The Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Representative at Tangier, enclosing the following Regulations respecting quarantine in Morocco, viz.:—

Conseil Sanitaire au Maroc.

Dispositions adoptées le 12 Septembre, 1900, à l'égard des navires arrivant dans les ports marocains ayant à leur bord des passagers musulmans.

I. Ne seront pas reçus dans les ports du Maroc à l'exception de Tanger les bâtiments ayant à leur bord des passagers musulmans qui ne pourront pas ou bien prouver par certificats de l'autorité compétente et à la satisfaction du Conseil Sanitaire qu'ils viennent de faire un séjour de deux mois dans un pays non infecté ou qu'ils ont été soumis à une quarantaine ainsi qu'à la désinfection de leurs personnes et de leurs bagages dans un port ou lazaret européen.

II. Les passagers pèlerins ayant rempli ces conditions ne seront reçus au Maroc qu'au port de Tanger et après que leurs bagages auront été désinfectés par les moyens limités dont dispose le Conseil.

III. Si un bâtiment arrive à Tanger ayant à son bord des passagers musulmans qui ne sont pas munis de certificats en règle, il ne sera admis en rade qu'après une inspection médicale à la suite de laquelle le Président statuera sur le traitement qui lui sera accordé.

Pour les arabes qui se rendront de Tanger à Gibraltar, Algeciras et Cadix, le Délégué Sanitaire à Tanger délivrera, ainsi qu'il est établi à l'Art. IV du Règlement du 17 Septembre, 1896, un billet personnel et valable seulement pour le voyage d'aller et retour ; ce billet devra être rendu au Délégué Sanitaire à Tanger par l'arabe à son retour.

Le Président,
H. E. WHITE.

(F. & H. 13,295.) London, September 28, 1900.

The Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Representative at Asuncion, intimating that all vessels and their cargoes, passengers, and crews clearing from that port for the interior of the Republic, or for other ports, are to be subjected to a thorough process of disinfection, and likewise all ships arriving from Argentine waters will undergo a similar process before obtaining pratique.

(C. 13,296.) London, September 28, 1900.

The Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for the Colonies, the following information respecting quarantine in the Protectorate of Southern Nigeria, viz.:—In consequence of the prevalence of yellow fever in the Senegal ports all vessels arriving in the Protectorate of Southern Nigeria, together with all persons, goods, and merchandise, coming from any of such Senegal ports, shall be liable to undergo quarantine in such place, for such time, and in such manner as may be deemed advisable. No person shall leave such vessels while undergoing quarantine, or have any communication with the shore, or with any vessel or vessels which may have been granted free pratique, nor may any person, except the visiting officer, go on board such vessels while undergoing quarantine, under a penalty of £100 or three months' imprisonment.

(F. & H. 13,333.) London, September 28, 1900.

The Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Telegram from Her Majesty's Representative at Buenos Aires, reporting that vessels arriving from ports declared to be infected or suspicious bringing Sanitary Inspector five and four days' observation respectively. The Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Telegram from Her Majesty's Representative at Montevideo, intimating that Glasgow and Rio de Janeiro are declared infected ; Santos and Scottish ports suspected.

(F. & H. 13,354.) London, September 28, 1900.

The Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Representative at The Hague, enclosing the following Regulations respecting arrivals from Glasgow in Netherlands East India :—

(Translation.)

In consequence of Glasgow having been proclaimed as visited by the plague, all vessels which have come from Glasgow, or which have stopped there on their passage, must, in Netherlands India, remain without communication with the shore or with other vessels, until ten days have passed from the date of leaving Glasgow, or if the plague has appeared on board, until ten days after the last case of illness had terminated.

Further, in Netherlands India is temporarily forbidden the importation of carpets and second-hand embroideries, unless these are conveyed as luggage or in consequence of change of residence; of rags, unworked wool, hair, second-hand bags, brushes, and human hair, untanned hides (including those that are salted or prepared with arsenicum), animal refuse, horses' manes and hoofs of horses and cattle which come from Glasgow or have been transhipped there.

(F. & H. 13,113.) London, September 24, 1900.

The Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Representative at Madrid, enclosing the following translation of a communication received by him regarding the sanitary restrictions adopted in Spanish ports against healthy vessels from Glasgow, viz.:—

(Translation.)

The port of Glasgow (Scotland) was declared foul in the Gazette of August 21, and it was ordered that ships proceeding from that port should, from August 24, be subject to the rules which govern such cases in the "Regulations for Exterior Sanitation" (Reglamento de Sanidad exterior). But in certain ports where there are no sanitary stations, the works for the establishment of a disinfecting apparatus not yet having been completed, steamers arriving in a good state of health, but subject to disinfection, will proceed to the nearest lazaretto, not to undergo quarantine, but to be disinfected.

They will then be immediately granted free pratique.

The following ports possess disinfecting apparatus :—Valencia, Las Palmas, Teneriffe.

(F. & H. 13,186.) London, September 24, 1900.

The Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Representative at Montevideo, intimating that in consequence of the disappearance of plague in Paraguay the quarantine measures hitherto in force have been cancelled, and vessels will be admitted to free pratique if disinfected before their departure, otherwise they will be disinfected at Montevideo. Vessels leaving Paraguay before the promulgation of this Decree will have to undergo the sanitary observation as previously ordered.

(F. & H. 13,210.) London, September 24, 1900.

The Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Telegram from Her Majesty's Representative at Montevideo, intimating that four or five days' quarantine are imposed on arrivals from suspended and infected ports respectively, ten days' if cases on board. Vessels carrying Sanitary Inspector are allowed to count days of departure, but disinfection in any case of cargo.
