3. Every boat at anchor in any fairway channel shall from sunset to sunrise carry a white light in a lantern so constructed as to show a clear, uniform, and unbroken light all round the horizon at a distance of at least one mile, such lantern to be where it can be seen best, at a height not exceeding 6 ft. above the gunwale.

4. Every boat under weigh at night being overtaken by another shall show from her stern a white light or a flare up light.

Steering and Sailing Rules.

- 5. The following steering directions shall be observed by the tindals or other persons in charge of boats propelled by steam, licensed under the Boats Ordinance, No. 4 of 1900, when under weigh:—
 - (a) When two boats under steam or propelled by gas or electric engines are meeting end on, or nearly end on, so as to involve risk of collision, each shall alter her course to starboard, so that each may pass on the port side of the other.

(b) When two boats under steam or propelled by gas or electric engines are crossing so as to involve risk of collision, the vessel which has the other on her own starboard side shall keep out of the way of the other.

- (c) When a boat under steam or propelled by gas or electric engines and a boat propelled otherwise are proceeding in such directions as to involve risk of collision, the boat under steam shall keep out of the way of the other boat.
- (d) Every boat under steam or propelled by gas or electric engines which is required by these directions to keep out of the way of another vessel shall on approaching her, if necessary, slacken her speed, or stop, or reverse.
- (e) In narrow channels every boat under steam or propelled by gas or electric engines shall, when it is safe and practicable, keep to that side of the fairway or mid-channel which lies on the starboard side of such vessel.
- 6. The following steering directions shall be observed by the tindals or other persons in charge of boats other than those propelled by steam, gas, or electric engines licensed under the Boats Ordinance, No. 4 of 1900, when under weigh:—
 - (a) A boat which is running free shall keep out of the way of a boat or other vessel which is close-hauled.
 - (b) A boat which is close-hauled on the port tack shall keep out of the way of a boat or other vessel which is close-hauled on the starboard tack.
 - (c) When two boats are running free with the wind on different sides, the boat which has the wind on the port side shall keep out of the way of the other.
 - (d) When two boats are running free with the wind on the same side, the boat which is to windward shall keep out of the way of the boat which is to leeward.
 - (e) A boat which has the wind aft shall keep out of the way of the other boat.
- 7. When by the prescribed steering rules one of two boats is to keep out of the way, the other shall keep her course and speed.
- 8. Every boat which is directed by the above steering rules to keep out of the way of another shall, if the circumstances of the case admit, avoid crossing ahead of the other
 - 9. Every boat overtaking another shall keep out of the way of the overtaken vessel.

Rules limiting Pace of Boats.

- 10. No boat propelled by steam, licensed under the Boats Ordinance, No. 4 of 1900, shall be driven at a greater speed or carry a greater pressure of steam in her boiler, when carrying passengers or cargo, than the speed and pressure which the Inspecting Engineer has certified to be the safe limit.
- 11. No boat propelled by steam or gas or electric engines shall be driven on any canal in the Island at a pace exceeding four miles an hour.
 - 12. In bad weather all boats shall proceed at a moderate speed.

Rules providing for the Safety and Comfort of Passengers.

- 13. All boats licensed to carry passengers shall be kept clean, and be provided with comfortable sitting accommodation, and also sleeping accommodation when necessary, for the passengers, and the tindals shall take every precaution necessary to ensure their safety.
- 14. No boat excepting kula boats, ballams, canoes, and catamarans shall be licensed to carry cargo or passengers until it has been measured and its tonnage ascertained.

Rules regulating the Boatmen employed in Licensed Boats.

- 15. No boat shall ply for hire without having on board the number of boatmen specified in the boat license, except with the permission in writing of the proper authority, who, on the application of the tindal or owner of the boat, may in his discretion permit it.
- 16. The names of the crew of every boat licensed under the Boats Ordinance, No. 4 of 1900, shall be endorsed on the license of the boat by order of the proper authority, before whom the crew shall be brought for the purpose; and no change shall take place in the crew of any licensed boat without the sanction of the proper authority.

Rules providing for the issue of Licenses to Tindals and for the recalling and taking away of such Licenses.

- 17. It shall not be lawful for any person to serve in the capacity of tindal of any licensed boat unless such person has been licensed as such under the hands of the proper authority. Any unlicensed person who shall be employed, or who shall act or serve as a tindal of any licensed boat, and any person who shall employ or permit to be employed, or to act, or to serve as the tindal of a licensed boat, any such unlicensed person, shall be guilty of an offence.
- 18. Every licensed tindal shall have his license with him when in charge of the boat to which he has been duly appointed, and shall produce the same whenever required to do so by the proper authority or by any person deputed by him.
- 19. Any licensed tindal serving or engaging to serve as the tindal of any licensed boat to which he has not been duly appointed shall be guilty of an offence.
- 20. No change or transfer of licensed tindals from one licensed boat to another shall take place without the sanction of the proper authority.
- 21. It shall be lawful for the proper authority to recall and take away the license granted to a tindal licensed under the Boats Ordinance, No. 4 of 1900, in case of misconduct, or on his committing any breach of the provisions of the principal Ordinance, or any of the by-laws made thereunder, in addition to any other penalty he may be liable to; and any person serving as tindal of any licensed boat after his license has been so recalled shall be guilty of an offence.

On the 17th instant a Royal Proclamation was issued as follows:--

In pursuance of § 2 of the Quarantine Law of the July 12, 1848, it is hereby announced that the towns of Smyrna in Asia Minor, Osaka in Japan, Rio de Janeiro in Brazil, and Melbourne in Australia, shall, until further notice, be considered smitten with Oriental Plague and subject to quarantine.

At the same time, be it known that the Argentine ports which, by the Proclamation of the 10th March last, were declared pest-smitten, shall no longer be so considered.

Attention is hereby called to the fact that the following are still considered pest-smitten:—Arabia, Persia, India, China, Formosa, Mauritius, Sandwich Isles, New Caledonia, Sydney in Australia, and Ports in Egypt and Manilla.
