THE ELECTRICITY ACT

REGULATIONS made by the Katana Village Council in Colombo District under section 46 of the Electricity Act, (Chapter 205), as amended by Act, No. 59 of 1957, with the approval of the Minister of Public Administration, Local Government and Home Affairs, given after consultation with the Minister of Irrigation, Power and Highways.

G. B. WICKRAMANAYAKE,
Additional Secretary,
Ministry of Public Administration, Local Government and Home Affairs.

Colombo, 5th April, 1973.

Regulations

1. In these regulations—
 - “ Act ” means the Electricity Act (Chapter 205), as amended by Act, No. 59 of 1957;
 - “ licence ” means a licence issued under section 2 of the Act to the Katana Village Council in Colombo District;
 - “ licensee ” means the Katana Village Council in Colombo District.
 2. Any person desirous of obtaining the use of electrical energy from the licensee shall—
 - (a) at least fourteen days before the supply is required, make an application to the licensee in such form as may be provided for the purpose by the licensee; and
 - (b) pay in advance to the licensee the charges for the service cable or, if the licensee so requires, enter into a written contract with the licensee under section 83 of the Act.
 3. (a) The consumer shall entrust the wiring of any electrical installation, intended to be connected to the licensee's electricity supply mains, to a firm or an individual, who is capable of carrying out the work in conformity with the wiring regulations prescribed by the institute of Electrical Engineers. The supply of electrical energy shall be connected to such installation only after such work has been inspected and tested by an officer authorised by the licensee and the licensee is satisfied that the work has been carried out in accordance with the aforesaid wiring regulations;
 - (b) If the installation does not comply with the said regulations, a supply of electrical energy to the premises shall not be given until such time as the installation has been made to comply with such regulations.
4. Every consumer of electrical energy shall pay for such energy at the rates specified in the licence.
 5. (a) That portion of the service cable which is on the consumer's premises, that transformers, the main fuses, the meter and the board shall remain the property of the licensee and on no account shall they be moved or handled by any person other than an authorised employee of the licensee.
 - (b) The consumer shall be responsible for the maintenance of any wires, cables or any other apparatus on the consumer's side of the licensee's main fuse and meter.
 - (c) Where any installation is reconnected after having been disconnected under section 47 (3) of the Act, the appropriate fee for testing and reconnecting such installation as provided for in the licence shall be charged and shall be paid in advance by the consumer.
 - (d) In the event of a leakage of electrical energy at any part of the wires or fittings of any consumer, such consumer shall be liable to pay for all metered consumption of energy in his premises in accordance with section 41 of the Electricity Act.
6. (a) Every consumer wishing at any time, after the supply of electrical energy has been given to his premises, to use any lamp, fan or motor of greater size than the one already in use, or to install any additional lamp or other appliance consuming such energy, either temporarily or permanently, or in any way to alter or extend the wiring in his premises, shall, at least two days before the commencement of work on such extension or alteration, notify the licensee in writing of any such alteration or extension.
 - (b) No consumer shall connect or cause to be connected, any extension, lamp, fan or motor of greater size than the one already in use or install any additional lamp or any other apparatus consuming electrical energy, either temporarily or permanently to the main installation unless such extensions, lamp, fan, motor, additional lamp or other apparatus has been inspected and tested and found to be satisfactory by an officer authorised in that behalf by the licensee.
7. (a) In the event of the melting of the licensee's fuse in any premises, the consumer shall forthwith inform the officer in charge of the electrical power station or sub-station, as the case may be, of the licensee.
 - (b) No person other than an officer authorised by the licensee or any workman employed by the licensee, shall replace any melted fuse which is the property of the licensee.
 - (c) Where the services of any officer or workman of the licensee are required to replace any fuse which is the property of the consumer or the licensee, the appropriate charge payable therefor, as set out in the licence, shall be made in the current monthly account of the consumer.
8. The licensee does not hold itself liable to the consumer for any loss or damage occasioned directly or indirectly by the total or partial interruption of the supply of electrical energy.
 9. Where any installation is re-connected after having been disconnected under section 45 of the Act, a fee for testing and re-connecting, as provided for in the licence, shall be charged, and shall be paid in advance by the consumer.
 10. (a) All charges shall be deemed to be due on the date on which an account is presented.
 - (b) No complaint against the accuracy of any account shall be entertained by the licensee unless such complaint is made within a week after the receipt of such account by the consumer.
11. (a) Every consumer who does not require the supply of electrical energy to his premises shall give three days notice in writing to the licensee.
 - (b) Where the notice referred to in paragraph (a) is not given, the consumer shall be held responsible for the licensee's equipment in his premises and shall be liable to pay for all the energy consumed on the premises until the lapse of three days from the date on which the licensee receives notice of the fact that the consumer does not require the supply:

Provided that when the supply to the premises is disconnected by the licensee before the lapse of the said three days, the consumer shall be liable to pay only for the energy consumed on the premises upto the time of such disconnection.
 12. No electrical work such as installation work including additions, alterations and adjustments to existing installations shall be commenced except after notice of not less than two days has been given to the licensee, to enable an officer of the licensee to inspect the proposed work.
 13. If any electrical work connected with any new installation in any premises is carried out without giving notice to the licensee and obtaining the licensee's prior approval, the licensee may refuse to supply electrical energy to the premises wherein such work has been carried out, until formal notice has been received by the licensee and the necessary tests have been carried out.

14. Where any extension is made to any installation which is already connected to the licensee's electricity supply mains without prior notice to and without the permission of the licensee, the whole installation shall be liable to disconnection from the licensee's electricity supply mains.

15. Every application for the reconnection of any installation shall be made on such form as may be provided for the purpose by the licensee, and shall be delivered at the office of the licensee not less than forty-eight hours before the supply of electrical energy is required.

16. The Regulations published in Gazette No. 11,242 of 17.1.1958 are hereby rescinded.

Local Government and Home Affairs.

Colombo, 30.3.1973.

Regulations

1. In these regulations:—

" Act " means the Electricity Act (Chapter 205) as amended by Act, No. 59 of 1957;

" Licence " means a licence issued under section 2 of the act to the Karainagar North Village Council in the Jaffna District;

" Licensee " means the Karainagar North Village Council in the Jaffna District.

2. Any person desirous of obtaining the use of electrical energy from the licensee shall:—

(a) at least fourteen days before the supply is required, make an application to the licensee in such form as may be provided for the purpose by the licensee and

(b) pay in advance to the licensee the charges for the service cable or, if the licensee so requires, enter into a written contract with the licensee under section 33 of the Act.

3. (a) The consumer shall entrust the wiring of any electrical installation, intended to be connected to the licensee's electricity supply mains, to a firm or an individual, who is capable of carrying out the work in conformity with the wiring regulations prescribed by the Institute of Electrical Engineers. The supply of electrical energy shall be connected to such installation only after such work has been inspected and tested by an officer authorised by the licensee and the licensee is satisfied that the work has been carried out in accordance with the aforesaid wiring regulations;

(b) If the installation does not comply with the said regulations, a supply of electrical energy to the premises shall not be given until such time as the installation has been made to comply with such regulations.

4. Every consumer of electrical energy shall pay for such energy at the rates specified in the licence.

5. (a) That portion of the service cable which is on the consumer's premises, that transformers, the main fuses, the meter and the board shall remain the property of the licensee and on no account shall they be moved or handled by any person other than an authorised employee of the licensee.

(b) The consumer shall be responsible for the maintenance of any wires, cables, or any other apparatus on the consumer's side of the licensee's main fuse and meter.

(c) Where any installation is re-connected after having been disconnected under section 47 (3) of the Act, the appropriate fee for testing and reconnecting such installation as provided for in the licence shall be charged and shall be paid in advance by the consumer,

(d) In the event of a leakage of electrical energy at any part of the wires or fittings of any consumer, such consumer shall be liable to pay for all metered consumption of energy in his premises in accordance with section 41 of the Electricity Act.

6. (a) Every consumer wishing at any time, after the supply of electrical energy has been given to his premises, to use any lamp, fan or motor of greater size than the one already in use, or to install any additional lamp or other appliance consuming such energy, either temporarily or permanently, or in any way to alter or extend the wiring in his premises, shall, at least two days before the commencement of work on such extension or alteration, notify the licensee in writing of any such alteration, or extension.

