THE WAGES BOARDS ORDINANCE

Notification

IN accordance with the provisions of section 28 of the Wages Boards Ordinance (Chapter 136), the Wages Board for the Nursing Home Trade hereby notifies its intention to make, by virtue of the powers vested in it by sections 20, 23, 24 and 25 of that Ordinance, the decisions set out in the Schedule hereto.

Objections to the proposed decisions will be received by the Chairman of the Board until 12 noon on 17th August, 1973.

Every such objection must be made in writing and must contain a statement of the grounds upon which such objection is taken.

W. L. P. DE MEL,
Chairman,

Wages Board for the Nursing Home Trade.
Colombo, 18th July, 1973.

SCHEDULE

PART I

INTERVALS AT WHICH WAGES SHALL BE PAID
(SECTION 23 (1))

1. Wages shall be paid monthly and within 10 days of the end of the month.

DEFINITION OF A NORMAL WORKING DAY
(SECTION 24)

2. (a) For any 5 days in the week, being such 5 days as are agreed upon between the employer and the workers the number of hours constituting a normal working day shall be 12 (inclusive of four hours for meals or rest).

2. (b) For any one day in the week, being such day (other than any of the five days referred to in paragraph 2 (a)) as is agreed upon between the employer and the workers, the number of hours constituting a normal working day shall be five. (exclusive of intervals for meals or rest).

DEFINITION OF A NORMAL WORKING WEEK
(SECTION 24)

3. The number of hours constituting a normal week shall not exceed forty-five.

PART II

1. The minimum rate of wages for time work shall be as set out in paragraph 6.

2. A worker of any class specified in this Part shall be paid as wages for any month mentioned in Column I below an amount equal to the minimum monthly rate specified in respect of that class in this Part, if he has worked during the minimum number of working days specified in respect of that month in Column II below:

Provided, however that the minimum number of working days specified in the aforesaid Column II shall be reduced by one in respect of any month which has five Sundays.

For the purpose of this paragraph, any day on which the employer fails to provide work to any worker who presents himself therefor shall be deemed to be a day on which such worker has worked.

Column I Month	Column II Minimum Number of working days	Column I Month	Column II Minimum Number of working days

PART III

OVERTIME RATE

The minimum overtime rate in respect of each hour of work in excess of the number of hours constituting the normal working day or the normal working week shall be the minimum hourly rate (ascertained by dividing the minimum monthly rate by 200) increased by 50 per centum of such minimum hourly rate.

PART IV

WEEKLY HOLIDAYS (SECTION 24)

1. Every employer shall allow one day in the week as the weekly holiday to every worker employed under him, such day being a day agreed upon between the employer and the worker:

Provided, however, that an employer may employ any worker on such weekly holiday subject to the following conditions:—

- that a day within the six days next succeeding such weekly holiday shall, in addition to any holiday or leave or day of absence to which the worker is entitled under the provisions of any decision made by the Wages Board or the Wages Boards Ordinance or any other law or under the terms of his contract of employment, be allowed to that worker as a holiday;
- that in respect of work done on such weekly holiday, the worker shall be paid, in addition to the wages paid on a monthly basis, a remuneration of not less than 1/25 of the minimum monthly rate;
- that for each hour of work performed on a weekly holiday in excess of the number of hours constituting a normal working day under paragraph 2 (a) and 2 (b) of Part I, the minimum overtime rate shall be an amount equal to two and a half times the minimum hourly rate ascertained by dividing the minimum monthly rate by 200; and
- that the remuneration due to a worker for work done on the weekly holiday during any month shall be paid along with the wages payable for that month.

PART V

ANNUAL HOLIDAYS (SECTION 25)

1. (a) In respect of the first year of employment during which any worker has been in employment that worker shall be allowed—

- where his employment commences on or after the first day of January but before the first day of April, a holiday of twenty-one days with full wages;
- where his employment commences on or after the first day of April but before the first day of July, a holiday of 17 days with full wages;
- where his employment commences on or after the first day of July but before the first day of October, a holiday of fourteen days with full wages;

(iv) where his employment commences on or after the first day of October, a holiday of 11 days with full wages, and the employer shall allow such holiday and be liable to pay such wages.

(b) In respect of second or any subsequent year of employment during which any worker has been in employment, that worker shall be allowed to take and shall take a holiday of twenty-one days with full wages, of which not less than seven shall be on consecutive days, and the employer shall allow such holiday and be liable to pay such wages.

2. The holiday referred to in sub-section (1) in respect of any year of employment shall be taken in the year immediately succeeding on days to be agreed upon by the employer and the employee.

3. For the purposes of this section, the continuity of the employment of any worker shall be deemed not to have been interrupted by reason of the absence of that worker from work—

(a) on holiday or on leave, with full wages, in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance or of any other written law;

(b) with the permission or subsequent consent of the employer, whether with or without wages.

