Every worker referred to in regulation 4, who has been employed by any employer in the tea growing and manufacturing trade immediately prior to April 1, 1975, shall, for so long as he continues to be a worker of such employer, be so continued to be employed by such employer on such terms and conditions relating to salary, allowance or other payment in money by whatsoever name or designation called as are not less favourable than those which such worker had enjoyed on the day immediately prior to April 1, 1975, and the wage supplement payable under these regulations shall be in addition to such salary, allowance or other payment.

6. The wage supplement payable in terms of these regulations to any worker in the tea growing and manufacturing trade shall, for the purposes of any written law or any other purpose, be deemed to constitute part of his wages.

7. Upon conviction by a Court of an employer for an offence by reason of the failure of such employer to pay any sum required to be paid to a worker under regulation 4, the Court may, in addition to any other penalty it may impose for such offence, order such employer to pay such sum to such worker within a period specified in such order, and if such sum is not so paid, such sum may be recovered on the order of Court as though it were a fine imposed by the Court.