(b) No consumer shall connect or cause to be connected, any extension, lamp, fan or motor of greater size than the one already in use or install any additional lamp or any other apparatus consuming electrical energy, either temporarily or permanently to the main installation unless such extensions, lamp, fan, motor, additional lamp or other apparatus has been inspected and tested and found to be satisfactory by an officer authorised in that behalf by the licensee.

7. (a) In the event of the melting of the licensee's fuse in any premises, the consumer shall forthwith inform the officer in charge of the electrical power station or sub-station, as the case may be, of the licensee.

(b) No person other than an officer authorised by the licensee or any workman employed by the licensee, shall replace any melted fuse which is the property of the licensee.

(c) Where the services of any officer or workman of the licensee are required to replace any fuse which is the property of the consumer or the licensee, the appropriate charge payable therefore, as set out in the licence, shall be made in the current monthly account of the consumer.

8. The licensee does not hold itself liable to the consumer for any loss or damage occasioned directly or indirectly by the total or partial interruption of the supply of electrical energy.

9. Where any installation is re-connected after having been disconnected under section 45 of the Act, a fee for testing and re-connecting, as provided for in the licence, shall be charged, and shall be paid in advance by the consumer.

10. (a) All charges shall be deemed to be due on the date on which an account is presented.

(b) No complaint against the accuracy of any account shall be entertained by the licensee unless such complaint is made within a week after the receipt of such account by the consumer.

11. (a) Every consumer who does not require the supply of electrical energy to his premises shall give three days notice in writing to the licensee.

(b) Where the notice referred to in paragraph (a) is not given, the consumer shall be held responsible for the licensee's equipment in his premises and shall be liable to pay for all the energy consumed on the premises until the lapse of three days from the date on which the licensee receives notice of the fact that the consumer does not require the supply.

Provided that when the supply to the premises is disconnected by the licensee before the lapse of the said three days, the consumer shall be liable to pay only for the energy consumed on the premises upto the time of such disconnection.

12. No electrical work such as installation work including additions, alterations and adjustments to existing installations shall be commenced except after notice of not less than two days has been given to the licensee, to enable an officer of the licensee to inspect the proposed work.

13. If any electrical work connected with any new installation in any premises is carried out without giving notice to the licensee and obtaining the licensee's prior approval, the licensee may refuse to supply electrical energy to the premises wherein such work has been carried out, until formal notice has been received by the licensee and the necessary tests have been carried out.

14. Where any extension is made to any installation which is already connected to the licensee's electricity supply mains without prior notice to and without the permission of the licensee, the whole installation shall be liable to disconnection from the licensee's electricity supply mains.

15. Every application for the reconnection of any installation shall be made on such form as may be provided for the purpose by the licensee, and shall be delivered at the office of the licensee not less than forty-eight hours before the supply of electrical energy is required.

Regulations

1. No person shall in any slaughter-house, slaughter any animal—

- (a) unless that animal has been inspected by the Medical Officer of Health and approved by him as fit to be slaughtered for human consumption; and
- (b) at any time after the expiry of a period of 24 hours from the time of the approval of that animal under sub-paragraph (a) of this regulation; and
- (c) except between 7 a.m. and 12 noon on any day:

Provided that the Chairman may, in circumstances which he considers exceptional, authorise the slaughter of any animal at any time other than that herein specified.

2. No person shall, at any slaughter-house, slaughter any animal which has been removed alive from the slaughter-house premises after it was approved under regulation 1, unless it is again inspected and approved under that regulation as fit to be slaughtered for human consumption.

3. (1) The Medical Officer of Health may prohibit the slaughter of any animal if, after it has been approved under regulation 1, it has been found to be deceased or unfit to be slaughtered for human consumption.

(2) No person shall slaughter any animal, the slaughter of which is prohibited under this regulation.

4. Every person who brings any animal, into the premises of a slaughter-house, shall take all such measures as may be necessary to ensure that the animal is adequately fed and watered while it remains in those premises.

5. Every person who brings any animal into the premises of a slaughter-house shall, if the animal is rejected as unfit, for slaughter, forthwith remove the animal or cause it to be removed from those premises.