4. Where the employment of any worker is terminated, such worker shall be allowed to take and shall take before the date of such termination:—

(a) the holiday with full wages, if any, to which he may be entitled in respect of the year of employment preceeding that in which the termination occurs; and

(b) in respect of the period during which he has been continuously in employment in the year of employment in which the termination occurs:—

(i) a holiday, with full wages, of two days in respect of each complete month if such period is less than nine months, and

(ii) a holiday of 21 days with full wages, if such period is not less than nine months;

and such employer shall allow such holiday and be liable to pay such wages:

Provided, however, that where any such holiday cannot be allowed by reason that the period of notice of termination of employment is insufficient or the employment is terminated without notice the employer shall pay full wages to such worker in respect of each day on which a holiday should otherwise have been allowed.

5. The fact that notice of termination of employment has been given by an employer or a worker employed shall not prejudice the right of such worker to take before the date of the termination of his service any leave to which such worker may be entitled under the preceeding sub-sections.

PUBLIC HOLIDAYS (SECTION 25)

1. (a) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph and of paragraph 2 every employer shall allow as holidays with remuneration to all workers, employed by him, the following public holidays within the meaning of the Holidays Act, No. 29 of 1971:—

1. The Tamil Thai Pongal Day;
2. The day immediately prior to the Sinhala and Tamil New Year's Day;
3. The Sinhala and Tamil New Year's Day;
4. Milad Un-Nabi (Holy Prophet's Birthday);

6. The day immediately succeeding the full moon day of the Sinhala month of Wesak;
7. Republic Day (May 22);
8. Badaranaike Commemoration day (September 26); and
9. Christmas Day.

(b) The provisions of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph shall not apply to a worker in any case where a public holiday, referred to in that sub-paragraph occurs during any period when such worker is on strike.

2. An employer may employ any worker on any such public holiday as is referred to in the preceeding paragraph sub-ect, however, to the following conditions:—

(a) a day on or before the thirty-first of December next succeeding such public holiday shall be granted to the worker as a holiday and that day shall be reckoned as an ordinary working day for the purpose of computing the wage for the month in which such alternative holiday is granted, or

(b) The worker shall be paid in addition to the wage for the month, wages at not less than 1/25th of the minimum monthly rate for work done during the number of hours constituting a normal working day, and at not less than one and a half times the normal hourly rate ascertained by dividing the minimum monthly rate by 200) for work done during each hour (and proportionately for work done for part of such hour) in excess of the number of hours constituting a normal working day.

THE INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES ACT, CHAPTER 131

THE Award transmitted to me by the arbitrator to whom the Industrial Dispute which has arisen between Ceylon Cinema and Film Studio Employees Union, 9, De Mel Street, Colombo 2 and Savoy Theatres Ltd., Colombo 6 was referred by order dated 14th December, 1972, made under section 4 (1) of the Industrial Disputes Act, Chapter 131 as amended and published in the Gazette of the Republic of Sri Lanka No. . 40 of December 29, 1972, for settlement by arbitration is hereby published in terms of section 18 (1) of the said Act.

W. L. P. DE MEL,
Commissioner of Labour.

Department of Labour,
Labour Secretariat,
Colombo 5, 12th July, 1973.

C/I. 670.

A—1208

In the matter of an industrial dispute between

Ceylon Cinema and Film Studio Employees' Union
9, de Mel Street, Colombo 2
and
Savoy Theatres Limited, Colombo 6.

Award

The Honourable the minister of Labour has, by virtue of the powers vested in him under Section 4 (1) of the Industrial Disputes Act, Chapter 131, of the Legislative Enactments of Ceylon (1956 Revised Edition), as amended by Acts Nos. 14 of 1957, 62 of 1957, 4 of 1962 and 39 of 1968 (read with Industrial Disputes (Special Provisions) Act, No. 37 of 1968), and by his Order dated 14.12.72, referred the aforesaid industrial dispute to me for settlement by arbitration.

The matter in dispute is whether the interdiction of Mr. B. A. Gnanaratna (who is a member of Ceylon Cinema and Film Studio Employees' Union) with effect from 2.4.70 and his subsequent non-employment by the Management of Savoy Theatres Limited is justified and to what relief he is entitled.

When this matter was taken up for inquiry on 4.4.73 Mr. N. Shanmugathasan, appeared for the Applicant Union. The Respondent was represented by Mr. C. B. de Silva. During the course of the inquiry, the matter was discussed separately with the parties, then together, and the following settlement was accepted by both parties:—

1. The Employer agrees to pay the sum of Rs. 4,500 in full and final settlement of all claims of the workman.
2. The Employer agrees to give a Certificate of Service to the workman, Mr. B. A. Gnanaratna.
3. The Employer agrees to give, within a week, an uncrossed cheque to the workman who will be accompanied by Proctor Yoganathan, an officer of the Applicant Union, and the workman will give a receipt of acceptance.
4. The Union agrees that they have no further claims against the Employer in respect of this workman.

