Preface

Compilation of bibliographies, directories and indexes on current topics is a project carried out by the National Library and Documentation Services Board. The latest publication of this nature is the “Directory of Library Professionals in Sri Lanka” This directory is useful in different ways. It is useful in searching information on resource persons for training programmes, workshops, seminars etc. This kind of sources are useful in policy making and implementation of programmes for the benefit of library professionals. I am thankful to staff of the Bibliographic Control Division for compiling this directory.

Prof. Somaratna Balasooriya

Chairman

National Library and Documentation Services Board

Introduction

The “Directory of Library Professionals in Sri Lanka” compiled by the National Library and Documentation Services Board is a fulfillment of long felt need. This directory includes basic information on the library professionals in Sri Lanka such as educational and professional qualifications, areas of expertise, place of work, contact information etc. This directory is useful in implementing various programmes for the benefit of librarians and in searching information on resource persons for training programmes, workshops, etc. in library and information science. I am thankful to staff of the Bibliographic Control Division for compiling this directory.