6. If the carcass or offal of any animal slaughtered at any slaughter-house is, in the opinion of the Medical Officer of Health, deceased or unfit for human consumption, he shall cause the carcass or offal to be forthwith destroyed or disposed of, so as to prevent such carcass or offal being exposed for sale or used for human consumption. Except under the direction of the Medical Officer of Health, no person shall remove any such carcass or offal from the slaughter-house.

7. The keeper of any slaughter-house shall not permit the slaughter therein of any animal which has not been approved as fit to be slaughtered for human consumption, or the slaughter of which has been prohibited under regulation 3.

8. No person shall remove from the slaughter-house the carcass of any animal intended for human consumption unless that carcass has been stamped on its fore-quarters and hind quarters by the keeper of the slaughter-house, with the letters "T.C.R."

9. No animal shall be slaughtered in the presence of any other animal or until the carcass of every animal previously slaughtered in the premises has been removed or screened off and the premises cleaned.

10. No person who is suffering or who has recently suffered from any infectious, contagious or cutaneous disease or has recently been in attendance on any person suffering from such disease, shall be permitted by the person in charge of any slaughter-house, to enter such slaughter-house or take part in the slaughter of any animal, until the period of infection and incubation has elapsed.

11. It shall be lawful for the Medical Officer of Health to enter and inspect, at all reasonable times, any slaughter-house and person in charge thereof shall render such person all such assistance as may be necessary.

12. A fee at the following rates shall be paid in advance to the Council for the use of any slaughter-house established by the Council, and no animal shall be slaughtered without an official receipt in proof of the payment of the fee:—

For cattle Rs. 5 per head.

For goat Rs. 2.50 per head.

13. The keeper of every slaughter-house shall maintain, in such form as the Council may direct, a register of particulars relating to each animal slaughtered at the slaughter-house.

14. The powers conferred on the Medical Officer of Health by these regulations, may be exercised by any officer acting under the general or special direction of the Medical Officer of Health.

15. In these regulations—

"Chairman" means the Chairman of the Council; and

"Council" means the Ragama Town Council.

THE GALEWELA TOWN COUNCIL

The Town Councils Ordinance

BY-LAWS made by the Galewela Town Council under sections 152 and 156 of the Town Councils Ordinance (Chapter 256) and approved by the Minister of Public Administration, Local Government and Home Affairs, under section 153 of that Ordinance.

G. B. WICKREMANAYAKE,
Additional Secretary,
Ministry of Public Administration,
Local Government and Home Affairs.

Colombo, 7.4.1973.

BY-LAWS

1. (1) These by-laws may be cited as the Galewela Fair By-laws, 1973.

(2) A fair to be called and known as "the Galewela Fair" shall be held by the Council on every Wednesday and Saturday or on any other day fixed by the Council.

2. (1) No person shall use or occupy any stall or space within the premises of the fair, unless he is the holder, or the servant or agent of the holder, of a permit issued by or under the authority of the Chairman.

(2) Every permit issued under paragraph (1) shall be substantially in the form set out in Schedule I hereto and shall be in force for the day of issue only.

3. Every holder of a permit issued under by-law 2 shall pay a fee at the rates specified in Schedule II hereto for the use of a stall or space within the premises of the Fair.

4. If the Council does not employ an Officer to collect the fees payable under by-law 3, it may lease the right of collecting the fees to any approved person—

- (a) by private treaty; or
- (b) by calling for tenders; or
- (c) by putting up the right to public auction.

5. (1) No holder of a permit issued under by-law 2 shall sell or expose for sale within the premises of the fair any meat. Provided, however, that any such article or commodity may be sold or exposed for sale under the authority of a special permit issued in that behalf by the Chairman.

(2) No special permit shall be issued by the Chairman unless he is satisfied that there are good and sufficient reasons for issuing such a permit.

6. Any dispute arising between holders of permits issued under by-law 2 or their authorised servants, or between them and the public relating to the use of the fair, may be settled by any officer authorised by the Chairman, on duty within the premises of the fair.

7. Order within the premises of the fair shall be maintained by an officer of the Council appointed for the purpose and on duty within the premises of the fair.

8. Every person attending the fair for the sale or purchase of goods, shall comply with any lawful order given by an officer of the Council or by a police officer, in settlement of any dispute or for the maintenance of order.