If the Employer has not paid the money by the date this Award is published in the Gazette of the Republic of Sri Lanka, I direct that the money be sent to the Assistant Commissioner of Labour, Colombo South, or disbursement within two weeks of the date of publication of this Award.

I consider the above terms of settlement fair and reasonable, and make award, accordingly.

M. RAJANAYAGAM,

Arbitrator.

THE INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES ACT, CHAPTER 131

THE Award transmitted to me by the arbitrator to whom the industrial dispute which has arisen between Ceylon Bank Officers' Association, 32, Bristol Hotel Building, York Street, Colombo 1 and State Bank of India, P. O. Box 93, Colombo, was referred by order dated 7th November, 1972, made under section 4 (1) of the Industrial Disputes Act, Chapter 131 as amended and published in the Gazette of Republic of Sri Lanka, No. 36 of December 01, 1972, for settlement by arbitration is hereby published in terms of section 18 (1) of the said Act.

A—1199

In the matter of an industrial dispute between

The Ceylon Bank Officers' Association, 32, Bristol Hotel
Building, York Street, Colombo 1,
and

The State Bank of India, P. O. Box 93, Colombo.

Award

The Minister of Labour by virtue of the powers vested in him under section 4.(1) of the Industrial Disputes Act, Chapter 131 of the Legislative Enactments of Ceylon (1956 Revised Edition) as amended by Acts Nos. 14 and 62 of 1957, 4 of 1962 and 39 of 1968 (read with Industrial Disputes (Special Provisions) Act, No. 37 of 1968), referred the aforesaid dispute to me for settlement by arbitration—vide his Order dated 7th November, 1972.

The matter in dispute between the aforesaid parties is "whether the demand of the Ceylon Bank Officers' Association that pensions in respect of the Ceylonese Officers employed by the State Bank of India as on the 1st April, 1968, should be calculated on the aggregate of the basic salary and the Dearness Allowance and the Rent Allowance drawn by the Officer during the last 36 months of his service and that service of an Officer for purpose of computation of the pensionable period of service should include the number of completed months of service from the date of his first appointment is justified, and to what relief each of the Ceylonese Officers is entitled."

Mr. C. W. Paramsothy, President of the Ceylon Bank Officers' Association, appeared for the Ceylon Bank Officers' Association, while Mr. C. L. Wickremanayake, Advocate, of the Employers' Federation of Ceylon appeared for the State Bank of India.

The matter was taken up for inquiry on 22nd March, 1973, and after a preliminary discussion the parties arrived at the following settlement in Court:—

"It is agreed that pensions would be computed on the basis of the total number of completed years of service calculated from the date of confirmation of an employee in the Bank's service plus five years upon 60 years into the average of the total basic salary plus Dearness Allowance plus Interim Allowance (but excluding Rent Allowance), drawn by the employee during the last three years."

The above terms of settlement are, I consider, fair and reasonable, and it is just and equitable that the monthly pensions of the Ceylonese Officers be payable by the State Bank of India on the basis of the Thalagodapitiya Award according to the formula—

$$\left. \begin{array}{l} \text{Number of completed} \\ \text{years of service} \\ \text{from date of confirm-} \\ \text{ation in the Bank's} \\ \text{service} \end{array} \right\} + 5 \text{ Aggregate of: } \left\{ \begin{array}{l} \text{Basic Salary} \\ + \\ \text{Dearness Allowance} \\ + \\ \text{Interim Allowance} \end{array} \right.$$

60 36 months
(Rent Allowance being specifically excluded from salary and allowances in the calculation) to those in its service as on 1.4.1968.

I make award accordingly,

N. EDIRISINGHE,
Arbitrator.

IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING PUBLICATION OF GAZETTE

THE Weekly issue of the Gazette of the Republic of Sri Lanka (Ceylon) is normally published on Fridays. If a Friday happens to be a Public Holiday the Gazette is published on the working day immediately preceding the Friday. Thus the last date specified for the receipt of notices for publication in the Gazette also varies depending on the incidence of public holidays in the week concerned.

The Schedule below shows the dates of publication and the latest time by which notices should be received for publication in the respective weekly Gazettes. All notices received out of times specified below will not be published. Such notices will be returned to the sender by post for necessary amendment and return if publication is desired in a subsequent issue of the Gazette. It will be in the interest of all concerned if those desirous of ensuring the timely publication of notices in the Gazette make it a point to see that sufficient time is allowed for postal transmission of notices to the Government Press.

The Government Printer does not accept payments of subscriptions for the Government Gazette. Payments should be made direct to the Superintendent, Government Publications Bureau, P. O. Box 500, Secretariat, Colombo 1.

Note.—Payments for inserting Notices in the Gazette of the Republic of Sri Lanka (Ceylon) will be received by the Government Printer and not by the Superintendent, Government Publications Bureau.
