greatly similar to another candidate's in idea, intent, plan, execution, etc. is liable to be interpreted as an act of dishonesty.
10. No writing paper or other material issued to candidates should be removed from the Hall. Such paper and material remain the property of the Commissioner. Disregard of this Rule is liable to be interpreted as an act with dishonest intentions.

11. While in the Examination Hall no candidate should have with him or near him anywhere any book, pocket book, note-book, exercise book, etc., sheets or pieces of any paper other than what is supplied to him in the Hall, nor any hand-bag, vanity box, parcel, etc., other than his box of colours or of Mathematical instruments when necessary, nor any file cover, cardboard, pad, folded newspaper, brown paper, etc., Any candidate who disregards this Rule is liable to punishment.
 12. No candidate in the Examination Hall should have on his person any book or notes whatsoever. Should the Supervisor so require, every candidate is bound to declare every thing he has on his person. Any violation of these requirements will be interpreted as an attempt at dishonest practice.
 13. Candidates are warned against copying or attempting to copy from the script of another candidate or from any book or paper or notes whatsoever. No candidate should attempt to look at the script of another candidate. Nor should any candidate either help another candidate or obtain help from another candidate or person whomsoever. Every sheet of paper on which answers have been written should be placed under the sheet on which an answer is being written. No sheet should be left lying about on the desk.
 14. During the course of a paper no candidate will be permitted under any circumstances to leave the Examination Hall temporarily. In an emergency, however, the Supervisor will grant such permission, but the candidate will be under the surveillance of an invigilator and be subject to search both before leaving the Hall and before returning to it.
 15. Impersonation whether in the Examination Hall or before the examination is an offence. Tampering with or falsifying Identity Papers or attestation of identity are likewise offences. Candidate are warned against them.
 16. Serious notice will also be taken of any dishonest assistance given to a candidate by a person who is not a candidate.
- (iv) You should bring your own pen and ink bottle, ruler, Mathematical instruments, lead pencil, eraser, coloured pencils, crayons, water colours, science stencil, etc.
 - (v) Standard examination stationery (i. e., writing paper, blotting paper, graph paper, drawing paper, ledger paper, precis paper, etc.) will be supplied. You should promptly bring it to the notice of the Supervisor if you receive any material which does not conform to the usual pattern. Do not use any paper that has not been issued specifically to you. Any excess material should be left behind unutilized on your desk. Log tables, where supplied, should be used with care and left behind on your desk.
 - (vi) You should inscribe promptly the title of the examination and your Index Number on every sheet of answer paper or other paper used by you. Write neatly and legibly on both sides of the writing paper. Leave a blank line after the answer to each separate part of a question and a ruled-line or several blank lines after the answer to each question. Do not crowd in your work.
 - (vii) The left-hand margin of the answer paper supplied is provided for you to insert the numbers of the question you answer while the right-hand margin which should be left blank is reserved for the use of the Examiner. Number your answers correctly, as any error may cause confusion.
 - (viii) You should observe very carefully the directions given at the head of each question paper regarding any compulsory question and the choice of others. Disregard of these instructions is bound to affect you adversely.
 - (ix) Give all detailed calculations and any rough work in their natural order as part of the working of any Mathematical problem. Diagrams, figures, sketches, etc., should be accurate and sufficiently large. If an answer requiring constant reference to the diagram, figure or sketch is continued overleaf such diagram, etc. should be repeated.
 - (x) At the end of each paper, arrange your answer sheets carefully in the order you wrote them and fasten them closely and securely together at the left-hand top corner (and not at the right-hand top corner) with the string supplied.
 - (xi) You should hand over your answer script personally to the Supervisor or to an Invigilator or remain in your seat till it is collected by one of them. Failure to do so may result in the loss of your script and in your being treated as absent for that paper. On no account should your script be handed over to a peon or attendant.
 - (xii) If you wish to speak to the Supervisor or an Invigilator or to be served with additional stationery, you should raise your hand and continue to be seated.

To the Candidate :—

You are advised in your own interest to adhere to the following directions :—

- (i) Be in attendance at the Examination Hall well in time, at least 10 or 15 minutes before the time scheduled for a paper to commence. If you are in doubt about the location of the Hall have it settled before the day of examination.
- (ii) Any doubt regarding your entry for a paper or eligibility for it should be settled with the Supervisor before the paper commences. Otherwise your candidature in the subject concerned is liable to be cancelled.
- (iii) If you are a candidate from whom identity documents are required, you should have them with you in the Examination Hall on every occasion you present yourself for a paper. Your candidature is liable to be cancelled if you do not possess the necessary documents. If you have forgotten your identity documents, you should arrange with the Supervisor to produce them before the conclusion of the examination.