9. No person shall, within the premises of the fair—

- (a) carry on any cooking; or
- (b) behave in a disorderly manner, or create any noise, or disturbance or fight with any other person or use insulting, abusive or obscene language; or
- (c) behave in a disorderly manner, or create any noise, or satisfactory account of himself after being ordered to leave by any officer of the Council or Grama Sevaka or Police Officer or any person acting under the authority of the Chairman; or
- (d) engage in any sort of gambling.

10. (1) It shall be lawful for the Chairman or the Medical Officer of Health or for any Public Health Inspector, acting under the authority of the Chairman, to inspect and seize any article of food exposed for sale within the premises of the fair, which appears to him to be unwholesome.

(2) Where any article seized under paragraph (1) is certified by a government medical officer to be unwholesome, such article may be destroyed without payment of compensation to the person from whose possession it was seized.

11. (1) No person shall resist, obstruct, hinder or molest any officer or person appointed by the Chairman to superintend the fair in the execution of his duties.

(2) No person shall resist, obstruct, hinder or molest any person appointed to collect the fees by the Council or (where the right to collect the fees has been leased) by the lessee, in the execution of his duties.

12. No person shall—

- (a) construct any sheds or awnings; or leave mats or sacks in the premises of the fair earlier than 3 p.m. of the day preceding the holding of the fair; or
- (b) leave any sheds, awnings; mats sacks or any other goods in the premises of the fair later than 9 a.m. of the day following the holding of the fair.

13. It shall be lawful for the Chairman or any other officer of the Council acting under the authority of the Chairman to remove any sheds, awnings; mats, sacks or any other goods left in the premises of the fair after 9 a.m. of the day following the holding of the fair.

14. Every contravention of any of these by-laws shall be punishable with a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, and in the case of a continuing contravention, with an additional fine not exceeding twenty-five rupees, for every day during which the contravention is continued after conviction by a court of competent jurisdiction or after service of a written notice from the Chairman or any officer authorised by the Chairman directing attention to such contravention.

 - (b) cause every copy of that advertisement to be produced before the Chairman for the purpose of being stamped in token of the payment of the fee for that permit.
- (2) Every person to whom a direction under paragraph (1) of this by-law is given by the Chairman, shall carry out that direction.

5. No person shall cause—

- (1) an advertisement to be displayed in such a manner as to project over any street or road for a distance of more than six inches, measured horizontally from the building line unless such advertisement is a projecting sign constructed or erected in a manner approved by the Chairman;
- (2) to be affixed to, or suspended from, the facade of a building abutting on any street or road, any shop-sign which in length extends beyond the limits of such facade, or which is in height at any point exceeds one-fourth of the distance of the bottom of such sign from the payment or the mean level of the ground; or
- (3) any sky-sign to be constructed and erected in a manner which is not approved by the Chairman.

6. No person shall cause any advertisement to be displayed at any place of public worship, public park or latrine or any bridge, street lamp-post, tramway post of telegraph or telephone post.

7. No person shall on any street or road use any wireless set, gramophone, musical instrument, bell or other instrument for the purpose of displaying any advertisement.

8. (1) Where any advertisement is, in the opinion of the Chairman, in any unsightly or objectionable condition he may by written notice, order the person causing the display of such advertisement to stop such display within the time specified in such notice.

(2) A person to whom a notice under paragraph (1) is sent by the Chairman shall comply with such notice within the time specified therein.

9. The owner or lessee of any hoarding used for the display of advertisement shall—

- (a) maintain such hoarding in a proper state of repair and security, and
- (b) exhibit his name and address in clear and legible characters in a conspicuous position on the front of such hoarding.

10. No person shall deface or cause to be defaced any sign, mark, letter, word or figure which has been put on any advertisement by the Chairman in token of the payment of the fee for the permit to display that advertisement.

11. No person shall cause—

- (a) any advertisement to be displayed on a vehicle in a manner or form other than that is approved by the Chairman; or
- (b) any vehicle bearing any illuminated advertisement other than the illuminated advertisement approved by the Superintendent of Police, to be driven on any street or road.

12. Any person who acts in contravention of any of the provisions of these by-laws shall be guilty of an offence, and shall on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees and in the case of a continuing contravention to a further fine not exceeding fifteen rupees for every day during which the contravention is continued after conviction.

13. In these by-laws, unless the context otherwise requires—
